At a legal meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Jay in the county of Oxford qualified to vote for Senators, holden on the first Monday of December, being the sixth day of said month, A.D. 1819, for the purpose of giving in their votes in writing expressing their approbation or disapprobation of the Constitution prepared by the Convention of Delegates assembled at Portland, on the second Monday of October last, pursuant to an act, intitled, An Act relating to the separation of the Districts of Maine from Massachusetts proper, and forming the same into a separate and independent State. The whole number of votes given in, in said town were sorted and counted in the open meeting of the town, by the selectmen who presided at said meeting and were seventy five votes, of which seventy two were in favor of the Constitution prepared by the Convention aforesaid, and three votes were opposed to said Constitution.—

The foregoing is a true copy of the record, as entered in an open meeting in the book of the town.—
