NEWSPAPER HISTORY
The Rockland Gazette was established in 1848.
In 1874 the paper was established, and continued with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1883, and in 1881 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1887.

When Dr. A. H. Thompson, a long time employee of the Pension Bureau, took the oath of office Saturday as disbursing officer at Washington, the pension agencies that existed for years passed out. Hereafter all pensions sent to veterans will be forwarded from Washington by check.
Eighteen agencies are abolished under the consolidation reform and their clerical forces have been established in Washington. The reform was provided for in the last pension appropriation bill.

In the United States and Canada
last year 1686 new papers were established, or at the rate of five per day. The following comment from the Portland Express-Advertiser contains more truth than poetry: "Those who do not know what else to do and who have the money necessary
to think of the one thing for themselves to join the ranks of newspaper publishers. That all of them do not entertain this belief permanently is evidenced from the fact that 1012 also chronicled the closing of 1,650 papers undoubtedly leaving a good many mourning richer in experience but far poorer in purse than when they began their journalistic experimenting."

At the close of the year 1911, the total missionary funds raised by the various Protestant missionary organizations here and abroad for work in heathen lands was $25,297,074. With this magnificent annual offering support was furnished for 2,058 white missionaries and 88,542 native helpers,
teachers, pastors, Bible women and evangelists in India, Africa, Japan, China, Burma, Siam, the Arctic, South America and Polynesia. The missions had an enrolled list of 4, 875,451 adherents, professing Christian belief, of whom 2,303,318 were communicants. In the same year there were 1,477,049 children in the various missionary schools. The United States contributed nearly one-half of the total fund for conducting the whole work, having raised in 1911
$12,290,005 for missions—Reformed

Legislature Warming Up

Workmen's Compensation Act Appears in Senate—Judge
Hurley and Two County Officials Want More Salary.

The Workmen's Compensation act,
one of the most important sessions
of the present Legislature, was presented in the Senate Monday by Sterns of Oxford county.

The act first defines the meanings of the words and phrases such as "employer," "employee," "commissioner,"
"industrial accident insurance policy,"
etc.

Section 2 of the act provides that in an action of damages received it shall not be a defense that the employee was negligent or that the employer had assumed the risk of injury.

The fourth section provides that an employee who receives a personal injury in the course of his employment
by an employer or the representative of an employer who has died as the result of such personal injury shall without regard to the negligence of any person be paid compensation. The section further provides that no compensation shall be paid during the first two weeks after the injury, but shall be paid during the first two weeks after the injury there shall be paid the cost of reasonable medical and hospital services, not exceeding $50 in amount.

In case of death resulting from the injury the compensation to the defendants of the employee shall be a weekly payment equal to one-half his average weekly wages, but not more than $10 per week nor less than $5 per week for a period of 30 weeks from the date of injury. The section further provides that if said defendants were only partially dependent on said employee the weekly payments shall be in such proportion to the dependency. If weekly payments have been made to employees
prior to death the compensation to dependents shall begin from the date of the last such payments, but are not to exceed more than 300 weeks from the date of injury. Where the employee leaves no dependent his representatives shall be paid the reasonable expenses of his last sickness and death, not exceeding $200.

There is a provision whereby an employee totally incapacitated from work shall have compensation of not more than $10 nor less than $4 per week for 500 weeks and thereafter so long as such incapacity continues a compensation of not more than $6
nor less than $3 per week. In cases where the incapacity is but partial the employee is to receive one-half the difference between the amount of average weekly wages for injury and the average wage which he earns thereafter not exceeding $10 per week and for a period of not more than 300 weeks from date of injury. In addition to all other compensations the employee receives not more than $10 per week
nor less than $4 for a period of 100 weeks from the date of injury. In all cases of both hands at or above the wrists
or both feet at or above the ankles,
the loss of one hand and one foot, the reduction to one-tenth of the normal vision in both eyes with glasses, or any loss by severance of either hand at or above the wrist, or either foot at or above the ankle, or the reduction to one-tenth of the vision in either eye with glasses, the injured person shall receive one-half of the average weekly wages not exceeding $10 per week and not less than $4 per week for 50 weeks. The same compensation is allowed for a period of 25 weeks for the loss of two or more fingers, thumbs or toes; also the same compensation for 12 weeks for the severance of at least one phalanx of a finger, thumb or toe.

In section 5 it is provided that no insurance or saving which the injured employee may have, shall be taken into consideration in determining the compensation to be paid under this act.

The law is different from the employees' compensation acts of other States, though it embodies the best features of all of them. It provides for compensation to employees irrespective of negligence. It provides compensation for employees except farm laborers, domestic servants and persons who are not employed in the course of the employer's ordinary business. In this it is similar to the law of Massachusetts and several other States. The compensation under this law is to be paid in weekly payments and not in lump sum. The administration of the law including determination of amount of compensation to which any injured workman is entitled is left with an industrial accident commission. The delays and expense incident to jury trials are eliminated.

The source of compensation provided by the act is the employer. The employee loses nearly half his wages,
but pays no part of the compensation
for loss of the other half. The medium through which the compensation
reaches the injured workman is either an insurance company or a State insurance fund. The employer at his option pays his premium to either.
The law is elective, not compulsory.
The employer elects to be subject to the law by paying his premium. The workman elects to be so subject by working for an assenting employer
without giving a notice in writing that he wishes to preserve his right to sue for damages. The employer who pays his premium is relieved from all suits for damages except by a non-assenting employee.

The commission created by the act consists of three men, the insurance commissioner and the commissioner of labor shall be ex-officio members of the commission. The Governor appoints the chairman, who holds office for three years. The chairman receives a salary of $2,500, the other members $500 in addition to their regular State salaries. The commissioners have actual travel and other expenses paid. A secretary at a salary of $1,500 per year is allowed.

The commission is allowed $10,000
for carrying out the provisions of the law. The act becomes operative Jan.
1, 1914.

Acts and petitions having an especial interest for The Courier-Gazette readers were presented in the Legislature Monday as follows:
Mr. Packard of Knox—Act increasing the salary of the judge of the Rockland Municipal Court from $1000
to $1800.

Mr. Sprague of Islesboro—Petition of George W. C. Drexel and 33 others in favor of a law prohibiting the use of automobiles in the town of Islesboro.

Morse of Rumford—Act to provide for instruction in thrift and economy in the public schools. The act provides that on Sept. 1, 1913, the teaching of thrift and economy in the public schools of Maine shall be compulsory. The school committees of cities and towns shall see that such a course is established in the public schools
and that at least one-half hour each week shall be given to the work.

Mr. Harmon of Stonington—Act
providing for a close time on deer in the town of Isle au Haut in Hancock county.

Mr. Currier of Camden—Resolve appropriating $500 for the Canaan Lake Fish School Association of Camden to be used for screening purposes.

Mr. Bucklin of Warren—Act making the compensation for the register of deeds of Knox county $500 per annum and $500 for clerk hire.

Mr. Harmon of Stonington—Act
providing for the venue of any action
and all bills for divorce in which any person residing in the towns of Stonington, Deer Isle, Isle au Haut, Swan's Island, Long Island and all islands belonging thereto shall be the venue as though the person resided in the city of Rockland. The act further provides that the judge of probate shall hold not less than four terms in the town of Stonington.

Representative Doherty has presented an act to increase the salary of the judge of probate in Knox
county from $500 to $800 per annum.

Senator Packard of Knox has presented a resolve in favor of the Rockland-Rockport Trunk line appropriating the sum of $4,000. The statement of facts which accompanies the resolve states that the slippery condition of the surface of the road between Rockland and Rockport makes it unsafe for team traffic. The highway department treated the section in 1912
with bitumen and sand with very satisfactory results. The entire length of road should be treated in practical.

Catarrah and Blood Disease—
Doctors Failed to Cure.

Our Boston Correspondent Runs Into Several More During His Observant Wanderings.

Boston, Feb. 3.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:

I went into the Union street branch of the W. B. Hunt Co.'s drug store recently, and asked to see the manager. When that august person appeared, I was somewhat surprised and mightily pleased to see a Rockland chap, who was about as popular as any of the boys behind the counter—
L. H. Peterson, formerly with the Norcross Drug Co. It was indeed pleasant to meet one who could talk over the signs of the times at home.

"But I shouldn't know the news at all if I didn't see The Courier-Gazette
once in a while," said Mr. Peterson.
Monday noon, the passersby on Tremont street saw a long line of men pouring out of Tremont Temple, and wondering who they were. Long hair and flowing ties proclaimed them
of an artistic cult, and a closer view showed that they all wore little badges signifying that they had registered as professional photographers in the Eastman School of Photography.
Rockland, Me., was well represented, the ledger bearing four names from that city. One Rockland man, A. H. Pillsbury, received considerable distinction, being chosen of an audience of 300 to assist in a demonstration on the platform.

Mr. Pillsbury is staying with two Vinalhaven boys, Arthur and Charles Lentest. The former is one of the collecting force of the Armstrong Transfer Co., and the latter is an active member of the Samson Murdock Co., who get up the directory of all the larger cities throughout the United States. Both young men are graduates of the Rockland Commercial College.

The writer had the pleasure of meeting two Rockland friends at lunch one day this week, Albert Burpee, now in the employ of the General Electric Co. at Lynn, and his sister, Miss Lucia Burpee of Rockland who was on her way home after three weeks' visit with relatives and friends in New York City.

Considerable excitement is created
each day when black-faced Arabs,
clad in snow-white costume with yellow turbans, try to drive several camels into the stage entrance of the Boston Theatre. These strange people are members of the "Garden of Allah" Company, that is producing that famous novel by Robert Hichens
good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsa-

this superb production reminds me of the woman who stepped up to the box office of a well-known New York
theatre, and said meekly:

"I would like two seats for four weeks from tonight."

The ticket agent looked at her in great disgust.

"Woman," he exclaimed, "please remember that you are in New York where you can't go to the theatre on the spur of the moment like that."

However, I will say for the benefit of prospective visitors with unlimited time and money, tickets can be procured.

BEAUTIFUL, LUSTROUS HAIR
IN FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25 cent bottle of "Danderine" and try this. Also Stops Falling Hair; Destroys Dandruff.

Your hair becomes light, wavy,
fluffy, abundant and appears as soft,
lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse."
Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies
and invigorates the scalp, forever
stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and dainty at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knob's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

REV. DR. PEPPER

Rev. George Dana Boardman Pepper,
D. D., former president of Colby College and known as "Lincoln's double," lately died at Waterville, aged 80 years. Dr. Pepper bore such a striking resemblance to the emancipator that in his early days he was often mistaken for Lincoln. He retained these characteristics up to the last of his life.

He was born in Ware, Mass., in 1834, and was a graduate of Amherst College and the Newton Theological Institution. In 1882 he became president of Colby College, holding that position until 1890. After serving as acting pastor of the Saco Baptist church, from 1890 to 1892, he returned to Colby where he held a professorship until 1900.

For three years Dr. Pepper was professor of ecclesiastical history at the Newton Theological Seminary, and for 15 years was professor of systematic theology at the Crozier Theological Seminary. A widow and three children survive him. His children are Mrs. Annie Pepper of Concord, N. H.; Mrs. Jessie Elizabeth Padelford, wife of Professor F.
M. Padelford of the University of Washington, Seattle, and Charles Hovey Pepper of Concord, Mass.
The family are well known and have many friends in Rockland where Dr.
and Mrs. Pepper have often visited and where the Doctor in earlier days
frequently preached.

SAMUEL A. HAWKINS

Samuel Albrey Hawkins, who recently died at Long Cove, came from England over 30 years ago, going first to Cape Ann, afterward to Long Cove, where he lived the remainder of his life in cheerful industry. Few live as long in an adopted country
and retain such characteristics of their old country or have such interesting English traits. Devoted to his church, kindly of greeting, he was greatly missed in the little community and St. George's church, where the burial service was held,
and whose rector will miss his greeting and his cordial profference of hospitality.

En Voyage
Whichever way the wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
Now blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

My little craft sails not alone;
A thousand fleets from every zone
Or on a thousand seas
And what for me were favoring breezes
Might dash another, with the shock
Of doom, upon some hidden rock.
And so I do not dare to pray
For winds to waft me on my way,
But leave it to a Higher Will
To stay or speed me; trusting still
That all is well, and sure that He
Who launched my bark will sail with me
Through storm and calm, and will not fail
Whatever breezes may prevail.
To land me, every peril past,
Within his sheltering haven at last.

Then, whatsoever wind doth blow,
My heart is glad to have it so;
And blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT

Rockland, February 4, 1913.
Personally appeared Neil S. Perry, who on oath declares that he is president in and officer of the Rockland Publishing Co., and that of the issue of The Courier-Gazette of February 4, 1913, there was printed a total of 4,552 copies. Before me:
J. W. CROCKER,
Notary Public.

That the people of Knox county are eager to respond to the work that Rockland's new Young Men's Christian Association is inaugurating was amply demonstrated by the attendance and interest shown in the meetings of a few days ago. The Association is now taking preliminary steps for a "survey" of the field. The modern survey is a method of stock taking, so that a community may definitely know what it possesses, both good and bad, in business and in personal connection. When this information has been gathered, analyzed and collated, it is then available for the community's use, to improve upon what is bad and therefore detrimental to the community's material and moral progress, and to enlarge and extend the operation of whatever is good and wholesome. The survey has to be made by a group of committees, numbering fully 150, whose investigations extend over a broad field of research and consume some weeks of time.

Something of what this movement is doing throughout the country is illustrated by the following, taken from the World's Work:

Delavan, Wis., was a "dead" town. A visiting minister suggested a community "survey," so a map was prepared that showed every farmhouse within five miles of Delavan. Every house was then checked off on the map in accordance with the results of the survey in one or another of these eight connections. A line drawn on the map so as to enclose the most distant farms having a particular community interest with the village, thus disclosed not only the extent of that interest's influence, but the gaps and weak spots in it.

The grocery and drygoods store influences were found to extend the farthest in every direction, and to be nearly co-extensive. Just inside these lines came that of the bank, with the milk factory line following it closely, except for occasional breaks. The line of influence of the Delavan churches was broken, and just inside these lines came that of the public library's activity. It radiated in four star-points with wide blank spaces between them. Investigation disclosed whole communities of Norwegians and other non-English-speaking people in the blank spaces, and steps were immediately taken to provide books in their mother-tongues for these families and to establish branch library centers in other "weak spots."

The survey for Rockland is undertaken by the Y. M. C. A. in the furtherance of that institution's purpose to make itself a helpful adjunct of a modern municipality. To make this survey the success here that it has proved itself in other cities will require the cooperation of the large body of business men whose support it is desired to enlist, and it is hoped that those who find themselves invited to take part will respond heartily in behalf of modern municipal progress.

MR. CHASE DECLINES

Bluehill Man Will Not Be Fish Commissioner—Realized He Had Strong Opposition.

Judge E. E. Chase of Bluehill will not be commissioner of sea and shore fisheries though appointed to that position by Gov. Haines.

Judge Chase announced that fact himself Wednesday afternoon, for he said he would not accept the appointment. There has been opposition to him from the start. Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Governor and council the matter was discussed, and considerable opposition developed, but the confirmation of the appointments recently made by the Governor did not come up.

Wednesday afternoon Judge Chase was at the State House and he said he would not accept the appointment. He spoke of the opposition that had developed to him and declared he had been advised by friends to give up the office. In the other hand, Gov. Haines informed him that he better stick to the office and he would have the position. Judge Chase, however, decided to leave the field and has done so.

"I did not seek the position," said he, "and informed the Governor that I would refuse the appointment before the nomination came up for confirmation. He advised me to stick, however, and I did so until my friends who have been loyally working in my behalf advised me to withdraw. I have done so in the interests of harmony."

Who will be the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries is problematical. There was a small army of candidates after the position before Judge Chase was named and it is presumed that these will again be in the field. James Donohue of Rockland, the present incumbent, still holds office until his successor is confirmed and will continue to do so for the present.

At the council meeting Blaine S. Viles of Augusta was confirmed as land agent and forest commissioner to succeed Frank E. Mace of Great Pond, and Walter L. Neal of Waldo was confirmed as commissioner of inland fisheries and game to succeed Mr. Viles.

PROGRESSIVE CITY CAUCUS

The Progressives of the City of Rockland, Maine, will meet in caucus on

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 14, 1913

at 7:30 o'clock

AT ARMORY HALL, SPRING STREET, in said Rockland, for the following purposes:

First: To nominate a Progressive candidate for Mayor, to be voted for at the City Election to be held Monday, March 3, 1913.

Second: To nominate candidates for the following offices, to be voted for at the City Election, to be held Monday, March 3, 1913, viz:

One Alderman, three Councilmen, one Warden, one Ward Clerk, one Member of the City Committee from each of the seven wards of the City of Rockland.

Third: To transact any other business that may legally come before said caucus.

For order,
R. H. McALLISTER, Chairman,
W. J. McKEOWN, Secretary.
Rockland, Maine, February 6, 1913. 11-12

For The Third Time

G. H. Blethen is Nominated for Mayor by the Republicans—The Ward Nominations.

Hon. G. Herbert Blethen, mayor of Rockland, was accorded the unusual honor Thursday night of a third nomination. The nominating speech was made by the only living ex-mayor who held the office for a similar period, and it was handsomely endorsed by a large and representative caucus.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Trueworthy of the city committee, who asked Ex-Mayor Israel Snow to preside. J. N. Southard was made secretary.

By nominating Mayor Blethen for a third term, Ex-Mayor Edward A. Butler said it was hardly necessary to go into particulars concerning Mr. Blethen's two administrations, and he expressed the hope that the mayor would wish to carry out to completion one of the most important improvements the city has undertaken at the Northend. "I think I know what it means to sacrifice one's comfort and peace of mind," said Capt. Butler, "I trust that Mayor Blethen is sufficiently progressive to suit the most ardent desires of our friends in that line."

Upon motion of C. S. Coughlin Secretary Wednesday cast the ballot of the caucus for Mayor Blethen's nomination.

His Honor was then escorted to the chair, and expressed appreciation of the honor which had been bestowed upon him by a third nomination. "If elected," said he, "I pledge myself to do my best, as I have tried to do in the past, and in this end I expect to be benefited by the experience of the past two years. I will carry out my policies to the best of my ability," which sentiment was heartily applauded.

The city committee selected in the ward caucuses of the previous year were ratified, and upon motion of F. C. Norton will enter upon their duties after the spring election.

THE WARD CAUCUSES

The Republican ward caucuses were held Wednesday night. Interest centered on Ward 1 where Fred M. Blackington and Adelbert Walker were conducting a lively canvass for the aldermanic nomination. Seventy-one voters and many spectators were present. Blackington carried the day by a vote of 46 to 25. In Ward 3 there was a contest for third councilman, Fred C. Black having 13 votes and Harry Bradbury 6. In Ward 5 George W. Blethen and Daniel Munro were rival candidates for the aldermanic nomination, though neither made any serious attempt to defeat the other, as shown by the vote, which was 7 to 5 in Blethen's favor. In Ward 7 an agreement made one year ago was carried out. At that time W. N. Benner, Jr. and Elmer C. St. Clair were both desirous of having the nomination for alderman, but not both could have it. It was finally decided to toss a coin, the winner to have the nomination in 1912 and the loser to have it in 1913. Mr. St. Clair "called the turn" and sat in the upper part of the room while Mr. Benner retained his seat in the common council. This year their positions are exactly reversed.

The survey for Rockland is undertaken by the Y. M. C. A. in the furtherance of that institution's purpose to make itself a helpful adjunct of a modern municipality. To make this survey the success here that it has proved itself in other cities will require the cooperation of the large body of business men whose support it is desired to enlist, and it is hoped that those who find themselves invited to take part will respond heartily in behalf of modern municipal progress.

The town of Washington suffered a destructive fire early this Friday morning, when the building containing the postoffice, H. B. Taylor's general store and Masonic hall, and the building occupied by Mrs. A. E. Poland's millinery store were burned flat.

The fire was discovered at 1 a. m., and was then briskly burning in the postoffice building.

The town has no fire department, but by means of the telephone help was summoned from various parts of the village, and in the zero atmosphere the men lugged buckets of water for nearly three hours to keep the conflagration from sweeping the entire village.

The contents of the postoffice and the millinery store were burned flat.

The fire spread to the millinery store, the stock of which had meantime been saved by the volunteers.

E. C. Johnson's harness shop contents were also saved. The losses are roughly estimated as follows:

Postoffice building, owned by the heirs of Luther A. Law, $2500; Taylor's stock, $4000; Masonic Lodge, $500; building owned and occupied by Mrs. Poland's millinery store, $500. The insurance figures were not available this morning.

Nothing whatever was saved from the postoffice.

Dainty Desserts Require Delicate Flavoring

In preparing a dessert your main purpose is to give it just the right taste, so unless you flavor it properly your best efforts are thrown away. The only way to secure the pure fruit flavor at its full strength is to use extracts made by a house whose reputation for quality-products is a guarantee that every New England housewife should appreciate the value of.

Stickney & Poor's Flavoring Extracts

They share the excellent reputation won by Stickney & Poor's mustard and spices. Stickney & Poor's Flavoring Extracts are highly concentrated. On account of their strength they are the most economical extracts you can use. Remember to tell your grocer you want Stickney & Poor's Flavoring Extracts, and your grocer will always have the fresh, natural, delicate flavor you and your guests enjoy.

Nearly all grocers sell them in the 16 and 25c sizes. Write for our book of recipes. It's worth a lot to any housekeeper who wants to know how to make the most out of what she buys for the table.

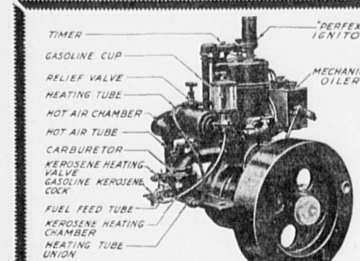

Among the other Stickney & Poor Products are: Mustard, Pepper, Celanese, Curry Powder, Paprika, Tapioca, Nutmeg, Cloves, Allspice, Whole Mixed Spice, Pure Vanilla, Turmeric, Thyme, Sage, Cream of Tartar, Baking Soda, Baking Powder, Sausage Seasoning and Poultry Seasoning.

If you just say "Stickney & Poor's" when ordering, your grocer will give it to you. But be sure to say "Stickney & Poor's".

Tuberculosis Remedy

Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanently benefiting a large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to improve the patient? Eckman's Alternative has brought about full recovery in many cases of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is one:

90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.
"Gettungen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 pounds, and am absolutely well. Believe me, I owe it to myself and others, I make this statement."

(Signed) EDNA FINZER
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. It not only contains powerful, efficient habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of real life and write to Eckman Laboratory, P. O. 100, Philadelphia, Pa. for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation for February—Feb.—means Freeze every body, and that man looked frozen in his ulster. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth that stays, the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body. We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth, it invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls, to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimulates and strengthens at the same time, and all its benefits are lasting. There may be a suggestion in this for you—Adv't.

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more than 30 years?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

Here are two letters that just came to the writer's desk—only two of thousands, but both tell a comforting story to every suffering woman who will read them—and be guided by them.

FROM MRS. D. H. BROWN.
Iola, Kansas—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken 12 bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 809 North Walnut Street, Iola, Kan.

WEST ROCKPORT

The late William Bisbee, though living more than two miles from here, had been identified with the best interests of our village, and we had come to feel that he was one of us. The writer has known Mr. Bisbee more than a half century and feels to say that he was a man whom to know was to love. Though not a member of any church he was interested in its welfare and was a liberal giver to its support.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Orbeton of Pemaquid Falls were at their old home for a few days so as to attend the funeral of William Bisbee.

Atwood Andrews and son Walter who have been ill for many weeks are still confined to their home. They have the sympathy of their neighbors.

A very satisfactory sum was realized from the baked bean supper at the church parlors last Thursday evening given by the ladies.

We are informed that the Walden farm has been sold to a party in Canada.

The Ladies' Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Mabel St. Clair Thursday afternoon at the home of Bert Kellar.

The New Century Club met at the home of the president Monday evening of last week. There was a good attendance and an interesting program was given. The following was adopted for the next meeting: Paper The Life of Gen. Sam Houston. Mrs. Stewart Orlerton; General question, who are the most useful people in the world?

The Rockport high school gave an entertainment at the Grange hall last Saturday evening which was highly satisfactory.

Levi Saunders aged 84 years died very suddenly at his home on Mountain street last Friday morning. On the Monday preceding his death he walked a distance of half a mile to the postoffice. He came here from Rockland about ten years ago where he was employed for 25 years as head carpenter for W. H. Glover & Company and performed his duties in a faithful manner. Besides a wife he is survived by a son, two daughters and several grandchildren. Funeral services were held in Rockland Sunday.

SOUTH THOMASTON

The officers of Metonic Lodge, K. of P. were publicly installed last Friday evening.

Mrs. E. F. Harrington has returned from a week's visit in Boston.

W. L. Davis is confined to the house with an attack of grippe. His little daughter Mabel who has been seriously ill with bronchitis is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Graves have returned from Deer Isle, where they were guests of Mrs. Graves' brother, George Green is home from Canada, where he has been employed the past year as superintendent for a construction company.

The many friends of Mrs. I. N. Morgan are pleased to learn that she is recovering from the surgical operation she underwent at the Maine General hospital some weeks ago.

The baked bean supper and social held at the Public Library Saturday evening netted the committee $21.35.

Mrs. S. A. Harlow is suffering with an attack of grippe.

THOMASTON

Despite the severe snow storm Monday evening about 30 couples attended the social hop at Union hall and report a delightful time. Clark's new harp orchestra of four pieces furnished fine music, each number on the program being encored several times. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Miss Ida Elliot left Thursday for New York, where she will remain for several weeks.

The senior class social which was to have been held Friday evening has been indefinitely postponed.

J. T. Meagher of Boston was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Addie Catland, who has been spending several weeks in Boston has returned home.

Funeral services of the late Joseph E. Meers were held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. C. A. Plummer of Union, assisted by Rev. S. H. Sargent, pastor of the Congregational church.

There will be a rehearsal of the new officers of Grace Chapter, O. E. S., next Monday evening in Masonic hall.

Mrs. Naomi O'Brien will entertain the Outing Bridge Club this Friday afternoon at her home on Gleason street.

A. P. Cushman of Bangor a Bowdoin College senior, was the guest of James A. Creighton a few days this week.

J. N. Vinal of Warren was in town Thursday.

Rev. S. H. Sargent and Rev. A. I. Oliver are in Portland this week in attendance at the Boys' Conference being held in that city.

Funeral services of Mrs. George French were held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church, Rev. S. H. Sargent officiating.

Mrs. Lee W. Walker, Mrs. Arthur J. Elliot and Miss Helen L. Carr gave a luncheon and auction party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walker, Dunn street. A delicious lunch was served at 1:30 o'clock, after which auction was played at nine tables.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Ray E. Eaton, Mrs. Philip H. Edwards, George Smith and Mrs. A. Bird of Rockland and Mrs. S. W. Masters. Beautiful hand-painted score cards were souvenirs of the occasion.

Dr. A. P. Heald has installed in his office an electrical apparatus for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes.

The main part of the floor of Watts hall and the best seats in the balcony were filled with an appreciative audience to hear the Jess Pugh concert last Friday evening. This being the opening number of the course and having been extensively advertised every one was anxious to see how the Thomaston citizens would support the new movement to establish a yearly lyceum course and it seems to be the consensus of opinion that it will be a great success. As yet, however, the management reports that enough season tickets have not been disposed of to assure meeting the expenses of the course. So it looks as though they had planned to give the public too much for their money, which certainly seemed the case if judged by the quality of the entertainment last Friday.

Mrs. Roland Thompson of Friendship is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Minnie Lane for a few days.

About 20 boys from the different churches left Friday morning for Portland, where they are delegates at the Boy's Convention which is being held this week. The boys under the direction of Edward Brown, E. S. Stearns, Rev. S. H. Sargent and Rev. A. I. Oliver and wear white banners with the word "Knox" in red letters. The delegates remain in Portland over Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Morgan and child of Dorchester are guests of Mrs. Morgan's mother, Mrs. Florilla Lermond for a few days.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald is spending a few days in Camden.

Rev. Mr. Heald of Waterville delivered an inspiring address to a large congregation Sunday morning. A chorus choir made up from the three societies under the direction of Miss Edith Sampson rendered music and Mrs. J. Walter Strout sang a solo.

Dr. Newcombe will give a talk on John Newton, the hymn writer, Sunday evening. The choir will sing hymns written by Newton.

Arthur McDonald is the guest of his brother Harry in New York for several weeks. Before returning home he will visit another brother, Hugh familiarly known as "Reddy" in New Haven, Conn.

George Gardiner is on a business trip down East.

EAST FRIENDSHIP

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Orne recently visited Mrs. A. B. Cook at Friendship. Orman L. Simmons and Elmer Osier of Loudville called on friends here last Saturday.

Elder Carter of Friendship held services at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeForest Davis and Mrs. Jennie Hooper were in Rockland last Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Olive Orne and daughter Rena were in Rockland last week.

J. Albert Sylvester and Eugene A. Sylvester who were called here by the death of their father, Fred E. Sylvester, returned Wednesday to their homes in Malden and Ludlow, Vt.

The Twentieth Century Club will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martha Piper.

The friends in town of Charles Welch who has been ill in Newport News, Va., with typhoid fever, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Philbrook, Main street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Monday evening, Feb. 3, when their daughter Helen was united in marriage to Maynard C. Ingraham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Thurston, pastor of the Baptist church in the presence of only the immediate families. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Thomas. Both young people are very popular and are receiving the hearty congratulations of their many friends. The bride is a young woman of pleasing personality and the groom is a popular clerk in S. E. & H. L. Shepherd Co's store. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram are spending their honeymoon at the home of Mr. Ingraham's sister, Mrs. B. Harold Cates in East Vassalboro. They will upon their return go to housekeeping in the new home of the house on Commercial street.

The entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Tuesday evening was well attended and the program was one of unusual interest. About $18 was netted, and will be used in defraying the expenses of the delegates to the Boys' Conference in Portland Feb. 7-10.

The funeral services of the late Fred E. Sylvester were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church and were largely attended. Rev. T. S. Ross, pastor of the church officiated. Amity Lodge, F. & A. M. of Camden, of which the deceased was a member, performed the impressive burial service and the Camden Commandery acted as escort. The bearers were Robert K. Shibles, Alton Spear, Herbert Currier and John French.

Alonzo D. Champney, a lifelong resident of this town died Wednesday afternoon at his home on Pleasant street after an illness of several weeks. He was born in this town Sept. 2, 1842, and was the son of the late Erastus and Louise Light Champney. He was a veteran in the Civil War, enlisting when only 21 years of age in the 1st District of Columbia Cavalry and was transferred to the 1st Maine Cavalry, Co. C. After serving his country faithfully for 18 months he returned to his native town where for more than 40 years he has been engaged in the drug business. When young he learned telegraphy and was first employed by the International Co. and for about 20 years has served as operator for the Western Union Telegraph Co. in this town. For about 12 years he has held the responsible office of town treasurer, in which capacity he was serving at the time of his illness. He was a respected citizen, loyal to his home town and interested in its welfare. He was a kind neighbor and friend and will be greatly missed in the community. Deceased was a member of the Fred A. Norwood Post No. 146, G. A. R. Beside a son, Edward A. Champney of Rockport, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Fowler of this town and Miss Augusta A. Champney of Boston. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late residence. Interment in Amherst Hill cemetery.

TO THOSE INTERESTED

The members of the Senior Class of Rockport high school feel that they must offer an apology to the people of Rockport and vicinity for not being able to present their play, "The Iron Hand," a four-act drama, in Rockport. This is not wholly because insufficient interest is shown in behalf of the high school, but because the drama is too heavy to be staged in Rockport, as scenery is required, and a much larger stage than Rockport furnishes. But, as the grange hall in Glen Cove possesses those things which we much have, it is deemed wiser that "The Iron Hand" be presented in that place Friday, Feb. 14, giving the public a better and more realistic presentation than could possibly be hoped for in Rockport.

The class has reduced the admission to popular prices. The play will be followed by a dance, for which a small amount will be charged; music being furnished by a selected trio from the high school orchestra. Cars will run after the dance.

For the last few years there has been no greater school spirit shown than now, both in study and in the desire to compete with the other high schools, in which the Senior class has taken the lead. The Tatler, with which all are more or less familiar, is published largely by the Senior class. Such interest should not be overlooked by the townspeople; more interest should be taken. It is your high school and it is your duty to support it.

It is considerable work to stage a play, and it is an entertainment, and far more disagreeable not to have the public show the interest that is its due.

This subject requires much thought and it is for the townspeople of Rockport to do the thinking. The high school demands your assistance and it is not your duty to fail to respond.

Senior.

MAINE LEGISLATURE

Senator Packard Presents an Act to Abolish the January Term of Court in Knox County—Other Matters.

A vast array of new measures was presented Wednesday. The following have an interest in our section: Doherty of Rockland, act to amend the charter of the Camden & Rockland Water Co.

Doherty of Rockland, act providing that county commissioners shall supply registers of deeds with typewritten records for recording, to annex a portion of the Camden & Rockland Water Co.

Winchenbaugh of Waldoboro, act to amend the revised statutes, providing that towns may vote at their annual meetings to elect a superintendent of schools by ballot and they say that, by allowing them to amend a portion of the charter of the Camden & Rockland Water Co.

Swift of Augusta, act granting to the Knox Power Co. the right to supply electricity in the municipalities of Thomaston and Rockland.

A measure proposing Presidential primary nominations was introduced Wednesday by Representative Richardson of Canton. It provides for the direct election of delegates to National conventions and for the expiration of preference for candidates for President and Vice President. The primaries shall be held on the last Tuesday in April. The act was tabled for printing.

Representative Harmon of Stonington has presented an act providing for the venue of any action and all libels for divorce in which any person residing in the towns of Stonington, Deer Isle, Isle au Haut, Swan's Island, Long Island and all islands belonging thereto shall be the same as though the person resided in the city of Rockland. The act further provides that the judge of probate shall not hold not less than four terms in the town of Stonington.

This act is a compromise on the fight which has been made here at the expense of the city of Rockland. The proponents of the present bill believe that this act will not meet with strong opposition from the rest of the county, and they say that, by allowing them to amend a portion of the charter of the Camden & Rockland Water Co., the greater part of their difficulties will be obviated.

An act to incorporate the Rockland Public Utilities district was presented in the House by Representative Doherty Tuesday. The purposes of the proposed corporation are to acquire, manage and operate public utilities of every kind for the benefit of the inhabitants of this city.

Representative Doherty has presented an act amending the act authorizing a police court in the city of Rockland.

Representative Doherty has presented an act to amend the laws of the city of Rockland relative to sewers and drains in this city.

Representative Currier of Camden has presented an act to incorporate Seven Hundred Acre Island in Islesboro, in Waldo county.

Senator Packard has introduced in Legislature a bill an act to amend the law making a close time on scallops from April to November which will open a part of Penobscot bay defined by a line drawn from Cape Rosier to the north point of North Haven, and following the northwest shore of said North Haven to its southwest point; thence to the west point of Matinicus; thence from said west point of Matinicus to White Head light.

OUR GRANGE CORNER
A series of meetings is being held by the Patrons of Knox county with Highland Grange at East Warren, and is proving of great value, not only to the members of this little Grange, but to all who attend.

Saturday, Feb. 1, Charles Webb of Warren led the program work with a talk on "Raising and Care of Poultry." The traveling being exceedingly bad, the attendance was small. Brother Webb was at his best, thoroughly master of his subject and the meeting was a good one. Saturday, Feb. 15, Avery P. Starrett leads the program, his subject to be "Grass Culture and weather and traveling permitting a good many of the Patrons are making plans to be present, and many of them are loaded with questions to fire at Brother Starrett, but, as usual, Brother Avery will be prepared to handle them. March 1st Brother Warren Gardner takes charge, but he has not yet announced his program. The Patrons all know it will be a good one as Warren never gets left.

Following Brother Gardner comes Brother Oliver Libby of South Warren and he too is planning a rousing meeting. Live times are in store for the little Grange at Warren Highlands and any and all Patrons are welcome who wish to be of the number as they will always find the latch-string out, a glowing fire and

In Social Circles

Mrs. P. A. Allen, wife of the Universalist pastor, is recovering from a surgical operation, and will soon be able to return to the parsonage.

Arthur Philbrook and Ralph Philbrook of Matinees are in town.

Mrs. William W. Spear is on a trip to Haverhill, Mass., and New York.

George E. Arey of Malden was in town Tuesday. He accompanied the remains of his aunt, Mrs. Hannah L. Pillsbury, who was brought here for burial.

Warren E. Healey of Boston has been in the city on business this week. Capt. and Mrs. B. R. Simmons left last night for a visit in Boston and vicinity.

Miss Lucie F. Winslow is home from Concord, N. H., on her winter vacation, the guest of her brother, at the corner of Lincoln and Maple streets.

The Progressive Literary Club will meet with Mrs. G. K. Merrill, Monday evening, Feb. 10.

The social event of the season in Maine was the reception and ball in Augusta, Tuesday, tendered by the citizens to the governor, executive council and members of the Legislature. The reception took place in the State House in the afternoon and the ball was held at Augusta city hall in the evening. Rich gowns were everywhere, but none gaining more praise than the beautiful wisteria satin effected by the lady who so graciously greeted the hosts coming from the room where stood her husband, the Governor. The yoke of Mrs. Haines' gown was of princess lace, and there were embroideries of gold and wisteria. Her hat was of wisteria velvet with plumes in harmony and ornaments of old gold. She carried a bouquet of violets.

The District Federation of Women's Clubs was delightfully entertained by Mrs. F. B. Adams, Wednesday afternoon. The following program was presented: Piano solo, Miss Katharine Buffum; report of annual State Federation, Mrs. Rich; song, "May Balmie," Kate Vannal; Mrs. J. Walter Strout; report of mid-winter Federation, Mrs. Silsby. A social hour followed, during which coffee and dainty sandwiches were served, an act of thoughtfulness on the part of the hostess, much appreciated by her guests.

The Rubinstein Club met Friday afternoon at Temple hall. Following was the program:

Mrs. A. H. Jones is the guest in Brunswick this week of Mrs. Harvey J. Given. The previous week she spent in Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young of Matinees visited relatives in this city recently.

As an appreciation of the fine results secured during 1912, representatives of the Lewiston District, with lady friends were banqueted at the DeWitt Hotel, Lewiston, Tuesday evening by the Prudential Company. There were present including ladies, out of town visitors, and nearly superintendents about 60. Interesting post-prandial exercises were held, among the speakers being Assistant Superintendent Bertram Kershaw of Rockland. Dancing and moving pictures at the Mystic Theatre were enjoyed after the banquet. The local insurance men who attended the banquet are putting lots of extra vim into their work.

The happiest man in Rockland Thursday was Councilman Reed J. Whitney. Not many men are made happy by having company at 2 a. m., but this guest, whose name is Richard Wayne Whitney, was welcome beyond words to express.

Hiram Small of Crescent Beach is spending the week in Boston.

Maynard S. Williams of Newton, Mass., has been in the city this week.

Mrs. R. A. Sweet who was called to Missouri by the critical illness of her mother is expected home Saturday. Her mother's condition is much improved.

Valentine decorations in red and green predominated at the very pretty luncheon in Temple hall, Thursday, the hostesses of which were Mrs. C. A. Dackard, Mrs. G. T. Wade, Mrs. L. F. Chase and Mrs. A. J. Larrabee. Red place cards, heart shaped, designated the guests' positions at the tables, while the pastry and confections were similarly shaped. The stage was backed with evergreen and roses. There were 16 tables of auction, the prizes being won as follows: First, Mrs. Walter H. Spear, sherbet cups; second, Mrs. Orel E. Davies, drawwork lunch cloth; third, Mrs. A. T. Whittier, Irish crocheted centerpiece; fourth, Mrs. C. E. Tuttle, picture; fifth, Mrs. Charles S. Fales, silver deposit vase; sixth, Mrs. J. Fred Knight, China fern dish, filled with hyacinths; seventh, Mrs. A. J. Bird, sofa pillow.

Thirty-five members of the Half-Hour Club enjoyed a Valentine supper at the Shamrock Thursday night. The table decorations were red candle shades, red hearts and red place cards. Supper was served at 7 o'clock, consisting of fruit cocktail, lobster salad, hot rolls, ice cream, cake, coffee, crackers and cheese. A box of kumquats, thoughtfully sent by Mrs. Ida Crie, a member of the Club, who is wintering in Florida, was enjoyed before the banquet. After supper there was a music program, and radio-scope views of well known literary personages and their homes were shown. The committee in charge comprised Mrs. A. L. Orne, Mrs. Roney L. Thompson, Miss Carrie Erskine, Mrs. G. K. Mayo, Mrs. C. I. Burrows and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

KNOX GENERAL HOSPITAL

Splendid Record of this Fine Institution for Past Two Years

The annual meeting of the incorporators of Knox County General Hospital was held at the office of Secretary Gurdy on Wednesday evening, President A. W. Butler presiding. The call for the meeting was read by the secretary and the reports of the several officers were read.

The report of the treasurer, Mr. H. O. Gurdy, was received with much satisfaction, and all agreed that the financial showing is very gratifying. Through the increase of receipts from paying patients and through economies of administration, the floating debt has been reduced during the past year by almost $2000. And during the same time the efficiency of the service has been notably improved and the scope of its work much extended. And its prospects for the coming year are excellent. The summary of the report for the past two years is as follows:

Receipts
From patients,	$9,878.07
Appropriation by state,	5,000.00
Services of nurses,	319.70
Free beds,	1,501.00
Donations,	238.75
Total receipts,	$16,936.52
Expenditures
Subsistence,	$3,776.65
Fuel and lights,	1,863.94
Hospital and medical supplies,	1,286.26
Interest,	772.82
Wages and salaries,	5,881.13
Miscellaneous,	1,182.11
Total expenditures,	$14,762.91
Receipts exceed expenditures by $2,173.61.

Following is a statement of the financial conditions of the hospital at this time:

Resources
Cash on hand,	$626.87
Furniture and fixtures,	1,909.91
Hospital supplies,	254.95
Real Estate,	7,000.00
Total resources,	$10,691.73
Liabilities
Mortgage notes,	$3,400.00
Floating debt,	432.23
Total liabilities,	$3,832.23
Excess of resources over liabilities,	$6,859.50.

One year ago, the floating debt was $2386.15; now it is only $432.23. A reduction in one year of $1953.92.

From the report of Miss Katharine Donovan, superintendent, we gather the following facts: Number of patients in hospital January 1, 1911, five; admitted 1911-12, 700; discharged 667; died 20, stillborn 1; in hospital January 1, 1913, 17. The surgical patients numbered 521, medical patients 110, ophthalmic patients 69.

An unoccupied room was fitted up for a maternity ward early in 1912, and was opened for use June first of that year. The report of cases is given in great detail. We cull the following: Capital operations 243, minor operations 110; fractures and dislocations reduced, 43; admitted but not treated 71; treated 46, refused treatment 8. Of the 243 capital operations, 158 were laparotomies.

Lectures have been given by local physicians as follows: Dr. Gribbin, on eye, ear, nose and throat and bandaging; Dr. Spear, on sepsis, asepsis and antiseptics; Dr. Walker, on symptomatology; Dr. Hart, on ethics of nursing; Dr. Foss, on bacteriology; Dr. Stewart, on anatomy and physiology; Dr. O'Connor, on medical diseases; Dr. Hooper, on obstetrics; Dr. Silsby, on circulation and physiology.

Last December, a new and most valuable feature was established, in the district nurse service. At all times between the hours of 7 a. m. and 6 p. m., there is on call for service anywhere in this section a district nurse, who on application will attend to emergency or other cases as desired. The need of this service has long been felt by physicians and others, and it is believed that it will be of great benefit.

Officers were elected as follows: President, A. W. Butler; Secretary and Treasurer, H. O. Gurdy; Directors—For two years, David Talbot, Oliver Otis, Joseph E. Moore, F. S. Walls, H. L. Shepherd; for three years, E. E. Boynton, F. M. Smith, S. T. Kimball, Dr. W. F. Hart; E. M. O'Neill, George Warren Smith, R. E. Dunn. Mr. Butler has served as president and Mr. Gurdy as secretary-treasurer for several years and much of the success of the institution is due to their careful and able management of business details. Dr. Walter M. Spear is chief of the hospital staff and has rendered splendid service in that capacity.

Dr. Hart and Mr. Gurdy were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions in memory of the late William Grinnell of Camden, a valued member of the board of directors, whose death has occurred since the last meeting of the incorporators.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the corporation: E. A. Lawrence, C. W. Babb, C. C. Wood, Dr. M. J. O'Connor, A. S. Littlefield, Alan L. Bird, Henry B. Bird, R. W. Bickford.

Representative Doherty has introduced in legislature a bill providing for an appropriation in aid of the hospital of $9000—$5000 per year for 1913 and 1914, and of a new operating room and an x-ray $3000 to be expended in the construction room, and necessary repairs and improvements on the building. A hearing on this bill will be given by the committee on finance and appropriations on Wednesday next, February 12. A favorable report is confidently expected.

Miss Orie Beaton is employed as cook at the Hanscom hospital.

ly the same manner. The cost is estimated at from 7 1/2 cents to 8 1/2 cents a square yard. A petition of Thomas A. Hunt of Camden and 72 others favoring the appropriation accompanies the resolve.

The committee on legal affairs reported "ought to pass" on the act in relation to the Lincoln county jail. This act allows the county commissioners of Lincoln county to board the prisoners, close the jail and move the prisoners to any other jail they select when conditions demand.

The committee on inland fisheries and game reported "ought to pass" on the resolve appropriating $25,000 for feeding the fish in the hatcheries and fish protection.

Representative Brennan of St. George has presented an act to authorize the town of St. George to restrict the taking of clams within the limits of the town to the inhabitants of the town.

The following from Sam Conner's gossip page in the Lewiston Saturday Journal will interest Knox county readers:

"The One and Only Lindley Murray Staples of Washington, in the county of Knox, for ten years the member of the Senate from that county and for a number of years the lone Democrat in that body, arrived in town this week. It was his first appearance and it was a sight to make glad the hearts of all. 'Senator Staples' as Ed. Clark of Bar Harbor always called him, except during debate, has always had a warm spot in the hearts of legislators who associated with him and with the men who stay around Augusta during a legislative winter. They haven't always agreed with his ideas, but they've liked him. The Senator's heart is a big one; his sympathy is of the warmest and he always was the champion of the under dog in the fight. Whatever his attitude has been upon any public question, it has been because he believed, rightly or wrongly, that it was for the best interest of humanity.

"It is to the efforts of Senator Staples that the existence of a school for the feeble-minded in Maine can be traced. He fought year in and year out, in session and in recess, for the establishment of such an institution. He searched all around for information and presented to the Legislature data of the most convincing sort. In the end he won. A bill was passed to establish such a school, and in recognition of the splendid work of the Knox county senator in behalf of the institution Governor Cobb presented to him the pen used in signing the bill. That pen is today one of the senator's cherished souvenirs of his legislative days.

"Senator Staples does not agree with the legislative committee on school for feeble-minded on the Pownall farm. He says the committee is very much mistaken. That location is just what is needed. He says the crops which have been raised there since the school was established prove this. As for the charge that it is rocky, he does not consider that a serious defect. Clearing the fields of these rocks furnishes the sort of work needed. It is rugged out-door work which will help bring about the ends which it is desired to obtain. He is very much at odds with the committee about the supply of water. He believes there is an unlimited supply of pure water. Artesian wells, says the senator, will furnish all that is desired and it will be the purest and the best. Those hills, says he, are full of water."

Senator Patten of Hancock has presented the petition of Arthur Saunders and 21 others for an annual close time on lobsters in Hancock county.

Senator Boynton of Lincoln county has presented an act granting to Hollis M. Shaw no right in the streets and highways of the towns of Union and Warren in the county of Knox. He is also given the right to generate and sell electricity. Permission of the municipalities must be obtained before the right is exercised.

SOUTH HOPE
Wednesday evening, Jan. 29, the officers of South Hope Grange were installed by County Deputy H. H. Payson and his assistants in a very able manner. Officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Master, Charlie C. Childs; Overseer, Robert Payson; Lecturer, Mrs. Myrtle Crabtree; Steward, Ernest E. Hastings; Asst. Steward, Maynard Bowley; Chaplain, Mrs. Laura Hastings; Treasurer, Stanley P. Crabtree; Secretary, Mrs. Eva Taylor; Gate Keeper, Woodbury Leonard; Ceres, Mrs. Abbie Merrill; Pomona, Mrs. Ida Watts; Flora, Mrs. Lottie Robbins; L. A. Steward, Miss Ruth Howard. Visitors were present from Hope, Pioneer and other Granges. Members from Hope kindly assisted in the program. A bountiful supper was served to all.

ROCKVILLE
Some of our friends think because the "Rockville" have not been reported lately that they must have retired from business or have gone to sleep, so we wish to let them all know that we are still very much alive, wide awake, and doing something. The club met with Mrs. Florence Keene Thursday week. There was a good attendance and it was an especially pleasant and satisfactory session. For entertainment many of the ladies had current events. The new paper for the church has been ordered and it is expected they will be set up and ready for use in the early spring. The club is very grateful to Eben and Alvin Oxtun who are to give $150 toward these. We are now working to raise the remainder of this expense. There will be an apron sale some time the present month, the date to be announced later. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clara Carroll, Feb. 13.

CENTRE LINCOLNVILLE
Services at the Unitarian church were conducted last Sunday by Rev. Wentworth. Rev. Mr. Baker has been in New York for two weeks. Notice of Mrs. Baker's death came last week, who had been very ill for some time. A local drama will be given at Thomas' hall Feb. 12. Mrs. Louisa McKinney is stopping with Miss Freeman for a few weeks. Mrs. Emma Lovett is with her daughter for the winter. Gordon Scruton became a member of the Ladies Aid Society last week. Miss Nina Jones returned recently from Rhode Island where she has been for several weeks.

ROADS AND LOBSTERS

Both Received Attention When Hotel Proprietors Met in Augusta Friday

The 20th annual meeting of the Maine Hotel Proprietors' Association was held last Friday at the Augusta House, with President W. T. Emerson presiding. During the morning session, John C. Scates delivered an able address on "Good Roads Legislation." The hotel inspection bill was discussed, and a committee consisting of Pres. W. T. Emerson, H. A. Chapman, W. H. Blenhen, Charles Hill and F. L. Blinn was appointed to have charge of this matter.

It was voted to urge the passage of a bill prohibiting the shipment of lobsters out of Maine during the summer months. C. L. Beedy, attorney for the United Commercial Travelers' Association explained the phases of the much-talked-of hotel inspection bill.

Knox county was not represented at the meeting, but E. A. Pendleton of Vinalhaven was among those voted into the Association.

SEE IF YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Bilious Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs" to Cleanse Its Little Bowels

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are clogged up with purifying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and other natural ingredients, besides their deeply loved its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious, tasteful, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

"Breck" Will Again Coach the Navy Team—Other Sporting Notes.

F. L. Breckenridge, better known at Vinalhaven as "Home Run Breck," has been re-engaged as coach of the Naval Academy baseball team. Among baseball experts "Breck" is regarded with much favor, and here's hoping he turns out a Navy team that will put it all over the Army this season.

Bath is fairly "dippy" over roller polo this winter. Saturday night the home team was defeated 2 to 1 by an All-Maine team. The winning goal was made by Rodney Skinner of Rockland, whom the Bath Times describes as a "whirlwind." Pity that some games in Rockland could not be arranged.

Plans were completed Saturday for a World's baseball tour by the New York National and Chicago American baseball clubs, next winter. The teams will start their trip immediately after the World's Series in October and will end it in Dublin, Ireland, on Washington's birthday, 1914, according to present plans. The teams will leave San Francisco about Nov. 1, after playing exhibition games in Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, Los Angeles and San Francisco. The countries visited will be Hawaii, Japan, China, the Philippines, Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand, Egypt, France, England and Ireland. The players will return to New York about March 1.

Following is the schedule of the Maine college baseball series for the coming spring:

May 2—Colby vs. Bowdoin at Waterville. Maine vs. Bates at Orono.
May 7—Colby vs. Bates at Lewiston. Bowdoin vs. Maine at Brunswick.
May 10—Colby vs. Bates at Waterville. Bowdoin vs. Maine at Orono.
May 14—Colby vs. Bowdoin at Lewiston.
May 21—Colby vs. Maine at Orono.
May 24—Maine vs. Colby at Waterville.
May 30—Bowdoin vs. Bates at Lewiston.
June 6—Bates vs. Bowdoin at Brunswick.

Glad to Tell About Great Kidney Preparation.

I am more than glad to testify to the wonderful curative power of the greatest remedy on earth for diseased and weak kidneys. I have been suffering for years and I have tried other remedies but they gave me no relief. I saw your advertisement and commenced to use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I was not able to do a day's work for six months or more when I commenced to take Swamp-Root and after taking some six or eight bottles, I felt as well as I ever did in my life and I can joyfully recommend it to all who are suffering as I was.

Yours truly,
D. L. DEMENT,
101 Sherratt St., Hillsboro, Texas.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 10th day of April, 1912.

A. J. H. TURNER

A. J. Haskell Turner, whose death at his home at Isle au Haut was recently reported, was well known in this city, both personally and through his artistic work in iron and other metals, many specimens of which are to be seen in Rockland households. Indeed, he and his work have a nation wide reputation. Learning the blacksmith trade when a young man, he set up a shop at Isle au Haut, where he got out of the work to meet the simple demands of the community. When the tide of summer travel set in along the Maine coast, he was frequently employed to furnish iron work for the cottages erected by wealthy people, who, when sojourning found that he was possessed of the skill and taste to do the fine artistic and decorative work that they had expected to procure from the great metropolitan establishments. Fancy and art were the great features which were always a feature of the better class of cottages, were his specialty, and these were speedily recognized as real works of art. He did a large business all along the coast, and the andirons and all other metal work made by him found their way to far distant points, and are treasured as the work of a master. Opinion. The Belfast Journal has the following appreciative sketch of him: "He was an artist who wrought in iron and his work in that line could not be excelled. Specimens of his handiwork have gone all over this country. One of the attractions of Isle au Haut was his shop, and another was the man himself. He was well read, well informed on the events and issues of the day, genial, and the soul of courtesy. A member of a family long identified with the affairs of Isle au Haut, and having many friends among the summer visitors to that picturesque island, he will be widely missed and mourned. The andirons at the Rockland Public Library are a notable example of Mr. Turner's work."

Advice to the Heart Hungry The Unreasonable Husband

Dear Editor:—
My husband, once so kind and loving, seems to be provoked at me. He insists upon having at least one hot dinner a week and complains of being tired of cold ham, my favorite dish. Club duties absolutely prevent me from preparing his meals as I was in the habit of doing before becoming an active member in eighteen social organizations. How shall I deal with such an unreasonable man?
