

THE OLD ORCHARD APPLE

TOWN MEETING

The meeting of the Town Council was preoccupied by the Town Budget. In a meeting the previous night much understanding took place. The ground work for the Budget was laid with the basic format for the ratification understood. Each article (the proposed budget enclosed elsewhere in the paper) was to be ratified by itself. Thus a long and drawn out meeting was expected.

There were few but important variations from the proposed budget. Manduca wanted to subsidize 500 dollars from the Advertizing Budget for an Anti-Litter Campaign then he after being refused wanted to add 300 dollars to the Conservation Commission for the same program. Neither passed and it was pointed out that PRIDE DAY was to be June 9.

The Lifeguard's Budget was raised 485 dollars for the maintenance of the municipale radioes after consultation with the late to arrive Public Safety Commission.

The Police Department Budget was called into question when Marshall wanted to know where a proposed 10,000 dollar cut was to take place. The Ocean Park protection and the code enforcement were the prime areas of the cut. Finally they were restored after a member of the Public Safety Commission assured the Council there would be no cut or reductions in service. The labor contract was the basic area of disagreement to be discussed at another time.

For the Department of Public Works a proposed $23,302.39 cut was projected by Manduca only to fall to the table. It was to be ratified for the $182,770,00 price.

A budget for the Treatment Plant was cut $4,015.00 as it was felt to be unjustified as it was.

Through a vote of the Council the Senior Citizen's Tax Rebate Program was added at a cost of about $9000.

Other than these corrections the meeting bordered on the ridiculous thus saying to the sparse crowd that the Council had done its homework.

Mr. and Mrs. James Skidds Jr. celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on May 29th.

The actual date of their anniversary was May 24th, but relatives from Canada, New York, Boston and Maine were invited, and it was much more convenient to have it during the Memorial Day weekend. In 1970, a group of concerned men and women, with a man called Jay Mrowka at its head, felt the town needed its own ambulance. Up until this time the town had to depend on Saco, Biddeford and the Old Orchard Beach Police cruisers. With a population of over 100,000 in the summer, this was truly a necessity.

This group of people worked endlessly planning, gathering facts and figures, taking up collections, petitioning and two years of emergency medical training to prepare themselves.

Finally, they got the issue to referendum vote before the townspeople with an overwhelming 3 to 1 majority in favor of an ambulance service for Old Orchard Beach.

Shortly thereafter, the ambulance was ordered, being purchased by the town, to be turned over to this conscientious group to operate as a non-profit, 100% volunteer, private corporation which officially went into operation June 5, 1972. While awaiting the new ambulance, two different loaners were used from the company from which the ambulance was being purchased. These were less than desirable, although providing adequate service to the town.

There was no radio contact by the unit to or from the police department or hospitals and no extra equipment. Crews were contacted by phone by the police department and in turn would notify each other in the same way.

During this time the campaign was under way for new members and training sessions continued.

The big day came in August of 1972, when the shiny new ambulance arrived with all its equipment and would be at this time housed at the Old Orchard Beach

Town Barn. The radio system was installed and Rescue 1 was on its way.

Since then, Rescue has been in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and like the mailman; Through hail, sleet and snow, the Rescue unit must go through!

We are always campaigning for new members and training is still going on. The Rescue Unit has 23 members and of these 16 are Nationally Registered Emergency Medical Technicians.

We are proud of our service and are continually striving towards greater knowledge in the field of emergency care.

The officers of the Rescue Unit are; Robert Boynton President, Rick Southwick Vice President, Gil Pelletier Treasurer, Pauline Bounton Secretary.

It is indeed very hard and sometimes very impossible to try to pick candidates in local politics. However, as a political editor I feel it is my duty and responsibility. This is very easy to state, but there are other factors which weigh in my decision.

Relationships are things which are cherished if not relished. I have known for a long time both candidates of the June 8th Democratic Primary-----both Leatrice Morin, the incumbent and John Kerry, the challenger. Mrs. Morin was a patient waiter for her often late Sunday morning paper boy. Mr. Kerry was a fellow student at Cheverus High School in the early 60's. But it is not my purpose to deal in personalites.

Politics has been of late a subject of ill repute---nothing to be desired nor accepted. My political scenery is that of a Republican nature--one of challenge being from a substantially small arena in respect to the larger Democratic Party. Why then would I take interest in the primary? I by no means want to influence the Democratic Party such that my own (Republican) party can win in the fall. That is completely absurd if not bordering on insanity. Why then????

Once a man becomes involved, he must become totally involved. This spirit has prevailed in my reincarnation to politics. Involvement for the betterment of the town is my purpose and goal.

Now as the primary approaches, I state with firmness that I wholly endorse the candidacy of John M. Kerry for State Representative for District 117. I feel strongly that I as a Republican have worked for Kerry and will continue to work for his election.

Kerry has over his six years in the Legislature been very influential especially when it comes to the rights of the individual, the rights of the family, and the rights of women through his position as Director of Legislative Research for the Diocese of Portland. Over-spending, duplication of services, any irresponsible use of public funds must be eliminated through an identity priority system. His vitality and vigor has provided a stimulus for youth in our community.

Kerry's strong point is his sincere sensibility for local people and their situations. Being a native for six years in addition to the fact that his father was Police Chief in Saco for 20 years, John Kerry feels very strongly that the people of this area need the added representation in Augusta especially when the people are asking serious questions about schools, taxes, and assessments. Kerry should know he's been there and he's an realtor who knows what's going on.

I realize that I can be open to the public criticism and that I welcome especially if it in a Christian manner. It is indeed rough to be in this unique position but I have never been one to neglect a duty which I feel is good for the town. We must put aside the tradition of the town and forge ahead for the GOOD. In that spirit I ask that all citizens get out and vote and I would consider the majority's vote the will of the people. I ask that you consider the candidacy of John M. Kerry for State Representative for District 117. As for me there is no doubt in my mind that KERRY is for Old Orchard Beach.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Congratulations to the staff of The Apple for giving the people of Old Orchard Beach a fine local newspaper. Human nature, being what it is, people like to read about themselves or their neighbors doing community action. Now we at the beach know what youngsters make the little league teams, or the girl's softball league or just news in general about the local clubs and organization.

Iwish you much success with The Apple, and that the paper will continue for a long, long time. It is a pleasure to read good news about Old Orchard Beach, for a change, and I congratulate you and the staff for doing just that.

The People Speak!

At the risk of sounding puritanical, we find it very strange that the "moralist members" of the Town Council have not raised their voices, in protest to the lowering of a small town's standards.

Mr. Richard Gabriel states, and quite correctly so, that there is no State Statute on the books which says that it can not be done.

We remember when there was a town ordinance printed and was posted on nearly every telephone post stating that any person going to the beach must have suitable covering.

Ernest Brousseau

ACTION! NOT WORDS!

Each year I become more disgusted and appalled at the cheap, tacky stores located on Old Orchard Street. I refer particularly to the gift shops, whose crude ugly facades loudly proclaim their owners' pusuit and worship or the almighty dollar.

The shoddy, overpriced merchandise seems to find it's way out of the drab interiors, pushing it's racks and tables further onto the sidewalk as the season progresses.

"Rip them off and go south", would seem to be an apt motto for gift shop owners.

Would that these people were taxed for raping the quality of life and the aesthetic beauty of the town they so selfishly abuse.

COMMUTERS SYNDROME

For years I have clung to the belief that I could, by rising at 7, allowing half-an-hour to get ready, and half-an-hour for transportation, be at work at 8.

Actually, nine days out of ten, barring a flat tire, ice storm or a dead battery, I could get to work more or less on time.

That is, I could if it weren't for that little man across the street with the walkie-talkie.

The little man's sole function in life is to get in touch with every slow-moving vehicle known to modern civilization and send them out on Route 1 between Old Orchard Beach and Portland at 7:30 AM.

Every careful drunk, funeral cortege, Sunday driver, and heavy construction equipment in York and Oxford counties can be found at half past seven, winding their glacial way from the Ocean Park Road to the 295 cutoff.

Any driver knows these vehicles are impossible to pass, they simply speed up, and the poor commuter, finding he is going 85 through Scarborough, gives in and falls behind, resigned that he is going to be late to work again.

By some miracle, we all do get to work fairly near on time, helped, without a doubt, by our own version of the secretary slide or home plate steal.

My version of the above, for what it is worth, is as follows; Approach desk quietly, throw coat and purse into wastebasket, and begin typing "The quick brown fox" furiously. This is guaranteed to make a good impression, made even better if you have paper in the typewriter.

SUMMER!

by Sharon McCrory

To the delight of nearly everyone, summer is fast approaching. The town and people of Old Orchard Beach are well into making preparations for the numerous tourists who will soon visit this famous resort town. Summer is a season that should be noticed and enjoyed by all. I would like to devote this article to those of us who don't want the season to pass by without even realizing it's here. There are certain annual events that occur each summer in Old Orchard Beach, marking the start of the season. A few are listed below.

YOU KNOW SUMMER HAS COME TO OLD ORCHARD WHEN: You have to be on the beach by eight in the morning in order to get first pick at the choice spots. By 10 A.M. the beach is literally crowded, blanket to blanket. Here's a helpful hint for tourists and residents alike; always be on the lookout for a.) frisbees sailing close by; b.) blown over umbrellas rolling your way; c.) unleashed dogs romping by and covering your freshly lotioned body with sand; and d.) beach balls thrown in the direction of your head. Also, don't worry about taking a radio with you, because you'll be hearing at least seven different stations at once.

YOU KNOW SUMMER HAS COME TO OLD ORCHARD WHEN: You can't even walk down Main Street without bumping into people, benches or sidewalk displays. If you don't get hit by runaway skateboards, the bicycles will get you. If you don't get your feet stepped on, you'll get jabbed in the back with a prize bamboo cane. If you don't drop your pizza, don't worry, someone will surely drop theirs, in your direction!

YOU KNOW SUMMER HAS COME TO OLD ORCHARD WHEN: You can't walk out on the pier without stepping on someone's half-eaten candy apple, sliding on ice-cream, getting cotton candy stuck on your clothes and hair, or sneaking past the game stands without someone grabbing your arm and urging you to 'try your luck.'

YOU KNOW SUMMER HAS COME TO OLD ORCHARD WHEN: You see someone spend $8.50 trying to win a prize by tossing balls and knocking stuffed cats off of counters. (You'd almost swear the cats are full of lead and cemented to the platform).

YOU KNOW SUMMER HAS COME TO OLD ORCHARD WHEN: You sit for three hours in bumper-to-bumper traffic to Main Street. This may sound extremely boring, but the experienced person knows better. There is much to do while waiting in creeping traffic; a.) consume three pizzas, two pints of french fries, and a quart of onion rings; b.) read four paperbacks; c.) count the out-of-state plates; d.) look at the other people, or e.) all of the above.

Naturally, the above five points don't cover all of the seasonal events. Old Orchard Beach in the summertime is all of the above and more. Gorgeous sunshine, healthy air, a clean beach, delicious food, a variety of amusement and a diversity of people are

MOUNTAINS AND THE SUNRISE

The sky was purple and yellow
the mountains stood high, like a big fellow

The sky turned red then blue then the mountains became covered with dew,

Then the sun came out behind

Every day we get a different surprise when we watch the mountain and the sunrise.

SONGS

Songs are used in different ways
Some for movies, some are for plays

Some are high, some are low they are written carefully and slow.

Some are very hard to follow
Some are filled with sorrow.

ELEMENTARY SALUTES BICENTENNIAL

On Thursday, June 10, the Old Orchard Beach Elementary School will present its salute to Bicentennial America at the McSweeney Auditorium. The students and teachers in conjunction with Donna Moutsatsos, bicentennial chairwoman for the school department, have been working on songs and skits to celebrate the anniversary.

Mrs. Carol Phalen's kindergarten class will present songs to honor our nation and its flag. Miss Gloria Schmit's kindergarten class will sing songs.

First graders under the direction of Mr. Robert Magni and Mrs. Katherine Nelson will swing their partners to some spirited square dances. Miss Gertrude Thompson's class has prepared songs and Mrs. Elizabeth Caler's first graders are presenting a program about trains.

Miss Sharon Staebell's and Miss Linda Murray's classes are reliving our country's westward movement with songs and skits.

The remaining second graders under the direction of Miss Constance Bean, Mrs. Sandra Sibson and Mrs. Pamela Mullen will present a collection of our favorite songs old and new.

Mr. Laurence Collopy will lead in sing-a-longs.

The program will begin at 7:00 P.M. Students from the Elementary School should report to the gym at 6:30 P.M. and join their classes.

Daniel Smith of 92 Ocean Avenue would like to express his thanks to the Old Orchard Beach Fire Department for their prompt response in extinguishing the fire in his apartment early Monday morning.

He would also like to extend his thanks to family and friends who offered assistance.

Lynda Smith, the sole occupant at the time of the fire, escaped alarmed but uninjured.

MARY'S MORSELS

Lamb is one of the most favorite meats to most Greek people. At Easter time small whole lambs are cooked in almost every Greek home.

ROAST LEG OF LAMB

Leg of lamb 5-6 lbs.
4 cloves of garlic
2 tbsp. oregano
3 cups water
salt and pepper

8 potatoes cut in quarters
Wash meat well and place in roasting pan. Make incisions in the lamb in several places and insert cloves of garlic, salt and pepper the lamb, and sprinkle the oregano all over the lamb. Add half of the water in the pan. Bake in oven for one hour at 350°. Baste during cooking, until meat is well browned. Add your potatoes to the gravy during the last half hour of baking. Add the rest of the water and a little more if it seems dry. Serves 7-8.

FRIED EGGPLANT

1 large eggplant
1 cup olive oil or Mazola
½ cup flour
salt and pepper

Wash eggplant, slice into ½ inch round slices. Roll in flour and fry in hot oil about two minutes or until soft and light brown on each side. Serve as a side dish with any meat. Salt and pepper to taste.
