Georgia:

By George R. Gilmer Governor of said State.

To all to whom these Presents shall come

Whereas under the provisions of the act of Congress passed the 12th February 1293 "re respecting fugitives from justice" I have demanded of the Executive authority of the State of Maine the arrest and delivery to an agent of this State Daniel Philbrook and Edward Milleran, fugitives of this State charged by a true bill of indictment from the Superior Court of the County of Chatham, with the offence of Simple Larceny.

Now know ye that I have constituted and appointed and do by virtue of these presents, constitute and appoint George G. Miller Esquire, agent on the part of this State to receive and convey the said Daniel Philbrook and Edward Milleran, fugitives aforesaid, to the County of Chatham in this State, to be tried for the offence with which they stand charged. And for executing the trust herein confided to him, this shall be his sufficient authority.

Given under my hand and Seal of the Executive Department at the Capitol in Milledgeville this 27th of April A.D. 1838 and Independence U. S. A. the sixty-second

George R. Gilmer
