SQUID.

HIS SUCCESS.

The Squirrel Island Squid has reached our table. It presents a neat appearance on fine book paper. We hope it will prove a bonanza to its enterprising owners for the style they use in their sheet deserves success. Too many summer papers are gotten up in a cheap semi-amateur style, and it is a relief to find the Squid a clean decent paper.

SOMETHING

ABOUT THE SEASON.

Other places on the Maine coast are complaining of the backward season. Tourists and travelers from "down east" say the hotel men in that section are blue and the guests scarce. We have no cause to complain at Kennebunkport if they have at other places. The present season eclipses all previous ones, as the hotel arrivals in The Wave show. People are beginning to find out the numerous and varied attractions of this place and are thronging hither in greater numbers than ever before.

WE DON'T

WANT OR NEED

ANYTHING.

We notice that everywhere along the coast seaside papers are devoting columns of space to articles on what their particular resort needs to make it popular and famous. This one needs a pier that it cannot ever have; another one wants excursion trains stopped; still another wishes the railroads were more generous, or that their land company was more liberal. All these places seem to need something and are jealous of each other, and carry their jealousies to such an extent as to injure both, and help neither. While these resorts are murmuring deeply because of the something that hinders their growth, Kennebunkport is contentedly going along on the high road to success and popularity. Shut in as we are from the devastating crowd of excursionists, provided with every facility for boating without the hideous disfigurement of a mammoth ocean pier; with the best of service that an enterprising railroad can provide; with all these things and many others, it is not strange perhaps that Kennebunkport is not clamoring for more. We don't want any boom. No "magnetic" statesman is needed to draw the crowd. The place is all right without any of these peculiar drawing cards. We don't need anything. This place possesses enough natural attractions without any need of artificial ones to make it in time the queen resort of the coast as it is now the most delightful one.

CRUISE OF

THE YAWL YACHT

"TRAMP."

Mr. Prosper L. Senat and wife, with Capt. Geo. H. Chick as pilot, started on an extended cruise July 5th. They went as far as Magnolia on the south side of Cape Ann, touching at Kittery, Portsmouth, Isles of Shoals and Annisquam. The weather was fine, with light breezes most of the time and enabled Mr. Senat to make some fine sketches of localities visited. On the last day out a heavy squall compelled them to lay to under the lee of Cape Neddick. The "Tramp" is but twenty-five feet long but is staunch and seaworthy. This is the longest cruise probably ever taken from here by so small a boat.

BEHIND

THE SCENES.

The Wave scribe, through the kindness of Col. Cole the press agent, was permitted to visit the dressing rooms of Walter L. Main's circus Monday night, at Kennebunk. To any one who was never there it is a trip of much interest. Leaving the ring and crowd behind we lift a curtain and enter at once into the dressing rooms. Here all the male performers are found busily engaged preparing for their "turn." Acrobats are tightening their belts; clowns daubing on the white paint; the contortionist is practicing a difficult feat. Everyone is on the jump. There is little time for conversation among themselves. In the ladies' dressing rooms a similar scene was going on. The bareback rider stood shivering with a blanket over her shoulders. The "female Samson" was putting the finishing touches on her toilet preparatory to going into the ring. There was the same noiseless hurrying and dispatch everywhere. Everyone was polite and even agreeable. The ladies were modestly social, and seemed not to be ashamed of their scanty costumes or painted faces. It was simply their business and they thought no more of displaying themselves in tights than otherwise. Mr. Main's show is one of the best of the medium sized circuses, and is meeting with success as it deserves.

FREE SAIL DOWN THE BAY! 1,000 Round Trip Island Tickets to be GIVEN AWAY.

BUSINESS is always a little hard through July and August and a little relaxation is in order. We need it and so do our customers, and accordingly we have arranged to give one thousand of our patrons, who purchase goods to the amount of Three (3) dollars or upwards, at one time, at our One Price Spot-Cash Clothing, Hat and Gent's Furnishing Goods Store, a free, round trip excursion, to any of the many islands reached by the Casco Bay Steamship Co.

THESE tickets are good on any regular trips run on any boats of the line Sunday or week day until Oct. 1st. This outing is purely complimentary to our patrons as we sell goods LOWER than any competitor, and at less margin of profit.

THIS excursion of a dozen or twenty miles among the hundreds of beautiful islands to our lovely harbor cannot fail to be appreciated by the hundreds who will enjoy it, many of them for the first time.

THESE excursions will be especially attractive to our out of town customers who can transact business in the forenoon and enjoy a health-giving trip down the bay in the afternoon, or if not convenient to go that day the tickets are good for any other day during the season. We shall all live as long, and we shall be able to work enough harder in the cool autumn months to make up the gain necessary to secure the $100,000.00.

BUY of us, save your money and take a delightful full price ocean excursion. Those going on these excursions will not be entitled to any of the other extras advertised by us.

WE have just finished an examination of our stock, and have marked all broken lines and old sizes at a nominal figure to close them out at once, in order to make room for Fall styles. In our children's department are many extra bargains in suits, pants, etc. If you need a black Alpaca or this summer coat, we can give you a very low price, in Gent's Underwear and Furnishings we down them all. In fact we have some big bargains in this department of our store.
