2012

Maine State Library Policy on Conference Room Use 2012

Maine State Library

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalmaine.com/msl_docs

Recommended Citation

This Text is brought to you for free and open access by the Maine State Library at Maine State Documents. It has been accepted for inclusion in Library Documents by an authorized administrator of Maine State Documents. For more information, please contact statedocs@maine.gov.
Maine State Library Policy on Conference Room Use

2nd Floor Conference Room Policy

The Maine State Library maintains a small conference room for the use of library staff and the public.

- The room may be reserved up to two weeks in advance, otherwise it is available for up to two hours on a first come, first served basis.
- The room holds six to eight individuals.
- Wireless connectivity is available but equipment such as projectors, white board, and/or computers are not available.

Priority Use

- Maine State Library Staff
- Researchers using Maine State Library resources
- Other library or literacy related groups
- Non-profit tutoring including Literacy Volunteers of America
- Other non-profit groups may use the room on a case-by-case basis.

Guidelines

- All use must take place during normal library business hours and must be scheduled to end 15 minutes prior to the closing of the library.
- Use must not disrupt the ability of the library to conduct its business in a normal and orderly manner.
- Recurring meetings may be allowed at the discretion of the Director of Reader and Information Services.
- Beverages are allowed in the meeting room as long as they meet the existing beverage policy.
- The room may not be used for day-care or babysitting purposes.
- The Library is not responsible for any materials or equipment left in the room. The Library cannot store items for groups using the conference room.

Adopted February, 2012