Fire at South Surry.

SURRY, Feb. 7 (special).—The house of M. Curtis at South Surry, with carriage house attached, was burned about 10.30 o'clock last evening with contents. The stable was saved. The loss is estimated at $2,000. There was no insurance.

The fire started in the main house from some unknown cause, but presumably from a chimney. The family was away at the time, attending a party in the neighborhood. When the fire was discovered the house was beyond saving, and it was impossible to save any of the furnishings.

As nearly all the residents of the vicinity were at the party, a good crowd was soon at the fire, and by hard work succeeded in saving the stable.

EAST BLUEHILL GRANGE.

About twenty members of East Bluehill Grange visited Harvest Home Grange West Ellsworth, Saturday evening, also two members from Surry Grange. The evening was pleasantly spent, the entertaining members giving a fine supper and program. The program was as follows:

"Kitty Wells" (Requested)

You ask what makes this darkey weep,
Why he like others am not gay;
What makes the tears flow down his cheek,
From early morn till close of day?
My story, darkies, you shall hear,
For in my memory fresh it dwells,
'Twill cause you all to drop a tear
On the grave of my sweet Kitty Wells.

CHORUS.

While the birds were singing in the morning,
And the myrtle and the ivy were in bloom,
And the sun on the hilltop was a-dawning,
It was then we laid her in the tomb.

I shall never forget the day
That we together roamed the dell,
I kissed her cheek and named the day
That I should marry Kitty Wells;
But death came in my cabin door,
And took from me my joy and pride;
And when I found she was no more,
Then I laid my banjo down and cried.

CHORUS.

I often wish that I were dead
And laid beside her in the tomb;
The sorrow that bows down my head
Is silent in the midnight gloom;
The springtime has no charms for me,
Though flowers are blooming in the dells,
For that bright form I do not see,
'Tis the form of my sweet Kitty Wells.

Mary of the Wild Moor

It was on one cold winter's night,
As the wind blew across the wild moor,
When Mary came wandering home with her babe
"Till she came to her own father's door,
"O, Father; Dear Father!" she cried,
"Come down and open the door,
Or the child in my arms will perish and die
By the winds that blow across the wild moor."

Oh! why did I leave this dear spot
Where once I was happy and free,
Now doomed to roam without friends or a home,
And no one to take pity on me.
The old man was deaf to her cries,
Not a sound of her voice reached his ears,
But the watch dog did howl and the village bell told
And the wind blew across the wild moor.

But how must the old man have felt,
When he came to the door in the morn',
Poor Mary was dead, but the child was alive
Closely pressed in its dead mother's arms.
Half frantic he tore his gray hair,
And the tears down his cheeks they did pour Saying, "This cold winter's night she perished and died
By the wind that blew across the wild moor!"

The old man in grief pined away,
And the child to its mother went soon,
And no one they say has lived there to this day,
And the cottage to ruin has gone.
The villagers point out the spot
Where the willow droops over the door,
Saying, "There Mary died, a gay village bride,
By the wind that blew across the wild moor."

OBITUARY.

Died at his home in Worcester, Mass., March 7, Vespasian Carter, aged seventy-eight years, four months and nineteen days.

Mr. Carter was born in Bluehill, the son of Vespasian Carter and wife. In his younger days he followed the sea in coasting vessels, and also made many voyages to the West Indies. Later he adopted the business of carpenter. Twelve years ago, while working on a barn in Ashburnham, Mass., he was struck by lightning and never fully recovered from the effects of the stroke. He moved to Worcester, Mass., nine years ago.

Mr. Carter was twice married, and is survived by eight children by his first wife—Mrs. Hattie Davis, Mrs. Jane Conary, Joseph Carter, of Surry; Mrs. Anna Rock, of Barre, Vt., Mrs. O. P. Carter and Mrs. G. A. Pierce, of Sedgwick, Fred F. Carter, of Belfast, and Mrs. Flora Herrick, of Bangor. His second wife survives him, and one daughter by this marriage—Mrs. Fairbanks, with whom he lived. He leaves also three brothers and three sisters.

Services were held at Worcester, and his body was brought to Surry to be laid beside his first wife. Services were held at the church, Rev. J. D. McGraw officiating. A goodly number of relatives and friends paid their respects by attending the services. It was his last request that he be brought to his old home for interment.

Mr. Carter was a member of the Baptist church in Surry for fifty-one years.

OBITUARY.

MRS. RUBY A. GRANT.

Ruby A., wife of Asa T. Grant, died at her home at Bangor Wednesday, March 7, aged 27 years, 8 months and 22 days. She had been in ill health since about Christmas, but her death was accelerated by that dread disease, typhoid fever. The funeral services were held at her late home Friday, Rev. A. B. Lorimer, of the second Baptist church, Bangor, officiating.

The Order of Royal Neighbors of America, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body and conducted their usual beautiful ritual. The bearers were young friends of the deceased. There were many beautiful floral offerings, tributes of love and respect. The interment was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant went to Bangor from Ellsworth at the beginning of their married life about six years ago, and during their residence there won many warm friends and kind neighbors. Mrs. Grant, though at times suffering much, was very patient throughout all her illness, and though she had a bright prosperous future before her, with everything to live for, was reconciled to death, and just before her life went out, sang her old familiar hymn, "Glory to God, I am on my journey home."

Mrs. Grant was much esteemed for her kindness of heart, cheerful disposition and exemplary life. She was charitably inclined, making many gifts to needy ones, not in a way that courted display or show, but in her own quiet, unobtrusive way that was worthy of the highest commendation.

She leaves besides a husband, two little girls—Florence, aged four, and Maude, aged two years; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Surry, three brothers—Ivory C. Anderson, Sterling E. Anderson and Clifford P. Anderson, all of Surry, and four sisters—Mrs. Cora L. Leighton, of Bar Harbor; Mrs. Florence M. Stevens, now in Philadelphia, Pa.; Edith E. Anderson and Gertrude Anderson, both of Bangor.

PEOPLE OF SURRY CELEBRATE THE TOWN'S HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY

Citizens and Former Residents Unite In Making the Affair a Success—Music, Baseball and Speechmaking Prominent Features In an Interesting Program.

(From Our Regular

ELLSWORTH, Aug. 14--Thursday was Surry's day, when people from all over Hancock county and the State also, were turning their faces homeward, to unite in celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the town's incorporation.

People came from all directions and on every hand, carriages, teams and buckboards were to be seen bringing loads of persons. Every door yard within the town limits was filled with teams and not a few were fastened in the fields and about the grove.

It was a delightful occasion for every body and the committee and all who labored so hard for its success, should feel amply repaid. One saw persons renewing an acquaintance after 30 and 40 years of separation, others younger who were born in the town, but left when they were children and had not been home since. While others had married and gone to other parts of the State to live, and had come to celebrate the anniversary.

At sunrise, the salute of bells awakened the town residents, if any there were who were not stirring before that time. At 8 o'clock Lynch's cornet band in the square near the stores and post office, gave a long concert, which all enjoyed. Then baseball at Pine Grove Hill was the next attraction, here two games were played, Bluehill vs. Surry and Bluehill vs. Lakewood. In both Bluehill was victorious. The contests were interesting as each team had its supporters present to cheer them on to victory.

Then dinner was announced, served in A. O. U. W. Hall, the church and vestry. And such a repast as the good housewives of the town had, food enough to feed twice the number present and of an unusual and appetizing variety. All did justice to it, and three cheers were suggested for the cooks.

In the afternoon the grove arranged with settees draped with flags and bunting among the trees and made as inviting as out of doors can be, was the place to which all turned. Lynch's band gave a selection and the Lotus male quartet sang. The quartet, although heard for the first time in this section, delighted all present and it is the universal opinion of all that it is the finest male quartet that has sung in Hancock in some time. Rev. E. Bean of Bluehill, who was on the program was unable to be present. The address of welcome by Rev. J. D. McGraw of Surry, was appreciated by all, and they felt more at home than before. The past of Surry, by Dr. R. L. Grindle of Mt. Desert, himself a native of the place, was full of interest to the elderly ones, whose associations are more with the past than present and all found food for thought in it. Music by Lynch's band was next in order, when Rev. Adelbert Hudson of Newton, Mass who is a summer resident of the town of Surry, was introduced and gave a pleasing address. Singing by the Lotus male quartet, when the future of Surry by Rev. F. L. Hayward was heard. If half of the bright and beautiful things predicted come to pass, the town will have reason to rejoice and look upon Mr. Hayward as a good prophet. Music by Lynch's band. Mrs. Sarah Lynch, a native of the town who had been absent many years, spoke feelingly of what it meant to her to be

Friends of Capt. Scott Treworgy were sorry to hear of his painful accident. He caught his foot in the machinery of the dredger and nearly crushed it to pieces, and it was feared it would have to be amputated, but the latest report said he was slowly improving.

Capt. Fred B. Foss came up from Brooklyn in his yacht the Aurora Wednesday and returned Thursday. He was accompanied by the following party: Capt. Fred Phillips and wife, Granville Phillips and Orrin Fly, all of Brooklyn. Mrs. Foss went back with him and will remain in Brooklyn all summer.

M. E. Limekin and wife and Mrs. Daniel McKay spent Sunday at their camp on the shore of Patten's pond.

March 28-1904

present again. A poem composed by a former resident was read by Mrs. Nellie Hagerthy. There was more singing by the quartet and music by the band, then it was time for tea. A bountiful supper was also served and many remained for there was to be an entertainment and dance in the evening and other attractions in the way of fireworks. There were 75 couple at the dance for which Messrs. Wilson Lord and Lynch furnished music. There was such a quantity of food cooked that the women of the town held a 10 cent dinner in Town Hall, Friday, and supper Friday evening, and the remainder will be given away.

Fortunes of Our Presidents.

Washington left an estate valued at $800,000; John Adams left about $75,000; Jefferson died so poor that he would have been a pauper had not Congress purchased his library for $20,000; Madison left about $150,000; Monroe died poor and was buried at the expense of relatives; John Quincy Adams left about $55,000 at his death; Jackson about $80,000; Van Buren, $400,000; Polk, $150,000; Taylor, $150,000; Tyler married a woman of wealth; Fillmore left $200,000; Pierce, $50,000; Buchanan, $200,000; Lincoln, $75,000; Johnson, $50,000; Grant lost his wealth in the Grant & Ward failure; Hayes, Garfield and Harrison were all moderately well off, and Cleveland's fortune is probably larger. McKinley's fortune was not over $60,000.

A UNIQUE DRESS.

MORE than thirty thousand postage stamps were used in the making of a dress for a woman worn recently at a ball in Bermuda. Years had been spent in collecting the stamps, and three weeks in making the dress, which was of the finest muslin. The lady appealed to her friends to help her, and the dress was completely covered with stamps of all nations. In the center of the breast was an eagle made entirely with brown Columbian stamps. Suspended from the talons was a globe made of very old blue revenue stamps. On either side of the globe was an American flag, the stripes of blue and red stamps. A collection of foreign stamps was pasted on the back of the bodice in the form of a shield, the center of which was made up of a portrait of the brave Sir George Summers, cut from old revenue stamps.

A PITAIBLE CASE

A woman, who gave the name of Clara A. Wilson, with her four children, arrived Monday night in the midnight train from Ellsworth and to the police told a pitiable story. Her husband had left here a few years ago, and she didn't know his whereabouts. For the past two years, she has been supporting herself and four children in Ellsworth. The woman finally decided to take her family to Illinois, where she thought it might be easier to earn a living.

When she reached Bangor she was destitute of funds and a request was made for aid. The mother and children were taken to the Deaconess Home in Third street and spent the night there. On Tuesday the family was taken to the City Alms house, where they will remain until arrangements are made for their transportation.

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT.

Are you going to stand by Teddy,
Wideawake and good and ready,

While he tries to straighten out the tangled skein?

There's a mighty work to do
For the likes of me and you,

And you may think best to vote for him again.

He's the common people's ally,
He will rout 'em if we rally

To his banner while he turns the rascals out.

By the mighty money power,
Buried deeper hour by hour,

It's high time we had a lively turn about.

Sink all parties out of sight
In the coming people's fight,

We are way down to our last and only chance.

Stand boldly by his side,

Whatever may betide,

He'll be pretty sure to make the rascals dance.

There's our Tilman in the south,
With his loud unguarded mouth.

With a heart right in this fight to pull us through,

You may call him a hard hitter

But you can't call him a quitter.

It is plain enough to all of us, he'll do!

North, south and east and west,
Each one must do his best,

To hold the ground we've gained and fight it out.

United in one cause,

Down with graft, enforce the laws,

We'll be pretty sure to put the rogues to rout.
