A fine line of novels at the

Mr. C. G. Stickney of Boston spent Sunday with his wife at the Cliff.

Messrs Goodwin & Gooch did an immense business with their ferry Sunday.

This Wednesday evening there is to be a big euchre party at the Riverside Inn.

All the Indians are now occupying their tents. They have some beautiful baskets.

There was a Fudge party at the Columbia last Wednesday evening which was much enjoyed.

The Piscataqua Tow Barge Co., had two large brick barges in tow
Sunday on the way to Portsmouth,
N. H.

Mr. John Sherman of New York, guests at the Oceanic is entertaining
a picnic party at Bald Head Cliff today Wednesday.

Last Wednesday morning there was three tables of Bridge whist.
This game is most enjoyed by the guests at the Old Fort Inn.

The houses are now well filled but the latter part of this month will see many changes in the register as is always the case.

Bennett Springer gave a most pleasing entertainment at the Old Fort Inn last Saturday evening.
The tricks were all cleverly done.

The parlor of the Cliff House was literally packed Thursday evening when Bennett Springer gave his sleight of hand entertainment there.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Downs Wilson with Miss Ashton who are at Riverside Inn went on a buckboard ride this week with some of the Arlington guests.

A most delightful card party was held on Monday evening at the Cliff House. It was "Progressive Hearts" and a number of invited guests were present.

Several of the canoeists at Riverside Inn have taken a dip in their boating, instead of bathing costumes, this past week. They lose their balance some how.

The yacht race which was to have taken place last Thursday was postponed on account of the rain. Miss Stanwood, Messrs, Irving Cutter and Bert Walker sailed the course.

Mr. E. J. Graham of Fifth Ave.,
New York, held a sale of art leather novelties at the Old Fort Inn last Thursday from 7 a. m., until 7
p. m. He had some beautiful goods and made large sales.

The Casino fair is in the hands of a most efficient committee this season and things are being pushed along and there is no doubt but this will be one of the most successful ever held here. It will take place August 12th.

The Ocean Bluff bowling alley has now been put in the best condition possible and there is not a better place at the beach to enjoy a few hours recreation than here.
Mr. Harmon does everything for the people who patronized him and in turn merit their approval and support.

Mr. Bennett Springer of Boston,

Base Ball.

Score 27 to 7 in favor of the Atlantis Team.

A fine game of ball was played on the Wentworth field last Saturday afternoon between the Atlantis team of Kennebunk Beach and the Port. The game was called at 3.30 and was most interesting from the start to finish.
There were few errors made and good plays were plenty. One of the noticeable features of the game was the heavy batting on the part of the Atlantis. Hanson the captain of the Atlantis team in five times at the bat made two singles, a double, and two home runs.
Stronach and Clough were knocked out of the box and Curley finished.
The latter was also hit hard. Cole played a brilliant game at third base accepting every chance.
Allison of Philadelphia pitched for the Atlantis.

There is to be a game played at Kennebunk this Wednesday afternoon between the Atlantis and Kennebunk teams. Mr. Almon J.
Smith who is an enthusiastic base ball supporter is looking around for grounds near the hotel and it is expected as soon a place can be found and put in condition there will be some interesting games played this season.

Why Not Finish?

The people at the Cape, particularly the numerous summer guests are greatly disappointed at the horrible condition of one of their principle highways. We refer to the road past the fish houses to the Langford House. Repairs were promised, begun and all but completed when their came a sudden stop. After rain the road is almost impassable and dangerous. Twenty cart loads of sand, spread on top of the clay would complete a satisfactory job. Someone in authority must be nodding or too busy otherwise. The muddy slough says as plain as print.

"Since I so speedily was done for,
I wonder what I was begun for."

Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kennebunk and Kennebunkport railroad will be held at the station of said railroad at the "Lower Village," so called, in Kennebunk on Thursday, August 6 at 2.30 p. m., for the following purposes:

First—To choose a board of directors and other officers;

Second—To hear a report from the directors and other officers;

Third—To transact any other business legally before said meeting.

A meeting of directors will be held after adjournment of stockholders' meeting.

Yacht Race.

The first yacht race of the season between the Race-abouts for the Championship cup was held Saturday and found to be very exciting. The course was triangular and thus gave the yachts a chance to sail under all conditions. G.
H. Walker, in jockeying for the start, secure a slight advantage held throughout the race. However his boat won by a small margin over I. T. Cutter's and Miss Stanwood finished third and it was a very close race throughout.

Thursday Evening at the Bass Rock.

A very enjoyable evening of tableaux and song was spent by the guests of the Bass Rock house and their friends.

The tableaux were managed and posed by Misses Ester Kerry, Nora McKiel, Helen Mathewson, Mary Hale, Hazel Hannan. The music was under the direction of Mr. Horace Reyner, the gifted musician of Montreal.

Those who took part in the tableaux were in "The Forbidden Fruit," Misses Isabel Baillie, Jean and Lillia Reyner and Master Henry Blakeney.

"Cinderella," Misses Olive Baillie, May Blakeney, Bee Blakeney, Olive Shaw, Lillia Reyner and Master Campbell Shaw.

Mrs. Squeer—Miss Esther Kerry, Masters Jack Kerry, Arthur Kerry, Irvine Baillie, Russell Hannan and Mr. Wm. King.

The Sleeping Beauty—Miss Freda Wonham and Master Thomas Blackeney; "Home from the War," Masters Staunton and J. Mathewson.

"The Fortune-teller," by Misses Nora McKiel and Helen Mathewson and Master Archie Baillie.

"Night's homage to Day," Misses Helen Mathewson and May Hale. The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Horace Reyner.

St. Ann's Church.

The largest attendance of the season was present Sunday, and the church was filled to overflowing. Rev. Mr. Graham, the pastor in charge, was assisted by Rev. Mr. McBee of South Carolina, who preached at the 11 o'clock service and by Rev. W. M. H. Quartermaine of Renfrew, Ont., who preached at the vesper service. The singing was excellent. An interesting feature of the morning service was the presence of eight Episcopal clergymen.

Cape Porpoise.

A party of nine enjoyed a Shore dinner at the Stone Haven Monday. The Stone Haven is well filled, every available space being occupied.

Captain Sinnett has his rooms filled with guests. They are boarding in various places.

Mr. Justin Leavitt has the sea wall about his house nearly completed and the lawn is looking fine.

There was a good attendance at the dance at the Casino Monday night although the evening was cold.

Mr. Sayward came from Boston Saturday night, remaining until Sunday evening with his family at the Stone Haven.

Mr. A. B. Murphy was at the Prospect House for a few days last week. He expect to return later when he will be accompanied by his wife.

A Party of ten are to arrive Aug. 1 at the Prospect House. This will fill the same and Mr. Emerson has been obliged to get rooms outside for his guests.

Mr. Buckman this year brought Mr. Emerson a beautiful 10 x 15 feet flag. That worthy gentleman now has three fine ones. A generous supply that.

A party of Saco people had one of the famous Shore dinners at the Stone Haven Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Cluff, who has been working with his teams for Mr. Justin Leavitt, is confined to his home by illness.

Lots of people are enjoying the private dining rooms at the Casino this season. They are serving a fine shore dinner for 50 cents.

Captain Sinnett has fitted up a fine gasoline launch and is ready to carry parties around the different islands to suit their convenience.

Miss Vira Cluff is acting as organist in the Sunday school in place of her cousin, Miss Arlette Tibbetts, who is at the Prospect House this summer.

A boarder from Wentworth Beach, while driving from the Casino last Saturday evening run into a hitching post and had a slight smash up.

Mr. Buckman of Boston has recently presented Captain Sinnett with a large beautiful flag for his house and several smaller ones for his gasoline launch.

The Molly carried a party of fourteen from Sanford deep sea fishing last Sunday and as is always the case when people go with Captain Sinnett they had a splendid catch.

Have you tried the Shore dinner at the Casino this year? They are serving a better meal than ever and that is saying a good deal as those of last season were hard to beat.

Saturday evening about 10 p. m. a squall came up suddenly and caused considerable confusion for a little time. Four yachts were blown ashore, hats lost, signs blown down and the wind whirled round lively but it was soon over.

Last Saturday evening a Heart party was given to the guests by Mrs. Clarence H. Knight and Mrs. Robert Farquhar at the Langford House. The prizes were won by Miss Susan Reed, Mr. Willard Henderson and Mrs. Abbott. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed.

The annual sale given by the ladies of the Methodist church took place in the vestry Tuesday afternoon and evening. There was a fine display of useful and fancy articles for sale with candy, cake and ice cream. A goodly sum was realized, which will be used for payment toward the debt on the steeple.

The dance last Saturday evening at the Casino was the largest ever held there. The music was fine and many who did not care to dance took the trolley ride and enjoyed the comfortable verandah chairs during the evening and listened to the strains of the orchestra. There were over four hundred and fifty people on the last three cars that left the Cape at 10.45 p. m.

The Langford House is now full and some guests have to find rooms outside. It is a significant and pleasing fact that of the guests there at the present time there are four who are now enjoying their seventeenth year at the Langford, four have been there sixteen years; three, fifteen years; one, fourteen years; two, ten years; three, eight years; and three, six years. This speaks well for the house and for the attractiveness of the Cape.

There was a large attendance at the Casino service Sunday afternoon. Rev. A. C. Fulton preached a most interesting sermon and the Kennebunk band rendered good music. There was a concert for an hour or more after the preaching service. The crowd was ably handled, two or three cars being run at a time for the accommodation of the people and this thoughtfulness on the part of Manager Meloon was much appreciated. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Ronthaler of Chicago, who made such a favorable impression last year, will deliver the sermon, and he will surely have a large audience to listen to him, as the reverend gentleman has many admirers in this section.

Theresa Schoenborn, Edna J. Riddleberger, Edith Swan, Lulie B.

Thorn, Mary D. Swingle, Maude F. English of Washington, D. C., who are stopping at the Prospect house, had a most delightful trip to Portland, Monday, and took in the 365 Island route in Casco Bay, dining at Orr's Island and seeing the points of interest there. They were enthusiastic about the water trip and thought Portland a charming city.

Kennebunk.

Frederick K. Sawyer of New York has been in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Andrews were in Portland Tuesday.

Lots of our people are taking little outings these pleasant days.

Jones and Clark are making rapid progress on the Dresser store.

Mrs. Cram & Son Robert arrived at her father's, R. W. Lords Tuesday.

A most enjoyable and concert took place Thursday night on the upper square.

Carpenter are beginning work on Messrs Lunge & Merserve's store and the building will be pushed rapidly forward.

The Ocean National Bank is nearly completed and is a great improvement not only to the building but the whole street as well.

Miss Maud E. Webber, is at home for a week's vacation. Miss Webber has a fine position with the firm of Dean, Foster & Co., of Boston.

Christian Science service is held every Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in the G. A. R. Hall, Pythian Block, Main St., Kennebunk. Subject for August second, "Spirit". All are welcome.

CHIT-CHAT.

Here, There and Everywhere.

Lots of autos were seen on the roads Sunday.

When in want of something to read go to the bowling alley.

Mrs. J. E. Fitzpatrick and Alice M. Jagger of Sanford were registered at the Oceanic last Sunday.

The Seaside has more men than usual for July—well this is an unusual happening especially for this year.

Special sale at greatly reduced prices at Miss Carrie M. Jones, Millinery Parlors, 86 Main Street, Saco, Me.

Dr. A. L. Douglass and wife were among those who enjoyed one of the fine dinners at the Oceanic last Sunday.

Mr. Hubbard, the proprietor of the Seaview, has been twenty-one years in the hotel business at the same house.

There were five buckboards filled with people driven from Kennebunk Beach Sunday to attend the services at St. Ann's.

Mrs. J. Hollister Wilson of Montreal who is at the Oceanic entertained a party from Parsons' Beach last Thursday.

Electric lights were turned on Monday night for the first time this season at the beaches and they tell us it was appreciated.

Miss E. A. Clarke is today conducting a most successful trolley party to New Meadows Inn, Merry-meeting park and through that section.

The Peggy from Paris company, which is now playing in the Tremont theater, Boston, has been placing catchy signs around the beaches.

The wild roses are now in their glory along the country roads and on the forest road from Mineral Springs to Granite State there is a beautiful display of wild morning glories. The ground is aglow with their delicate pink blossoms.

Smith's Dry Goods Company of Biddeford have a fine cut of their place of business in this issue. They have a splendid assortment of everything to be found in a first class store and if you wish to order by mail, you can safely do so as they are prompt in their service and thoroughly reliable in all they represent.

A large number of people are daily seen at the station in Kennebunk.

D. Goodwin and son are handling the paper route in a most satisfactory manner.

Rev. W. M. H. Quartermaine and wife of Renfrew, Ont., are among the guests at the Sagamore. The Reverend gentleman preached at St. Ann's last Sunday afternoon.

Many Strangers are taking advantage of all sorts of trips this summer and we would tell them that if they patronize the advertisers who appear in this paper they can make no mistakes.

At the Sagamore.

There are such a lot of delightful, wide-awake people at the Sagamore this season, and they are doing all sorts of nice entertaining things. Tuesday evening of this week Mrs. Macqueen of Philadelphia exhibited Mrs. Jarley's wax works to a most delighted audience in the parlor and after this was concluded Mr. Robinson of South Carolina sang several songs and was enthusiastically encored Thursday evening there is to be a conundrum party and other entertainments are being talked up.

The Hills have opened their cottage this season but do not expect to remain there.

A party of nine from the Seaview took a buckboard ride to Bald Head Cliff Saturday.

Mr. Robert Pearson, the genial clerk at the Wentworth was in Portland over Sunday.

The delightful Sunday evening concerts at the Eagle Rock seem to be an established thing.

There have been several very enjoyable card parties during the past week at the Eagle Rock.

A number of guests from the Eagle Rock attended the dance at the Atlantis Saturday evening.

B. U. Huff has a new sign advertising his golf goods placed in a conspicuous place near the links.

Mrs. Rice, and her daughter Mrs. Steinburg, of Worcester, have rented rooms at the Watson cottage.

Mr. F. A. Wentworth has a fine new bus the "Ocean Wave" and the people are appreciating the same.

The Coleman stable is completed and is a fine building. They are driving some good turnouts this season.

Mrs. Arthur Gifford of New York arrived last Saturday for the season and Mr. Gifford will arrive this week Friday.

The Wentworth house seems to have more men than many of the other places or else they are more active. We wonder which?

Rev. A. M. Little of Peoria, Ill., preached an able sermon at Ramonesco Hall last Sunday and the special music was much enjoyed. These services are always well attended.

Bennett Springer gave a most delightful entertainment in the Atlantis parlor last Friday evening. Every available space was taken and more room would have been acceptable.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin have accompanied their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Smith to the beach cottage. It is hoped that Mrs. Smith who has been ill for such a long time will recover rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Amee, Miss Hope, Mrs. Effie Smith, Mr. Barnard, and Mrs. Fisher partook of one of the famous shore dinners at the Stone Haven last Thursday p. m. They are stopping at Wentworth this season.

Dr. Hitchcock arrived with his automobile Saturday making the distance from Boston here in a little over four hours. His family have been at Mr. Hall's cottage for some time and the doctor has now joined them. When the auto is driven at full speed it will cover some 45 miles an hour.

There has been many bathers the past week in spite of the coldness of the water.

Friday night a most delightful musical was given at the Mineral Spring House Mr. Reyner of Montreal and Winfred M. Barnes forming the chief attraction.

Some of the guests at the Atlantis found some beautiful wild white lilies a specie of the tiger but much larger which adorned the desk last Monday a.m. and was much admired by all who saw them.

A base ball game between the young ladies and gentlemen at Wentworth's took place last Thursday afternoon. The young men were handicapped by playing left handed and because of this the young ladies won by a score of 12 to 8.

A most enjoyable clam bake was held at Great Hill last Friday there being over 100 from the Atlantis and Eagle Rock. Credit for the same is due in a large measure to I. B. Dunlap of Kansas City and James B. Lord who are guests at the Atlantis this season.

The orchestra rendered some delightful music for the dance last Saturday evening which as usual was largely attended and much enjoyed. The cottages and guests from other hotels are seen among the company. These Atlantis dances are most popular and no wonder.

As a result of a crabbing expedition of four young men, S. Lewis Barbour, E. H. and E. R. Sparrows and Stanley W. Holmes, a crab chafing dish party was enjoyed by the young people at Wentworth's last Wednesday evening. After which songs and dances were indulged in.

Golf at Kennebunk Beach.

The Webhaunt Golf links form the centre of out door life at the Beach this summer, and are the result of a very natural growth during the last five years.

Planned and largely developed by President W. F. Russell, the club has increased until its membership includes nearly all the cottagers and hotel guests who are interested in sports of any sort.

Both morning and afternoon the course is filled with players who find this beautiful stretch of green, flanked by find hotels and cottages, and with a wonderful view reaching to Mt. Washington, the most fascinating enjoyment.

Some very good players are here, and tournaments averaging the entries, are held every week for members, with an all comers tournament late in August.

Although the club house is not yet built, opportunities for informal meeting of members are given in the simple Saturday spreads, and the reception generally given at one of the larger cottages in August.

This year these events are in the hands of an unusually capable social committee, consisting of Mrs. C. W. Arnold of Haverhill Mrs. J. A. Warren of Chicago, who is at the Atlantis for the season, and Miss Roberta Keith of Kansas City, a guest at Eagle Rock.
