Kennebunkport.

Mrs. Belle Huff was in Portland
Tuesday.

Novels, candy and fine cigars to be had at the Bowling Alley.

The guests at the Arlington had a delightful progressive euchre
party last Friday evening.

Mrs. Alice M. Chandler and two daughters of Cliftondale, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B.
Carll.

The Biddeford orchestra is rendering some fine music every Wednesday evening for the dances at the Cliff House.

Mrs. A. L. Congdon, Miss Congdon and Miss Edith Congdon of Cambridge are at their cottage and meal at the Nonantum.

Sunday evening the orchestra of the Oceanic gave an informal concert, consisting of orchestral, instrumental and vocal selections.

Last Sunday the pulpit of the Congregational church was occupied by Rev. Mr. Lewis of South
Berwick, in exchange with Mr.
Sloan.

Mr. C. W. Hoff, the up-to-date carriage maker has recently put in a fan blower and finds it a great improvement on the old fashioned bellows.

The lawn pavillion, something new for children, is attracting considerable attention. It is on exhibition and for sale at Tuck's Old Curiosity Shop.

The dance at the Columbia hall
last Wednesday was a great success. There was a large attendance, swell costumes and fine
music. What next?

Dances at Myrtle hall are well attended and the Indian orchestra furnishes some fine music. This week the dance will be on Saturday instead of Thursday evening.

The famous Shaw singers, from Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., entertained the guests of the Oceanic, in the hotel parlors, Saturday afternoon, with musical selections.

A private theatrical will take place in the Casino some time between Aug. 25-28. The exact date will be announced later. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Casino.

The guests of the Seaside house
are having just a fine time, with dancing, card playing and ping pong. The new hall in much appreciated, and a dance was enjoyed Saturday night.

Last Thursday a party from the Cliff House, consisting of Mr.
Simpson and son, the McLaughlin brothers, A. Dunlap and Ripley Nelson, went deep sea fishing and a good catch is reported.

The Criterion club of Boston
have engaged the Casino for a public entertainment, to be given Aug.
21. No doubt this will be well patronized, as people are now wanting amusements of a high order.

Mrs. G. W. Clark of Lynn,
Mass., held a sale of beautiful fancy goods in the parlor of the Old Fort Inn last Monday, which was very successful. Mrs. Clark comes every year and the guests appreciate the goods she has to offer.

The Shaw University Students
of Raleigh gave a most delightful entertainment at the Cliff last week, the hit of the evening being the song composed and sung on
"The Cliff House Bill of Fare."
There was a very large attendance.

Mr. Woodruff being alone is certainly accomplishing a lot in his jewelry and souvenir business.
Mrs. Woodruff is ill and he has as yet been unable to find any one to assist him. It is hard for one pair of hands to do so much. Since the above was in type Mr. Woodruff has found a young lady to assist him until Mrs. Woodruff is able to return.

The Riverside is now nearly filled
with guests.

The golf links are not patronized
much this season.

The guests of the Old Fort Inn
are enjoying the dances. There are five each week.

Booth Tarkington and wife are charmed with the place. They are stopping at Old Fort Inn.

Mrs. M. J. Chellis is doing a good business with facial massage, shampooing and chiropody.

There was a buckboard party
from the Granite State House,
taking in the beaches Friday.

There was a large attendance at the Casino ball Saturday night and some lovely costumes were noticed.

Charles Decosta of Newburyport,
Mass., has arrived in his yacht.
He will make this place his headquarters for the season.

R. C. Ogden can be seen daily in his new canoe on the river. Mr.
Ogden is getting the full benefit of the boating this season.

The fair, which is to be held in the Casino Aug. 12, is being pushed along and will no doubt be a great success. The proceeds are for the Casino.

The guests at the Riverside enjoyed the open fire in the parlor
last Sunday and many of them
braved the elements and visited the Spouting Rock.

Sunday, although it was rainy and the wind blew a gale, the surf and breakers were very fine, and who minds a little wet if they can see Old Ocean angry.

The fine Shore dinners at the Ocean Bluff restaurant are much appreciated by those who have tried one. The broiled live lobster needs special mention.

Bert Walker has had his new launch, Nancy, hauled up for repairs. It really seems too bad that a new boat like the Nancy should need repairs every week or so.

A twenty pound tortoise was among the recent arrivals this week and interested many people. It was found in this river and is to be seen in the window of L. E. Bryant's fish market.

The entertainment for the benefit of the Catholic church here is to be held in Myrtle hall tonight (Wednesday) we have no doubt there will be a large attendance, as the funds are to be devoted for the new church.

Messrs. Goodwin and Gooch
have been doing an immense business the past week in carrying the people to the opposite shore. The water has been very warm for this season of the year and people have made the most of the opportunity.

Friday night the colored singers of Shaw University gave a most delightful program to the guests of the Old Fort Inn, consisting of plantation songs, dialect, dances,
etc., which was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of people. A dance followed.

Mr. McEachlan, who is a guest at the Cliff House, has won the world's record for bowling, being the champion. He belongs to the Massachusetts crack bowling teams
and made a score at the Ocean Bluff alley of 139 candle pins, this being the largest ever made there, previous records showing 118.

Mr. Chase has rented his cottage as in previous years to a party of young boys from New York. They have a tutor with them and are having a most delightful time.
There are some eighteen members
and they are enthusiastic base ball players, and although playing with boys and even men, they make good records. Last Saturday the boys went to Old Orchard and the score stood 30-14, in favor of the latter. They have played three games this season and lost one.
They expect to play at Old Orchard
again next Wednesday.

The "Gift Shop"

Has a complete new line of Novelties for this season including some beautiful designs in the Newcomb and Merrimac Potteries, Leather Goods, from the Graham
Co., of San Francisco. Hand Painted China, Indian Goods, Brass and Copper from the Russian Art and Peasant Industries

Also Exchange Station Tabard Inn Library

E. Scott Campbell, Kennebunkport

J. L. Meloon has a power dory.
Harold Fairfield is working for
C. Trott.

On Saturday we received the long looked for rain.

The McKee family of Pittsburg
are in the Sprague cottage.

Mrs. R. G. Somers will take orders for home made cake.

There will be a Hurdy Gurdy dance at Myrtle hall Saturday evening.

Elias F. Alkazer has opened his Egyptian bazaar this year with a fine line of goods.

Considering the weather there was quite a large attendance at St.
Ann's last Sunday.

Although it was an awful stormy Sunday the Catholic church was nearly filled with members.

Miss Shepherd had a sale of imported fancy goods at the parlor of Old Fort Inn last Saturday night.

A "Sweet Voice" entertainment was given at the Highland house
last Monday evening and was much enjoyed.

Ted Walker has gone on a cruise
along the shore in his launch, Toyo. He will go as far as Marion, Mass.

The genial clerk at the Club house, Mr. Towne, has been to Boston on a business trip, returning home Monday afternoon.

Pinckney Adams, who is always a popular visitor, has taken the Horace Boothby house near the locks. His wife and son are with him.

Mr. Harmon is having the alleys all remodelled, planed and put in fine condition by an expert in that line, Mr. Frank Chick. There are few, if any, better bowling alleys in the state, and the visitors show their appreciation of the same by their patronage.

Kennebunk River Club Meeting.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Kennebunk River Club, Monday at 10.30 a. m., in the Club house.

The reports of the President, Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted. The Commodore also read a report. After this the election of officers took place and was
as follows:

President—Hon. W. B. Saunders.

Vice-President—J. J. Greenough.

Secretary—L. F. Cutter.

Treasurer—Thomas Smith.

Directors—J. B. Kinley, J. H.
Brazier, B. M. Gaskill.

The financial condition of the Club was very gratifying, there being over $600 in the treasury.

The President suggested in his report that there be a gala night with fireworks and an illumination of the Club house and this seemed to be received with favor by those present. It is to be hoped that if there is to be no carnival that something will be done to take its place.

Advertising rates made known on application.

For sale at all news stands, and by newsboys.

Correspondence is desired from any interested parties relative to matters of the different resorts covered.

All copy must be in hand not later than Monday p. m.

Job work of all kinds solicited. Orders promptly filled.

The Seaside Echo is devoted to the interests of Kennebunkport, Kennebunk Beach and Cape Porpoise. Its best efforts are always bent to advance the prosperity of those growing summer resorts by utilizing all means within its scope to place before thousands who visit this section each summer all the advantages of a local business directory and all local news matters of interest to the general public, and to increase the number of summer visitors to these points by proclaiming their natural and artificial attractions to the world. ANNIE J. CREDFORD, Editor and Publisher.

Why Not Advertise?

We often receive communications like the following:

"Will you please drop a card to Mr. —, No. Cambridge St., Boston, and name two or three medium priced hotels at Old Orchard. A home-like social house for a gentleman, wife and daughter who reside in Brookline. Hope this will not be too much trouble."

All the Year Round.

Maine is steadily growing in popularity as a place for visitation until it is now practically an all the year round resort. As soon as the ice leaves the lakes and stream, the fishermen come in large numbers and no sooner are they returned to their homes than summer is upon us when come the countless throng that inhabits our coast and inland resorts, remaining until well into September. No sooner is summer over than the fall hunters come and remain until nearly Christmas, so that for only about four months is Maine without her foreign guests, and the attractions of sleighing, coasting, snow shoeing and other winter sports are already attracting many who formerly went to Quebec and Montreal. A grand winter carnival is not an impossibility at some future date which would make Maine a never ending resort of pleasure.

Cape Porpoise.

A fine line of novels at L. E. Fletcher's.

Mr. Charles Perkins is building a new house here.

We wonder if Mr. Jennison noticed the high tide last Monday.

Mr. Fisher, who has been so seriously ill, is on the road to recovery.

Mr. Sayward was at the Stone Haven over Sunday with his family.

A large Washington party are registered at the Prospect House.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr and daughter of Lawrence are in the Fairfield cottage.

Nearly all of the guests at the Stone Haven have been there several previous seasons.

Rev. A. C. Fulton was to preach at the Casino last Sunday, but owing to the rain it was postponed.

Mr. J. Hollinrake of Sanford entertained D. W. Stevens of Boston at the Stone Haven Sunday.

C. D. Hammer of the Provident Life and Trust Co., whose home is in Brookline is at the Stone Haven with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Booth Tarkington and Howard B. Wetherall enjoyed one of the famous shore dinners at the Stone Haven.

Desk telephone has been put in the L. E. Fletcher store. Telephone connection at Leavitt's and the Casino can now be had.

An old barn, which is on the place formerly owned by the Smith family, and an old land mark here, is being torn down and a fine new stable will be built.

Last Friday Leon Rogers entertained a party of friends at the Stone Haven, the guests being Mary Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gilpatrick and daughter.

Dr. Babb, one of the summer guests, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday. It was much regretted that there was only a small attendance on account of the rain.

Several people came down from Sanford Sunday to enjoy a deep sea fishing trip with Captain Sennett, but it was a little too wet outside so they returned to their homes disappointed.

Walking parties are frequently formed at the Langsford and few of the many interesting points about the Cape, Kennebunk, etc., remain unvisited by those heel and toe tourists.

The Sabbath evening sacred concerts at the Langsford have been resumed. No abler pianist for these much enjoyed "sings" could be desired than Miss Irene Noyes who is always willing to volunteer her services.

Four of the young ladies stopping at the Prospect house braved the elements last Sunday and took a sail over to one of the islands to see the surf. Their condition upon their return made one think it was a trifle wet outside.

Mr. Henry C. Knight gave a card party at the Langsford on Saturday evening to which, as usual, all the guests were invited. The prizes were won by Mr. C. H. Knight, Miss Florence Simmons and Miss Marion Pratt.

The mails arrive and depart from here as follows: From the East, 10.40 a.m. and 4.40 p.m.; from the West, 10.40 a.m., 4.40 p.m., 7.40 p.m.; Sundays, 12.40 p.m. For the East: 8.40 a.m. and 3.40 p.m.; Sundays, 4.40 p.m.

Professor N. Clifford Ricker, Dean of the college of engineering, University of Illinois, has arrived at the Langsford house. He is accompanied by Mrs. Ricker and daughter, Miss Ethel. They will spend the season at the Langsford.

One of the largest crowds of the season gathered at the Casino last Saturday evening to listen to the delightful music and enjoy the dancing. The crowd was handled in a most satisfactory manner under Mr. Meloon's supervision. There is no doubt but what Manager Meloon knows how to handle a large crowd.

CHIT-CHAT.

Here, There and Everywhere.

The Gift Shop has a fine line of souvenir postals.

Plenty of tourists coming. They know where to go.

The barbers, as well as the young women are wishing for more men.

Several Kennebunk people have been to Old Orchard the past week and taken in the Scenic Railway. Your turn next?

At T. L. Evans & Co. department store, Biddeford, can be found croquet sets with eight balls from 75 cts. up.

At Kendrick's 121 Main street, Saco, you will find the best line of china, glass ware and novelties to be found in this section in stock.

Mr. C. E. Trott will be glad to sell you a fine canoe and will fix yours up for a reasonable figure and you can find storage accommodations there.

The Weinstein Bros. are receiving a fine lot of fruit daily from Boston and drive all around in this section. The people are appreciating the same.

Paul Castor, psychic physician and surgeon, whose home office is 790 Congress street, Portland, but who can be found at the residence of Mr. Charles Ward, Beach street, lower village Wednesday and Thursday of each week from 9 a. m. until 8 p. m. seems to be meeting with much success in this section.

Sanford & Cape Porpoise electric cars are making early and late trips for July, August and September. Leave Cape Porpoise Pier at 6.15 a. m. to Kennebunk only. Connects with train for Portland. 7.15 a. m. to Sanford connects with train for Boston at Kennebunk. Then 8.45 a. m. and every hour until 8.45 p. m. Then 10.15 p. m. to Sanford.

Candy, novels and a fine line of cigars are kept at the Bowling Alley.

A. B. Houdlette has taken some fine views of cottages at the Port, Beach and Cape.

Special sale at greatly reduced prices at Miss Carrie M. Jones, Millinery Parlors, 86 Main Street, Saco, Me.

THE SEASIDE ECHO comes to us this year with a general improvement in makeup and it would be hard to find a handsomer paper. Mrs. Annie J. Credford, the editor and publisher should be congratulated upon the success she has achieved. If you want news of the beaches get THE ECHO, which is 50 cents for the season. Address the editor at Kennebunk.—Springvale Advocate.

No Harm Done.

The three Houston sisters who are stopping at the Arlington were on the river Monday enjoying a canoe ride, when they it some way run across the cable of Walker's launch and being frightened leaned over on one side of the canoe, capsizing the same. They were all rescued without injury.

Prospect of Another Hotel.

It is reported on good authority that a new hotel is to be built on the Stanwood and Cutter property, which will accommodate some two hundred or more guests, and that five new cottages will be put up near the same. The plans and figuring are being done for the same at this writing.

WHERE OBTAINED.

THE ECHO can be obtained at the following places:

- KENNEBUNK BEACH. B. U. Huff Dipsey Bath
- KENNEBUNKPORT. Miller's Gift Shop Bowling Alley
- KENNEBUNK. J. H. Otis

Those wishing to subscribe for the season can do so by sending a postal, with address to the editor. The subscription price is 50 cents.

BELINDA IN TOWN.

You may go to Saratoga; You may dip in Oyster Bay; You may go, my Charlie Lighthouse— But, old boy, I mean to stay; For my ladylove has hinted She intends to settle down, And I mean to take vacation With Belinda in the town.

Crowded, gay Atlantic City, It may lure you, Charlie boy, With its vitascopic beaches, And its steady jam of joy; But for me the rose veranda When the sun has settled down, And the stary calm and silence With Belinda in the town.

Ocean Grove and Sea Isle City, With their cottages of girls— These for you, my Charlie Lighthouse— Dare of dimples, toss of curls; But for me a house of quiet On a street of dusty brown— Ah! what fairy changes seemeth, When Belinda stays in town!

You may flirt with fame and fashions At your cottage on the sea; You may write your conquests, Charlie, And your triumphs home to me; But through all the hazy summer I'll not envy your renown— If I be the lucky lover Of Belinda in the town.

Alexandria Bay and Newport, Thousand Islands and Cape May, You may haunt at will and random For a month or for a day; But from bloom of early roses Till the autumn leaves are down I'll not envy—roving Charlie— If Belinda stays in town.

ALOYSIUS COLL.

WRITE, WRITTEN RIGHT.

Write we know is written right, When we see it written write; But when we see it written wright, We know it is not written wright; For write, to have it written right, Must not be written right or wright, Nor yet should it be written rite; But write, for so 'tis written right.

Call at Huff's for a good soda.
Nearly all of the hotels are filled.
F. A. Wentworth has some nice rooms to rent.

A fine line of souvenir postals at Miss F. B. Tripp's store.
The Wentworth has a golf and a self appointed tennis committee.

B. U. Huff has a few more desirable rooms to rent. Electric lights in all of them.

Rev. Mr. Lewis rode his wheel from the beach Sunday. Good courage that.

The guests at the Bass Rock, enjoy cards immensely. They have some fine players.

Rev. G. O. Little of Washington, D. D., preached at Ramanascho Hall, last Sunday.

A pleasant hayrack ride was taken by the Bass Rock guests, last Thursday afternoon.

Nearly all of the houses at the beach are full and it looks like a fine season, though late.

The Eagle Rock guests were much interested in watching the comet last Friday evening.

Judge and Mrs. Cram, with their son, Robert, will occupy the Lord cottage on the Point some time in August.

Mrs. Mary R. Bourne and her sister, Mrs. Maling will occupy the cottage on Lord's Point some time in August.

A. B. Houdlette of Kennebunkport has taken some fine views of the beach which can be purchased at B. U. Huff's store.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Allison of Kennebunk were the guests of Mrs. Wesley Allison at the Robinson cottage over Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Lewis returned to his home in Kennebunk Tuesday. He has been occupying the R. W. Lord cottage at Lord's Point.

The Seaside Market which was occupied last season by Lord & Taylor has not been opened this season and we doubt if it will be.

C. N. Curtice of New York gave a family buckboard party last Saturday forenoon. They are stopping at Wentworth's this season.

Fred R. Sampson of Portland, Me., arrived Friday last to drive the beach team for F. A. Wentworth. He has already made many friends here.

Mrs. Edward Green of Worcester, Mass., and her young daughter are rooming at B. U. Huff's. The child's birthday was Sunday and she had over one hundred gifts.

Mistakes are sometimes bound to occur and each week we find a letter or a word that has made a sentence or a name appear wrong. But who doesn't make mistakes?

Dr. Henry Russell and wife, of New York will be at the Wentworth next month. The doctor is a most successful physician and his charming wife an expert whist player.

Among the arrivals at the Eagle Rock we note the following:—Mr. and Mrs. Bird and family with their maid from Montreal; W. H. Sargent, St. Johnsbury, Vt.; Mrs. C. E. and Grace Lane of Chicago.

Reuben Hayward, who has been driving the beach carriage for F. A. Wentworth this season met with a painful accident last Thursday. He in some way fell from the team and fractured the collar bone. He is getting along nicely now.

Mrs. J. B. Lord was the promoter of a most enjoyable euchre party at the Atlantis last Friday evening. After a closely contested game the prizes were awarded as follows:—Mrs. Thompson, first; Mrs. Darrach second; Judge Waite, third.

A delightful evening was spent by the young people at Wentworth's last week in an interesting game of Small hearts. The prizes were awarded the following parties:—Master Howe Amee, first prize; Master Maxwell Smith, second prize; Miss Louise Fielder, third prize; Miss F. Farnsworth, consolation. After the game light refreshments were served and a dance concluded the pleasant time.

The surf at the beach was fine Sunday and Tuesday owing to the heavy rain.

"Surf Side" is looking fine with its new coat of paint and verandah boxes of beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Robinson, with her family have rooms at B. U. Huff's. They are from Kansas City.

E. N. Curtice, a very prominent business man of Rochester, N. Y., is at the Wentworth, with his family.

A long distance telephone has this week been put in the Wentworth house and will be appreciated by the guests.

Sunday evening there was some delightful music rendered by the guests at the Eagle Rock. Mrs. Page sang a solo which was much enjoyed.

Horace Reyner and wife of Montreal were at Hampton Beach, N. H., one day last week. Mr. Reyner is head musician at the McGill college in his native city.

One of the most delightful balls of the season took place at the Atlantis Saturday night. Many from the Eagle Rock attended. There were some beautiful costumes worn.

The Atlantis has a Baseball team and doubtless there will be some fine games played this season. Clarence A. Allison, although not stopping at the house will be among the players.

Lieut. Monroe, whose home is in Worcester, Mass., but who is stationed at Cushing Island, Portland Harbor, is at the Wentworth house every Sunday. His sisters are season guests there.

Permission was obtained to use the golf grounds for a baseball game Tuesday, but owing to the heavy rain it was postponed. The players however, are grateful to Messrs. Pemberton and Dana for their kindness.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain of Worcester, Mass., will return to the Wentworth next month. Mr. Chamberlain has been in the South all winter and last season it was doubtful if the guests would ever see him again as he was very ill. This is their twenty-second season at this house.

The following is one of the many delightful concert programs given by the Odelphia orchestra at the Atlantis:

Overture Raymond, Thomas Comestock
Leading Lady Waltz, W. H. Mackie
Dancing Sunrays, Richmond
Dance of the Song Birds, A. Wellesley
The Rosedale, Wells
Herneosa Vals, Reutershan
March—Conqueror,

A Trip To Mousam Lake.

Any fine bright day during the summer season might be spent to advantage in making a trip to Mousam Lake.

This picturesque little spot may be reached by a route which varies in mode of conveyance as well as beauty of scene.

First the trolley cars are boarded and one is whirled to Sanford through delightful variations of scenery and business life. Then a team must be obtained and a pretty drive through wood and field follows until beautiful Mousam Lake is reached. Here everything may be found in the quiet of the surrounding country, that delights the heart of the lover of Maine woods and Maine fishing.

The lake offers facilities for boating and fishing, its waters abounding in bass, trout, etc.

One may hire a neat little cottage for a week or longer or may spend a single day of pleasure here, several new cottages having been built and there is also a fine dance hall which, with the use of the piano, is free to cottagers.

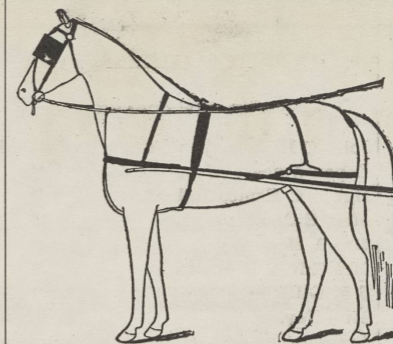

G. A. R. Camp furnishes rest and pleasure to all visitors who may wish to roam within its quiet haunts.
