The Great Danger.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 3.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company was held this afternoon. Treasurer T. Jefferson Coolidge presented a long and exhaustive report, saying that if it were not for the growth of free trade feeling over the country, he should have no anxiety for the prosperity of the corporation for years to come. Free trade, he said, would lead to a diminution of profits and the lowering of wages, and after a long struggle the cotton mills of New England would have to close.

THE BAPTISTS.

Yesterday's Sessions of the Anniversaries at Lewiston.

[Special to the Press.]

LEWISTON, Oct. 3.—This forenoon the session of the Maine Baptist Missionary Society was devoted to the different women's societies. Addresses were delivered by Miss Merriam, of Boston, Rev. Mr. Rhoades, of Boston, Dr. Mason, of the Home Mission Society, Rev. C. E. Cochrane, a returned missionary. The right hand of fellowship was extended to Rev. D. B. Gunn, Rev. Mr. Fletcher, Rev. C. W. Colby and Rev. A. Green.

MAINE BAPTIST EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

The society met at two o'clock p. m., Rev. W. S. Roberts, of Rockland, president of the society in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. T. T. White, of Bath. President Roberts addressed the society concerning its work. After the appointment of committees and report of the treasurer, the secretary made his report, which was followed by reports of committees on Colby University, Coburn Classical Institute, Hebron Academy and Ricker Classical Institute. The reading of the reports was followed by addresses. Among the speakers were Rev. L. S. Tripp of Rockland, Judge Bonney of Portland, Rev. H. B. Marshall of Cape Neddick, Principal W. E. Sargent of Hebron Academy, Rev. A. R. Crane, D. D., and Rev. C. M. Emery. About one thousand dollars were contributed toward the new building at Hebron.

The annual sermon was then preached by Prof. Shaller Mathews, of Colby University, who announced as his text 1 Cor. 22. He said in Paul's determination to know nothing but Christ and Him crucified, a lesson in the handling of truth, and the preacher noticed, first, the limitations indicated by the phrase, Paul preached a crucified Saviour. His discourses noticed in the Acts show that he preached Christ (1) as the Christ of prophecy; (2), as the Christ of experience, and (3) as the Christ of hope.

The committee on nominations reported, and the following officers were elected: President, R. C. Emery; vice-president, Rev. T. F. White; secretary, Rev. J. S. Ryder; treasurer, Rev. W. H. Spencer; auditor, Prof. E. W. Hall, and a board of directors.

Mrs. O. W. Gates spoke of the work of aiding young women who are preparing for Christian service.

Adjourned after prayer by Rev. G. P. Mathews, D. D.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The Educational society was addressed in the evening by Prof. J. B. Thomas, D. D., professor of church history in Newton Theological Institution. It was an address of marked power, to which a large audience listened with the deepest interest. The first part of the service was a jubilee service.

LIGHT FOR AUGUSTA.

Electricity And Other Matters of Interest at the State Capital.

[Special to the Press.]

AUGUSTA, Oct. 3.—The city is about making a contract with the electric light company for the lighting of the streets, there now being thirty-five arc lights erected on trial. The proposition is to have fifty lights at an annual rental of $75, making an aggregate of $3,750. The executive council at their last session had under consideration the placing of two arc lights—one at the rear and a second in front of the State House—at a cost of $150 a year. The matter was laid over until the next meeting of the council. It is probable that the next legislature will take action regarding the lighting of the State House by electricity. Five lights have been considered, but they do furnish illumination for the approaches to the Insane Hospital.

The next annual meeting of the Maine Press Association will be held in Augusta about the 20th of January. One of the pleasantest features of the occasion is the reception and it is reported that Capt. C. A. Cabbagh, treasurer of the National Soldiers' Home, Togus, will give it.

Nothing will be done this season towards improving the channel of the Kennebec river. No funds were forthcoming for defraying the expenses of a working survey.

MAINE.

HALLOWELL, Oct. 3.—The re-appearance of diphtheria at Hallowell is causing considerable uneasiness. Last winter there were upwards of fifty cases of diphtheria in this city, and several deaths. The present outbreak is at Granite Hill, six cases having developed there thus far.

A Fifteen Thousand Dollar Fire.

SKOWHEGAN, Oct. 3.—The works of the Fiberite Manufacturing Company were gutted by fire this morning, burning the wooden building to ground, and burning the roof and upper part of the main building, leaving the brick walls and machinery in the lower story in a damaged condition. The loss cannot be determined, but it is estimated at $15,000, including the building, machinery, goods manufactured and in process of manufacture.

Not Guilty.

ALFRED, Oct. 3.—In the Supreme Judicial Court today, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of State vs. Hiram Evans, indicted for perjury.

Yellow Jack's Work.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—Dr. Neal Mitchell, president of the board of health issued the following official bulletin for the 24 hours ending at 6 p. m.:

New cases, 73; deaths, 6; total cases, 2896; total deaths, 270. Of the new cases 32 are white and 41 colored.

DECATUR, Oct. 3.—The cold wave has made the outlook more encouraging. Four cases have been reported during the last 24 hours, besides one or two doubtful ones. Two deaths have occurred.

Mr. Aaron King, for more than thirty years a well known railroad conductor, died in Nashua, N. H., yesterday morning. He was 70 years of age. Mr. King was a conductor on the Northern & New London railroad and the Nashua & Worcester, and for a time was division superintendent of the Nashua & Rochester. He was prominent in charitable, church and fraternal society work, but retired from railroad life some years ago.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE WEATHER.

Scarboro Farmers Meet At Pleasant Hill Fair Grounds.

An Exciting Race Won by Kite, A Portland Horse.

Oxford County's Show Likely to Beat the Record.

The thirteenth annual fair of the Scarboro and Cape Elizabeth Farmers' Association began at the Pleasant Hill fair grounds yesterday. The exhibition was announced to come off Tuesday and Wednesday, but the first day was postponed on account of the storm until yesterday. Despite the cold weather there was a large number of people present who shivered in the cold, bleak winds during the races which were exciting and sharply consisted.

Yesterday was neat stock day and but little was done outside of examining the stock by the committees chosen for that purpose. There was a very good exhibit of stock considering the fact that the weather has been so rough that the farmers would not bring their cattle out. The oxen especially are worthy of mention.

The hall exhibition was excellent and the many things there shown will equal, we dare say, those exhibited at other fairs of this kind previously given. A very fine showing of vegetables and apples was made. Many of the premiums were not given out yesterday as the committees have not all yet made reports. Most of the prizes will be awarded today.

The trotting races came off at 2 p. m., and were very interesting throughout, that of the 2.38 class being especially so, in fact. In the three minute class J. S. Jordan's horse Gray Chief carried off the first honors, having won the race by three straight heats, while Martha R., owned by F. C. Nutter, took second money.

Some very fine trotting was done by F. A. Maxwell's favorite steed Kite, which flew like a real kite over the race course. Following is the score:

The following premiums were awarded yesterday:

Best team oxen—First prize, B. S. Larrabee; second prize, Charles Hanson.

A first class farmers' dinner was served in a tent adjoining the hall. The fair will be continued today.

Oxford County Farmers.

[Special to the PRESS.]

SOUTH PARIS, Oct. 4.—The Oxford County Agricultural Society's exhibition opened today. The attendance was large. Among the guests from abroad was Gov. S. S. Marble, who is here the guest of Gen. G. L. Beal, Councillor Rand of Locke's Mill; Hon. Don Powers, of Houlton; Hon. Geo. Bishop, of Buckfield, and A. E. Herrick, Esq., of Bethel.

For many years, Oxford county farmers have been noted for the enterprise and the success of their fairs. The show of fine stock Thursday promises to be the best ever seen on the grounds. Brett of Otisfield, Maxim of Paris, the Milletts of Norway, Young of the Mountain View Farm, and Flint of Waterford have their herds here today.

The hall presents its usual attractions.

The three year old race was won easily by Westland, which is today one of the best colts in Maine. Messrs. Bartlett Brothers, the owners, have other nice horses on the grounds.

The 2.34 race was close and very exciting. Fatinitza, owned by T. Thayer, C. S. P., owned by C. S. Page, and Kitty Waite, owned by Andrews & Thayer, were the competitors. The first heat was won by Fatinitza, with Kitty Waite a good second. In the second, C. S. P. came to the front on the last quarter and won the heat. The third heat was the closest ever witnessed here and there was much excitement. Fatinitza or C. S. P. made the wire first, but the judges said Fatinitza. In the fourth Kitty Waite led off and was headed by Fatinitza who held the pole until the last quarter when C. S. P. again headed the mare, but the little mare by a burst of speed won the heat and race when within ten rods of the wire; fastest time, 2.37½.

Chandler's Band will be in attendance tomorrow.

With the Usual Rain.

DOVER, Oct. 3.—The fair of the Pascataquis Central Agricultural Society, postponed from two weeks ago, began today with the usual rain. There was quite a good show of stock considering the weather, but the display in the hall was small, and few people were present. To-morrow will be taken up with the exhibition of horses and trotting.

The Franklin County Fair.

FARMINGTON, Oct. 3.—The annual cattle show of the Franklin County Agricultural Society began here today and was quite largely attended in spite of the cold and cloudy weather. The display of cattle was large and fine, being better than in previous years.

Fairfield's Centennial.

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 3.—Today the town of Fairfield opened a three day's fair, which will close on Friday with a celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the town's incorporation. Today is the important day for the farmers. All the best horses, sheep and swine for miles around are on exhibition and compete for the ribbons with as much eagerness as though prizes of solid gold were offered. Tomorrow will be the horse day at the track. This will bring out all the good animals in the vicinity. Lawrence, Broadway, also a host of other noted animals with others of much merit will share the compliments of the throng. All the halls will be in fine order at an early hour and the crowd will pack them full all day. At 11 o'clock the music talked of and much worked for cavalcade will form on West street and parade the town. In the afternoon the races will be trotted at the track.

Friday morning occurs the centennial exercises proper. If the day should be warm and pleasant they will be held out of doors, otherwise in one of the churches. At 10.30 a. m. Hon. H. M. Heath, of Augusta, will deliver the centennial address and N. W. Brainard, Esq., will read an interesting historical sketch of the town. In the afternoon there will be races at the park. In the evening will come the baby show at Pease's hall. This promises to be a very interesting feature.

Races Postponed.

BIDDEFORD, Oct. 3.—Owing to the condition of the grounds at Saco today, the races of the York county fair are all postponed one day. Tomorrow the 2.45 class, 2.35 class and four-year-old class will be trotted; Friday, the 2.40 class, three minute class and three-year-old. Saturday the stallion race and free-for-all occur. The Boston and Maine will run special trains from Portland to the grounds.

The Parnell Suit.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—It is reported that the Times has resolved that as it incurred great expense in bringing witnesses to London to testify in the O'Donnell trial and as it is ready to pursue the same course in connection with the trial of Parnell's suit against for libel, which is to be tried in Scotland, it will not incur large expenses in appearing before the Parnell inquiry commission but will simply supply evidence enough to justify the commission in summoning Parnell to the witness box and compel him to show his hand. The Times, it is said, will furnish the commission the names of the witnesses whom the commission is authorized to summon to testify.

Foreign Notes.

A despatch from Ottawa says that Erastus Wiman sent a message suppressing a special to Canadian papers which stated that the United States Senate committee on foreign affairs had reached a stage in the discussion of Sherman's resolution rendering it probable that a resolution for the political union of Canada with the United States would be reported. The message was too late and the papers all over Canada printed the thunderbolt. The result has been to put the anti-annexationists on the qui vive and sound a note of warning against action of any kind committing the Dominion to any sort of union with the States.

Owing to the heavy rains floods have occurred throughout Switzerland, and a number of railways have been damaged to such an extent as to cause an interruption of traffic.

The Great Eastern has been beached near Liverpool where she will be broken up.

Two supposed Americans have been arrested in connection with the Whitechapel murders.

CHARLES EASTMAN'S DEATH.

Two Residents of Great Falls Placed Under Arrest.

GREAT FALLS, N. H., Oct. 3.—The Selectmen to-day offered $300 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers of Charles H. Eastman, who met his death September 16th near the bridge connecting this town and Berwick. This is the highest reward the statute gives authority to offer. There is talk of calling a special town meeting to-morrow afternoon appropriated $1,000 reward.

Haltan G. Wells and Fred Town, of this town, were arrested this morning and counsel for the state claim they have strong evidence against them as to a motive for the deed. They will be arraigned to-morrow morning probably.

Vermont's Lawmakers.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 3.—The biennial session of the legislature opened here today. The Senate organized with Senator H. C. Bates of Calidonia, president pro tem.; Rev. J. A. Pierce, chaplain; C. W. Brown, Jr., of Burlington, secretary. In the House, Hon. Josiah Grant of Derby, was re-elected speaker, and W. W. Stickney, clerk.

Notes.

The nine which went to New Brunswick from Augusta and Gardiner last week played five games while they were gone, winning three. The first game at St. John they lost, 17 to 9; the second one there they won 11 to 8. At Halifax they won the first game 9 to 3; rain interfered with the second one, and they struck out to make a five inning game, giving it to the Halifax club. On their return they played another game at St. John, winning it 3 to 1. They speak in high terms of the way they were treated on the trip, and had a very enjoyable time of it.

The Bowdoin and Bates ball teams will play at Brunswick next Saturday afternoon, and a good game is expected. Mr. Fred Freeman has been re-elected captain of the Bowdoin team.

Presumpscot Grange.

Last night there was a very interesting meeting of Presumpscot Grange at their hall in Deering, a large number of members being present. It was the young people's night, and they gave a very pleasing entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, reading and so forth. The several parts were admirably taken, and reflect great credit upon all who participated.

The young members of Presumpscot Grange are very enthusiastic and wide-awake, and they promise the old folks some good times before winter has gone. After the entertainment last night an elaborate supper, for which the Grangers are famous, was served, and after supper a delightful order of dances was called, in which young and old participated with keen enjoyment.

Grand Vice Councillor—F. C. Morrill, Bangor.
Grand Recorder—M. G. Prentiss, Brewer.
Grand Treasurer—W. A. Frye, Newport.

Improved Order of Red Men.

The ten tribes of the Improved Order of Red Men in this State have been notified that the Grand Chief of Records of the United States, Mr. Conley, has called a meeting of the representatives of the tribes in this State to meet in the wigwam of the Rockmego Tribe in Auburn, Thursday evening. This is for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for forming a Grand Council of the State. All the Past Sachems of the several tribes are expected to be present. There are about fourteen of them in the State. Auburn has four Past Sachems. The Rockmegoes hope the Grand Council will be formed and located here.

Good Shooting.

Mr. Will Stone, the well known apothecary, and Mr. Moses Dole, bookkeeper at Ingalls Bros., have just returned from Mall's Rock, Lake Umbagog, where they had great shooting. Without counting the small birds, they brought back with them seventy black duck, all fat and in fine condition. There is a rumor that one of the twain at a single shot took off the heads of eight ducks that happened to be in line, but the gentle man himself modestly disclaims such a feat.

A Good Bargain.

The residence of the late Charles Sager on Deering street was sold at auction by F. O. Bailey & Co., yesterday afternoon. There was a good company present. Besides the commodious three story brick house there were 4,500 feet of land. The opening bid was $6,000 and when the bidding reached $6,950 the property was knocked off to Mr. George P. Barrett.

Portland Turnverein.

Hill's friend are still waiting for that letter. Meanwhile they are grinding their knives for emergencies.

The chairman of the Democratic Committee of New Hampshire has proclaimed abroad that he is certain the Democrats will carry that State. This will have about as an exhilirating effect upon the Democracy as the great Democratic victory in Maine.

The Lewiston Gazette says Gen. Harrison is "confessedly" weak with the laboring men of Indiana. Who confesses it? No Republican has made any such confession, so far as we have observed. Some Democrats have made this assertion, but the Gazette would scarcely call that a confession. Come, who is it that has "confessed?"

District Attorney Fellows finds the courts so crowded with business as to leave no opportunity to bring any of the boodle aldermen to trial. It will be recollected that the friends of these aldermen were all enthusiastic in his support when he was a candidate. They evidently knew their man. Did President Cleveland know him, too, when he sent a letter endorsing his candidacy, and saying that he knew of no reason why he should not have the cordial support of the Democracy?

According to the Argus the Democratic party and President Cleveland have pledged themselves to treat trusts as any other public abuses would be treated. When and where did it or he make this pledge? Trusts have been in existence some years, and the Democratic party has been, meanwhile, in control of the national government. What trusts has it put down? Has it suppressed the Standard Oil trust? Has the sugar trust been extinguished? On the contrary the Standard Oil concern is as flourishing as ever, as the coffers of the treasury of the Democratic national committee into which it has poured a percentage of its huge gains, can testify. As for the sugar trust, the only move the Democracy have yet made upon that is to put up the duty on sugar at the request of its President, Mr. Havemeyer, of New York, who contributed liberally to the election of Mr. Cleveland four years ago and is said to have pooled in liberally this year also. If the Argus will name any trust which the Democracy has suppressed or tried to we shall be greatly obliged.

A Word with a Prohibitionist.

Mr. J. S. White writes to the Argus as follows:

The point I wish to arrive at is—whether the PRESS, in my opinion the leading Republican paper in the State, means to take a position as a general advocate of high license or low license, as opposed to absolute prohibition.

We can assure Mr. White that the PRESS does not mean "to take a position as a general advocate of high licence or low license as opposed to prohibition," neither has it done so directly or by implication. The paragraph from the PRESS which is the text of Mr. White's letter related to the situation in New York. Now the question of prohibition is not involved in the gubernatorial campaign in that State. The question there is between free rum and a certain amount of restriction. David Bennett Hill or Warner Miller is to be elected Governor of that State this fall. There is no possibility of the election of anybody else. Hill has twice proved himself opposed to the restriction of the liquor traffic by vetoing measures designed to accomplish that end. He is publicly recognized by the runsellers as their "friend," and almost to a man they are rallying around his standard. On the other hand, Mr. Miller has personally pledged himself to sign a measure of restriction, the platform on which he stands is committed to such a measure, and the liquor interests are practically unanimous in opposing him. These are the facts of the case. They cannot be truthfully gainsaid or denied. The PRESS has no hesitation in saying that, setting aside the question of the general politics of the two candidates entirely, if it were published in New York it would labor for the election of Mr. Miller on the ground that his election would be a step toward temperance reform while the election of Hill would be a step away from it. But that would not be advocating high license as against prohibitive license, as fair minded man could interpret it so. The PRESS has expressed the opinion that, taking the facts of the situation in New York as they are, the Prohibitionists of that State should support Mr. Miller. It now reiterates it. Such a course would not commit them to high license as against prohibition. But the Prohibitionists say that to impose a license on the rumt raffic is practically to endorse it. That is not the fact however. The rule is to allow the utmost freedom to business. The vast majority of businesses are not subjected to legal restraints of any kind. Men establish them where they please and when they please. Now when it is enacted that a certain business shall only be carried on under severe restrictions that enactment is an expression of the opinion of the majority of the community that that business is injurious in some way to the public health, or the public safety or the public morals. The placing of restrictions on the liquor traffic is an expression of the average sentiment of the community that that business is one of this kind. It affixes a stigma to it. Now there are a good many people in the community who think that this business is so injurious that it ought to be suppressed altogether. If they are sufficiently numerous to give a reasonable hope that they can carry their view then they ought to contend for it. But if it be absolutely certain that they cannot carry their extreme measures and that contention for them will tend to defeat any restriction at all, then it seems to us that a proper regard for the welfare of the community would lead them to support a modified measure. Such a course would never be construed by any fair minded man as a compromise with evil. On the contrary it would, it seems to us, meet the approval of everybody, as the best possible course under the circumstances. A great many men in Congress who believed slavery morally wrong and injurious to the country, voted for its restriction, thus inferentially consenting to its continued existence where it then prevailed. Supposing they had said as some of the Prohibitionists do in regard to the rum traffic, "Nothing short of an act abolishing slavery shall have our approval; to restrict it is practically to recognize what we consider a sin," would the free States of the North have approved their course? We think not. Neither do we think the sincere temperance sentiment of the country will approve a parallel procedure on the part of the Prohibitionists of New York in the present contest.

In the Probate Court at Farmington, before Judge Morrison, Tuesday, an important step was taken towards the final settlement of the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah S. Belcher of Farmington, and the turning over of the property to Bates College. Daniel M. Benney of Farmington, the special administrator appointed by Judge Morrison, settled before the court the second and final account of his administration. The items of his account aggregated $4,013.09. After a thorough examination, Judge Morrison allowed the account. President Cheney filed his first account as executor of the estate. The account showed that there had come into his hands property of various kinds, amounting to $30,114.92.

A STEEL BEDROOM.

Where Joe Cannon Spent Friday Night.

[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

The most uncomfortable bed in Philadelphia last night was that occupied by Joseph Cannon, a young bartender employed at Peter McGillian's saloon. Cannon slept in the new vault that is being put in the Keystone National bank building, at Chestnut and Juniper streets. It was not from choice that he spent the night there, but because he could not get out.

Cannon, who is 22 years old, was roaming through the building with young Peter McGillian late in the afternoon when they came upon the immense vault that is being built in the banking room. The vault is made of steel and is about sixteen feet wide by eight feet deep and eight high. It walls are of plates and are fully a foot thick. It has not been quite finished, the lock has not been put on nor has all the delicate machinery for moving the door been adjusted. Cannon stepped inside and was looking at the heavy steel finishing of the interior when suddenly the door swung to and he found himself in darkness.

Outside he could hear his companion, young McGillian, laughing mischievously at his joke but Cannon was a trifle scared. He pushed with all his strength against the heavy door, but his weight had no effect whatever upon the ton of steel before him. He cried out in alarm. McGillian became frightened, too, and pulled while his friend pushed; but they could not budge the door by a hair's breadth. Then the watchman was called in, and his strength was added to the exertions of the other two, but with no more success.

By this time everybody was pretty thoroughly scared. The policeman on the corner was notified and he summoned two or three of his comrades. Several men who heard of Cannon's peculiar situation came up with crowbars. It happened that the door did not shut tightly, and there was room to insert the end of a crowbar between the door and the side of the vault.

Two men pushed on each crowbar, and the door yielded a little. Finally it was opened far enough to allow a rope to be passed in to Cannon, who was more dead than alive, and he fastened the end to a bolt on the inside of the door. A dozen strong men pulled on the rope, two men labored at each crowbar and Cannon pushed from the inside. The door yielded more. All thought it was about to fly open. But when one inch of daylight shone in, the heavy door came to a stop.

For two hours the men worked at it, but not the fraction of an inch could they move it further. It seems there is a contrivance on the hinges which, if properly adjusted, will make the door as easy to open as a gate. No one understood the patent arrangement. Cannon's hopes fell again. Some one suggested sending for the workman who was putting in the vault. He lives in Tioga. A messenger went out there, and when the workman learned that Cannon was in no danger of suffocation, and that he was not likely to suffer for food and drink, he decided to make him pay for his curiosity, and declined to come down until this morning.

Meanwhile arrangements had been made to make Cannon as comfortable as possible. Candles were handed in to the imprisoned man and a couple of blankets were stuffed through the crack. A small rubber tube was introduced, and through this Cannon sucked up some tea. He made a frugal supper of crackers, sandwiches and water, and at 10 o'clock spread out his blankets and declared he was ready to go to sleep. At midnight he was tossing about on his hard steel bed. He will be released this morning.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breath freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

TO THE HOLDERS OF

DUE 1891.

We beg to call your attention to the fact that the above mentioned United States Bonds at the present price yield only

(2 1-4) interest, and that as they approach maturity the price will decline until the whole premium will be wiped out.

We therefore advise the holders of these Bonds to sell or exchange them for other securities. We have on hand a desirable list of City, County, Railroad and Water Bonds, suitable for Trust Funds, and would be pleased to have the holders of the above mentioned Bonds communicate with us.

WE WOULD INFORM HOLDERS OF

PORTLAND 6s

Maturing Nov. 1, 1888,

that we are now prepared to furnish long City of Portland 6 per cent bonds in their place (while the limited supply which we have on hand lasts) or we will take them now in exchange for other securities which we are offering and which will yield a better net rate of interest. We would also remind holders of which have now only ONE YEAR more to run to the importance of availing themselves of the premium which can now be realized upon them, as a few months hence they will command no premium at all. We think it is also important to convert the United States 4 1-2 Per Cent Bonds,

State of Maine 6s, due 1889,

which now have less than THREE YEARS to run, in order to obtain the present high premium which must gradually and surely become less as they approach maturity. We are offering some excellent securities which we can recommend to holders of above bonds, or in exchange for any other securities soon to mature, and we shall be happy to communicate or confer with them regarding such exchange.

Fogg—Dr. Jalap, how is your patient, Mr. Sickfie?

Doctor Jalap—I really don't know. Fact is, he has not been to see me for some time. I guess he must be getting better.

Fogg—A natural inference surely, and your frankness is quite commendable, doctor, quite commendable.

Will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. Carter's Little Liver Pills. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a dose. See advertisement. Small pill. Small dose. Small price.

Mrs. Staidley—I'm informed that you have broken off with Mr. Mann. Everybody speaks well of him, you know. Why they say he is pure gold.

Miss Pert—That's it. I didn't feel it would be right to withdraw him from general circulation. It might have caused a panic in the money market, you know.

For the cure of cuts, sprains, bruises, burns and frostbites you can rely on Salvation Oil. 25 cents.

We have tried Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in our family and can assert that it is the best remedy for a cough or cold ever introduced. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. Hennessy—Sure, Patsy, darlint, it's afraid Oi am that Oi'll oveshlape in th' marnin' an' be too late for airly mass.

"Mrs. Green is sick again," said Mrs. Snaggs to her husband.

"What ails her?

"Hay fever."

"Oh, it's quite natural—she should have that, as she is a grass widow."

Good housekeepers are fast finding out that a pure Extract made by Joseph Burnett & Co., costing a cent or two more a bottle, goes farther and makes the most delicious of dishes. Avoid goods only recommended by their cheapness.

Aunty—Cud yo' he'p a poor-ole woman, sah, what was nuss to Gawge Washington?

Gentleman—Nonsense! George Washington died before you were born.

Aunty—Am dat so, sah? Hit don't seem so long ter me. I 'clare ter goodness how time do fly.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely; it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the one medicine above all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

The candy wasn't wasted.

Mr. Newington—Ah, Ethel, glad to see you. Will you kindly hand this little package of caramels to Miss Virginia?

REVIEW OF PORTLAND WHOLESALE MARKET
FOR THE WEEK ENDING Oct. 3.

Flour continues to be the leading feature, and the market is excited and a sharp advance will be noticed in prices, which is due to the rapid rise in Wheat; some millers advanced Spring patents to-day to 7 50, while others will not name a price at present, but the high rates have checked business; he general opinion is that prices will go considerably higher. Corn was excited with wild fluctuations at Chicago to-day. Oats about steady. Provisions have been firmer and the recent advance is maintained. Sugar steady and unchanged here, but at New York prices are off with granulated quoted at 7⅛c; Stock in the four ports at latest dates was 1,227 tons against 120,963 tons in 1887, and 155,541 tons in 1886. Coffee is firm and ¼@½c higher on Rio, 1½@2c better for Mocha and Java ½@1c higher. Molasses very firm with good medium grades scarce. Rice has advanced ½c, owing to the damage to the Southern crop In Spices, Cloves and Nutmegs are firm and 1@2c higher. Teas are steady without change. Tobacco easy. Lard Oil has advanced to 50c@1 00. Turpentine has declined 1c to 46@53c. Morphine is 25c higher and quoted at 2 60@2 85. Stove Coal, delivered 6 50. Hay in good supply at $14@$15 for presse i.

MISCELLANEOUS.

What a Time

People formerly had, trying to swallow the old-fashioned pill with its film of magnesia vainly disguising its bitterness; and what a contrast to Ayer's Pills, that have been well called "medicated sugar-plums"—the only fear being that patients may be tempted into taking too many at a dose. But the directions are plain and should be strictly followed.

She Was Cured by Drs. Smith and McMullen.

Little Mary, daughter of William Bruce, is seven years of age, and was taken last January with spasms. The spasms came on at first whenever she fell asleep. During the night she would be seized with violent convulsions. The arms and legs would straighten out and become stiff and rigid. Then they would contract and be drawn tight to the body. Her eyes were wide open during a spasm and turned upwards and outwards, presenting a most frightful appearance. As often as every hour during the night, or whenever she fell asleep, her poor little body was warped and twisted into all manner of shapes by these terrible convulsions. Her mouth was filled with saliva, which caused a constant drooling, that kept the clothing over her breast saturated from morning till night. After she had suffered in this manner for a period of six weeks she lost the use of her right arm. One week later her left arm and both legs became paralyzed and were powerless. She could neither move hand or foot and was as helpless as an infant. She lay as helpless as though she were dead. The most skillful physicians were summoned, but were powerless to even give her temporary relief. She remained in this most pitiable condition until the fifth day of August, when her father carried her to Drs. Smith and McMullen, the magnetic physicians, at the United States Hotel, who gave her a careful examination, and undertook to cure her. She received twenty magnetic treatments and was cured. She has had no sign of a spasm for some time and has perfect control of all of her limbs. In short, she is well and happy. Her parents are delighted and grateful, too, for what the Doctors did for little Mary. Any person reading this statement who may think it is not true, are invited to call on Drs. Smith and McMullen, at the United States Hotel, and they will give the exact post-office address of William Bruce. The Doctors are regularly educated physicians and surgeons. If there is a doubt of it in any person's mind call on them and be convinced. They may be consulted free of charge at their parlors at the United States Hotel, from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. daily. If you are sick go and see them. It will cost you nothing to go and talk it over with them. oct4dtf

Pain from Indigestion, dyspepsia, and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.
oct2 d&w1w

In Brief, And To The Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Greene's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Greene's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

An Insane Woman.

Yesterday morning, Mrs. Whitcomb, a lady about thirty-three years of age, who has been quite sick at the corner of Congress and Chestnut streets, for several days, became insane. She rushed from her room into the hall, broke a pain of glass in the side light with her hand and climbed out. She then ran across Chestnut street and entered W. F. Goold's confectionery store. She cried out that her room was full of fire and they were trying to prevent her from getting out. Her hand and foot were cut by the glass of the window. She had on no shoes. The police were sent for and later she was taken to the City hospital.

At the request of the family physician, Mrs. Whitcomb was taken from the hospital late in the afternoon and removed to a friend's house where it was thought she could be safely kept. Just at dusk last evening, however, she escaped and friends and neighbors were unable to find her. The police were notified and they began the search several officers being detailed especially to hunt for her, while the entire force was notified to be on the lookout. All along the wharves they went and in all parts of the city but up to 2 o'clock this morning no trace of the missing woman had been discovered. Friends are greatly alarmed, and a diligent search is being made.

The pedestal will be designed by Mr. R. H. Hunt, the celebrated designer of the Bartholdi statue pedestal at New York.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

BENNETT & MOULTON.

Yesterday two splendid audiences greeted the Bennett & Moulton Opera Company at the matinee and evening performance. In the afternoon "Robert Macaire" was given to the great pleasure of the audience and created as much enthusiasm as when it was produced by the company last season.

In the evening the popular "Bohemian Girl" gave great enjoyment. Miss Greenwood proved a delightful Arline. Mr. Armand sang the charming tenor solo of Thaddeus with fine effect. Mr. Wolf's deep bass voice and comic powers had a great field for expression in Devilshoff, and Miss Russell and Mr. Moulton were respectively good as the Gypsy Queen and Count. The chorus and orchestra were effective.

To-night "The Black Hussar" is billed and is one of the prettiest of the operas now on the stage. Seats should be secured during the da –

MIGNON.

The following is the plot of Thomas opera of "Mignon" which will be performed by the Bostonians in the Stockbridge course:

Lothario is an Italian count and Mignon is his daughter stolen in childhood by the gypsies. The guests at an inn are amused by the gypsies who try to force Mignon to dance, and to save her from their brutality Lothario—who is incognic, and does not know Mignon is his daughter—and a young student named Guglielmo, interfere. Guglielmo purchases Mignon's liberty from the gypsies, she being in love with him, and she follows him. Felina, a prima donna of an opera company fascinates Guglielmo and Mignon tries to drown herself but is rescued by Lothario. In her grief she wishes the castle, where they all are staying, might be burned to the ground. Lothario sets fire to the building, and Guglielmo saves Mignon from burning to death. In the second act Guglielmo discovers Mignon's love for him and also that Lothario is a nobleman. Lothario has recognized in Mignon his daughter, and she recovering from a fever recognizes her old surroundings familiar to her when a child, proves her identity, and all are made happy.

MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

Yesterday we published the programme for the concert to be given at Haydn hall tonight by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, assisted by Miss Alice Rau. The tickets can be secured at Stockbridges today. An exchange says:

"It was a treat—a musical feast if you will, but all that is highest and best and purest in the realm of music was set before the fair-sized audience which essembled last night at Music Hall. Those who did not go have only their own loss to remember. We were promised much, but the revelation was in all respects up to expectation and in some respects far beyond. Who can describe the wonderful sympathy, the blending, the exquisite en masse modulations of the quartete? The service of time, natural talent, and the closest application is required for the production of such music. Some of the pianissimo effects were simply grand, and one perforce held his breath to catch every sound.

NOTES.

Three Maine people are now attracting considerable attention in Melbourn, Australia. They are Count Hugo Von Golitz of Richmond, his remarkably talented wife, Miss Amy Sherwin, and Dora Wiley, of Bucksport, whose experience as Mrs. Richard Golden and in other roles has been enough to make several books.

Annie Pixley was recently offered by a well-known manager a guarantee of thirty thousand dollars for a twenty weeks' tour in Australia. It was in the Antipodes that Miss Pixley first won fame and fortune.

There will be a complimentary concert to W. J. Ryan, the blind boy, at City hall, on the 25th of this month. Miss Bertha Webb will take part and among the attractions will be a bass quartet.

A dispatch from London says that Sir Arthur Sullivan's new opera is entitled "The Yeoman of the Guard, or the Merryman and his Maid."

In conversation with a Chicago reporter Mr. Lawrence Barrett said that he and Mr. Booth expect to remain in New York throughout the third season of their artistic partnership, 1889-90. The season following they may go to Europe.

The dramatization of Amelia Rive's "The Quick or the Dead," that Estelle Clayton brought out in New York Monday night, is reported to have been a dead failure, the play being stupid and the actors bad.

A Tribute to Rev. C. H. Daniels.

To the Editor of the Press:

The retirement of Rev. C. H. Daniels from the pastorate of the Second Parish church, will occasion sincere regret to the people of that church and to the citizens of Portland generally. The requirements of that pastorate are sufficient to tax the largest ability and the fullest measure of energy. Mr. Daniels has successfully met them. He easily found his way to the hearts of his people, and to the confidence of the community. His popularity outside his parish has kept pace with his popularity within it. The church around which are gathered the memories of a century of pastoral fidelity will suffer large loss in the going of a pastor who has labored for it with unwearied spirit, and has given to it his best service.

I desire to place on record my appreciation of the personal friendship of Mr. Daniels, and of what has come to me through it on my visits to Portland; also my congratulations on his election to so honorable a position as that of the New York secretaryship of the American Board.

WILLIAM CARRUTHERS.

Portland, Oct. 3d, 1888.

Shooting.

Monday was the opening day of the quail season. Quite a number of Portland sportsmen were in search of the Cape coveys on that day.

Sportsmen complain that the leaves are still too thick to admit of very fine shooting. Very few leaves have fallen as yet. Grouse are quite plenty, this year, but are found on higher grounds, owing to the frequent and heavy rains. Woodcock also are seeking their highest covers and the best bags are being made in the mountainous regions. Hounds are heard in all sections of the county, just now. Foxes are plenty and local hunters are getting one or two a day.

Robbed in Boston.

Last Friday George W. Corey, of Portland was having his boots blacked in Boston, when he scraped the acquaintance of a stranger. The pair went off on a spree and met other strange and tough characters in the lowlands. Finally Corey discovered that his silver watch and $30 had been stolen. The next day the watch was found in a North End pawn shop, and Monday evening special officers Abbott and O'Nell, of Station 3, arrested James McQuade for the larceny. He was identified as the man who pawned the watch.

WEDDINGS.

HALLOCK-WEBSTER.

Yesterday afternoon Rev. Leavitt H. Hallock, pastor of Williston church, and Miss Nellie M. Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Webster, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. Charles H. Daniels, pastor of the Second Parish church, at the home of the bride's parents on Cumberland street. The wedding ceremony took place in the presence of about forty of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, and the wedding march was played by Mr. Kimball, the organist of Williston church. Mr. and Mrs. Hallock received a great many very choice presents from members of the church and other friends, among them being two purses containing a very generous sum of money from about fifty members of the church, and an elegant painting from the Williston choir, of which the bride is a member. After the wedding a reception was held, and numerous friends called to congratulate the newly married couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hallock departed on the 6 o'clock train for a wedding tour of several weeks.

KIRBY-DONAHUE.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning, the contracting parties being Miss Katie Donahue, of St. John, N. B., and John B. Kirby, of this city. Miss May Donahue, the bride's sister, acted as maid of honor, and John D. Keefe, of this city, as best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby will reside on Congress street, this city. The presents were numerous and costly. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. P. Linehan.

PERRY-BROWN.

There was a delightful home wedding last evening at the residence of Chas. A. Brown Esq., on State street, being the marriage of his daughter, Miss Alice Pierce, to Mr. Charles Albert Perry. The bride, in full bridal costume, looked very beautiful, and charmingly received the congratulations of the relatives and friends of both families, who filled the house. The parlors were tastefully decorated with autumn foliage and flowers. The ceremony was gracefully performed by Rev. Frank T. Bayley. Music lent its charms, and it was one of the most pleasant social events of the kind of the season. Mr. William S. Corey and Dr. Wm. L Dana acted as ushers.

The Aroostook starch factories are well along in their business for the fall, and are paying 25 cents per bushel for their potatoes. The crop in Aroostook is not very large, but it is in excellent conditition, not being much troubled by rot.

One Price Only.

Clark, the clothier, is always doing the unexpected, but his latest departure is in the line of sound business common sense and will commend itself at once to the judgment of thinking people.

Saturday, Sept. 29th, he closed all accounts on his books, and Monday, Oct. 1, he began doing business on the one price, spot cash principle. In other words, he will sell as he buys—for spot cash only. He will have but one price, and that will be the lowest made on his line of goods since the war.

His customers will be benefitted by the arrangement, for, having no bad debts to overcome and no expert bookkeeper to pay, prices can and will be made just so much lower.

Spot cash is the best buyer in the market, and the man who buys $100,000 worth of clothing and furnishing goods annually, for spot cash, can be depended on to get bed rock prices every time. Then, again, the necessary margin of profits on a $100,000 business, economically conducted, does not require to be nearly as large as that on a business one half the size, and here is a great point to be considered by the consumer who naturally objects to paying a large profit on what he buys when his neighbors can buy the same for less.

No more carefully selected or better assorted stock of clothing was ever shown in Portland than now awaits inspection on Clark's counters. Everything new and desirable in neckwear can also be obtained here at less prices than many small retailers pay for their goods.

A list of over four hundred claims paid by the Maine Mutual Accident Association has been left at this office.

We would advise those wishing Accident Insurance to examine their plan.

A Fair Trial

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla will convince any reasonable person that it does possess great medicinal merit. We do not claim that every bottle will accomplish a miracle, but we know that nearly every bottle, taken according to directions, does produce positive benefit. Its wonderful curative power is shown by many remarkable cures.

"I was run down from close application to work, but was told I had malaria and was dosed with quinine, etc., which was useless. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now feeling strong and cheerful. I feel satisfied it will benefit any one who gives it a fair trial." W. B. BRAMISH, 261 Spring str.et, New York City.

"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health two years ago was very poor. My friends thought I was going with consumption. I commenced using Hood's Sarsaparilla, took five bottles of it, and today I can do as hard a day's work as I ever could. It saved me from the grave and put me on my feet a sound, healthy man." NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

BUY YOUR CLOTHING AT WHOLESALE AT CLARK'S ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE.

Two years ago my business jumped from $29,000 to $66,000 in a single year, and I attribute it wholly to giving the people the best goods in the market at the lowest possible margin of profit. This year being a Presidential year, and business being more or less disturbed, I did not anticipate any very marked increase over last year, and so made up my mind to take things easy, and in 1889 make an effort to sell at retail $100,000 worth of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, something by the way, which has never yet been done in Maine. The amount of my sales up to Oct. 1st, went so far ahead of my expectations that I have decided not to wait until 1889, but to strike while the iron is hot and sell $100,000 worth of goods this present year, President or no President. I have only got to increase my sales $10,000 over what they have averaged thus far to do it, and it will not cost me one cent of additional expense in the way of clerk hire, store rent, etc., and any man can readily see that the question of profit on that extra $10,000 worth of goods is a secondary consideration in comparison with selling $100,000 in the aggregate and breaking the record. I have therefore bought for spot cash $10,000 worth of new and nobby Clothing and Furnishing Goods of all grades and styles and put the same on my counters at wholesale prices, and from now until the end of the year customers can buy these goods at the same price exactly that is paid for them by smaller dealers. It doesn't require a great deal of thought to see that this is the greatest opportunity to buy stylish, well made, perfect fitting Clothing and Furnishing Goods ever offered to the people of Maine. I have made up my mind to touch the $100,000 mark this year, and such irresistible bargains as these cannot fail to attract the attention of thoughtful buyers. I want the business, you must have the clothing. I offer to you at same prices your dealer pays for it, and we shall both get what we want. You will get the best bargains on earth, and I shall break the record of Clothing Sales in Maine which will be glory enough for me, and the small profit I shall have made on sales of other goods this year will be as well as I expected to do at the beginning of the year.

The cool fall weather which October is sure to bring will be likely to remind you that 'tis time to buy heavy Underwear. Our assortment of middle weight goods, just right for this time of year, is complete now and we invite your attention to the line of specialties we are showing.

Nearly all the Foreign Hosiery of our own importation has arrived now and will be opened the first days of this week. There are several particularly good lots of fine grade Cashmere Hosiery for Women and Children, which we have brought out to run at attractive prices, and the line includes many special styles which will not be seen at any other store in the city.

The great bargain sale of Kid Gloves last week was the most successful this department has ever had, and a larger number of the seventy five cent Gloves were sold Saturday than we have ever before sold in one day. There was a good reason for it, too:—the Gloves were worth nearly double the price we asked for them. To continue the enthusiasm as long as possible we shall put on sale today another lot of four button, embroidered back, glace Kid Gloves at sixty-five cents a pair. The assortment of sizes is complete and the colors are tan, slate and blacks. We will fill all out of town orders (accompanied by the money) at the same price as long as the sizes remain unbroken.

Laces for dresses and trimming for costumes are to be more generally used this fall and winter than ever before and the gorgeous effects which the season's demand has brought out are bewildering. Our lace department has just received an entirely new line of nets, allovers, flouncings and edges in all the new shades for evening and many novelties in black laces, which are marked at considerably lower prices than the same goods are sold for in Boston and elsewhere.

Until further notice our Basement department will be closed for repairs. It will be reopened with a fresh stock of Japanese goods, baskets, toys, games, &c., and some special bargains which will be announced later.
