

Rangoon, April 18, 1861.

Sir -

I would suggest the name of Dr. A. C. Hamlin, as a Recruiting Officer for this place. He will have the list & probably inspire more ardor & military feeling here than any other person.

As Captain of one of our Guard Companies of wide amakes, & connected with the "Chasseurs" now under drill in our Gymnasium, I think the Dr. would be as effective, if not more so, as any military man here. He would "make up" the young men & make enlistments rapidly, I don't doubt.

If it would not be interfering with Genl. Goddard's duties, I would suggest the name of the Dr. to him, for the above purpose.

Very respectfully,
Yours obedt Servt.
