John Corrier a private of Com K

4th Maine Vol was wounded but has recovered from his wounds has no discharge, I ordered him in & he said he would go to Augusta Sept 2^d 1862 without fail (Rich)

Belfast

Geo. W. Burgess Co. 4th Maine was sick & was transferred to the Floritta gun Boat

Belfast

Aurelius Patterson Com K. 4th Maine Regt says he has a discharge had sent it to Washington ^{to obtain a pension}, has enlisted again in the Belfast Last Quota, health good hardly thinks ^{deserving} { Rich a pension. }

There is quite a number of men yet around Belfast I think that have no excuse why they are out of the Army but are a little shy, most of them gave a fighting will be a little more bold after they think I have done talking I shall have to visit that place a few times more yet

Sir

There was a man by the name of Alvin McCorison of Knox that enlisted in the 14 Regt of Vol and run away from Annapolis & has been lurking about here since last winter, without a furlough or discharge. he found I was on his track, & he enlisted in the Knox Quota & is in the 20th Regt at Portland. and you can save yourself accordingly

Your truly N. S. Kirk
