

Garman May 27. 1862
Hon. Genl Washburn Jr.

Dear Sir

I would venture to name to you as a suitable person for a Lieutenancy in the new regiment now forming Mr. E. Whitwood of this City. I have known Mr. A. for several years and have reason to believe that his moral character is unapprochable, and I certainly regard him as a young man of energy, resolution, firmness and those other qualities which with training and experience are sure to make a good soldier. He is anxious to get an appointment and it will gratify me much if you should be able consistently with your views of duty - to give him a place.

Trusting that you will have no serious difficulty in finding men enough to offer the new regiment I remain

Yours most respectfully

N. Woods

We most cordially concur in the foregoing recommendation
