To the townhall in North East Harbor Maine

Dear Sirs,

During my stay in your town in the beginning of August, I came to your office to register as an alien and filled out a formular which you handed me. Under the heading, applied for citizenship? I entered, "not yet, but in a few weeks."

I beg to inform, that I have today received my quota visa for first preference quota, and that... my registration has been done at the same time with fingerprinting included.
So my registration at your office is void, which I beg to take notice of.

sincerely dear sir,
yours
