Maine Running Hall of Fame

September 2020

Introduction

Prince Memorial Library began archiving Maine running data in 2009, when it first contributed individual race results to the Maine Running History web site. Efforts intensified in July 2018, when pdf versions of Maine Running were posted to the Digital Maine Repository. The print magazine, first published by Bob Booker in Bangor, Maine, in February 1980, was renamed Maine Running & Outing Magazine in January 1985. Chuck Morris and Steve Giles assumed control of the magazine in May 1987, and publication ceased with Volume 10 Number 12, a double issue dated December 1989/January 1990.

Next added to the Digital Maine Repository was Pine Tree Running Journal, which began publication in Westbrook, Maine, in December 1996, under Roland J. Thibault. Publication of Pine Tree Running Journal ceased with Volume 1 Number 6, dated July 1997.

The state's first running magazine, Maine Runner, began publication under Rick Krause of Pittsfield, with Issue No. 1 dated March 14, 1978. Maine Runner appeared on the Digital Maine Repository in 2019. The magazine was renamed Maine Running & Nordic Skiing with Issue No. 14, dated December 13, 1978. The magazine was renumbered when No. 21, dated May 12, 1979, was followed by Vol. 2 No. 5, dated June 2, 1979; the first volume of the magazine thus ran from March 1978 (No. 1) through February 14, 1979 (No. 17), and the second volume began with the March 7, 1979, issue. Nos. 18 through 21 can also be considered Vol. 2 Nos. 1–4. Maine Running & Nordic Skiing continued through Vol. 2 No. 7, dated July 16, 1979, after which the name reverted to Maine Runner. The magazine's last issue was Vol. 2 No. 12, dated October 29, 1979.

In February 2020, the board of the Maine Running Hall of Fame saw a need to archive Maine road race results appearing on the Internet after the demise of the state's last print running magazine, Pine Tree Running Journal. MRHOF provided funding for the capture and digital publication of results from the period 1997 through 2019, and work on the Maine Results Project commenced.

Able 5K Road Race
Searsport, ME, March 31, 2007

The race was a success for all those who attended. It was a rather cold, windy day but that didn't stop us as we had lots of trophies, prizes for the kids, and a raffle with donations from the community. The turn-out was not as high as we expected but everyone had a great time! We blame the low turnout on the postponement date due to the storm on March 17 (postponed to 3/31). We had many comments at the end from those who attended how organized and just plain fun it was, these comments of course were well received by the 8th graders who hosted the race. We had more walkers than runners. I do have the results for the mile fun run and the results for the runners from the 5K. They are as follows:

5K RESULTS (Runners)

1	Annie Seekins	21:57
2	Megan Mill	24:27

Luv2Run Portland 5K #2
 Portland ME - May 27, 2007
 Produced by 3C Race Productions LLC
 Results by Yankee Timing 978-430-5669

The crowd was down from race #1 in the Luv2Run Portland Race Series, but the satisfaction was way up as we actually got to run on the trail this time! 55 Runners race around the Back Cove on a beautiful day for running.

Those 55 runners enjoyed the spoils of a raffle with a better than 1 in 3 chance at winning. Prizes included 2 pairs of Vasque Trail Running Shoes, 2 FuelBelts, 8 RoadID Kits, and a few Pint Glasses.

Ty Stevens from Vasque, not only supplied the 2 pairs of Vasque Trail Running Shoes for the raffle, he went out and won the race, pulling away from runner-up Mark Burns in the 2nd mile. 13 year old Emily Durgin ran away from the field to win by almost a minute and a half in 20:25.

Overall and age group winners all got Luv2Run 5K Pint Glasses (except for several younger winners who got Luv2Run 5K Soda Mugs!)

All runners also received one of the best race bags in the biz, courtesy of our many sponsors. The bags included ProMax Energy Bars, Propel Fitness Water, Bear Naked Granola, Boston Red Sox Schedule Magnets, Goody StayPuts, Boston Bodyworker 25% Off Coupons, and Qdoba 2-for-1 Coupons.

We'll be back at the Back Cove on June 30 for the Loco Moose (Almost Free Running Shoes) 5K --- the race where EVERY entrant receives a pair of brand new, custom fitted, Loco Sports Running Shoes. If it's hot enough, we'll bring our Cool Draft Professional Misting System.

My apologies for the late posting of the results, but it looks like 3C Race Productions has hit the big time --- while all of you were running around the Back Cove, a group of cyber-hackers took down our website and replaced it with what can only be called cyber-graffitti. Full access was restored earlier today and we are back on line!!!

Loco Moose (Almost Free) Running Shoes 5K
 Portland, ME --- June 30, 2007
 Sponsored by Loco Sports & 3C Race Productions
 Results by Yankee Timing 978-430-5669

Runners from 14 states and 1 Canadian province converged on the Back Cove in Portland for the 2nd Annual Loco Moose Portland (Almost Free) Running Shoes 5K. They were treated to a beautiful, traffic-free course on a perfect day for running. As advertised, all runners received a brand new pair of custom fitted Loco Sport running shoes in lieu of a T-Shirt (though many expressed a wish to receive both due to the really cool Loco Moose logo). A large raffle and well-stocked goodie bags were rounded out the amenities. As for the race, Mark Mayall had to work down the last quarter mile to pull away from Anthony ("I don't run very much") Jarc to take the victory in 18:10. Jane Doe* stretched it out in the 2nd half of the race to take a 12 second victory over Rebecca Miller from OOB (Old Orchard Beach to non-Mainers.) Jane was just as fast at the registration table as in the race as she breezed in close to race time, paid her entry fee, got her number, and took off for the start --- oops! what happened to the entry form? (Jane - please contact us with your info so we can update the results!!!) Back in the middle of the pack, 61 year old Ice Wagon outlegged Richard Houle for the Male 60+ title, but they were both whumped into submission by slightly more mature Polly Kenniston. 3CRP will be back in Portland on December 1 for another go-round on the Back Cove.

Our 2007 season ended where it started - Portland, Maine --- with a deja vu experience to top them all. 3 days before our first event of 2007 in Portland, a major late season snowstorm closed the Back Cove Trail and we scrambled to come up with a new course on short notice.

Just this past Tuesday at 3:00 PM we received an email from Portland Parks & Recreation Department that we had to move our final event of 2007, from the Back Cove Trail to Deering Oaks Park as they has started repairing the damage from the above-mentioned snowstorm just the day before.

Given Deering Oaks Park small size, we feared we would be looking at a 4-lapper, around the park, but by being a little creative we created a 2-lapper --- a true cross country course that weaved in and out, over and under (using a footbridge with paths underneath) that the runners loved --- even with the temperatures in the mid-20's and winds gusting to 30 and 40 miles per hour during the race.

Jeff Fisher pulled away from the pack in the first quarter mile, and even passed the lead cyclist for a few yards, to take the victory in 20:12. Meanwhile Kathleen Muson had a battle on her hands for most of the race before pulling away from Jessica Stevenson for the checkered flag in 21:47

The 2007 3CRP race season is over, but the break won't last very long as the 30th Annual Peanut Butter Chip Chase starts of our 2008 season on January 1st in scenic Temple, NH. The freshly baked (while you run) cookies will be waiting for you...
