GRAND BALL.MOST SUCCESSFUL DANCE GIVEN AT THE MERRICONEAG HOUSE, SO. HARPSWELL, FRIDAY.

Miss Helene Spaulding and Miss Margaret Leal, assisted by Other Well Known Ladies and Gentlemen Conduct the Affair.

There have been, during the past decade, many and varied social evening parties given in and about beautiful Casco Bay, but certainly nothing more thoroughly enjoyed or distinguished point of style and eclat has been witnessed here than the ball which graced the parlors and halls of the Merriconeag at South Harpswell on Friday evening.

It was given by Miss Helene Spaulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Spaulding of Winchester, Mass., and Miss Margaret Leal of Plainfield, N. J., and the elegance and enjoyment which characterized the whole affair was a fitting tribute to the efficiency of the management. The pretty parlors and large dining room where the dancing took place, fairly sparkled with the reflections of the fitting panorama of youth and motion. Everything was life and action. Within the sweet strains of the two-step and waltz, discoursed by Chandler's 1st Regt. orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Brooks, novel and inevitable attraction to all lovers of Terpsichore. Even the allurements of the hotel piazza on this beautiful evening failed to hold the guests from the greater attraction of the dance room.

The interior decorations are well worthy of notice, and added much to the success and beauty of the occasion. Over the yellow casings and delicate green were hung, and interspersed through it was the soft gleam of Japanese lanterns tastefully arranged. In the dining room, fruit punch and lemonade were served at a booth throughout the evening. From 8 to 8.30 the orchestra played several pleasing selections, and, simultaneously, being stationed near the main

BREEZY BRIEFLETS.

At the Ocean View Hotel, South Harpswell.

Friday last Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Beckett, of Montreal, arrived here for their annual summer outing, as has been their custom for the past twenty-three years. Monday their son, Frank W. M. Beckett, of East Orange, N. J., joined his parents and will remain until Aug. 10.

Several impromptu musical bits have been rendered during the evenings of the past week by the male quartet composed of Mr. John Crowley, Mr. Harry C. Lunt, Mr. Alfred E. Lunt and Mr. Clarence H. Lunt all of Beverly, Mass. Mr. Charles Shaw has also appeared several times in some of the glee songs.

A most enjoyable drive to High Head was taken by a dozen of the guests on Tuesday afternoon. The party went in the barge. The following were included: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. West, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Weir, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Carey, Waltham, Mass.; and Mrs. T. J. Lewis, Lewiston, Pa.; Miss Ruth Decker, Lewiston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howe, Mass.; Mrs. Lotte Rogers, Wakefield, Mass.; Mrs. H. W. Howe, Waltham, Mass.; Mr. A. H. Henderson, Readfield, Me.; Mr. R. G. Elliott of the Grand Trunk, Montreal, Can., and wife, Miss Edith Elliott, George F. West and wife, Portland, and Miss Jennie Means of Portland were the guests of Col. Campbell, Saturday evening.

T. F. Carey, a barrister of Waltham, Mass., with his wife, are here for a two weeks' outing, having arrived Thursday.

Mr. W. W. Decker of Lewiston, Pa., with his wife and daughter, are here for an extended visit.

Mr. M. A. Kendrick of Brunswick, Me., and niece, Miss Alice E. Taylor, of Fairbury, Ill., were among the arrivals here Thursday last and will remain until early in September.

Edward Eastman Lunt, Beverly, Mass., Harvard Law, arrived here Friday evening to join the staff of the house for the remainder of the summer. Mr. Lunt is very prominent in college work, having for the past two years been president of the Harvard organization of sixteen hundred students and also general manager for the past three years of the Harvard Illustrated Magazine, one of the leading monthly publications issued at the university. He was also very prominent in debating, having been elected first president of his class debating club.

Miss Hobart, white muslin, with lace.

Miss Clarence H. Lunt, Beverly, Mass., blue silk with trimmings of lace flowers, white.

Miss Nowell, figured muslin.

Miss A. M. Holmes, Malden, lavender rosebud dimity, with white lace trimmings.

Miss Sherman, white muslin.

Miss Ashcroft, Montreal, voile over black silk.

Miss Pittcaithly, Belleville, Ont., ponce silk, with veneer lace sash.

Miss Martha E. Margraf, New York, navy blue satin brocade of flowers, pan velvet and lace trimmings.

Miss Grace Upham, green silk and nun's veiling.

Miss Burr, Lexington, Mass., linen colored muslin, over pink.

Among the gentlemen present were noticed Mr. L. H. Spaulding, Mr. E. Eldred, Mr. John Leal, Mr. Rice, Brookline, Mr. Cooper, Philadelphia, Mr. R. A. Shinkwin, New York, Mr. Edward F. Rode, New York, Mr. John Store, Malden, Mass., Mr. Pierce, Boston, Mr. H. S. Lamplough, Montreal, Mr. M. Jack Baker, Portland, Me., Mr. H. S. Lamplough, Ames, Milton, Dr. Schlegel, New York City, C. H. Lunt, J. S. Crowley, Beverly, Mass.

Euchre Party.

The parlors of the Merriconeag were the scene Saturday evening of one of the pleasant card parties so famous to this house. Euchre was the game and the players made up six tables, the following participating:

Edward F. Rode, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Schott, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. E. Eldred, New York City; Mr. Charles G. Shaw, Mrs. H. E. Ashcroft, Montreal; Miss Wills, Montreal; Miss May Eldred, Dr. Schlegel, New York City; Mrs. T. B. Woolsey, New York; and Mrs. Eleanor Woolsey, New York; Miss Margaret Leal of Plainfield, N. J.; Mrs. G. H. Abbott and Mr. Robert Abbott, Woburn; Mr. A. Burt, New York; J. M. Murdoch, Woburn; H. S. Lamplough, Montreal; Miss Pittcaithly, Montreal; A. E. Lunt, C. H. Lunt and J. S. Crowley of Beverly, Mass., and Mr. Desoye, New York. Mr. Edward F. Rode was the sponsor for the evening.

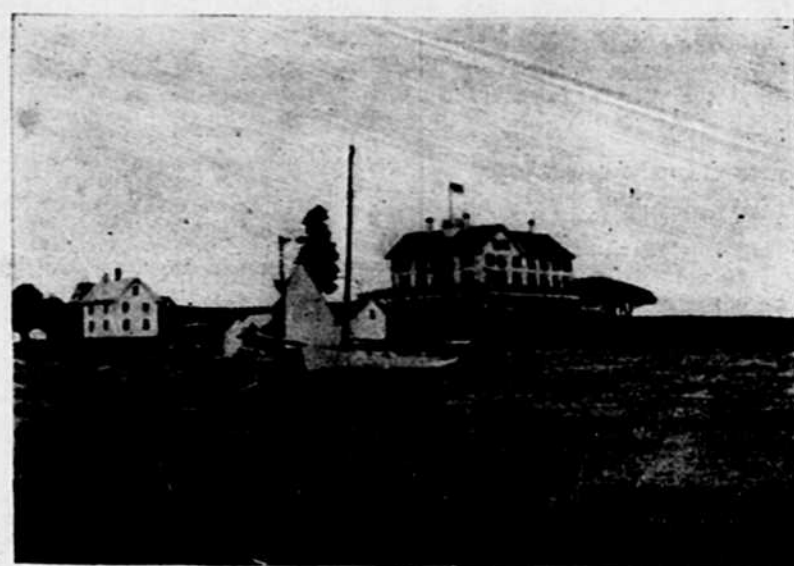

Playing occupied the hours between 8 and 10 and after much good-humored competition, and the usual efforts to out the lucky ones occupying the head table, time was declared up and a count of the score cards showed the following fortunate ones:

Miss Wills, 40 points, who secured first ladies' prize, a gold picture frame. Eleanor Woolsey, 30 points, second

BASEBALL FANS COMPETE.Colony Team Defeats Combination from Two Harpswell Hotels.

The first ball game of the season came off as scheduled Monday afternoon on the grounds of the Colony, when the Colony team crossed bats with a picked team from the Ocean View and the Merriconeag. The game was replete with exciting and amusing episodes, among them being the leapfrog work at 1st base, and the amazing accuracy of the hotel team outfielders. The game was characterized by the steady all-round work of the Colony team, whose careful practice of the previous week showed definite results. The battery work on both teams was very satisfactory, but the batting was rather in favor of the Colony men. Although the score shows a wide divergence, the game was by no means a sinecure, and afforded much interest. The piazzas of the Colony cottages were crowded with spectators and the high wind did not prevent the occasional hearty applause from reaching the ears of the ears of the contesting teams. The hotel team are eager for another game and it is rumored are preparing to do a little practicing on their own account. The batting order follows: Colony team—P. Dana, 1st b.; L. Dana, c.; H. Lord, p.; Brown, 1st b.; Ridgway, ss.; L. Lord, 3d b.; Baxter, 2d b.; Tansie, m.; Moffatt, rf. Ocean View and Merriconeag—Cobb, p.; Donahue, c.; A. Lunt, 1st b.; G. Abbott, 1st b.; H. Lunt, 3d b.; Burt, ss.; McKoon, lf. m.; Strout, rf.; Abbott, 2d b.; Schlegel, 2d b. Score—Colony, 23; Hotels, 4. Umpire, R. Page; scorer, Shaw, Crowley.

COLONY HOP.Usual Weekly Hop of South Harpswell Elite Cottagers well attended.

The Saturday evening dance at the colony last week was an unusually successful affair and most thoroughly enjoyed by all the young set. Special music was furnished.

POST OFFICE ROBBED.South Harpswell Postoffice Relieved of Sum of $350 in Stamps and Cash Monday Night.

Thieves entered the store formerly of J. H. Davis, now Arthur Palmer Monday night and carried off booty amounting to $105 in cash and about $220 in stamps of various denominations, also $5 in change was taken from the cash register. The break was made through a window on the second floor rear but no clew seems to have been found up to date to the criminals.

Birthday Party.

A pleasant party at the Strout House took place last evening on the occasion of the birthday party of Miss Belle Strout. Progressive whist was enjoyed and a collation of ice cream with a fine birthday cake was served. Miss Strout, who is quite popular here, was remembered by her many friends with a number of dainty presents.

LIVELY RACE OF LAUNCHES.

Pauline and Oil May Contest for Speed Off Harpswell.

A very close and exciting race occurred between the above named boats Friday last, the course was from the steamboat wharf to Birch Island buoy and back. The Pauline covered the distance in 15 minutes, or at the rate of 12 miles an hour. The Oil May was a close second with the record of 16 minutes, the distance is considered 2 miles each way. The Pauline is considered the fastest in Casco Bay. She is 33 ft. 8 in. over all and is undoubtedly the best fitted launch of her size. She has a Palmer engine of 7 horse power. F. S. Purington does the piloting with "knowledge of the line and outs" of Casco Bay. It is safe to say that the "Pauline" is the best there is.

The Oil May is one of the best Hampton fishing boats there is. She is very strongly built; she is 26 feet all over all and is owned by Jake Bailey of Basin point. She has a Knox engine of 6 1/2 horse power, therefore this race was to determine which is the best make, the Palmer or Knox engines. The Oil May has a slight advantage over the Pauline on account of her being able to turn a smaller circle, on the other hand the Pauline has the advantage of 1/2 horse power, so it is a very even thing.

Another race between these boats is expected any day.

Ocean View Hotel.

Mrs. John H. Bickford, Master John and Miss Elizabeth Bickford, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Whitman, Miss Ruth Whitman, of Wilkes Barre, Pa. Mrs. Viola Boylston of Philadelphia with Dr. and Mrs. Murlin of Baldwin, Kansas, were out enjoying a sail Friday with Capt. Prout of South Harpswell in the sloop Harpswell.

Mrs. Murlin were in Portland Saturday. They have expressed themselves as much pleased with the layout of the city and its magnificent parks.

Ocean View has among its guests no less than three doctors and a large number of clergymen.

Many fine cottages on the south side of the island are brilliant with the gay life of the summer. Social life is active and the evening parties are frequent. One of the pleasant features of cottage life here is the grand opportunity for social gatherings at the fine private casino which is owned by a few of the summer residents. Here on an evening, dances are given by the younger set which prove a great success.

Well Dr. Morgan, Worcester, Mass., manager of the Old Colony Hotel, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Hinchell, Windhurst cottage, for the next week.

The Sunday excursion steamer Aucisco passed here about four o'clock with bunting and flags flying. The decks were packed with people. Chandler's band was on board.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Small and party of ten from Washington, D. C., are at the Woodbine for an extended stay. The Woodbine is a favorite resort with the Woodbine people.

A number of complaints are heard in consequence of the rough and shaky condition of the old wharf. As it happens this wharf is more often used by the steamers than the Mackerel Cove wharf and the necessity of a better wharf is apparent. The steamers of the Harpswell line are of heavy tonnage and require a firm, substantial pier to ensure safety.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. York were entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Hatch of Portland Sunday. The time was pleasantly spent in driving over the island.

J. G. Stetson, the ice cream dealer, is very busy these days. Sunday was a rush day for frozen things as the thermometer was dancing up in the 80's.

Mr. O. A. Yale of Boston, who was visiting Bailey's the past week, spent Sunday at South Harpswell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rogers, Miss Rogers of Wakefield, Mass., and Mrs. H. W. Howe of Waltham, Mass., took dinner at the Ocean View Hotel Saturday last. The party are stopping at Harpswell. They were greatly enthused with the striking features of Bailey's Island, its fine cottages and grand ocean shore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Schermerhorn and William Wheeler of New York are at the Seaside cottage for several weeks. They spent the last two summers at Orr's Island but this year exchanged their location to Bailey's.

Mrs. S. B. Trufant, with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Gordon, of Brunswick, visited Mrs. F. W. Ridley of Sebastic, last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Isaac Gilpatrick, a former resident of this place, but now of Richmond, has now been calling on old acquaintances recently.

Mrs. Bert Brigham, accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Bernard Johnson of Bailey's Island, passed Saturday of last week in Sebastic with F. W. Ridley and family.

Miss Angie Watson has returned from a short visit in Kennebunkport. We are glad to hear of the prospect of a boom for Cundy's another year. Such a pretty place well deserves it, of this we are sure, but it seems a long time coming.

W. A. Trufant, our south end grocer, has become a benedict. On Tuesday, the 21st, he was united in marriage to Miss Florence Hamilton of Chebeague Island. We heartily welcome Mrs. Trufant and wish the young couple many years of happy wedded bliss.

FATE AND COURAGE

CONQUER FLAMES.

Incipient Conflagration at the Colony at Harpswell Creates Some Excitement.

What well nigh proved to be a disastrous fire at the Chas. E. Pinkham house at the Colony Sunday night was averted by a combination of good fortune and the timely action of several of the colony people. It was about 9:30 p. m. and Mr. N. L. Moffatt and his family had retired for the night. The maid who was the only one downstairs had left the room a moment, leaving a lighted candle on the table. The candle, a gust of wind, and a flap curtain now entered into a close intimacy and in a moment a glare of flame shot out from the window, lighting up the whole area without, and spreading rapidly. At this juncture Mr. Ridgway and Miss Clara Baxter who were upon a neighboring piazza, seeing the danger, ran to the house and at considerable risk, seized the blazing curtain and dragged it from the window. Mr. Ridgway's hand was badly burned during the excitement and almost by magic the spot was quickly thronged by interested spectators from the Colony who aided in the work of the heroic fire brigade. Mr. Moffatt is to be congratulated upon the time and circumstances of the happening, as, had it occurred later in the evening, much damage must have resulted.

HARPSWELL SOUND YACHT RACES.

The first of a series of races took place last Saturday afternoon on Harpswell Sound. The course was from off "Shore Acres," Harpswell, out to "Intervale Shoal Buoy," up the Sound to a flag off "Reed's Cove," Orr's Island, and back to "Shore Acres." The boats were divided into two classes, first 21 ft. w. l. knockabouts and second, sloops from 20 to 25 feet.

Of the first class there were but two: Mr. Spaulding's "Sheerwater" and Mr. J. H. Stour's "Iris." It was about 2:30 p. m. when the knockabouts crossed the line. The Sheerwater leading by about 25 seconds. For the next part it was a drifting match between the two boats. The Iris took the lead when about one third around the course and kept the lead throughout, winning by 45 seconds.

Of the second class there were six boats and they started in the following order: 1st Mr. Merriman; 2nd Mr. Bickley; 3rd Mr. Watson; 4th Mr. Holmes; 5th Mr. Meisenbach; 6th Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Watson's boat soon took second place and finally led. The run out to Intervale Shoal was fair but coming back the wind fell flat and at last it was completely making a finish in the time allowed impossible.

The race was gotten up and managed by Mr. Meisenbach and had the weather only been more favorable the race would doubtless have been a very successful affair.

Capt. Merriman and Prof. Pillsbury were the judges. A good many people watched the start from the shores of both Harpswell and Orr's Island and it is hard to place there when the next race takes place, there will be a fine breeze and an exciting finish.

Mr. Horace Stevens is visiting Mr. Marion.

Mr. N. Wales of Braintree, Mass., and some of his college mates are spending a day or two here. They arrived yesterday in their launch in which they are cruising.

Mrs. and Miss Packard of Brighton, Mass. are now here and are occupying the Dewey Cottage on Lowell's Cove.

A sale of bric a brac and fancy articles is to be given at Pine-Cliff, Miss Decker's and Miss Robinson's cottage on Tuesday, July 28. The sale is for the benefit of an Old Ladies' Home.

A sale for the benefit of the library is to be held at Rydal Mount, Mrs. Read's cottage on August 12.

Dr. Tiffany of Boston is going to lecture on "Soglio, a Swiss-Italian Mountain Hamlet," at Mrs. Tedlow's on Aug. 4 at four o'clock. Proceeds are for the library.

Mr. Herbert Wilson is building an eighteen foot launch for Mr. Flansburg.

Mr. John H. Stone's "Iris" anchored here in Beal's Cove Saturday night and he and his friend, Mr. E. Pierce of Boston, Mass., spent the evening with friends on shore.

Miss Eva Marion has joined her family who are spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Richmond of Dorchester, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. B. J. Barry.

George C. Morrison, a well known traveling salesman, whose home is in Boston, arrived Saturday to remain over the Sabbath.

Among others at the island Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Cole, George W. Bealey, Frank H. Plummer and Councilman Waterhouse.

There was a largely attended dance at the Elgin Maine building Saturday night under the management of Herman C. Littlejohn. Music was furnished by Hamilton's orchestra.
