Maine State Library Policy on Wireless Computer Usage Agreement

Wireless Computer Usage Agreement

Acceptance of the conditions below is a requirement for access to the MSL wireless network.

Conditions for Use of Maine State Library Wireless Network

1. I understand that the MSL wireless network is an “open network” which means that information transmitted on this network is unencrypted and unsecured.
2. I further understand that connecting to the MSL Wireless Network is at my own risk and I agree that the Maine State Library shall have no liability for any damages, direct or indirect, occurring as a result of the use of MSL electronic resources.
3. I understand that Maine State Library staff does not provide any technical assistance for wireless connectivity and that I am solely responsible for connecting and configuring my own equipment.
4. I agree that I will not use MSL computer resources unlawfully. This includes, but is not limited to, using MSL resources to violate copyright agreements, harass others through the Internet, or exploit security holes in computers or networks.
5. I agree not to tamper with MSL systems or settings in any way, nor will I save or download programs or files to the network.
6. I understand that I will be using my electronic equipment in a public area and that privacy cannot be guaranteed. I agree not to view sexually graphic and/or explicit material, as this is prohibited on Maine State Library computers.
7. I agree that if I do not comply with these rules, I will be held liable for any damage my actions may cause and understand that my privilege to use the Maine State Library's wireless computer resources may be revoked.
