

Dec. 9, 1940.

William W. Eustis,
Dixfield, Maine.

Dear Mr. Eustis,

Your report concerning the two cases in your town has been received by this Section and further investigation will be pursued in due course by the proper authorities.

Should it be considered expedient, you may be called upon to furnish the name of the person having the documents claimed in their possession at the present time.

Thanking you for your patriotic interest and cooperation, I am,

Very truly yours,

Clyde W. Metcalf,
Capt. Inf. Me.N.G.
Intelligence Section.
