¹ “Accepted for processing” means the date that the application had been initially checked by the analyst and was accepted for processing.

² These islands include over 200 islands that are not associated with any town, plantation, or township.

³ The date that the action was logged into GOAT and assigned a tracking number.

⁴ The date that an enforcement case became resolved. Note that resolution may include an after-the-fact permit or a settlement agreement.

⁵ Enforcement actions logged during any given year do not necessarily correlate to enforcement actions resolved during that same year.
