VOL. III. NO. 9.

KENNEBUNKPORT, ME., AUGUST 7, 1889.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

There's nothing better to do on a rainy day, a foggy day or a dog day, than to take a little trip into Portland and do up the shops. The summer stock of all the principal stores are selected and arranged with special regard for the interests of Tourists, particularly the visitors at the beaches hereabouts. As is the largest in town and the most convenient to get to, everybody goes there first, as a matter of course. It is a good arriving and leaving point,—for that matter a good staying point too. Every street car in the city passes Owen, Moore & Co.

Mrs. John P. Moulton.

SACO, Me., Aug. 20, 1886.
I have suffered terribly from rheumatism and neuralgia for 18 years; was prostrated most of the time; each acute attack being severe. At 10 months ago, she took to her bed remaining there for over a year, suffering tortures innumerable. For months I did not sleep much, and over her trying to relieve her terrible pain. At first large doses of morphine seemed to relieve her some, but at last even that in enormous doses had no effect whatever. Finally she resolved to take Dr. Cobb's Rheumatic Cure, a twenty-four hours her pain left her never to return, and she was able to walk about the house. Next day she walked to the gate, next day she walked 100 rods, and in ten days she was a mile without inconvenience and in a fortnight was entirely well and able to do her work, and has remained in perfect health since; praise God for this wonderful remedy.

JOHN P. MOULTON,
Box Factory and Saw Mill, 36 Lincoln St., Saco.

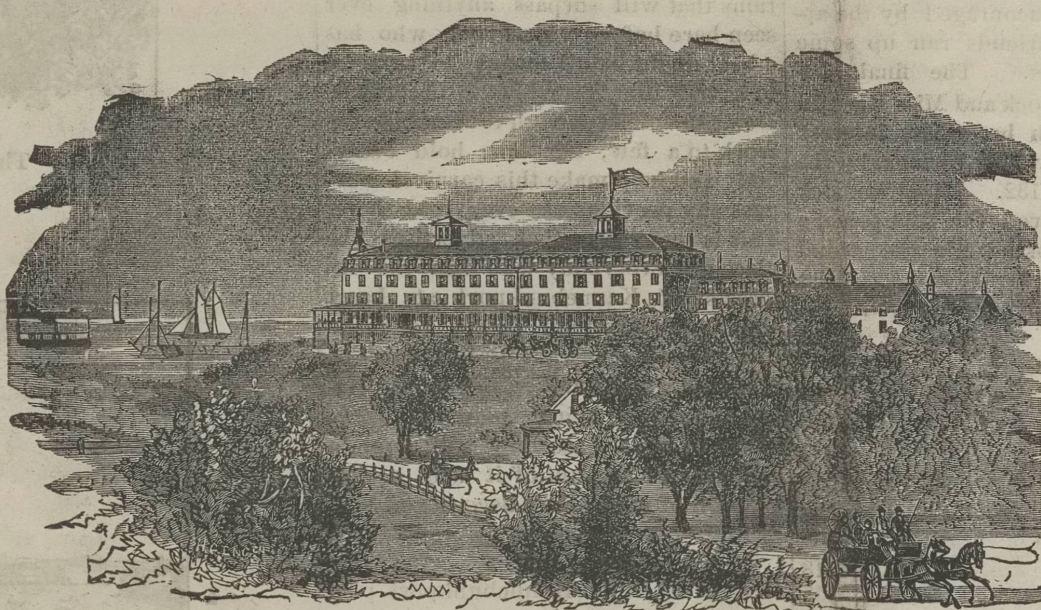

From all over the country come thousands of testimonials of the wonderful cures made by this medicine. This medicine is not a liniment. You can rub these blood destroyers by applications to the skin. This remedy destroys the impurities from the blood and is a sure cure for rheumatism and neuralgia. It is also one of the best in the world, and strengthens the stomach, nerves and kidneys. Send for circulars containing the statements of persons cured in your own town. Prepared only by

The Wave

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 7, 1889.

WE DON'T

LIKE THAT

STYLE.

It is surprising how small and mean some people can make themselves on certain occasions. About the most despicable thing we have seen for a long time was at one of the places where The Wave is for sale. A lady came in, took the paper from the counter, opened and leisurely read it, then threw it down and walked out. It is that kind of a woman that goes through a husband's pockets while he is asleep, and that makes marriage a dismal failure. It is fortunate for the lady—or rather woman, for no lady would do an act of that kind—that we do not know her name for if we did it would be published in this sheet as a warning to others who might be tempted to commit similar acts of undiluted meanness.

"ROLL ON!"

A LIVELY BOWLING

TOURNAMENT.

Mr. Moore of Philadelphia originated and successfully carried out a very enjoyable and exciting Bowling tournament at the Ocean Bluff Bowling Alleys yesterday. Quite a crowd gathered to witness the event and the fair contestants encouraged by the applause of their friends ran up some remarkable scores. The finals between Miss Cumnock and Miss Bucklin was watched with breathless interest and was won by the former, by the score of 137 to 132. Miss Cumnock accordingly received the first prize, a silver button hook, while the second prize, a gold scarf pin, went to Miss Bucklin. Mr. Grover presented them in a neat speech. A note of thanks was given to Mr. Morse and all made a rush for dinner. The following is the score:

ALL READY

FOR THE GRAND CARNIVAL.

To-morrow night will witness the grandest carnival ever seen here if the weather is favorable. The start will be made at 8 o'clock sharp from the "Mooring" and the course will be similar to that of last year. Moore's Military Band, of Kennebunk, will furnish music for the occasion. Elaborate preparations are going on for illuminations that will surpass anything ever seen here before. Everyone who has a boat ought by all means to arrange to have it illuminated and decorated. Don't be selfish enough to leave all the work to a few, but take hold everybody and help make this carnival surpass any previous one ever held here. This is something that advertises the place and everybody who has the interests of Kennebunkport at heart should do all in their power to make to-morrow's carnival a grand success. Many new and unique designs of illumination are being planned. The Wave of next Saturday will contain an elaborate account of it with a description of each boat's decoration.

BOSWORTH'S DEPARTMENT STORE,

520, 522, 524, 526 Congress St., Portland,

To accommodate our large business in Crockery and House Furnishing Goods we have leased the store numbered 520 Congress St. We also bought the stock in said store which we intend to sell off at less than cost to make room for other goods. This stock consists of Crockery, Tin and Glass ware, Kitchen Hardware, &c., &c., and as it will be sold regardless of cost it will be a good chance for you to stock up on these goods, as about everything in the store will be useful in your cottages during your stay at the seashore, and they can be bought at much less than regular prices. In all the departments of our large store you can find a variety of goods at much less prices than you have been paying for them in the past and our increasing business convinces us that the opening of this new store is appreciated by the people of Portland and vicinity. When in the City be sure and visit our store whether you wish to purchase or not.

The Wave is for sale at C. E. Miller's, the Post Office, Norton House, Ocean Bluff Bowling Alley, the Kennebunk Beach Post Office, J. H. Otis', Kennebunk, The Wave Office, and by Newsboys.

Of course it makes the fat man squirm
When we are in the heated term.
Of course he feels cantankerous
When flies become pestiferous.
When he with fire is all aglow,
The lean man laughs ha! ha! ho! ho!
But when the frigid winter's here,
The fat man's heart is full of cheer.
His fat protects him from the storm,
Repels the cold and keeps him warm.
When lean men dread the falling snow,
The fat man laughs ha! ha! ho! ho!
A fair in aid of St. Ann's church will be given August 14.

N. W. Vinal and wife of Boston arrived at the Bluff Friday.

Mrs. H. Sartell Prentice and family are at the Bluff for the season.

Dr. E. R. Palmer, a prominent Louisville, Ky., physician, is at the Bluff.

Mr. S. Leonard Boyce and family of Chicago are summering at the Bluff.

The Ocean Bluff office presents a crowded appearance in the evening.

Mr. Geo. H. Munroe of the Boston Herald is spending a week at the Bluff.

Miss G. N. Allen and family of Philadelphia are enjoying life at the Bluff.

Mr. McNeal, librarian at the Athenaeum, St. Johnsbury, Vt., is at the Grove Hill.

Mr. Moses Emerson and wife of Boston are among the guests at the Bluff.

Mr. Jas. P. Stearns and family of Brookline, Mass., are staying at the Bluff.

Mr. A. G. Cunnock of Lowell, a wealthy manufacturer, is registered at the Bluff.

Mrs. Irvin A. Williams and family of Uxbridge, N. Y., are among the guests at the Bluff.

Mr. D. Sinton, a wealthy gentleman from Cincinnati, arrived at the Bluff Saturday.

Mr. Daniel A. Herald and wife of Orange, N. J., are among the recent arrivals at the Bluff.

Mr. David W. Monahan, the popular tenor, spent the Sabbath at Mr. Carver's, Kennebunkport.

W. E. Parkhurst, editor of the Clinician (Mass.) Courant, who has been staying at the Grove Hill, has returned home, with his wife.

Messrs. S. M. Prevost and J. B. Hutchinson, two gentlemen prominently connected with the Pennsylvania railroad, with their families, are at the Bluff.

Col. Fred K. Fletcher made his St. Johnsbury friends a visit at the Grove Hill, and then left for his accustomed haunt at Old Orchard Beach. The Colonel is 84 years old and yet as active as a man of 50.

Oh, for good weather to-morrow night!

Mr. Talbot of Lowell has three fine horses here.

Yesterday was a great day for buckboard parties.

The usual dance took at the Sea Side Saturday night.

Mr. Carleton of Haverhill has as usual three fine steeds.

Mr. Grover of Nashua, N. H., also has his driving animal at the Bluff.

Mr. Knowles of Worcester has four fine horses at the Bluff stables.

Be sure and buy next Saturday's Wave for a full account of the carnival.

Never before were so many fine turnouts brought here by private parties.

The "village market" grocery team went with a smash-up at the Bluff yesterday.

A bunch of keys have been found and can be had at the Ocean Bluff stables.

The press of matter forces us to lay over considerable reading matter until next week.

Mr. Guild also has his private trap, as well as Mr. Cutter of the Gables, has one of his own here.

Jimmie Hall came near being drowned Saturday. Henry Perkins fished him out just in time.

Mr. Hastings of the "Beacon" has two fine Hunters and is occasionally seen driving tandem, a novelty in these parts.

The Wave will be the first and only paper publishing an account of the Grand Carnival to-morrow night. A complete description of each boat with its decorations will be given. Be sure and buy it.

Prof. Henry C. Robbins, D. D., of the Baptist Theological Seminary, Rochester, N. Y., is at the Grove Hill Hotel with his family. This is their second year here.

V. Darling, esq., of the Bangor "Industrial Journal" made a two days' visit at the Grove Hill last week. He will have an interesting Kennebunkport letter in the next issue.

Dr. E. Custer of Manchester, N. H., and Dr. Wm. Ingalls of Boston, are at the Grove Hill. Dr. Ingalls was at Petersburg at the catastrophe, being surgeon-in-chief at the time.

Mr. Frank L. Gilmore, son of Mayor Gilmore of Cambridge, and his three friends, Messrs. James H. Hilton, Thos. H. Low and Wm. H. Grueby, are at the Bickford House.

Mrs. Twiddle—I hear your fiancé is rich. What is his business? Mrs. Twiddle—He hasn't any. He doesn't have to work; he's a waiter at a Long Branch hotel.—Town Topics.

Owing to a blunder on the part of the management of the theatricals in Arundel Hall Monday evening, The Wave is unable to devote any space to the entertainment as it intended to do.

Mr. Eldridge of the Cliff House has a fine filly that promises to be a speedy one some day. She is named Mand E., sired by Frank Lambert, a well known Hambletonian, dam by Emery Fearnaught. She is a beauty.

Mr. Harry Waterman returns to Boston to-day much to the regret of the guests of the Parker House, with whom he was very popular. The "gang" wear sorrowful faces and speak in hushed voices when they refer to what seems to them, his untimely departure.

Miss Bessie Christopher of Manchester, N. H., is the possessor of a very sweet musical voice and often entertains the guests of the Grove Hill with her fine solos. Miss Christopher left for her home Tuesday, but will return the last of the week and stay the remainder of the season.

The newest fad at the seashore is that coral ornaments must be worn upon the natty bathing costumes. Coral in all shapes and varieties is used. A clasp of coral secures the belted waist and a pin of the same material fastens the collar. The shoes have coral buckles and the caps are held on with coral pins.

Hon. Wm. E. Blunt, president of the Kennebunkport Sea Shore company, is summering at his villa which commands a beautiful view of the country and seashore. The location is one of the finest and the cottage cosy and convenient. Mr. Blunt takes life quietly and seems to enjoy the rest from the political and business turmoil of the city.

Men's costumes at seaside resorts may be in their unconventional style and carelessness, "fashionable," but, says the Mail and Express, they are not nice. To dine in flannel shirt and knickerbockers may be "smart" and athletic, but such garb, where ladies are present, no more indicates the gentleman than a jackass passes for an Arabian horse.

The tennis sash has become widely popular, but it is not every man that can wear it to advantage. It is not pleasing, for instance, to see too corpulent a man swathe his body in folds which make it look larger yet; and it is not pleasing on anybody to see an inch or two of ends protruding beneath the coat-tails. It too strongly suggests the "missing link."

Mr. Fred Winslow Adams, the well known elocutionist, will give select readings at the Parker House this evening. Mr. Adams is one of the best readers before the public and is sure to please his audience every time. Mr. Adams opens the regular fall engagement season at Bridgeport, Ct., reading with Emma Dunning Banks, the well known author of "Flying Jim's last leap," etc.

Mr. W. B. Walker of Springfield, Mass., is at the Ocean Bluff. Mr. Walker came here first in 1871, before any hotels were erected. In 1872 he came with a party of eight friends and played a game of base ball with a local nine. He has not been here since 1875 and misses many of the old landmarks, but finds all the beauties of the place as delightful as when first they lured him to the place.

Mr. Fred Winslow Adams pleased a large audience at the Grove Hill Saturday evening. The following was the program:
The Diver, Schiller
In the Catcombs, Anon
Story of John James Godfrey, Mark Twain
The Message, Adelaide Proctor
Fishing by Moonlight, Proudfit
Only a Naughty Boy, Paul Waste (published in The Wave)
Kate Vannah

Mr. George H. Barbour, of the South Michigan Store company, is taking life easy at the Bluff with his family. Mr. Barbour is one of the brightest and brainiest men of the Northwest, and is interested in various paying enterprises. "They do say" that Mr. Barbour smokes some of the best cigars of anyone at the beach. His daughter, Miss Grace, received on her birthday, which took place Monday, a beautiful bed of flowers that were the delight and admiration of all the guests.

We wish to call your attention to the advertisement of Bosworth's Department Store, in another column. Mr. Bosworth opened his large store but a few weeks ago and already has had to lease another store which he will use in connection with his main store. The large variety of goods that he keeps and the popular prices at which he sells them attracts a large number of patrons and he reports to us an increasing business. We advise our readers to call at his store as he is glad to receive visitors whether they are ready to purchase or not.

The race between Mr. Edward Mathews and the mare "Kittie" is to take place to-morrow p.m. at 2.30 if pleasant. Betting has been lively and upwards of $1000 is staked on the result. One gentleman has over $150 wagered on the horse. Betting began even, but soon odds of 2 to 1 were freely offered on the horse. Then Mr. Mathews's friends, and their name is legion, rallied and odds became even again. The start will be a standing one directly in front of Dr. Barrett's, 100 yards to the church, best 2 in 3. This morning odds were slightly in favor of Mr. Mathews, although the friends of the game little mare are confident and ready to back their confidence with money.

A very delightful party from Old Orchard beach, consisting of Mr. W. D. Luce, a real estate agent from Sioux Falls, Dak., Mr. Fred W. Adams, the well known dramatic reader, accompanied by Miss Marion Munger of Portland and Miss M. Eva Stiles of Brookline, two very charming and exceedingly good looking young ladies, visited Kennebunk Beach last Sunday. The party registered at the Grove Hill Hotel, where they were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul. In the afternoon they drove to the Port, joined by Miss Blanch Paul, and took tea at the Parker House.

The pretty fashion of simple head gear is one which for summer wear particularly commends itself, for freshness and brightness are the sole attraction of hats and bonnets intended for out of town wear, and only simple, unpretentious materials are in good taste. If one has a hat or a bonnet to match every costume, it should be simple in the extreme. A hat of drawn mull to wear with a white costume, one of tulle to wear with a foulard, and another of lace to wear with a rich black toilet, is all one needs for any resort, unless it be Saratoga or Newport, and even there such an outfit could not be found fault with.

Rev. John Merrill Caldwell of Chicago preached at the Congregational church Sunday a.m. and at the Methodist in the p.m. Mr. Caldwell is not unknown to our townspeople, he having formerly lived here. He is the younger of two sons, and is now the only surviving member of the family, his father having died December 1, 1841, and his mother and brother, Asbury, both passing away in the year 1862, his mother being 52 years of age, and his brother 24. About a year and a half after the subject of this sketch was born, the family moved to Kennebunk, from which place the mother subsequently went to Saco in April '42 and opened a boarding house on Factory Island where the No. 2 mill now stands. In 1858 he went to Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., where he remained four years, and graduated with honors in 1862, and was elected class poet. Immediately upon graduating Mr. Caldwell entered upon the ministry, and preached his first sermon in Kennebunkport August 3, 1862, taking for his text the words, "Thou art Peter." On the following Sabbath he took charge of the church at Monksam village and occupied this pulpit three years. During his sojourn in this village he married Miss Emma Hill, daughter of Captain Abram Hill. From Kennebunkport Mr. Caldwell went to Rockland where after a year or so of ministerial labor, he was taken sick with bleeding of the lungs, and in the hope of benefiting his health, moved to Dubuque, Iowa, in July, 1866. In October, 1867, he was elected principal of the Rockriver and Collegiate Institute at Mount Morris in Northwestern Illinois. The year 1870 found him in charge of a prosperous Methodist society in Rockford, Ill., and again 1873 of another large congregation in Joliet of the same state. In October, 1875, he went to Chicago and took charge of the Ada St. Methodist church, afterward in 1878, the Western Ave. church, in 1881 became presiding elder and four years ago took charge of what is known as the Oakland church, the largest Methodist society in the city. The sanctuary is of stone, and cost $73,000. The church has a large membership, and through the able and untiring efforts of the pastor, it constantly increasing.
