NECROLOGY.

1919 DEATHS IN HANCOCK COUNTY LAST YEAR.

Great Falling Off From Preceding Year—Complete List of Ells- worth Deaths.

The American prints below a table showing the number of death occurring in Hancock county during the year 1919, compiled from returns made by the town clerks.

Comparison of last year's record with that of the preceding year gives startling emphasis to the heavy toll demanded by the influenza epidemic of 1918. Compared with the preceding ten years, the total number of deaths last year is much lower than the average, 522 against an average of 583.

An unusually large number of people over 90 years of age died in the county last year, 15. Bucksport alone reporting five of these, while that town has lost one nonagenarian since the beginning of the new year.

The following table shows the number of deaths and the old-age record of the county for the last year and the preceding ten years:

Year	Whole No.	Age 70-80	Age 80-90	Over 90
1909	602	111	52	11
1910	609	103	91	17
1911	584	146	79	12
1912	581	128	71	16
1913	580	138	81	12
1914	549	126	55	8
1915	591	154	97	7
1916	551	138	78	18
1917	559	135	73	11
1918	624	118	71	6
1919	522	112	75	15

The following is a record of deaths in Hancock county during the year 1919, by towns, with the record for the preceding year given for comparison. The record is approximately correct, care having been taken to verify the returns as printed from week to week in The American with records as returned at the close of the year by town clerks:

NECROLOGY.

DEATHS IN HANCOCK COUNTY LAST YEAR.

Has Been a Healthy Year—Fewer Deaths Than for Many Years.

The American prints below a table showing the number of deaths occurring in Hancock county during the year 1920, compiled from returns made by the town clerks.

The year was a healthy one in Hancock county, judging from this record, for the total number of deaths is smaller than for many years; in fact, the smallest of any year since The American has compiled this annual record, or more than twenty years.

Compared with the preceding ten years, last year's record of 472 deaths in the county is over 100 less than the average for those years, which is 575.

The following table shows the number of deaths and the old-age record of the county for the last year and the preceding ten years:

	Whole	Age	Age	Over
Year	No.	70-80	80-90	90
1910	609	103	91	17
1911	584	146	79	12
1912	581	128	71	16
1913	580	138	81	12
1914	549	126	55	8
1915	591	154	97	7
1916	551	138	78	18
1917	559	135	73	11
1918	624	118	71	6
1919	522	112	75	15
1920	472	110	78	10

The following is a record of deaths in Hancock county during the year 1920, by towns, with the record for the preceding year given for comparison. The record is approximately correct, care having been taken to verify the returns as printed from week to week in The American with records as returned at the close of the year by town clerks.

Miss Lois Kane, Ruth; Mrs. Alma G.

Martha; Miss Ada Herrick, Electa; Miss Annie M. Dollard, warder. The other three officers will be installed later when they return home. Miss Bernice Phillips played two beautiful instrumental solos during the installation. After several speeches, a delicious chicken supper was served.
The tables were tastefully decorated in red and green, and the windows were hung with the five emblematic colors in crepe paper. Much credit is due the supper committee, Mrs.
Lizzie Cole, Mrs. Alice Stanley, Mrs.
Linnie Gott, Mrs. Carrie Flye, Dr. F.
S. Herrick and Prin A. Allen. Owing to the cold weather the attendance was small, about fifty being present.
At the close of the installation ceremony, P. M. Mrs. Alice Stanley, on behalf of the chapter, presented to the past matron, Miss Musa Dollard, a beautiful leather week-end case.

Augustus J. Cousins died at his home Wednesday, Jan. 21, after a long illness, at the age of seventy-seven years. Mr. Cousins had always lived in Brooklin, where he married Helen Bowden, who survives him.
He leaves also two sons, William F. and Lewis B., both of this town. The death of another son, Harry, over six years ago, was a shock from which he never fully recovered. Mr.
Cousins was a life-long member of the Baptist church, also a member of Kenneth Cousins, who is attending business college at Bangor, spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Louise Patterson of Brewer came Friday, called here by the illness of her father.

enjoyed. A birthday cake was provided, with other refreshments, to celebrate the birthdays of Sister Alice Palmer and Brother Williams, whose natal days came in January.

Roland Stewart of Swan's Island is visiting his brother William.

One day recently, when going to haul wood, Capt. William Palmer had his right of way disputed by a large wild cat, on a road beyond the Sands. The captain was obliged to get off his sled and, with a sled stake, drive the cat from the road.

The Dorcas Society met Tuesday with Mrs. W. F. Bruce. Although the weather was disagreeable, there was a good attendance.

The Sixty-three club was entertained Friday night by the Eddie Coles, with the usual good time.

Mrs. C. C. Baker of Steuben is with her brother, Henry Hamilton, for awhile. Mr. Baker joined her for the week-end.

NECROLOGY

DEATHS IN HANCOCK COUNTY
DURING YEAR 1925.

Deaths in County and Ellsworth
 More than in Preceding Year,
 But Still Below Average.

The American prints below a table showing the number of deaths occurring in Hancock county during the year 1925, compiled from returns made by the town clerks.

There were a few more deaths in the county last year than in 1924, which was the lowest since 1896, but the 1925 death rate was still far below the average. Compared with the preceding ten years, last year's record of 459 is 68.3 below the average, which is 527.3.

The year was remarkable for the number of people of extreme age who died, there being no less than nineteen over 90 years of age. This is the largest number of deaths of nonagenarians reported in one year since these records have been compiled.

The following table shows the number of deaths and the old-age record of the county for the last year and the preceding ten years:

Year	Whole No.	Age 70-80	Age 80-90	Over 90
1915	591	154	97	7
1916	551	138	78	18
1917	559	135	73	11

1924	443	118	60	13
1925	459	107	78	19

The following is a record of deaths in Hancock county during the year 1925, by towns, with the record for the preceding year given for comparison. The returns as printed from week to week in The American have been verified by records returned at the close of the year by town clerks:

DEATHS IN HANCOCK COUNTY DURING YEAR 1929

Deaths in County and Ellsworth More than in Preceding Year—Old Age Record

The American prints below a table showing the number of death occurring in Hancock county during the year 1929, compiled from returns made by the town clerks.

There were a few more deaths in the county last year than in 1928. The 1929 death rate is a little above the average. Compared with the preceding ten years, last year's record of 528 is 34.5 above the average, which is 493.5. There were more deaths in the county last year than in any year since 1918, the influenza year, when there were 624.

The year 1928 was remarkable for the number of nonagenarians dying during the year—24. Last year only 8 persons died in the county, aged over 90 years.

The following table shows the number of deaths and the old-age record of the county for the last year and the preceding ten years:

Year	Whole No.	Age 70-80	Age 80-90	Over 90
