ICE FISHING LAWS

The laws given in this sheet are the laws and season as they apply to the several counties; where no special laws are given the general law of the State will prevail. This is as follows:

Minimum length of trout, 6 inches.

Minimum length of salmon, 12 inches.

Minimum length of white perch, 6 inches.

Black bass cannot be legally taken through the ice.

Maximum amount of game fish that can be caught or had in possession at one time:

25 fish not to exceed 15 pounds in weight, unless the last fish caught increases the weight to more than fifteen pounds.

5 lines to a person when fishing for pickerel during November and December and only 5 lines to a family when fishing through the ice during the balance of the year. Only one hook to a line is permissible when plug fishing at any time.
