Adjutant General’s Office,
Augusta, May 28, 1861.

General Order No. 31.

Major General W. G. Fittcomb of the 2nd Division, will immediately cause an election of Regimental Field Officers to be held in the City of Augusta, at some convenient place, and at an hour on Tuesday the 28th inst., to be by him designated, for the purpose of choosing a Colonel, Lieutenant-Colonel, and Major for the 3rd Regiment of the Volunteer Militia of Maine, raised within the limits of the 2nd Division, under the Act of April 25th.

Any notice of said election, by which a majority of electors qualified to vote therein and made to be present, shall be deemed sufficient.

Due return of said election will be made by Genl. Fittcomb to this Office forthwith.

By the Commandant-in-Chief
