DEDICATION

Isaiah 43:10a; "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen..."

"The Witness" is published in hopes of fulfilling its name. The students of 1963-1964 have seen fit to dedicate this year's edition to a faithful servant of the Lord, whose own personal witness has been consistent, vital, and a real challenge to us all; MR. JOHN BEAUREGARD.

I Cor. 4:2 "Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

Preach the Word

The necessity of Bible study for those who are to become pastors, evangelists, and teachers of the Word is obvious. Less acknowledged but fully as important is the study of the Bible by all believers, especially the young, in order that the command of the Lord, to be witnesses of Him at home and throughout the world, may more effectively be carried out.

Individuals can and do study the Word without formal instruction, but those who will follow this through to a completion of the whole Book are rarely found. The Bible School should do this, and the advantage of group study and a definite goal seems to fit the needs of many.

There is an ever increasing tendency to allocate preaching to leaders in the church, when actually preaching is simply telling or proclaiming. This can and should be done by each and every believer not only to other individuals but also to groups of any size or description. Each believer then, as an ambassador, is charged to proclaim, preach, or tell the need of all outside of Christ and His sufficiency to meet their need.

Have you preached the Word today?

I Cor. 14:40 "Let all things be done decently and in order."

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

According to the most recent statistics there is one missionary for every 700 persons in the United States. By comparison in the remainder of the world there is one missionary for every 14,000 to 100,000. To equalize this situation, over 4 million more workers need to be trained to teach the Bible. This is a huge task; it is the most important task in all the world. We have been commanded to go and teach all nations. The church has been slow to respond to this command and many have not heard the message of life.

Glen Cove Bible School is dedicated to the training of young people for this all important task. Our responsibility is to reach the world in our generation; we will be held responsible at the judgment seat of Christ. The time to think thru this matter of missions is now. Before finishing this paragraph, answer honestly this question, "Am I doing what I can for the world wide spread of the gospel?" We need this question pressed upon our consciences often, because it seems that our vision easily becomes narrowed to our day by day circumstances.

How can I answer this question about missions? Let me suggest that first you must ask the Lord what the will of God is for you at this moment. If you are a young person, you could get training and go yourself to some needy place and teach the Word of God. Again, maybe you are really unable to go and get training. It seems that the next best thing you could do is to influence some young person in the field of missionary service and do what you can to challenge them for service. Hundreds of young people are literally wasting their lives in less important endeavors. There are some in your community and even in your church perhaps that need to learn about missions and the needs of the various fields. If these young people are not saved, you may be able to reach them for Christ and then challenge them for service. Are you really doing your part here? Praying and giving are always two things that every Christian should do. I'm sure these two items are high on your list for the cause of missions. May our Lord challenge us again to reach the world; missions is every Christian's responsibility.

Harold Duff, President

WORDS FROM THE DEAN

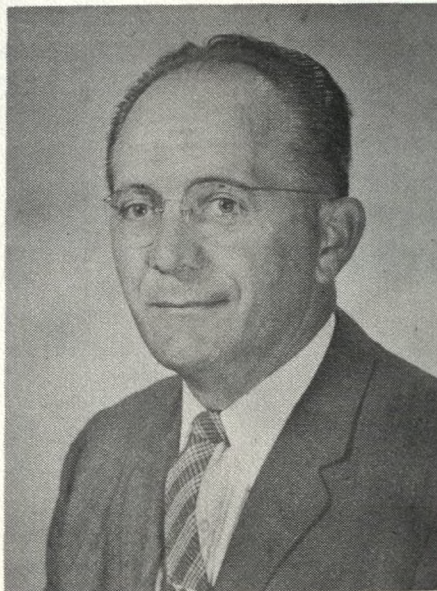

It is said of Jesus that, "When he saw the multitude, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then said he unto his disciples, 'The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.'"

The need is ever the same, and the harvest is still plenteous. One need but lift up his eyes and look on the fields to see that they are white unto harvest. Millions are still going out into eternity without once hearing of the saving grace of the Gospel of Christ.

Two things are certainly needed in the harvest: compassion and labor. Jesus had both. Those whom He sends forth to labor for Him in the harvest surely must go as He did with a heart full of compassion. This cannot be taught nor does it come by way of book learning. The compassion of Christ is developed in the heart of the believer by the inner fulness of the Holy Spirit who is the Lord of the harvest.

Compassion should drive one to labor for the salvation of the lost. There is no substitute for honest labor in the work of the Lord. Labor saving devices and short cut methods will not work in this area. We are counting upon the graduates of Glen Cove Bible School to be real laborers for the Lord Jesus Christ and to show sincere compassion in seeking the lost. To you who go forth we say, "May God bless your labors for Him."

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe that the Bible is God's Holy Word, verbally inspired in the original text, and it is the supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.

We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe in God the Father, perfect in holiness, infinite in wisdom, measureless in power. We believe that He concerns Himself mercifully in the affairs of men, that He hears and answers prayer, and that He saves from sin and death all who come to Him through Christ.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the divine, eternal and only begotten Son of God. We believe that in His earthly life He was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin, and lived a sinless life. We believe in His vicarious and atoning death for the sins of the world. We believe in His bodily resurrection from the dead, His ascension to the right hand of the Father to make intercession for the saints, and in His personal, visible, return to the world in power and glory.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, in His personality and deity, that He was sent forth from the Father to convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgement. We believe that He is come to regenerate, indwell, sanctify, instruct, and comfort the saints.

We believe that all men, by nature and by choice, are sinners, destitute of all power to save themselves. We believe, therefore, that the only means of salvation of sinful men is the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit on the basis of the atoning work of Christ, through personal faith in Christ. We believe in the resurrection of all men, those that are saved unto the resurrection of eternal life, and those that are lost unto the resurrection of eternal damnation.

We believe in the Church -- the living Spiritual body of which Jesus Christ is the Head and of which all regenerated persons are members. We believe that the Lord laid upon the church the task of persuading a lost, sinful world to accept Jesus Christ as Savior and to enthrone Him as Lord and Master of their lives. We believe that a visible church is a company of believers in Jesus Christ, and associated for worship, work, and fellowship.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Bible gives a command to all Christians to, "Go ye therefore." One man has asked the question, "Why should one person hear the gospel story twice before all have heard it once?" This is a very sobering statement, and it is one which all Bible School students and all believers must answer for themselves. Are YOU going therefore?

We trust this yearbook will portray the Christ-centered life of the students of Glen Cove Bible School, and that in itself it will be going therefore to reach sinners for Christ.

Much appreciation is expressed to Mr. Troester, our adviser, and all those students who have so faithfully worked to help complete this year's "WITNESS."

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Another school year has passed. We who are at Glen Cove Bible School are one step closer to the work into which God has called us. This year, I am sure, all of us can look back and realize the things that have been accomplished in our lives. Each year brings new and richer experiences as we learn the deep truths of God's Word.

As we do look back over the past year, we should appreciate all the more what it means to be grounded in His truth. We have seen a growing turbulence in the world. We can see violence, bloodshed, and revolution everywhere. It seems that never before has there been such trouble on a worldwide-scale.

It is fitting that we should mention the assassination of our President in November. This American tragedy serves to remind us that not even our own country is free from the disorder which characterizes today's world. It reminds us anew that America needs Christ too.

As children of God, we are able to rest in this one great fact: Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is our Rock immovable, and our Fortress unconquerable.

It is with this hope that we step forth. We are willing and ready to serve Christ in a world that is filled with challenge; for we have a message to tell and a Saviour to give to that world.

FRESHMEN CLASS

1st Row: R. Sharp, M. Abbott, A. Hellstrom, B. Elwell, L. Bubier
2nd Row: A. Gaylord, B. Howes, Mrs. Lord, L. Black, E. Hatfield
3rd Row: R. Philbrick, J. Boone, J. DeCoster, W. Howe, Mr. Lord,
T. Littlefield

The fifteen members of the freshman class can testify to the Lord's guiding grace in bringing each of us together here at Glen Cove Bible School. We come from different backgrounds and areas, yet we are molded together in one firm purpose: to do the will of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Our first year has proved to be a deepening experience with the Lord as we have "grown in grace." We have enjoyed many memorable times together as a class. Hearing each other's testimonies resulted in our being drawn closer together as a class. Now we are a tight-knit little group, and, as Mr. Troester says, "What a class!"

Our class officers are: President, Bobby Philbrick; V. President, Tom Littlefield; and Secretary-Treasurer, Brenda Howes. One of our nurses, Miriam Abbott, is Student Body Treasurer.

We praise the Lord for leading us here to study His Word, and we are trusting in His divine wisdom to lead us through the paths of life as we press onward for Him.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

First row: C. Rackliffe, S. Corson, L. Walker, J. Kinnear, B. Pettingill, L. Turner. Second row: C. Hibbard, D. Archer, L. Hunt. Third row: C. Dow, M. Lane, T. Fish.

This year we have twelve students in our class. We are thankful that the Lord has again given us the privilege to further our studies in His precious Word. Each member of the class is engaged in some form of practical service for the Lord.

Our class officers are as follows: President, Larry Hunt; Vice President, Linda Turner; and Secretary-Treasurer, Sandra Corson.

Tedd, Betty, and Larry took an active part in the Christmas play presented this year by the Bible School. Several members are singing in the Easter Cantata. As a class we enjoyed the Christian fun of a skating party at Chickiewauki Lake; we had refreshments afterwards at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Donald McDougal.

JUNIOR CLASS

1st Row: J. Gerstung, F. Hatfield, M. Dow, S. Lord
2nd Row: B. Reed, E. Exel, N. Cousins, S. Pearl
3rd Row: J. Ellis, B. Conant, K. Tibbetts

We have eleven students enrolled in the third year class this year. We praise the Lord for the opportunity of studying the Word of God together here at Bible School. Five of our class will be graduating and going on into further service for the Lord, while the rest of us will be coming back for another year of study.

The class officers of the third year class are: President, Jerol Ellis; V. President, Ben Conant; Secretary, Brenda Reed; Devotional Chairman, Freda Hatfield.

Several members of our class participated in the Christmas Play and the Easter Cantata. Many of us have been serving the Lord by teaching Sunday School Classes, Good News Club, or Pioneer Girls. Judy Gerstung, Naomi Cousins, Marcia Dow, and Ben Conant are members of the Ensemble. In March we enjoyed a time of fun and fellowship at our party at the McDougals.

This has been a year of blessing and strengthening as we have studied God's Word and sought daily to apply it to our lives.

FOURTH YEAR GRADUATES

We of the fourth year class were unlearned in the Word, when we started school in the fall of 1960. It did not take long to find out that we knew very little when the men, whom God had given us as instructors, started to teach the Bible to us. The time has gone quickly and these men were diligent in their teaching. Now we are preparing to graduate this year and it hardly seems possible that four years of our training have gone.

Our class consists of only four in number, but it is well diversified. John Sprague is the principal of the academy and preaches when there is an opportunity. Dale Flynn has a pastorate at Knox Ridge where he and his wife live. My wife and I have accepted a call to a church in West Gardiner and will move there after graduation.

Only three of us are graduating this year as John plans to take a few more courses during the next few years.

As a last word to leave to those behind us, we would like to say, "Some day you are going to preach a sermon to someone for whom that sermon will be the last. Never knowing when, calls for victorious preaching, perpetually."

SPIRITUAL BLESSING -"63-64"

Psalms 40:16 "Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified."

PRAYER MEETINGS

We as a student body have enjoyed a blessed time together, as we have prayed and seen God move in miraculous ways. Each weekday morning from 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock students gather for a time of prayer in behalf of the foreign missionaries as well as the servants of the Lord who are ministering in the surrounding areas. Our hearts have been challenged again and again as we hear and see God answer prayer. Oftentimes He has answered simply because we have "asked in faith believing," and our hearts rejoice with praise for His goodness shown in this respect. Monday morning is set aside for prayer in regard to the established works related directly or indirectly with the school. These works include student pastorates and child evangelism work. Also at this time we uphold others who are serving the Lord in this continent of North America. From Tuesday through Friday we center our prayer support on the foreign countries: South America, Europe, Africa, and Asia. A special thanks is given to those who have had some part in bringing the challenge as well as requests to the attention of the students. The services of Freda Hatfield, Althea Gaylord, and Charles Hibbard have been greatly appreciated. They have led some of the prayer groups during the week and brought words of praise and blessing to those who participate in prayer. Certainly we can say, "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." Psalms 133:1.

A brief word can also be mentioned about our Thursday morning prayer meeting. This is a better time for those who have work to pray with the rest of the student body. Some of the students have jobs that make it impossible for them to be with us in the early morning prayer service; so one period is set aside each week for prayer and praise. One of our students, Charles Hibbard, has shown us several groups of slides which depict the life of a missionary in Africa. He was stationed there a few years ago in the U.S. army and worked with various missionaries in Ethiopia. These slides have been a great blessing to us. Mr. Albert Starbird, one of our maintenance men, showed us a film of the work that his daughter and her husband are doing in the North West Territory among the Indians. There are many other slides and records which we have used in order to stimulate missionary and prayer interest. A hearty thanks is given to all of those who have had a part in making this possible.

CHAPEL SERVICE

Our chapel periods have been a special blessing to us this year. We meet with the Academy students for a combined service every weekday except Wednesday. Each Wednesday the Bible school students divide up into two groups and have lectures on Christian living. Mrs. Duff meets with the ladies and Mr. Duff with the men giving lectures on practical Christian ethics. This time has been very profitable in learning how "to be more like Him" our Example in all that we do and say, "that He might have the preeminence."

In our combined chapel services we are challenged daily from the Word of God. Sometimes we are privileged to have missionaries, preachers, or other Christian workers. All of them would be too numerous to mention but a few of them are as follows: Tom Tracy, Pastor Charles Lambshed and his wife, Pastor Alan MacIlwaine, Mr. Art McHarg and his wife, Brother Abram M. Zegel, Fred Terino, Elden Whipple, Pastor William Hatfield, Brother Robert Vance, Evangelist John Savard, Pastor Ronald Milley, Olaf and Ruth Backman, Jack Wyrzten and the Word of Life Quartet, as well as countless others. Each have "blessed us together with all spiritual blessings" by the power of the Lord Jesus Christ working in these people's lives. We praise Him for His goodness to us in this regard.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

During one week in October we held our first Bible School Missionary Conference, and it proved to be of such great health spiritually. One of the main speakers we had was Brother A. Russell Hughes who has served for many years in Africa. Now the Lord has led him to the position of Deputation Secretary under the South Africa General Mission. Brother Art McHarg was the other main speaker. Brother McHarg has been serving in India under the Ceylon and India General Mission and is now on furlough. Along with these men was Brother Tom Tracy who was looking forward to Jungle Camp in Central America under Wycliffe Translators. His desire is for the Lord to lead him to a tribe where he might record the spoken language into writing. Eventually this would result in the Word of God being written in the native tongue. All of these men were such a blessing to us and we thank the Lord for each and every moment of the conference. During the daytime there were classes on missionary geography, missionary principles and practices, question and answer time, devotional thoughts, as well as Bible exposition. One aspect in which we took special interest was that which Brother Hughes taught about the Tabernacle which he had with him. There were many deep and precious truths that came out of this study. The evening services were alternated between the two main speakers. Brother Tom Tracy had a brief talk each night concerning the facts of the mission fields.

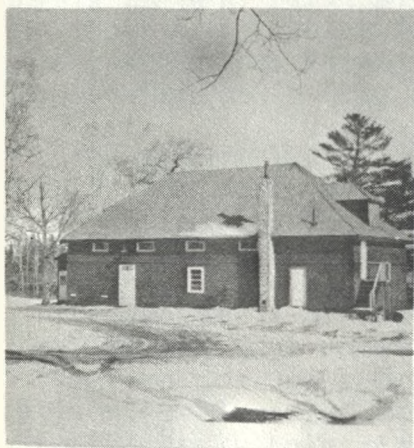

Also "Bwana" Hughes showed films of animal as well as tribal life in Africa. How we all enjoyed such a refreshing and precious time in the Word by sitting under the ministry of these servants of the Lord. Our prayer is that the ministry of these missionary conferences in the future will be as much of a blessing as this one has been. There was a fine display of missionary materials and tracts that added much to the conference as well as the posters and maps which were displayed around the chapel.

VESPERS

This is the first year that we have had any vesper services on Sunday afternoons. In October Mrs. Chaffee arranged an entire service of a combination of music and readings which was a challenge centered around missions. This came at the appropriate time of our Missionary Conference.

In November Mrs. Sjoberg planned and arranged a vesper service that was centered on the theme of "Thanksgiving." We are thankful for the talents that God has given to some in order that we may receive a rich blessing by means of music and the Word of God. We are thankful to all of those that helped make these musical packages possible and for the time and hard work that was involved. "May the Lord be magnified in it all."

PRACTICAL WORK

The Gospel Teams from the Bible School consist of a male quartet, ladies trio, and an ensemble which includes the ladies trio and two men. During the school year, these teams have been out holding services with Mr. Harold Duff, Mr. Al Troester, Mr. John Beauregard, and Mr. John Sprague in the following places: Alexander, Bowdoinham, Wells Branch, Lee, Portland, Levant, Lisbon Falls, Jay, Union, Auburn, Andover, East Dixfield, Bethel, and Rockland, Maine; West Stewartstown, and Exeter, N. H.; Westminster, Clinton, and Orange, Mass.; and Campobello Island, Canada.

The following students have Good News Clubs: Freda Hatfield, Alice Hellstrom, Elsie Hatfield, Brenda Howes, Barbara Elwell, Janice Kinnear, Lorraine Black, Sandra Corson, Sybil Pearl, Miriam Abbott, Althea Gaylord, Ruth Sharp, and Lorraine Bubier. The Life of David, The Twenty-Third Psalm, The Life of Daniel, and The Life of Peter are being taught this year.

The men who have churches are as follows: Dexter Wheeler in Hope, Darrell Archer in Clark Island, Robert Philbrick in Walpole, Kenneth Tibbetts in South Hope, Donald McDougal in Gardiner, Urban Lord who assists the pastor in Brewer, and Manley Lane in South Unity. These men give out the gospel faithfully on each Lord's day.

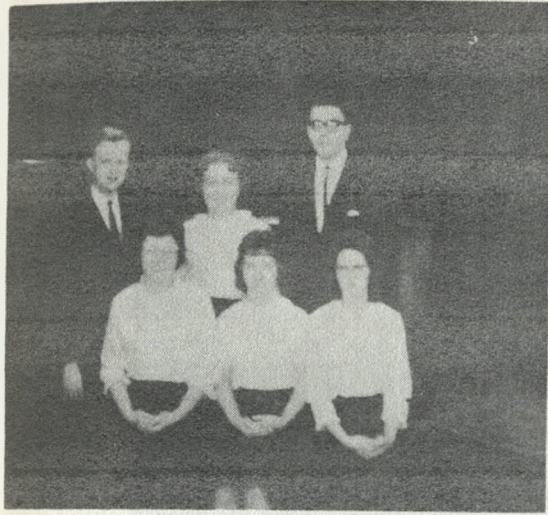

The following students have Sunday School classes: Carrol Dow, Carole Rackliffe, and Brenda Reed in Rockland; Jerol Ellis in Livermore; Charles Hibbard in South Hope; Freda Hatfield in Hope; Linda Walker, and Elsie Hatfield in Clark Island; Richard Lowell in West Gardiner; Urban and Sandra Lord in Brewer; also Mrs. Robert Philbrick has a youth group in Rockport; and Miriam Abbott and Linda Turner help in the Primary Church at Littlefield Baptist Church in Rockland.

We especially want to thank Mrs. Harold Duff for her direction in the music of the Bible School. She has given much time to us in leading the choir and in helping the Gospel Teams with their music. Our deep and heartfelt thanks go to her.

These areas of service have issued in many wonderful blessings and precious souls coming to Jesus Christ. As the students have given out God's Word in these various ways, the Lord has given many blessings and caused all to gain much practical experience. Truly this experience will be of unmeasurable value as we go out into His vineyard and gather the harvest for our Lord.

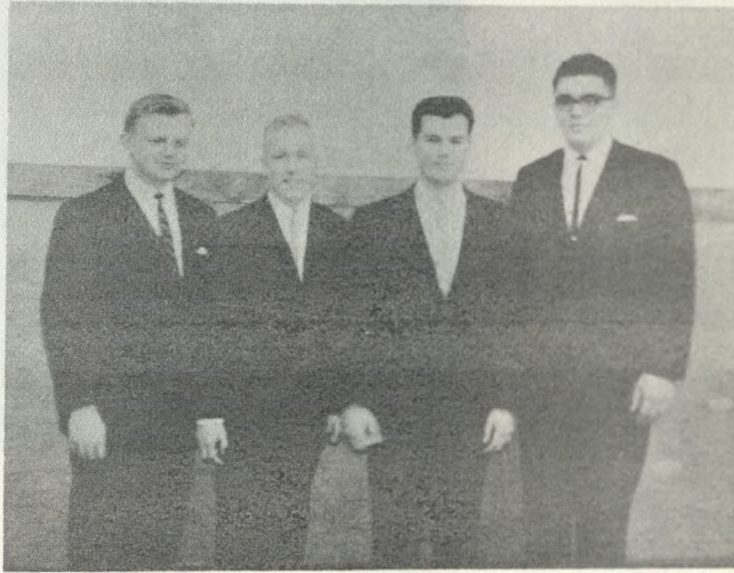

"He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Psalm 126:6

NO GREATER LOVE

The Bible School Choir presented the Easter Cantata, "No Greater Love," by John W. Peterson. The choir traveled extensively during the Easter season. They saw souls turn to the Living Christ as a result of the ministry in music. We wish to thank Mrs. Duff for her work in directing the choir.

TESTIMONIES

I certainly praise the Lord for leading me to Bible School. During this past year the Lord has become very real and precious to me through the studying of His Word. The classes, in which dedicated teachers faithfully proclaim the Word of God, have been a blessing. It is a joy to have constant Christian fellowship and be able to share the reality of Christ with others.

Lorraine Black

My Testimony can be summed up by the words of the familiar hymn "Sweeter as the years go by". I know that I am only beginning to realize what a wonderful privilege it is to study God's Word every day. As I look back over the year, one of the greatest blessings has been to feel the Lord work in my own life, and it has been an even greater blessing to see Him work in the lives of others. He truly does grow sweeter every year and even every day.

Linda Turner

Jer.14:13 "...I will give you assured peace in this place."

TESTIMONIES

My first year at Glen Cove Bible School has been a growing experience. I've grown to love the Lord more, and I've learned a lot about myself as well. I've come to appreciate the faculty and student body, and I've become more thankful for all of God's blessings that He has sent my way. "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation..." (Rom. 1:16).

Alice Hellstrom
First-year Student

During the last three and a half years at Bible School, I have come to know God's Word, with God's help. I aim to live by His Word and follow Christ's pathway. I came to know Jesus Christ as my Savior about ten years ago. I am a Jewish Christian. I believe that all Christian young people should think of training in a Bible School for service for the Lord.

SOCIAL LIFE

The social life of Glen Cove Bible School has been full of fun, blessing, and plenty to eat. What more could Christian young people want to make a most enjoyable social atmosphere.

The Bible School challenged the Academy in two basketball games and lost them both. After all we didn't practice you know!

We enjoyed a Halloween party at the school, where games, spooks, and eats were the diet of the evening. Mr. Duff brought us a fine devotional at that time.

We had a Christmas Mystery Ride which included caroling to shut-ins and a final stop at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Mattson in Rockland. There we had devotions led by Mr. Mattson and some excellent food provided by Mrs. Mattson, Mrs. Sjoberg, and others.

Instead of a Valentine Party as usual, we changed things a little and held a baby shower for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philbrick. The fun was enjoyed by all, especially Bob.

Other social events are being planhed for the final weeks of school. We look forward to these because there is always a good time and a good Christian spirit at all the G.C. B. S. social times.

"LOST CHRISTMAS"

This year's Christmas play, "Lost Christmas," was written and directed by Mrs. Glenn Chaffee. The story was about a college-age Christian girl who had lost her faith while attending a secular college. Her state of confusion was very evident when she arrived home for Christmas vacation. Everyone noticed that Carol was unhappy, but no one noticed it as much as her father. Mrs. Loring misinterpreted her daughter's actions, thinking she would change her mind about going back to college for the second semester. Carol's roommate Jean and her brother Barry came to visit the Loring's; and while they were there, an antique vase mysteriously disappeared. Everyone joined in the search including Carol's former boyfriend Dave, her little brother, Steve, and her visiting grandmother Mrs. Talbot. It was discovered later that Steve had hidden the vase when Petunia, the Loring's maid, had fallen down the stairs and sprained her ankle. The story closes with Carol catching a glimpse of the faith she once had in Christ through talking with Dave. Many testified of a rich blessing received from watching the performance, just as those in the cast felt richly rewarded for having been a part of "Lost Christmas."

Luke 2:7 "And she brought forth her firstborn son...there was no room for them in the inn."

DORM PARENTS

The dorm parents, who are a very necessary part of school life, are not merely someone set over us to see that the rules are obeyed. They are not, contrary to some popular belief, task masters. Rather they are a source of guidance and help for all of us here at Glen Cove Bible School. We appreciate their kindness to us.

The dorm parents this year have been the following: Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDougal, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Al Troester, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts.

MARRIED COUPLES FELLOWSHIP

The married couples of Glen Cove Bible School were glad to welcome several new couples to our group this year. They were Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. John DeCoster, and Mr. and Mrs. Urban Lord. We were also pleased to welcome as married couples four former single students: Dale Flynn and his wife Elizabeth and Bob Philbrick and his wife, Joanne.

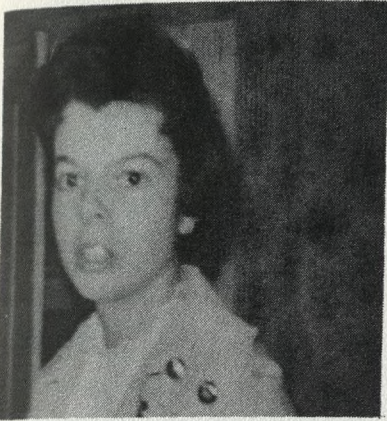

The group has enjoyed meeting for a social evening once every month. Our first meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troester, where a social evening and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

These monthly meetings provide good Christian fun and opportunity for fellowship among the married students.
