Some Scenes, Portraits and Bits of History along the Road Hither

Looking Forward

“It is too probable that no plan that we can propose will be adopted. Perhaps another dreadful conflict is to be sustained. If, to please the people, we offer what we ourselves disapprove, how can we afterwards defend our work? Let us raise a standard to which the wise and just can repair. The event is in the hand of God”.

—Washington.

Looking Backward

“The American Constitution is the most wonderful work ever struck off, at a given time, by the brain and purpose of man”.

—Gladstone.
