The Providence Journal thinks the days for Congressional action are gone. The Journal says that the House will not pass the bill of last winter that appropriated $8,000,000 for the relief of the distressed.

Delegates from the Mississippi Valley are on hand, early looking out for the river and harbor appropriation bill. To hurry the thing along they are going to take the bill of last winter that appropriated $8,000,000 for the relief of the distressed.

The conference of the woolen manufacturers and the wool growers lately disappointed the free traders. They expected that irreconcilable differences would arise, but instead all was harmonious.

The treaty between the United States and Great Britain the citizens of the former are allowed to use the Welland Canal on terms of equality with citizens of Canada in consideration of a similar privilege granted to the citizens of Canada regarding the use of the St. Clair flats.

The dismissal of Mr. Barnes, clerk in the land office, by Mr. Lamar just before the latter resigned, is causing a good deal of comment in Washington.

The confirmation of Lamar has been a foregone conclusion ever since Senator Stewart announced that he should vote for it, for it was known that Republicanism was on the side.

Senator Sawyer of Wisconsin at one time was reported to be inclined to support Lamar, but he appears to have reconsidered his intention and voted against him.

license as a means of suppressing the saloons in Lowell. The licensing board is affected by political influence, the board is careless as to the kind of persons to whom licenses are granted and public sentiment is not strong enough to curb the evil.

The news that the casting of the steel gun, performed at Pittsburg the other day, is found to have been successful is an item of news of considerable importance. In these days the construction of a cannon is a very difficult and laborious work.

There are again offered other attractions in the Furnishing Line, and just so long a American skill and ingenuity furnish the material, so long will there be some channel through which it will pass to reach those for whom the products are intended.
