Dear Dr. Gill:

Some months ago, when we first learned of the forthcoming biography of Elijah Parish Lovejoy, we were delighted; and now we see that the book is really available. We shall order it, of course, but at present we write concerning the Maine Author Collection.

Perhaps you know of this permanent exhibit of books by Maine writers, or about Maine and its people. Most of the volumes are inscribed presentation copies, the inscriptions adding a special note of distinction to an outstanding collection. We also gather all available biographical and critical material so that we may have as complete information as possible on Maine books and authors.

We hope that you will want to inscribe a copy of TIDE WITHOUT TURNING for the Maine Author Collection. We look forward to seeing the book, and send you our very good wishes for its success.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Dear Mrs. Jacob,

I have your letter asking for an inscribed copy of my book Tide Without Turning to be placed in the Maine Author Collection. I shall be very glad to comply with this request.

I was in Augusta last November on my way to The Colby Lovjoy festival, and I also know something of the the way in which the story of Lovjoy is involved with your city. It was a minister from Augusta, for instance, who paid for Lovjoy's scholarship at Waterville.

Sincerely yours,

John Gill.

Dear Dr. Gill:

Today's mail brings us the Maine Author Collection copy of TIDE WITHOUT TURNING, with its fine inscription. We are delighted to be able to add this distinguished biography to the collection, and appreciate very much your interest and generosity, and your thought in adding the inscription.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours

Dear Dr. Gill:

Thank you very much for sending the copies of ELIJAH LOVEJOY'S PLEDGE OF SILENCE. This is a most interesting item, and we are placing one copy in the Maine Author Collection, and making the other available to our patrons.

We should have acknowledged your kindness sooner, but we delayed, hoping to have word from the Maine Historical Society about the letter. Perhaps Miss Rowe, the Librarian, has written to you directly.

Sincerely yours
