Dates to Remember

Presumption Period Begins October 2

Paid communications that clearly identify an MCEA candidate are presumed to contain express advocacy if they are made from October 2 through election day. NOTE: communications that clearly identify a candidate and contain express advocacy (actual or presumed) require an attribution statement and may require an independent expenditure report. See below for more information.

1 and 2 day IE reporting

Within 60 days of an election the timing for reporting independent expenditures changes. Use this filing schedule to make sure your reports are filed on time.

Additional IE schedule required starting October 30

For all IE reports that are filed starting October 30 through election day, schedule B-IE-3 must be completed. This schedule allows you to further explain the circumstances of the expenditure.

Independent Expenditure Reports

What is an Independent Expenditure?

An independent expenditure ("I.E.") is any expenditure made by any person—including PACs, BQCs, and Party...
Committees—for any communication that expressly advocates for the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate, and which is NOT made in cooperation, consultation or in concert with the candidate. There are several elements to an IE. It must:

1. Be a communication
   Anything that communicates a message to voters, including mailings, signs, radio and television ads.

2. Clearly identify a candidate
   Either by name, photograph or unambiguous reference. NOTE: because the communication must identify a candidate, IE reports are not required for communications concerning ballot measures.

3. Contain express advocacy
   Through phrases such as “vote for” or “elect,” or through language that is susceptible of no reasonable interpretation other than as an appeal to vote for or against a clearly identified candidate.

4. Be independent of the candidate
   Expenditures for communications that are made in cooperation, consultation, or in concert with a candidate are not independent of the candidate. Coordinated expenditures may be contributions to a candidate. Call the Commission staff or check out the staff’s IE guidance online for more information.

How do I file and Independent Expenditure Report?

While many expenditures may qualify as independent, only those expenditures where more than $100 per candidate was spent require a report. Blank reports may be found on the Commission’s website at www.mainecampaignfinance.com.

To complete a report, identify all expenditures that were affiliated with the communication. Expenditures for multiple communications may be listed on the same report. Reports must also include the names of candidates who were identified in the communication and whether the communication supported or opposed them.

IE reports must be signed and notarized before being submitted to the Commission. Reports cannot be filed electronically. They must be submitted in person, by mail or by fax according to the schedule below. If a report is submitted by fax, the original report must be delivered to the Commission within 5 business days. The Commission’s mailing address is: 135 State House Station, Augusta, ME 04333

Independent Expenditure Reporting Rule Changes

The Commission recently adopted changes to its IE reporting schedule which became effective in September. (Rules, Chapter 1, Section 10). Under the new rules, the quarterly IE reports are replaced with a single 60 day pre election IE report that will encompass all IE’s that are made up through the 61st day before an election. The schedule for reporting IE’s over $100 and over $250 during the 60 days before an election has not changed.

Frequently Asked Questions about IE’s

Q: Is the $100 threshold a per expenditure amount or an aggregate amount?
A: It’s an aggregate amount.

Q: If there are several expenditures involved with my communication, when is the report triggered?
A: The report is triggered when, in the aggregate, the $100 threshold is exceeded.

Q: Do the expenditures I disclose on an IE report also need to be reported on the next campaign finance report?
A: Yes. Everything that gets reported on both IE’s and 24 hour reports must also be included on the next campaign finance report.

Q: What happens to my report once it is filed?
A: It is reviewed and then posted on our website at www.mainecampaignfinance.com. If possible, we try to post reports on the same day they are received.

24 Hour Reports

24 Hour reports are required when a committee makes a single expenditure of $500 or more after the 14th day before the election. In other words, if a committee spends $500 or more on any one expense from October 24th through election day, a 24 hour report is required. The only exception is when an expenditure, which would otherwise be reportable in a 24 hour report, is reportable on an independent expenditure report. In that case, no 24 hour report is required because the public is made aware of the expenditure through the IE report.

24 hour reports may be filed online by visiting www.mainecampaignfinance.com.

Schedule B versus B-1

Schedule B is reserved for expenditures that are intended to initiate or influence a campaign. All other expenditures should be included on schedule B-1. Examples include the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Schedule B</th>
<th>Schedule B-1</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Contributions</td>
<td>Rent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mailers to support an initiative</td>
<td>Bank Fees</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Newspaper advertisements</td>
<td>Salary and related payments</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
