R. W. NORTON.

Mrs. John P. Moulton.

SACO, Me., Aug. 20, 1888. My wife suffered terribly from rheumatism and neuralgia for 13 years; was prostrated most of the time; each acute attack being severe. At last, 15 months ago, she took to her bed remaining there for over a year, suffering tortures indescribable. For months I did not sleep much but stood over her trying to relieve her terrible pains. At first large doses of morphine seemed to relieve her some, but at last even that in enormous doses had no effect whatever. Finally she commenced to take Dr. Cobb's Rheumatic Cure, and in twenty-four hours her pain left her never to return, and she was able to walk about the room. Next day she walked to the gate, next day she walked 100 rods, and in ten days she walked a mile without inconvenience and in a fortnight was entirely well and able to do her housework, and has remained in perfect health since; praise God for this wonderful remedy.

JOHN P. MOULTON.

Freeman Box Factory and Saw Mill, 36 Lincoln St. Residence 69 Lincoln St., Saco.

From all over the country come thousands of statements of the wonderful cures made by this medicine. This medicine is not a liniment. You must cure these blood diseases by medications to the skin. This remedy destroys the impurities from the blood and is a sure cure for rheumatism and neuralgia. It is also one of the best tonics in the world, and strengthens the stomach, nerves and kidneys. Send for circulars containing the statements of persons cured in your own town. Prepared only by

THE SWEET

WILD ROSE.

By W. H. H. Hinds.

O the sweet wild rose,
Wherever it grows—
On mountain, desert or farm,
Has a blossom so fair
And a fragrance so rare,
It lends to the place a charm.

No other wild flower
In hedge or in bower,
No matter where'er it grows,
Can with it compare,
Nor equally share
Our love for the sweet wild rose.

It blossoms and blooms
Round the graves and tombs
Of friends who have gone before;
And we seemingly think
'Tis with Heaven a link,
With the loved on the other shore.

Its fragrance so rare
Oft burdens the air
Of the desert's barren plain,
And it visits the cot
Of the lowly in lot,
To ease their sickness and pain.

It brightens the eye
And softens the sigh
Of the felon in his cell,
As it fills the air
With its perfume where
Deep sorrow and sadness dwell.

O, the sweet wild rose,
When these eyes shall close
On this beautiful world so fair,
May it blossom and wave
O'er our humble grave,
And its fragrance fill the air.

A RATHER

NARROW

ESCAPE.

Miss Hopkins of Waltham, Mass., who is staying at Mrs. Grant's, had a narrow escape from drowning on Thursday. She fell into the river in front of the Parker House. Her screams attracted the attention of Miss Lena Flagg, who rushed to her assistance and held her above water until aid arrived.

Dream-Song.

The sweetness of loving is dreaming
Sweet dreams that will never come true,
With the star of hope blissfully beaming
In a bright and impossible blue;
Dreaming that vows fondly spoken
Will ever be true as they seem;
Dreaming that hearts ne'er are broken;
Dreaming that life is a dream.

O Fate, awake me not,
Sweet dreams forsake me not,
Shine on, fair star, in love's beautiful blue,
Dreaming you love me yet,
Dreaming you'll ne'er forget,
Let me not waken to find love untrue.

The sorrow of love is waking
To a world that is withered and old,
With the star of hope quickly forsaking
A sky that is faded and cold;
Waking when time hath bereft us
Of all that the future endears;
Waking when nothing is left us,
Nothing but memories and tears.

O Fate, awake me not,
Sweet dreams forsake me not,
Shine on, fair star, in love's beautiful blue,
Dreaming you love me yet,
Dreaming you'll ne'er forget,
Let me not waken to find love untrue!

FREE SAIL DOWN THE BAY! 1,000 Round Trip Island Tickets to be GIVEN AWAY.

BUSINESS (always a little hard through July and August and a little relaxation is in order. We need it and so do our customers, and accordingly we have arranged to give one thousand of our patrons, who purchase goods to the amount of Three (3) dollars or upwards, at one time, at our One Price Spot Cash Clothing, Hat and Gents' Furnishing Goods Store, a free, round trip excursion, to any of the many islands reached by the Casco Bay Steamship Co.

THESE tickets are good on any regular trips run on any boats of the line Sunday or week day until Oct. 1st. This outing is purely complimentary to our patrons as we sell goods LOWER than any competitor, and at less margin of profit.

THIS excursion of a dozen or twenty miles among the hundreds of beautiful islands to our lovely harbor cannot fail to be appreciated by the hundreds who will enjoy it, many of them for the first time.

THESE excursions will be especially attractive to our out of town customers who can transact business in the forenoon and enjoy a health giving trip down the bay in the afternoon, or if not convenient to go that day the tickets are good for any other day during the season. We shall all live as long, and we shall be able to work enough harder in the cool autumn months to make up the gain necessary to secure the $100,000.00.

BUY of us, save your money and take a delightful FREE ocean excursion. Those going on these excursions will not be entitled to any of the other extras advertised by us.

WE have just finished an examination of our stock, and have marked all broken lines and odd sizes at a nominal figure to close them out at once, in order to make room for Fall Styles. In our children's department are many extra bargains in suits, pants, etc. If you need a black Alpaca or thin summer coat, we can give you a very low price, in Gents' Underwear and Furnishings we down them all. In fact we have some big bargains in this department of our store.
