(Dorris's)
 George W. Savage of Cornwall says he never enlisted, the neighbors say they have seen his clothes. He is not in my list,

I have found the veritable Liscum,
 Wm S Liscum enrolled Sept 30 76 1861
 Discharged for civic objections May 3 64
 At Williamsport, Col H 1st Cavalry
 S W Bachelder Lieut Col
 1391 reg & Mass vol
 Military Command

Now I have quite a story to tell.
 Nathan A. Case of Cornwall has shown to his neighbors, (particular Benj. Muel, Henry, (Driver) and Luther Robinson of Cornwall) 16 new trugs, two splendid saddles, 1,50 dol rifle, and several nice collars, all new, trugs not cut apart, says his boy sent them from Virginia.
 This said boy is to work on the Mally Baker, a mail boat from Port Morris to Harpers Landing. & Case claims them as pocketed, on the latter boat.

If it is necessary to hunt them up (and for heaven's sake why not) please send the business to B K Turner Skunkhogan Cap is well & nothing is to be feared for him to work upon our soldiers

There is a Mrs Dore in this town who has lost a Son in the army, she says she is willing to give him up if they will only kill every other northern soldier. This is only a sample of her talk. She is coming to Augusta I hear to take measures to prevent the burning. She ought not to have one cent,

I rec'd a letter from Whitcomb which I enclosed to you without not having time before we left,

The twelfthards clamor of me pay for the time & expenses back home. So you will perceive I am threatened on all sides and likely to be involved in petty lawsuits by doing my duty according to instructions. Whitcomb admitted after his arrest that he deserted from 9 Guard Yours very respy
