Pensacola, June 30

Dear Mother,

It is with pleasure that I set myself to write you a few lines to let you know that I agree well and hope that these few more spell lines will find you all the same.

Do not be too solicitous of my sake, as Betsy here has taken care of Capt. Hesse the second blind in both eyes, and I have got him so that she can see an eye on one hand. The other eye one had the other day one that she was afraid three hundred dollars for.
he sent him to a man to ride up their and he found him. The families are moving in here. An idear past it is quite a smart place there is as much twenty stores opened hear a heade well we can get a plenty of green dam Wattemelons, beches and so. I guess that they mean to help us out. Hear our time out. I don't see one mite of prospect of ever getting out. I have not had any trouble for sum time I did not get any the last time. Have you get that money yet.
I sent it the first of May. The rest of the bags have most all been from these. We are masters to pay for your ments more. I expect that we shall be paid off next month. I should like to be at home to spend the fourth but it is unecessary to wish so.

My paper and pen is so good that I will close you will do well to find out what I have left my respects to all those of.

Write often good By from

D. W. R.