SCARBORO, Feb. 15, 1901.

School Report.

To the Citizens of Scarboro:

It is our duty as well as pleasure to submit for your perusal the report of the schools of the town of Scarboro for the year 1900. Also to inform you as to the wants of our schools as far forth as we are able.

GENERAL STATISTICS.

I.—CENSUS.

Number of children between the ages of 4 and 21, April 1, 1899. 516

II.—SCHOLARS.

	Whole Number	Average Number
Attendance spring term,	316	255
" fall term,	303	257
" winter term,	261	220

We as School Committee retained our teachers which we had the previous year, in the same schools as far as practicable, which we think is the most profitable to the children, as we find that it is very detrimental to a school to change teachers as it usually takes one term, at least to get back in working order.

We have observed grand results in nearly all of our schools, which we owe to a great extent to the parents as well as teachers as they have worked in unison in nearly every school, which has created harmony between parents, teachers and the School Committee.

We find the parents more interested in the schools than previous years, which is very encouraging to the committee.

We observed in visiting the schools that nearly every schoolroom was neat and orderly and made attractive to the children by having pictures, etc., around the rooms, which drives away that gloomy look about the room, which has existed in past years. This improvement influences the children to do more and better work.

The attendance at the spring term of Oak Hill being so large we found it necessary to have an assistant teacher in the school, so during the summer vacation we fitted up a small recitation room in one corner of the schoolroom, which answers all purposes, but not with the best of conveniences, and at the beginning of the fall term our teachers in this school classified their scholars and began their work, which they have accomplished with good results which proves that where schools can be united so as to be graded we would receive better results.

We have made what repairs we could, under existing circumstances, on our school property. We raised an amount to repair the schoolhouse at Dunstan, with which your committee in that section spent to the best of his ability. Now Dunstan has an attractive school building which is a great improvement over last year.

We should raise a sum of money sufficient to repair Blue Point schoolhouse, which is in very poor condition and place modern seats in the same, the building being so cold that it was impossible for some of the children to attend school; also there are minor repairs on a few of the other school buildings.

We have had thirty-one weeks of school in the common schools; would have continued longer but could not owing to appropriation. We ought to raise a sufficient sum of money so as to have thirty-six weeks of school.

FREE HIGH SCHOOL.

We retained our former teacher, Mr. Percy Fowler Parsons for the spring term, which he taught with the same success as past year and we graduated a class of two from our school, latin scientific course, Etta Adele Libby, Scott Goddard Larrabee, who we think will go forth showing respect and honor for our high school, as many of our former graduates and students have done.

During the summer vacation Mr. Parsons was offered a position in Massachusetts, and sent his resignation to the School Committee of Scarboro which was accepted with regret.

The fall and winter terms have been taught by your Superintendent; the attendance has been good. It is unnecessary for me to make extended remarks.

We would recommend that the following appropriations be made:

For common schools,	$2,000 00
" free high school,	400 00
" supplies, repairs, insurance, etc.,	600 00
" text books,	200 00

This century must be a century of progression, and while we study the past century with pleasure and note much that was inspiring, we must admit that the wants of this century demand a wider range of study, and we must secure a better knowledge of the laws of nature and government.

Whatever the discussions may be for other interests in our town, our schools lead in importance; therefore we ask your careful consideration of the few suggestions proposed.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the citizens of Scarboro, especially to the teachers and School Committee for the courtesy extended me the past year.
