THE PRESS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SETT. 16, '74

EVERY regular attache of the PRESS is furnished with a Card certificate countersigned by Stanley T. Pullen, Editor. All railway, steamboat and hotel managers will confer a favor upon us by demanding credentials of every person claiming to represent our Journal, as we have information that several "bummers" are seeking courtesies in the name of the PRESS, and we have no disposition to be, even passively, a party to such frauds.

We do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are in all cases indispensable, not necessarily for publication but as a guaranty of good faith.

We cannot undertake to return or reserve communications that are not used.

Our Poorest Relations.

Among all the attempts to define that singular animal, man, we do not remember that any one has ever called him the "conceited animal." But self appreciation comes as near being his characteristic quality as any that philosophers have named. Observe how the progress of that good cause, the protection of dumb animals, is retarded by the suspicion that lurks in almost every mind that sympathy so wide as to embrace the brute creation must arise from morbid sensibility. We have been taught so long to regard man as the sole end of creation, and to look upon even the noblest and most intelligent brutes not only as aliens to our race, but as strangers to our consciousness and to our immortality, that many very kindly people summarily arrest the outflow of their sympathies on the human frontier. Assuming the absence of mind and self-consciousness in the new objects of human protection and care, they regard the special effort to promote their security and comfort as sentimentalism run mad. They would as soon weep with a child over an uprooted flower or crushed rose-bud, as over the dimly apprehended sufferings of a horse. This egotism of the human coxcomb has impressed itself on the very language, so that although there is an abundance of good words like "humanity" and "philanthropy" to indicate the kindness of men to each other, there is none, sufficiently well established for use, that is general enough to indicate our interest in our poor cousins who constitute the other families of mammals; and the diligent search after a name suitable to the societies organized for their protection results in the forced adoption of an absurd and cumbrous periphrasis, so long and complicated as to furnish material for infinite jest. Till within a very recent period the widest sweep of humanity only embraced all orders and conditions of man, who calls himself by the mouth of Hamlet "the beauty of the world, the paragon of animals." He who said nihil humanum a me alienum puto—nothing human is foreign to my sympathies—was supposed to have exhausted the possibilities of disinterestedness.

And even some of the warmest friends of the cause of dumb animals are so haunted by the idea that they have been overtaken in a sentiment more befitting feminine susceptibility than masculine reason, that they are much inclined to put in a shamefaced defense that a compassionate forbearance toward dumb animals is to be cultivated chiefly by reason of its reflex influence on the human mind. If we are so superfluously kind toward brutes we shall be quite sure to be considerate toward each other. In other words, they make the prevention of cruelty to animals a means of insuring benevolence among men by habituating the mind to feelings of kindness, like those of the Ancient Mariner toward "all things both great and small." This consideration is certainly not to be overlooked, but it ought not to usurp the place of that which is paramount, namely, that dumb animals are entitled of right, on their own account, as beings capable of pain and pleasure, to humane treatment. Their claims rest on essentially the same grounds as those of children and the weak and dependent of our own race, and they are to be preferred on the score of justice without making any appeal to man's condescension.

Science, working as usual hand in hand with benevolence, gives little countenance to the aristocratic assumptions of our race. Of course the leadership must be accorded to it, but Darwin and his disciples are every day introducing man to his humble relations with hairy coats and elongated spinal columns and industriously tracing back his line of descent till it merges at no great distance in that of the quadrumana. Nor need the "paragon of animals" count with too much assurance on shaking off his despised kinsmen on the threshold of another world and bidding them a brusque good bye as he rushes to meet the superior order of beings whom he expects for associates in another state of existence. Agassiz thought that even a jelly-fish, that amorphous pretender to an organization, might be immortal as well as my Lord Bacon!—a proposition calculated to take the conceit out of the "paragon" if anything could, especially as Agassiz is not one of those philosophers of whom the pulpit is accustomed to speak as promulgators of "science falsely so called," but, on the contrary, is constantly applauded for his conservatism. And if we may be permitted to cite so learned but radical an authority as Huxley, the "beauty of the world" might be brought to a reconsideration of his claim to a special intellectual endowment; for, at the meeting of the British Association for the advancement of science, that celebrated biologist argued that the movements of animals are not due to any inner self-determining power, but are purely automatic. As he did not hesitate to extend this doctrine to man, it follows, if he be right, that we are all automata together and that all our thoughts and actions are the result of molecular changes in the brain and external circumstances over which we have no control. Taking this view, man is only a very complicated machine and is no more warranted in assuming airs of superiority in the presence of a cat, than a locomotive engine is in being supercilious with a buzz-saw.

But we do not need to give in our adhesion to any of these advanced scientific doctrines in order to feel that dumb animals are entitled to humane treatment as a matter of justice and right. To most minds it is obvious that there are employed in the construction and conservation of the universe, intelligences at least as much superior to man as he is to the higher order of brutes, even allowing the gulf between us and our inferiors to be as wide as has been commonly supposed. And what would be our grief and indignation if we apprehended that the celestials regarded us merely as the instruments of their own pleasure or necessity, to be employed in their service without regard to our own comfort, security or happiness? No one need doubt that he is doing God's work and acting in the strict line of his duty toward inferior beings placed in the world in a position of dependence upon man, by helping to make successful the entertainments of the next three days for the benefit of the Portland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of which full accounts will be found in our local columns.

ARKANSAS has suffered some from investing in railroad securities, and does not appear anxious to repeat the experiment. The new constitution framed by the convention lately in session at Little Rock, provides that none of the liabilities of railway companies or their obligations to the state can ever be exchanged, transferred, remitted, postponed, or in any way diminished, nor ever released, if pecuniary, except by payment thereof into the state treasury. Another noticeable feature of the new instrument is that which provides that in prosecution for libel the truth may be given in evidence, and should it appear that it was published with good motives and for justifiable ends the accused shall be acquitted.

ELSEWHERE will be found the full particulars of the revolutionary action of the McEnery faction in seizing the government of Louisiana. The proceedings have been of a most startling character, and it is to be feared that further scenes of bloodshed will follow.

WHEN a Spanish general gets real mad he falls to issuing proclamations in number like the leaves of the forest. Captain General Concha seems to have quite lost his temper and the rapidity with which proclamations are issued from the printing presses of Havana, calling for troops, calling for money, calling for many other needed things, is something wonderful. But those who look to see Cuba crushed by this outburst of exuberant zeal are few, for she has sustained herself through years of bloodshed and tyranny and will not be overwhelmed now by Senor Concha's paper avalanche.

JAPAN boasts of having achieved a victory over China, not on the tented, but on the silk field, having in silk culture driven the celestials out of the market and reduced her own prices about forty per cent. She attributes her victory over her rival and the rapid progress she has made in this great industry to the introduction of American mechanic arts and labor-saving machinery. Considering that quite half her population are engaged in purely agricultural pursuits her progress in other directions is wonderful.

THE Republicans of Somerset have regained that county, which the Democrats, alias People's party, have carried the past two years. Knox county, however, falls back into the hands of the Democracy. Unless Aroostook goes Democratic, the Senate of 1875 will be composed of twenty-nine Republicans and two Democrats.

Current Notes.

Ex Gov. Bullock declines to accept a nomination for Congress in G. F. Hoar's district.

"Dear to the Republican soul is the news from Maine," says the Boston Globe.

From every quarter comes encouraging political home news. The prospect in Pennsylvania, with our excellent ticket, is that we shall carry the state by a handsome majority. —Philadelphia Press.

Now that Moulton's "great statement" has been printed, we may look for Tilton's final document any day. It was promised us immediately after Moulton's reappearance, and it has been described as mainly an "argument." Think of a man's sitting down to "argue" deliberately about his wife's guilt of such a charge!—Albany Journal.

The attempted coalition between the disaffected Republicans and the Democrats in the Nineteenth Congressional district of Ohio having come to a miserable failure the re-election of Gen. Garfield by a commanding majority is now assured. The soreheads and Bourbons mixed about the same as oil and water, the former nominating a Rev. Hurlbert, and the latter Dr. D. B. Woods, an ancient specimen of the Bill Allen or silurian period, who has led the forlorn hope of Democracy for a score of years and is well used to defeat.—Albany Journal.

On sober second thought ex-Governor Curtin will not take the stump for the Democrats. He has authorized the statement that he does not intend "at present to enter into active political movements at all." He fears that in lying down with the Democratic caravan he may get up with repudiation fleas.

From Shreveport came the despatch to New Orleans: "Five more Radicals killed, and firing still going on along the whole line"—which shows the Christian and conciliatory spirit of the White Leaguers.

If the Republicans carry New Jersey this fall, the succession to Senator Stockton's seat is thought to lie between Hon. A. G. Cattell and Secretary Robeson.

We set little value on the "vindication" of a man by his re-election to office. In this case, however, Mr. Blaine is not only re-elected, but he has evidently drawn votes from the ranks of the party which concocted the slanders against him; and while this does not prove his innocence (which has been amply proved in other ways), it does show that his neighbors, even among the Democrats, do not believe them to be true. When unfit men are set up for office, they should be defeated; but when false charges are trumped up to defeat a man who is worthy, they ought to have quite the opposite effect from that they are intended to produce.—Boston Advertiser.

Very little comfort for the Democracy in these Maine returns. The Republicans improve upon their last year's majority on state ticket, and, for the rest, make a pretty clean sweep.—[Springfield Republican (Ind.)

Ohio Democracy.

Last Thursday the Democrats of Ohio opened the fall campaign by a meeting at Columbus, at which Mr. George H. Pendleton, the greenback apostle, made the principal speech. Gov. Allen presided, but the old war horse hadn't a word to say on the currency question. Mr. Pendleton, however, devoted the greater part of his speech to that question. In the course of his speech he tells the country

WHAT CONTRACTION MEANS.

Contraction! Gentlemen, you know what that means. Earnings diminished; the wages of labor reduced; the price of wheat and hogs and corn reduced; the value of stocks on hand reduced; debts increased; taxes increased; money made more powerful; industry made less remunerative; losses and living paid out of the accumulations of the past; bankruptcy to the debtor; idleness to the hungry laborer; stagnation everywhere. Contraction has its counterpart in nature. The cold and freezing winter contracts. The breeze of September sighs for the exuberance of vernal bloom and summer harvests, and foretells the winter from afar. The frosts of October cut down fruits and grass and weeds, and strip the branches of their falling leaves and nip all growing life. November hardens the cold ground and locks the flowing streams in its frozen embrace. Fruits and flowers die, and earth and water, wood and metals—all nature—shrink and dwarf, until fierce December enwraps them in its snowy shroud, and stays them in death-like inertness. Do I overdraw the picture? Look about you, and in the light of the facts see how dim is my coloring.

"Specie payments, and when they are attained, and not until then, free banking." So says the Republican platform. Gentlemen, do you fully understand that provision? I have shown what contraction is. Immediate resumption of specie payments will produce the same results. Every debt will be increased ten per cent. Every salary paid by your government will be increased ten per cent. Every dollar of accumulated capital, every fixed income, will be increased ten per cent. Every article you have to sell—the crops on your land, the cattle in your pastures, the stock in your stores, the machines in your manufactories—will be diminished in price ten per cent.

The Republicans say they will force this result, and then they will have free banking. They will stop business, paralyze enterprise, ruin the debtor, keep idle the laborer, in order to reach specie payments, and then they will establish free banking in order that the banks and bankers may expand the currency at their pleasure. If an expansion of the currency is necessary, why first reduce the currency? I will tell you why. In order that capital may be benefited by the contraction, and that banking capital may be benefited by the expansion; that money may be made more valuable by the contraction, and that the money thus enhanced may at once draw interest on the bonds deposited and profits on the circulation.

"That the circulating medium may be expanded or contracted according to the demands of trade and commerce." Shall the currency be expanded or contracted according to the will of Congress, responsible to the people, or according to the will of the bankers? Shall they be intrusted with this mighty power of hard times or easy times? Shall they make plethora or panic? I would not have the currency the plaything of politics or the football of parties. I would not have the fluctuations—if such there must be—subject to the control of private speculations. I know it is harmful to business. I do not believe it necessary. If I must confide this power somewhere, I would choose to confide it to Congress rather than to the banks. I would say with David of old, "Let me fall into the hand of God, for He is merciful; let me not fall into the hands of man."

Learning nothing by this experience, the Republican party proposes to continue the present contraction, to pay specie for greenbacks, and to buy the specie with gold bearing interest bonds, to cancel the greenbacks, to repeal the legal-tender clause, and to make national banking free. That is, in one word, to harass the people, to enrich the capitalist, to paralyze industry, and stimulate the profits of money-lending and stock-jobbing. And, as if in solemn mockery of every profession as to the necessity of specie payments, banking is to be free on a basis of bonds, and without the equality of legal-tender notes.

The scheme is vicious in every point. to long as we have paper currency let it be legal-tender greenbacks—the cheapest and best paper currency in the world. Let it be as abundant as experience dictates to be necessary. When the industry and wealth of the country shall be sufficiently developed they will be at par with gold, and then specie payments will be resumed. In the meantime trade will flourish, work will be abundant, debts, public and private, will be paid, interest will be saved, and the great want of this new country—perhaps of every country,—low interests—will be supplied. Accumulated capital, I know, produced low interest. So does abundant currency. At all events abundant currency actively employed is the real parent of accumulated capital.

DEATH OF DAVID BARKER.—A despatch from Bangor announces the death of David Barker, Esq., in that city, where he has resided for a year or more. Mr. Barker has spent most of his days in Exeter, where he has practised law. He is best known to the public as a poet, and especially for a number of poems published during the war, among which was "The Empty Sleeve." Mr. Barker was an intense patriot during that struggle, and his articles were among the best produced. His age was about 50.

First Congressional District.

Below we give the vote of all the towns in the First Congressional District, except Cornish and Berwick. In the latter, however, the majority for Mr. Burleigh is given. The returns thus given foot up 11,928 for Mr. Burleigh, 10,531 for Mr. Bradbury, and 1 scattering; Burleigh's majority 1397. Cornish, if its vote is anything like former years, will give Mr. Burleigh from fifty to seventy-five majority, so that his majority will foot up about 1450, or fifty short of our estimate of last night.

STATE NEWS.

ANDROSCOGGIN COUNTY.

The store of Messrs. Atkins & Knight in Livermore Falls, was broken open by burglars Friday night, and the money drawer robbed of from five to ten dollars in change.

KENNEBEC COUNTY.

A very peculiar accident occurred at Branch Mills, China, Saturday evening. A few members of the Lodge of Good Templars were standing at the foot of the stairway leading to the Hall, when one of them, a young lady, started to run up the stairs with an open pen-knife in her hand; her foot slipped and she fell the blade entered her throat just above the collar-bone, making a severe wound. If the blade had been one-fourth of an inch longer it would have severed an artery.

Mr. John Young has been elected Marshal of Hallowell in place of Mr. Fowles, resigned.

KNOX COUNTY.

Cephas Stewart of Rockland, who some two weeks ago sustained severe injurres, died suddenly at Winn, last Saturday morning.

Capt. James W. Thomas of St. George, had his head badly jammed between his vessel and the schooner Telegraph at Thomaston. Injury to the brain is feared.

PENOBSCOT COUNTY.

While a Free Baptist meeting was in session at East Corinth, Friday evening, some sneak thieves ransacked the wagons of the attendants and stole olothing and other articles of considerable value.

It is now reported that men will be at work locating and building the Penobscot Bay and River railroad within ten days.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

A son of Mark Burgess, a Frenchman, aged ten years, was drowned at Fairfield, while bathing, Monday.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Diphtheria is prevailing to some extent in Machias and adjoining towns. Three fatal cases have been reported, two in Jonesboro and one in Machias.

YORK COUNTY.

Mrs. Priscilla Goodwin, aged 63, committed suicide in Sanford, Monday, by hanging, while she was temporarily insane.

Take Courage, Invalids.

Pain and weakness produce despondency, and the invalid who is laboring under bodily torture, debility and mental depression at the same time is indeed in a pitiable condition. But let all who are thus situated take heart. A balm is provided, both for their physical and mental infirmaties, in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Among the commonest sources of pain, uneasiness and melancholy are the diseases which affect the stomach, the liver, the alimentary canal, the nerves and the muscles, such as dyspepsia, bilious disorders, constipation, headache, hysteria, and rheumatism, all of which yield readily to the regulating, invigorating and purifying influence of this peerless vegetable tonic, stimulant and restorative. Take courage, sorowful invalids; you will find the help you need in Hostetter's Bitters.

SEPTEMBER CRIMINAL TERM, 1874, SYMONDS, J. PRESIDING.

TUESDAY.—State vs. Nelson Leighton. The respondent was indicted at the May term for the offence of keeping a house of ill-fame, to which he pleaded guilty. Upon his representation that he would abandon the business sentence was suspended and the case continued. Further complaint was made at this term and another indictment for a similar offence found. Sentenced to imprisonment and labor for the term of one year in the county jail at Auburn in the county of Androscoggin.

Frederick G. Haskell and Henry Martin were each sentenced to imprisonment and labor for the term of eleven months in the county jail at Auburn.

Lewis Smith, for the larceny of a horse carriage and harness, the property of Mr. Robinson, but which has since been returned, was sentenced to ten months imprisonment and labor in the county jail at Auburn.

Edward Conway, for larceny, was sentenced to ten months imprisonment and labor in the county jail at Auburn.

Thomas Clark, Jr., for compound larceny, was sentenced to five years imprisonment in the State prison. This respondent pleaded guilty to two other indictments for like offence which still hang over him. He is an old offender and seems to be thoroughly imbued with crime.

Annie M. Leighton, who pleaded guilty last term to an indictment against her for keeping a house of ill-fame, was sentenced upon that indictment to imprisonment and labor in the county jail at Auburn for the term of one year.

State vs. Jonathan Wilson Watson. Indicted at the May term 1873, for arson, in setting fire to the dwelling house of one Simon Jordan in Cape Elizabeth, on the night of the 20th of January, 1873, other persons being therein. Respondent was tried at the May term, 1873, and convicted. Exceptions were taken and sustained by the law court and the case comes back here for trial.

The jury, as impanneled, are as follows: John Wilson, foreman; Samuel R. Fogg, William Rich, John J. Bodge, Charles Poole, Silas M. Adams, Henry Holden, Jr., Daniel Choate, John T. Lawrence, Orville C. Dunning, George Sawyer, John H. Dennison.

This being a capital case the jury will not be allowed to separate until the verdict is rendered in court. The former trial occupied seven days.

Watson is fifty-three years old and has a wife and one child. His wife is the niece of Simon Jordan, on whose place Watson lived, having taken a deed of the place from Jordan conditioned that he, Watson, should support Jordan and his sister Prudence during their lives. Simon at that time was about 70 years old and his sister some older. After the title passed, as the government alleges, the conduct of Watson changed, and instead being kind and attentive to the old man and his sister, as he had been previously, they got nothing but curses and complaints. Finally Simon Jordan, being unable to remain longer, left the premises and soon after his sister followed. The conditions of the deed having been broken, as Jordan claimed, he commenced an action to recover possession of the property. After some litigation and awards by referees Watson, in accordance with the last award in the latter part of November, 1872, re-conveyed to Jordan, with an agreement that Watson might have, until February, 1873, to move from the place. On the night of the 20th of January this fire occurred.

Fifteen witnesses for the government were called and sworn, after which the court adjourned until Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. The jury will be quartered, under the charge of two deputies, at the Preble House.

Municipal Court.

JUDGE MORRIS PRESIDING.

TUESDAY.—Mary Curran. Open shop. Fined $10 with costs.

John Leonard, Joseph Winslow and John Donovan. Riot. Probable cause. Ordered to recognize in the sum of $300. Committed.

Brief Jottings.

Middle street, between Pearl and Market, is to be paved with granite blocks.

Dr. Buzzell was greatly surprised to read in the Argus yesterday that he had been thrown from his carriage. He says that it was the first information he had received of such an accident.

Three Grand Trunk engines arrived from Providence this morning where hey were changed to narrow gauge.

The receipts from the fair in aid of the Maine General Hospital last year foot up $38,915.81.

The Olympics were beaten by the Juniors, by a score of 25 to 18, yesterday.

There will be a union temperance prayer meeting this (Wednesday) evening at 7½ o'clock in the New Jerusalem Church, conducted by Rev. M. Jones.

The opening of the Portland Museum has been postponed.

Every one who was present at Ward's Opera House last evening thought it was the best entertainment that has been given at that place for a long time.

The minstrel show at City Hall last evening, was well up to the average of similar entertainments.

The late residence of Nelson Leighton is to be sold at auction.

A FINE BLOCK.—J. B. Brown is pushing his Cross street block with his usual energy, three of the stores being already engaged. Hillman & Morrill will occupy the first. The first floor for salesroom, basement second, and third floors for manufactory of straw goods. The second store is to be fitted especially for J. F. Rand, jobber of lace and fancy goods. The third is leased to F. W. Kaler & Co., jobbers of millinery and straw goods. The fourth is to be four stories to correspond in height at the top to the first, making one of the handsomest fronts in the city.

PORTLAND YACHT CLUB.—The Portland Yacht Club have postponed their review, to the 17th, one day later. On the morning of that day, members with their ladies will go on board the yachts at Custom House wharf, and sail for Light House landing at little Hog Island, where a clam bake will be uncovered. After dinner occurs the review, when the entire squadron will participate in the nautical exercises. A short sail among the islands will follow, when the whole company will land at Peaks Island, to partake of a supper, and enjoy the mazey dance.

THE DEERING REPRESENTATIVE—Andrew Hawes elected. As there has been some question respecting the result of the vote for Representative in Deering, one of the town officers furnishes us the result of the official count as follows:

Andrew Hawes	had	334 votes.
A. Hawes	"	1 vote.
		335
Charles E. Morrill	had	328 votes.
C. E. Morrill		3 votes.
		331

Hawes over all 4.

THE LEIGHTONS.—Mrs. Stafford was in great distress of mind yesterday morning. She gave bonds for Mrs. Nelson Leighton a few days since, and yesterday that woman was wanted at the court room to be sentenced. After looking for her some time Mrs. Stafford applied to deputies Williams and Bridges. They visited Mrs. Leighton's residence, but she had left. She soon returned, however, thinking that she was safe, and was about to depart with her trunks. Then she was promptly arrested. At the court room she met Nelson, and they were both sentenced to Auburn jail for one year for keeping a house of ill-fame.

MAINE CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION.—A special meeting of the Maine Charitable Association was held last evening, and it was voted to hold a triennial festival at their hall on Wednesday, the 30th inst. The programme includes a supper, short address by one of their members, to be followed by toasts, Charles Holden, Esq., will be toast master. The supper will be composed almost wholly of fruit.

1st, 10th and 29th Maine Re-union.

The surviving members of the above named regiments, residents in this vicinity, went to Norway yesterday to attend the annual reunion. They numbered about a hundred men. They were accompanied by the Portland Mechanic Blues, Portland Light Infantry, Chandler's Band and many invited guests from the Grand Army and various regimental associations. In the military companies were several members of the Association. The veteran Chandler was the leader of the regimental band of the old 10th. Mr. Walter Thomas, also a member of the present band, was with Chandler in the regiment. There was also a very fair sprinkling of very fair ladies.

The day was somewhat unpromising, but the cloudiness made the march the more agreeable and certainly cast no damper on the spirits of the excursionists. At the Grand Trunk station at South Paris they were met by many other of the "old boys," so that the number was swelled to one hundred and fifty. Here also was the Norway Light Infantry, escorted by the Norway Military Band.

The march was taken up for the village of Norway, two miles or more distant, to the inspirinf strains of the two bands, and with the accompaniment of large numbers of the "Norwegians" and others from surrounding towns. The procession was really fine and must have added great delight to the hospitable residents along the route.

Soon the pleasant and attractive village of Norway appeared in advance, decked with flags and mottoes of welcome, and displaying the gayest holiday attire. From Pike's Hill, opposite the village, as the head of the procession came in sight the party was saluted by the repeated reports of a field piece belonging to the Norway Light Infantry.

The association was halted at Beal's Hotel, which had been most tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion, and then marched into the dining room where a substantial lunch of most excellent composition was spread. In the room were some fine decorations and the motto "1st, 10th, 29th," "Welcome, comrades."

This collation was generously furnished by Gen. Geo. L. Beal, and was gotten up by those who know how to keep a hotel. Meanwhile the several military companies were served with a lunch at the marquee of the Norway company.

After the inner man was attended to, the march was resumed to a pleasant grove at a short distance from the hotel. Here the routine business was transacted, and the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Gen. Geo. H. Nye; Vice-Presidents, Gen. Geo. L. Beal, Lt. Col. Chas. H. Emerson, Maj. John M. Gould, and Maj. Chas. H. Walker; Surgeon, Dr. H. N. Howard; Treasurer, Wm. S. Dodge; Secretary and Historian, Maj. John M. Gould; Orator, Rev. Charles H. Webster; Chaplain, L. G. Jordan; Commissary, Wm. H. Pennell; Executive Committee, Gen. Geo. L. Beal, and Privates W. H. Pennell and J. S. Douglass.

The question of securing a general reunion of all the soldiers from Maine who served in the late war was discussed and warmly endorsed by the association, and referred to the Executive Committee. The place and time of meeting next year was also left to that committee to determine.

The association entered with enthusiasm into the several games of "augur shooting" and "potato picking," and the renewal of old associations.

The three organized companies during this time retired to a suitable place for target practice, and the well plugged boards attested their skill as marksmen.

After these things were over, the whole party was marched to the concert hall, where a most bountiful repast was spread before them by the ladies of Norway. Of this they were cordially invited by A. E. Denison, Esq., in the name of the ladies and citizens, to partake.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the ladies for their most generous furnishing of the table.

After the dinner the various companies of the association assembled by themselves for the promotion of the objects of the reunion, and to take measures to secure a larger attendance, if possible, next year.

The following prizes were distributed:—To Quimby Jumper, for best time at "potato picking," a silver napkin ring; to Alphonzo Holland, the second prize of a similar character.

To Stillman Emerson, for the best "shot" with the augur, a silver napkin ring.

A letter of regret from Gov. Dingley, at his inability to be present, was read by Gen. Beal.

Other letters were read and business transacted, including the passage of resolutions of thanks to Gen. Beal and the ladies of Norway.

During these exercises of the association the uniformed companies formed a hollow square, and their prizes were distributed for target practice.

To Orderly Sergeant Royal M. Fuller of the Norway Light Infantry, a chased gold ring.

To Capt. Reynolds of the Portland Light Infantry, the same.

To Private Albion Harmon of the Portland Mechanic Blues, the same.

Happy and timely remarks were then made by Col. Parker, Capt. Pennell, and Capt. Reynolds.

An enterprising photographer sighted his camera at the command and secured a good picture.

The whole battalion closed the exercises of the day by a grand dress parade, and then took up the march for home, where they arrived about half past nine.

This was the largest and altogether the best re union the association ever held. They are under obligations to the citizens of Norway, to the gentlemanly proprietors of Beal's Hotel, Messrs. Henderson and Houston, to Conductor Partridge of the Grand Trunk, and especially and mainly to the ladies of Norway for their unbounded favors.

The Races To-Day.

Sporting men from nearly every city in New England will be in town to-day. The Faulkner-Regan crew arrived from Boston yesterday morning, accompanied by a large number of their friends. Pools sold rapidly last evening, and everything goes to show that the races today will be all that they have promised to be. If the weather is fine the trains will be crowded all day.

Besides the great races there will be swings, football, dancing, with music by Chandler's Band, the entire day. Trains will return from the races at 5 and 7 p. m.

Lake Sebago presented a busy sight last evening. All the crews were out taking their last exercise before the contest. It is thought that the lake steamers will follow the boats to give those on board a view of the whole race.

Stevens of Bath, has entered for the amateur single scull, since the entries were published. His friends are very confident that he will take the prize. Landers is the favorite in the first-class single scull, while the Faulkner-Regan crew take the lead in the four oared race.

Trains leave at 7.30 and 10.30 a. m., and 1.30 p. m. The double scull race will come off on arrival of the 10.30 train, the single scull at 2 p. m., closely followed by the amateur scull race. The four-oared at 5 p. m.

ANOTHER BURGLAR.—One of our up-town families is getting agitated over a recent attempt at breaking. The head of the family was awakened the other night by hearing a soft footstep on the back stairs. Of course he rushed to the spot, and saw in the darkness the figure of a man coming down the stairs. He shouted to him to halt, but the "burglar" made a rush for the back door, when the gentleman caught him. Then a scuffle ensued, in which the gentleman of the house was struck several times, and the "breaker" left. The family were duly aroused, and it was found that the cause of the trouble was a young man who had been visiting the servant girl, and when he was attacked supposed that he was to be shot, and thought that it was best to get out of the house as soon as possible. No arrests.

PROF. FOWLER.—Prof. I. S. Fowler will lecture at Congress Hall this and Friday and Saturday evenings. His lectures are free. This evening his subject is Human Life and Science. Friday eveding he lectures on phrenology, and Saturday afternoon his subject is female health and beauty. This lecture is delivered to women only. The Professor will hold consultations at the Falmouth Hotel from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily.

WARD'S VARIETIES.—A very large house greeted Ward's Varieties last evening. The programme of the week is meeting with unexpected favor, and calls out large audiences. Miss St. John's sweet voice is a capital entertainment in itself, and we only wish we might hear more of it. The Lopez family, the banjo player and the clog dancer are all excellent in their way. Lola was immense last night in her wonderful leap through the hoop of fire, and her performances on the trapeze.

The Fair.

Portland has a passion for fairs in aid of charitable objects. That she liberally supports them is evident from the success which attended that in aid of the Maine General Hospital a year ago. The pleasures of that enterprise are not yet forgotten, and for a year now the people have been longing for another and similar experience. This evening they will be satisfied, for the grand fair in aid of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals opens at City Hall.

The committee who have had charge of the matter have been untiring in their efforts to ensure success. That their labors have every prospect of their due reward will scarcely be doubted by any who may look into the hall today. The friends of the society have been very liberal in their gifts, and if the public are only as prompt in responding to the call for aid the coffers of this worthy association will be reasonably well filled.

The hall will be opened this morning, and the committee will be in attendance to receive contributions. In the evening Chandler will give a band concert. The room will be beautifully decorated. A large flower stand is to occupy the centre, and booths for fancy goods, &c., very attractively gotten up, will be found near the platform and under the galleries.

To-morrow the hall will be open all day for visitors, and in the evening the amusing and popular farce of "The Little Rebel," will be presented by Mr. Ellis and the charming little Sappho, these artists having kindly volunteered for the occasion. Those who have seen Sappho in this, her favorite role, will be sure to be present. The stage is to be fitted up especially for the purpose, new scenery will be used and a fine orchestra will be in attendance. Friday evening the fair will close with a grand promenade concert, the music to be furnished by Chandler's Band. Mr. Chandler has made out a programme, which embraces some fine selections.

Among the many attractions of the fair will be the flower booth with its attendant deities; a large guess cake from the well known confectionery establishment of C. W. Lucy; a fine easy chair to be given to the minister receiving the most votes; the "house that Jack built," under the charge of Miss Wakefield and Miss Henry; Roger's group of "The School Examination"; many curiosities, embracing a house-bold god from India, a Chinese junk and others; an art department, to be contributed to by Harry Brown, Miss Skeele, Miss Beckett and Miss Buzzell; an assortment of beautiful dolls and doll furniture for the children; a full fancy goods department, under charge of Mrs. J. B. Carroll and others; a household goods department under charge of Mrs. Charles Millett, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. H. H. McDuffee.

Reception Hall will be used for the purposes of a refreshment saloon, and will be under charge of Mrs. A. E. Webb. Contributions for this department and for the floral department are solicited.

The committee desire to thank friends in Bath and Paris, and many dealers in this city, for contributions.

It is unnecessary to advocate the claims of this organization, so worthy of sympathy, support and substantial aid in a community so intelligent as ours. Their object appeals to all generous hearts. Our advice is, call early and often while the fair lasts and help a good cause.

ART NOTES.—The beautiful statue of Evangeline, the heroine of Longfellow's poem, from the chisel of Miss Lander, now on exhibition at Schumacher's, attracts great and deserved attention. Evangeline is represented in a reclining position, asleep, and the time selected is that when Gabriel passes her unconsciously, and she sees him in a dream. The idea of the poet is admirably caught and fixed in marble. Sleep, so difficult to represent in statuary, is here pictured to perfection, and sculptors are warm in their praise of the life like and eminently natural appearance of the statute.

Personal.

Hon. S. F. Perley of Bridgton is seriously ill at Philadelphia, with hemorrhage of the lungs, and Dr. Perley has gone on to bring him home.

E. L. J. Seargeant, Esq., Manager of the Grand Trunk, is stopping at the Falmouth. Yesterday he visited Lewiston in the morning, and in the afternoon looked over the company's property here in this city. Last evening a large number of railroad men called upon him, among the number Superintendent Furber of the Boston & Maine, and this morning they go over the latter's road.

FRUIT AND FLOWERS.—As will be seen by the advertisment the Maine State Pomological, and the Horticultural Societies will unite in a grand exhibition of fruits and flowers at City Hall next Tuesday, to continue four days. A great interest is taken in the exhibition throughout the state and the prospect now is that it will be the largest ever held.

G. A. R. FAIR.—The ladies of the several Ward committees on the G. A. R. fair, and all other ladies interested in the fair are requested to meet at the hall to-night.

The Cadets.

Mr. Editor:—Allow me to call your attention to an item in this morning's paper in regard to Ex-Capt. John Anderson of the Cadets. Capt. Anderson is not to command the Cadets in the coming drill between them and the Sheridan Cadets, and, in justice to Capt. Winslow, I would like to have you correct your statement.

MATTERS IN MAINE.

Somerset Regained.

[Special to Press.]

SKOWHEGAN, Sept. 15.—Returns from twenty towns in Somerset county give 150 Republican majority on the county ticket, and reliable authority says it will reach nearly 250 when the rest are heard from. This is the first time for three years that Somerset has elected her full Republican ticket. A Representative is gained in the St. Albans district.

[By Associated Press.]

Election Returns.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 15.—Returns to the Kennebec Journal office from 224 towns, give Dingley 37,713, Titcomb 29,051; Dingley's majority 8362. In the same towns last year Dingley's majority was 7963.

Further Returns.

Further returns confirm last night's despatches. Two hundred and twenty-four towns show a total vote of more than 66,000, and a majority for Gov. Dingley of more than 9000. This indicate a total vote of 93,000, 13,000 more than last year. Gov. Dingley's majority, if the remaining towns maintain the same ratio, will be nearly 12,000, which is the largest Republican majority since 1868, except in the Presidential contest of 1872, being a net gain of between two and three thousand on last year's majority.

Court—Etection.

ROCKLAND, Sept. 14.—The September term of the Supreme Judicial Court began here to-day. Some important civil cases are on the docket for trial, and the "Annie B." murder case will be tried, and the term will probably continue several weeks.

The election of the entire Democratic county ticket in Knox county is now conceded.

NEW YORK.

A Tammany Reformer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Tribune says that Mayor Havemeyer is to take revenge upon John Kelley, chairman of Tammany Hall, who successfully prosecuted some of the Mayor's appointees, by exploding a political bomb this afternoon. Nelson J. Waterbury states that the Mayor has compiled a document arraigning the Tammany chief, and fortifying his charges by figures, in some places by three parallel columns of figures. Ex-Sheriff O'Brien, Nelson J. Waterbury and Comptroller Green are said to have contributed to the work. The allegations in the document are said to be to the effect that John Kelley, when a Commissioner under the Tweed ring, had obtained sinecures for friends and political followers, and had heavily overcharged the county when sheriff.

An Important Will.

A will has been filed for probnte in the Surrogate's office, under which property valued at $3,000,000, consisting of houses in this city and Brooklyn, mortgages on Catholic churches and government and other bonds, has been given to residents of Spain. The testator is Don Bartoloma Blanco de Lema.

A Swindling Concern.

The Household Sewing Machine Company, supposed to consist of Robert J. Mulligan and two boys, have been arrested. Some of the books were seized, and show a business of thousands of dollars the past year. The company has been pronounced a swindle by the police.

WASHINGTON.

The Safe Robbery.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.——To-day was set down for the trial of Wm. Benton, the safe burglar. Benton was not present and his counsel asked for a further postponement which the court refused, ordering his recognizance of $2000 to be forfeited. The only course now open is to re-arrest Benton, provided he can be found.

The grand jury found a true bill for conspiracy against Richard Harrington, A. B. Williams, and Col. Whitely, Nettleship Cunz, late of the detective service, and others.

Treasury Balances.

The following are the Treasury balances today:—Currency, $15,373,121; special deposit of legal tenders for redemption of certificates of deposit, $39,935,000; coin, $72,511,554, including coin certificates $29,400,740; outstanding legal tenders, $382,000,000.

Various Matters.

The internal Revenue receipts yesterday were $143,572.

SPORTING.

Great Stallion Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—The great stallion race for the championship of the United States, for a purse of $10,000 and four gold medals, was trotted at Mystic Park to-day. The weather was of the most delightful character, being a perfect fall day. The attendance was larger than ever gathered at a race track in this country, being estimated by competent judges at 30,000, and some set the number at even higher figures. The police arrangements were perfect, and there was not an accident or mishap to mar the entire harmony of the occasion. The full list of entries was as follows:—Robert Dalzell, Waddington, N. Y., ns. b. s. Phil Sheridan, by Young Columbus out of Black Fly; H. S. Russell, Home Farm, Milton Mass., ns. b. s. Smuggler by Blanco, dam by Herod's Tuckahoe; Wm. B. Smith of Hartford Ct., ns. blk. s. Thomas Jefferson by Toronto Chief out of Gipsey Queen; John R. Farnham of Waltham, Mass., ns. br. s. Commonwealth, formerly Dread, by Phil Sheridan, dam by Young St. Lawrence; David Nevins, jr., Hill Side Farm, South Framingham, Mass., ns. ch. s. Fearnaught, dam by Abdallah; H. W. Bacon and H. H. Rockwell, New London, ns. b. s. H. H. Allen by Volunteer out of Peg Slender; Chas. E. Raven, New York, ns. b. s. Henry W. Genet by Godfrey's Patchen out of Lady Danvers; A. C. Wallace, Manchester, N. H., ns. b. s. Ned Wallace by Taggart's Abdallah; O. L. Marshall, Providence, R. I., ns. ch. s. Vermont Abdallah by Young America out of Blonde; John R. Poor, Boston, ns. blk. s. Draco Prince by Draco, dam by Black Hawk; Jesse G. Lindell, St. Louis, Mo., ns. b. s. Pilot Temple by Pilot Jr., out of Madame Temple; H. D. Nye and Thomas Foster, Flint, Mich., ns. ch. s. Mainbrino Gift by Relf's Mainbrino Pilot; Daniel Jekins, Glens Falls, N. Y., ns. g. s. Joe Brown by son of Biggart's Rattler, dam by Hambletonian; J. H. Webber, Boston, Mass., ns. b. s. Rex Patchen by Geo. M. Patchen, Jr., out of Dolly Abdallah; C. P. Keeler & Co., Boston, Mass., ns. b. s. Strideaway (since dead) by Black Hawk's Telegraph out of Pocahontas; James Helon, San Francisco, ns. b. s. Sam Purdy by Geo. M. Patchen, jr., out of Whiskey Jane.

Of the above, Strideaway died the latter part of May, and the owner of Sam Purdy dying in June rendered his entry void. This left 14, and just one half came to the track this afternoon, and one of them, Thos. Jefferson, was drawn before the start was made.

The race was won in three straight heats by Col. Russel's Smuggler, Phil Sheridan second, Genet third, and Commonwealth fourth, the first favorite, Gift, being nowhere. The winner was not pushed after the first half in either heat, and trotted the third in 2.20, the fastest on record, with the utmost ease.

In the first heat Mainbrino Gift won the pole, Smuggler was second, Phil Sheridan third, Genet fourth, Vermont Abdallah fifth, and Commonwealth outside.

Second heat.—In the betting Smuggler was the favorite, $79 to $60 for the field. On the second trial the horses were sent away and Sheridan at once put in a burst of speed which sent him to the front. He was followed by Gift, Smuggler, Genet, Commonwealth, and Abdallah in the order named. The race was a very good one around the turn, Sheridan keeping his lead good to the quarter in 36½ seconds. Gift here went into the air and went to the third place, Smuggler beginning to get his work in on the back side. He passed Gift while the latter was in the air, and so fast was he going that before Sheridan reached the half in 1.13⅔ he was to his wheel. The excitement was at fever heat as Smuggler was seen to put in his long strides, and just after the half was passed he went to the front and it was seen that it was all over with the others for the heat, and on the home stretch Sheridan, Commonwealth and Genet tried it for the second place, which was won by Sheridan, Smuggler winning the heat by four lengths in 2.23.

Third heat.—There was a rush to the pool stand, but there was little chance to get even for the backers of Genet. Smuggler was the favorite at $150 to $25, and there were not many inclined for business even at these rates. On the fourth trial the word was given for a good start, all coming up on even time with Abdallah, Sheridan, as in the previous heat put in a dash and went to the front with Gift in the second place. The latter soon broke and Smuggler went in next to Sheridan who led a length to the quarter in 37 seconds. Around turn Genet took the third place, Gift fourth after settling to his work. Commonwealth came next with Abdallah in the rear. On entering the second half Smuggler steadily out-trotted Sheridan and at the half was two open lengths ahead in 1.11¼. From this point home it was the same as in the other heats, Smuggler having it all his own way. Down the home stretch Genet trotted very fast and beat Commonwealth out for the second place, Gift fourth, Sheridan fifth, Abdallah outside the flag. Time 2.20.

More Troops Wanted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Gen. Emory, in a despatch dated yesterday, addressed to Gen. McDowell and sent to the War Department, says he has not troops enough to maintain himself if a conflict should unfortunately occur between the troops, and the insurgents, and further, that the mere presence of the troops has lost its moral effect in preventing or suppressing the disturbances.

Utah Troubles.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 14.—Two Probate courts were held at Toole City, one by Judge Brown, newly elected and non-Mormon, and the other by the former Judge, who refuses to vacate. The United States Marshal attempted to gain admittance to the county court house for the purpose of holding court, but found the door barred inside, and abandoned the attempt, and the court was held in a hotel parlor.

War in Louisiana.

The White League in Arms.

THE McENERY FACTION SEIZE THE GOVERNMENT.

Bloodshed in the Streets.

Gov. Kellogg, Gen. Longstreet, and Others Seek Safety.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 11,—A mass meeting called together to protest against the seizure of arms of private citizens, adopted resolutions requesting the immediate abdication of Gov. Kellogg, and appointed a committee to inform the Governor of their action. The Governor did not receive them, but sent an answer by Gen. Dibble of his staff, refusing to receive any communication from them, because he claimed to have information that several large bodies of armed men were gathered in the city under the same call that convened the meeting. This he regarded as a menace. The committee replied that there were no armed rioters, and that they came on a mission of peace, believing if the Governor would abdicate it would pacify the people of Louisiana. The Governor still refused to treat with them, and the committee departed and reported the result of this interview to the meeting. The people were then advised to go home, get their arms and ammunition, and return to assist the White League, who were then under arms, to execute the plans that would be arranged for them. The people then quietly dispersed. Afterwards quite a large number formed in procession and marched up Camp street.

D. B. Penn issued a proclamation as Lieut. Governor, in the absence of McEnery, reciting that an appeal after appeal for relief from the Federal Government had failed, and the oppressions of the usurping State authorities had become too great longer to be borne, he therefore called upon the militia, including all males between eighteen and forty-five, without regard to color or previous condition, to assemble under their respective officers to drive the usurpers from power.

To the colored people he issued another proclamation, assuring them that no harm was intended them, their rights or property, as the war was against the thieves, plunderers and spoilers of the state, who are involving both races in common ruin.

By 3 p. m. large bodies of armed men were stationed at the intersection of all the streets on the south side of Canal street, from the river to Claiborne street, and about 4 p. m. a body of Metropolitans, numbering about 200, with cavalry and artillery, under command of Gen. Longstreet, appeared at the head of Canal street and took a position. Some desultory firing soon after occurred along Canal street, and some few casualties are reported on both sides.

The colored Metropolitans broke and ran at the first fire, and the citizens captured one piece of artillery. This left their white comrades unsupported, and it is reported that between twenty and thirty were killed.

Gen. A. S. Badger, commanding the Metropolitans, received three buckshot wounds, one through the leg, one through the arm, and another through the body. His leg has since been amputated.

The citizens have barricaded the streets between Poydras and Canal streets with street railroad cars. They have captured City Hall and the fire alarm telegraph.

The Metropolitans are massed in around Jackson square and the St. Louis Hotel. There is one company of United States troops here but they remain at the Custom House, spectators of the lively scene.

The impression now prevails that no further attempt will be made by the Metropolitans to disperse their opponents, who handled them so roughly this afternoon. The city is remarkably quiet throughout, and no further conflict is apprehended before morning.

Later—All Quiet.

Midnight.—The city is now quiet. Six Metropolitans were killed and thirty-six wounded. Eight wounded citizens have been received at Charity Hospital.

Despatches received from General Emory through the War Department from New Orleans are brief and contain nothing new apart from the press despatches, which they confirm.

The President, in conversation to-day, expressed surprise at the conduct of the opponents of the Kellogg government in resorting to arms to maintain their political position, or in other words, inaugurating a civil war. He had to many citizens of Louisiana expressed a kindly disposition toward the people, and hoped for better things, but it seems they had misjudged if they thought a resort to violence on their part would pass by unnoticed by the government. In this connection he incidentally remarked that prompt measures would suppress further disturbances, and a similar course would have saved the country from the late rebellion. After signing the proclamation the President himself wrote two orders addressed to the commanders, saying in effect that they must protect life.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—The State House surrendered at 7 o'clock this morning to Lieut. Gov. Penn's militia without firing a gun. Gov. Penn's militia are about 10,000 strong. All the state and city property, police stations, arsenals and police and fire alarm telegraph are in possession of the League.

The entire force of the metropolitan police, Kellogg's militia, &c., with arms, arsenals, &c., surrendered at 9 o'clock a. m. to the citizens or Penn militia. Kellogg, Longstreet and other have taken refuge in the Custom House.

Lieutenant Governor Penn has taken the reins of government, and will at once install in office all those who were voted for on the same ticket with McEnery in 1872. The courts will at once be organized, and the entire machinery of government set in motion, not only in this city, but throughout the state.

The following despatch was sent last evening by Acting Governor Penn to the President of the United States:

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14, 1874.

To U. S. Grant, President of the United States:

Hopeless of all other relief, the people of this state have taken up arms to maintain the legal authority of the persons elected by them to the government of the state against the usurpers who have heaped upon them innumerable insults, burdens and wrongs. In so doing they are supported by the great body of intelligent and honest people of the state. They declare their unswerving loyalty and respect for the United States Government and its officers. They war only against the usurpers, plunderers and enemies of the people. They affirm their entire ability to maintain peace and protect the life, liberty and equal rights of all classes of citizens. The officials of the United States it shall be our special aim to defend against all assault, and to treat with the profoundest respect and loyalty. We only ask of you to withhold any aid or protection from our enemies and the enemies of republican rights and the peace and liberty of the people.

D. B. PENN,
Lieutenant Governor and Acting Governor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The President has received from Governor Kellogg by telegraph an application for aid to protect Louisiana from domestic violence, it being made in accordance with article 4, section 4, of the constitution of the United States.

The President has just issued the following proclamation:

Whereas, It has been satisfactorily represented to me that turbulent and disorderly persons have combined together with force and arms to overthrow the state government of Louisiana, and to resist the laws and constituted authorities of said state, and,

Whereas, It is provided in the Constitution of the United States that the United States shall protect every state in this Union on application of the Legislature, or the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, against domestic violence; and,

Whereas, It is provided in the laws of the United States, that in all cases of insurrection in any state, or of obstruction to the laws thereof, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States on application of the Legislature of such state, or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot convene, to call for the militia in another state or states, or to employ such part of the land and naval forces as shall be judged necessary for the purpose of suppressing such insurrection, or causing the laws to be duly executed; and,

Whereas, The Legislature of said state is not now in session and cannot be convened in time to meet the present emergency, and the Executive of said state, under section four of article four of the constitution of the United and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, has therefore made application to me for such part of the military force of the United States as may be necessary and adequate to protect said state and the citizens thereof, against domestic violence, and to enforce the due execution of the laws; and,

Whereas, It is required that whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, to use the military force for the purpose aforesaid, he shall forthwith by proclamation command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective homes within a limited time,—now, therefore, I, U. S. Grant, do hereby make a proclamation, and command said turbulent and disorderly persons to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes, within five days from this day, and hereafter submit themselves to the laws and constituted authorities of said state, and invoke the aid and co-operation of all good citizens thereof to uphold the law and preserve the public peace.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 15th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1874, and of the Independence of the United States the 98th.

NEW ORLEANS,

POETRY.

Story on Sumner.

From a Poem by the Sculptor in Blackwood's for September.

Yes, in our memory, long as sense remains,
That stalwart frame shall live, that voice whose strains,
To lofty purpose pitched, struck like a fire
Into our blood, and thrilled through all our veins.

That full, sonorous voice, whose high-strung key
Was tuned to Justice and to Liberty—
That sounded like a charge to rouse the world
From the deep slumber of its apathy.

Not these alone; we shall remember, too,
The kind, familiar tones of love we knew,
The genial converse and the storied lore,
The cultured charm that every listener drew.

The gladsome smile, the gleam of quick surprise,
That thrilled the face and lightened through the eyes
The uplifting brow, the utterance frank and clear,
And all that sullen death to sight denies.

Alas! how idle are the words we say!
How poor the tribute on your grave we lay!
Nor praise nor blame shall cheer or trouble more
The parted spirit of the insensate clay.

Vain friendship's voice, and vain the loud lament
A nation breathed as o'er your bier it bent;
Vain unto you that, as you passed away,
A shadow darkened down a continent.

Rest, then, brave soldier, from the well-fought fight!
Rest, genial scholar, from the dear delight
Of arts and books! Rest, steadfast, stainless friend!
Forever ours—though lost to sense and sight.

Stern duty's champion, at thy bier we bow!
Brave, honest, faithful to the end—thy vow
To God and Freedom kept—unbribed, unbought:
Rest thee—or rise to loftier labors now.

Private to Young Men.

BY M. QUAD.

Don't be too sudden about it. Many a girl has said "no," when she meant "yes," simply because her lover didn't choose the right time and pop the question gentle.

Take a dark night for it. Have the blinds closed, the curtains down, and the lamp turned most out. Sit near enough to her so that you can hook your little finger into hers. Wait until conversation begins to flag, and then quietly remark;

"Susie, I want to ask you something."

She will fidget around a little, reply "yes," and after a pause you can add:

"Susie, my actions must have shown—that is, you must have seen—I mean you must be aware that—that—"

Pause here for a while, but keep your little finger firmly locked. She may cough and try to turn the subject off by asking you how you liked the circus, but she only does it to encourage you. After about ten minutes you can continue:

"I was thinking as I came up the path, tonight, that before I went away I would ask you—that is, I would broach the subject nearest my—I mean I would know my—"

Stop again and give her hand a gentle squeeze. She may give a yank to get it away, or she may not; in either case it augurs well for you. Wait about five minutes and then go on:

"The past year has been a very happy one to me. But I hope that future years will be still happier. However, that depends entirely on you. I am here to night to know—that is, to ask you—I mean I am here to-night to hear from your own lips the one sweet—"

Wait again. It isn't best to be too rash about such things. Give her plenty of time to recover her composure, and then put your hand on your heart and continue:

"Yes, I thought as I was coming through the gate to-night how happy I had been, and I said to myself that if I only knew you would consent to be my—that is, I said if I only knew—If I was only certain that my heart had not deceived me and you were ready to share——"

Hold on—there's no hurry about it. Give the wind a chance to sob and moan around the gables. This will make her lonesome and call up all the love in her heart. When she begins to cough and grow restless, you can go on:

"Before I met you this world was a desert to me. I didn't take any pleasure in going blackberrying and stealing rare-ripe peaches and it didn't matter whether the sun shone or not. But what a change in one short year! It is for you say whether my future shall be a prairie of happiness or a summer fallow of Canada thistles. Speak, dearest Susie, and say—and say that—that——"

Give her five minutes more by the clock and then add:

"That you will be—that is, that you will—I mean that you will be—be mine!"

She will heave a sigh, look up at the clock and over to the stove, and then as she slides her head over on your vest pocket, she will whisper;

"You are just right I will!"

LAWS

UNITED STATES

PASSED AT THE

First Session of the Forty-Third Congress.

[GENERAL NATNRE—No 61.)

AN ACT prohibiting the publication of the Revised Statutes of the United States in the newspapers at the expense of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the revised statutes of the United States and no part thereof shall be published in the newspapers at the expense of the United States.

Approved, June 20, 1874.

[GENERAL NATURE—No.] 62.)

AN ACT making appropriations for the payment of invalid and other pensions of the United States for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the payment of pensions for the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

For army pensions to invalids, widows, and dependent relatives, revolutionary pensions, and pensions to soldiers of the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, and for furnishing artificial limbs or apparatus for resection, with transportation or commutation therefor; also, for compensation to pension agents, and the expenses of the several agencies and for fees for preparing vouchers and administering oaths, as provided for by the acts of April twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and sixteen; July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six; May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six; February twentieth, eighteen hundred and forty-seven; February second, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; July twenty-first, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; July twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; February third, eighteen hundred and fifty-three; June third, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; July fourteenth and seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two; June thirteth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four; June sixth and July twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six; July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; June seventeenth and July eighth and eleventh, eighteen hundred and seventy; February fourteenth and June eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one; February twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two; and March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three; and all other pensions provided by law, twenty-nine million five hundred thousand dollars.

For navy pensions to invalids, widows, and dependent relatives, and pensions to sailors of the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, and for furnishing artificial limbs or apparatus for resection, with transportation or commutation therefor; commutation to pension agents, expenses of agencies, and fees for preparing vouchers and administering oaths, as provided by the acts of April twenty-third, eighteen hundred; February twentieth, eighteen hundred and forty-seven; August eleventh, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; July fourteenth and seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty two; June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty four; June sixth and July twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six; March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven; July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; June seventeenth and July eighth and eleventh, eighteen hundred and seventy; June eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one; February twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two; and March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three; and all other pensions provided by law, four hundred and eighty thousand dollars: Provided, That the appropriation aforesaid for navy pensions, and the other expenditures under that head, shall be paid from the income of the navy pension-fund, so far as the same may be sufficient for that purpose: Provided further, That the fees for preparing vouchers and administering oaths, which are now by law thirty cents in each case, shall hereafter be twenty-five cents for the same and no more.

Approved, June 20, 1874.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 63.]

AN ACT to fix the time for the election of Representatives in the Forty-fourth Congress from the State of Mississippi.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the election for Representatives in the Forty-fourth Congress, from the state of Mississippi, shall be holden on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, anything in the constitution or laws of said State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Approved, June 20, 1874.

No Extra Insurance to Pay!

No Danger from Explosion—No liability to get out of Order.

In short it is the SIMPLEST, SAFEST, most DURABLE and most ECONOMICAL Engine in the world. We fully guarantee them in all the above particulars. COLT'S ARMS CO. have spared no expense in getting up SPECIAL TOOLS AND MACHINES with which to build these Engines, so that every part is made up to gauge, and are perfectly interchangeable. the importance of which will be understood by all who are at all familiar with machinery. Thus, every Engine of a given size is an exact duplicate of every other one of that size, and in case of breakage, the broken part can be immediately replaced by its perfect duplicate.

The inventor of this Engine had in view, in its construction, the great need that exists for a perfect Steam Engine—of small power—adapted to all kinds of light mechanical work, and that should also combine all that is good in Steam Engineering.

The first point was, to secure a perfectly philosophical Boiler and Furnace, in order to insure the most perfect combustion, and to take up the greatest possible amount of heat in generating steam.

The second point was, to make a perfect cut-off Engine, working steam expansively, and keeping up the temperature of the cylinder to prevent loss by radiation or condensation.

The third point was, to combine and make the whole a mechanically and scientifically correct machine; all its parts being provided with means to take up loss motion, so that it may be used for any number of years, and always run smoothly. In all these particulars as much care has been taken as in the largest and most perfect engine ever constructed.

The result is—THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF POWER PROPORTIONED TO THE AMOUNT OF FUEL CONSUMED—thus proving the fact—well known to men of science—that water is the best medium to transmit the mechanical forces, generated in the combustion of fuel, to the production of motive power.

Notice of Foreclosure and Sale.

WHEREAS James C. Perry of Portland, County of Cumberland and State of Maine, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by his mortgage deed of that date, recorded in the York County Registry, Book 328 Page 179-3, conveyed to Nathan Hill of Rollinsford, County of Strafford and State of New Hampshire, a certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Kennebunkport, at Cape Porpoise, in the County of York and State of Maine, and bounded on the Northeast by James Emmons' land, on the Southeast and Southwest by W. H. Hutchins' land, and on the Northwest by the Mills road, with authority in the case of the breach of the condition in said mortgage to sell said premises at auction and from the proceeds to pay the debt secured thereby.

And whereas the condition of said mortgage deed has been broken by said Perry, this is to give notice that said lot of land and buildings thereon will be sold at public auction, on said premises, on the 21st day of September, 1874, at one o'clock in the afternoon, for the reasons and purposes aforesaid.

JURUBEBA.

ARE YOU

Weak, Nervous, or Debilitated?

Are you so Languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making?

Then try JURUBEBA, the wonderful tonic and invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secretive organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces.

It is no alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen.

It regulates the Bowels, quiets the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a new person.

Its operation is not violent, but is characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles

"Fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And silently steal away."

This is no new discovery, but has been long used with wonderful remedial results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known"

Treatise on Nervous Diseases,

—AND THE—

Cordial Balm of Syricum.

During the year 1865 Dr. G. Edgar Lothrop had a new and peculiar drug, from the interior of Africa, brought prominently under his notice by the very strange effect it produced on an animal who had accidentally swallowed a large quantity. Owing to this circumstance he was led to make many experiments on the lower animals, and he soon discovered that it had a very peculiar effect on the Nervous System. This induced him to experment both on himself and some of his patients, and such was the wonderfully beneficial effects, and so rapid the cure of those afflicted with nervous diseases, that Dr. Lothrop came to the conclusion that he had discovered a new and valuable addition to the medicines of the pharmacopœa. He soon found that this medicine, in conjunction with some others, cured nervous diseases of all kinds with a certainty and rapidity of which he had no previous conception.

A few words on that special disease generally known as Nervous Debility or Weakness. This is in most cases brought on by total ignorance of the fearful pernicious effects, but it is also brought on in many cases brought on through no fault of the person afflicted, but by disease, long confinement, and several other causes—but in all cases the effect on the constitution is the same. Heretofore, there has been no cure for this disease, but Dr. Lothrop, having put up this medicine in the form of CORDIAL BALM OF SYRICUM AND TONIC PILLS, combined with other medicines, offers them to all sufferers as a safe and speedy cure. Our Lunatic Asylums are full of patients, in many cases brought thither by the effects of Nervous Debility. Many thousands suffer in silence, hopeless of relief, having often been deceived by unprincipled quacks. Such is not the case with Dr. G. Edgar Lothrop's CORDIAL BALM OF SYRICUM AND TONIC PILLS. A very short trial will demonstrate their efficacy.

Any who suffer from the effects of over indulgence in tobacco, or alcoholic stimulants, Palpitation of the Heart, St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy, Nervous Headache, Sleeplessness, Restlessness during Sleep, Loss of Memory, Irritability, Nervousness, Twitching of the Nerves, and all other Nervous Diseases, will find this medicine a real blessing.

Should any person into whose hands this notice comes, have a friend whom he knows or thinks is afflicted with any Nervous Disease, Nervous Debility, etc., he will confer a real kindness on his friend by sending it to him, so as to give him an opportunity of being cured by the use of Dr. Lothrop's CORDIAL BALM OF SYRICUM and TONIC PILLS.

Sold by all Druggists.
