Dear Mr. Fussell:

As soon as we learned of your book, EDWIN ARLINGTON ROBINSON: THE LITERARY BACKGROUND OF A TRADITIONAL POET, we added it to our order list, for of course we want everything that is published about our eminent Maine poet. We also noted it in the Maine in Print list which appears in the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association.

It is a fine book, and one which will be valuable to us in our reference work, and we are exceedingly glad that it is available.

We write to you now about the Maine Author Collection, and the possibility that you might like to inscribe and present a copy for inclusion. This is a permanent exhibit of books written by Maine people or those closely connected with the state, or about Maine subjects. Naturally, the subject matter of your book is of Maine; and we have all Robinson's writings in the collection, so it seemed to us that your study would be a most suitable addition. If you share our feeling, we should be most happy to have a copy to place in the Robinson section.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mrs. Jacob:

It is a pleasure to send you an inscribed copy of my Robinson book. The book will be in the mail tomorrow, but, the season being what it is, it may be a little slow in arriving. Thank you for letter and for your good words about my book; I'm delighted to be asked to contribute to your collections.

Yours sincerely

Edwin S. Fussell
