VOL. III. NO. 2.

KENNEBUNKPORT, ME., JULY 13, 1889.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

There'll be lots of rainy, foggy, disagreeable days this summer when even the natural attractiveness of such a delightful place as Kennebunkport will not be diverting enough to keep you in a cheerful frame of mind. Some day you'll get tired of fishing, bathing, boating and rocking and wonder if there isn't some way to kill a dreary hour or two. THERE IS. Go to Portland, to and see the biggest store in Maine and the most entertaining collection of really choice, dainty, wantable things you ever saw. You're sure to be interested. Besides it's a good little trip.

OWEN MOORE & CO'S

R. W. NORTON.

Mrs. John P. Moulton.

Saco, Me., Aug. 29, 1889.

My wife suffered terribly from rheumatism and neuralgia for 13 years; was prostrated most of the time; each acute attack being severe. At last 15 months ago, she took to her bed remaining there for over a year, suffering tortures indescribable. For months I did not sleep much but stood over her trying to relieve her terrible pains. At first large doses of morphine seemed to relieve her some, but at last even that in enormous doses had no effect whatever. Finally she commenced to take Dr. Cobb's Rheumatic Cure, and in twenty-four hours her pain left her never to return, and she was able to walk about the room. Next day she walked to the gate, next day she walked 100 rods, and in ten days she walked a mile without inconvenience and in a fortnight was entirely well and able to do her household work, and has remained in perfect health since; praise God for this wonderful remedy.

JOHN P. MOULTON.

Foreman Box Factory and Saw Mill, 36 Lincoln St., Saco.

From all over the country come thousands of statements of the wonderful cures made by this medicine. This medicine is not a liniment. You cannot cure these blood diseases by applications to the skin. This remedy destroys the impurities from the blood and is a SURE CURE for rheumatism and neuralgia. It is also one of the best tonics in the world, and strengthens the stomach, nerves and kidneys. Send for circulars containing statements of persons cured in your own town. Prepared only by

A. E. COBB, M. D.

PROSPECTS

FOR THE

SEASON.

The bad weather has caused the season to open slowly all along the coast. Kennebunkport, the Isles of Shoals and Poland Springs appear to be the only places that have many visitors. There are probably nearly a thousand guests registered at the various hotels here at the present time. We doubt if any other resort on the coast with the same hotel accommodations have that number. Everything in the way of rooms seem to be engaged for August. Should the weather prove favorable we may expect by next Saturday that the hotels will be crowded to their utmost capacity. Applications are coming in daily for accommodations in August, many of which have to be refused.

CIRCULATION

AND SUCCESS

OF THE WAVE.

Three years ago The Wave began its career at this shore. It was then the youngest summer paper published by the youngest editor on the coast. It is with feelings of pride that we can look back upon its record. It is difficult to run a newsy paper without treading on some one's toes and consequently making enemies but The Wave, instead of alienating the support of its friends, as too many papers do, has won the support and patronage of every hotel at Kennebunkport and Kennebunk Beach, as may be seen by a reference to its advertising columns. Its advertising patronage this year is greater than ever before and its circulation last Wednesday was double that of any previous first issue. With brighter prospects than ever before, The Wave has begun its third season and we trust that its friends will not allow its success to ever wane.

The Bar Harbor Tourist appears this year as a sixteen page paper. Judging from the amount of advertising it contains the publisher will be able to keep the wolf of poverty away from his sanctum some time yet.

KENNEBUNKPORT

BY-THE-SEA

IN MUSIC.

The above title is given to a new piece of music just published by Louis H. Ross & Co., 3 West Street, Boston. The words and music are by H. B. T. Dudley. The Ocean Bluff orchestra delighted the guests of that house by playing it for the first time Thursday. It is destined to prove very popular and all the boys are already whistling it.

cinnati are stopping at the Ocean Bluff.

Mr. John Sullivan of this town (no relation to the pugilist) is a happy father.

A select party propose shortly to take a yachting trip with Capt. George H.
Chick.

Mr. Geo. R. Oat, a prominent Philadelphian, and wife are registered at the Bluff.

All we want is good weather to make this the most successful season ever known here.

Mrs. Henry Hanna and daughter of Cincinnati, O., are among the recent arrivals at the Bluff.

Mr. Samuel Howard Gooch, with Byron Greenough & Co., Portland, is at home for the summer.

The barber shop at the Ocean Bluff Bowling Alleys has been improved by a new chair and fixtures.

Mr. Chas. P. Tatt, a well known Cincinnati gentleman, accompanied by his family, is at the Bluff.

FOR SALE—A refrigerator and ice cream freezer with four receivers.

firm of Stevens & Wildmar, Cleveland, Ohio, is at the Norton House. He is engaged in settling up the estate of his father.

Edwin Morey and wife, Chas. D.
Morey and wife, Mrs. W. A. Haskell, of the yacht Geneva, Boston, en route to Bar Harbor, stopped at the Ocean Bluff Thursday.

Work at The Wave job printing office is booming. Remember we have a fine printing outfit right here in town and do any kind of work as low as New York prices.

Prof. James McCosh, formerly president of Princeton University, and his wife are registered at the Bluff. His son-in-law, Dr. David Magie, and family are also there.

Prof. J. W. Chickering of Washington, D. C., will occupy the pulpit at the South Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10:30, and at the First Parish church at 2 o'clock p. m.
A cordial welcome to all.

The Misses Gilmore, daughters of Mayor Gilmore of Cambridge, took a drive to Alewife Pond Thursday and returned laden with pond lilies, which they kindly distributed among the guests of the Bickford House.

The Wave came out Wednesday bright and merry as ever, its advertisements and local news making it a valuable medium of information for the people. We hope it may have a successful season.—Biddeford Journal.

The lower portion of Water Street was flooded last night. In fact it has been for several nights during the recent high tides. Passage on foot was rendered impassible, and with teams dangerous. A large number of people were obliged to hire boats to transport them around the submerged portion.

PROF. RYDER TRIES HIS SKILL ON THE NEW ORGAN.

The organ concert given last evening in the Baptist church was largely attended. The various selections were rendered in a most pleasing manner and gave universal satisfaction to the large and critical audience. Mr. Ryder proved fully equal to the expectations of the assembly. The other talent who so kindly volunteered, performed most acceptably. The programme was as follows: Overture—Il Turco, Rosini, Prof. Geo. H. Ryder; Duet—"Oh that we two were maying," Alice May Smith, Mr. D. W. Monahan, Miss Lizzie Cleaves; Priests March—Mendelssohn, Mr. Ryder; Xylophone Solo—Selected, Miss Nellie Miles, accompanied by Miss Lillie Bell Viles; Offertoire—Bastiste, Mr.
Ryder; Song—Selected, Miss Jennie Chadbourne; Selections from Mass in B-flat—Henry Farmer, Mr. Ryder;

Solo—"The Song that reached my Heart," Jordan, D. W. Monahan; Triumphant Grand March, Geo. H. Ryder.

The many visitors to this place will be pleased to know that they are to have a guide book this year fully equal in every way to those of other resorts.
It numbers nearly one hundred pages, has about thirty fine illustrations of local scenery and points of interest, with three complete maps showing all the drives in the vicinity. It will be printed on elegant paper with attractive covers and be valuable as a souvenir of the place as well as a guide book.
In addition to the usual matter to be found in a guide, it will contain a short historical sketch of the town since its discovery by Capt. Gosnold. The price is only one dollar. It is now being bound and will be on sale in a few days.

The season opens more prosperously than for years. Many of the hotels are far ahead of former years in the number of guests and rooms engaged. The omens all indicate a very gay and successful season. Every year as the many and varied attractions of this vicinity become more and more known the number of visitors who seek these shores are more numerous. The cheap crowd who frequent other resorts and discuss how to economize their coal bill, at the dinner table, to the disgust of refined people, are happily wanting.
No resort on the American coast has such a select and desirable class of summer visitors as Kennebunkport.
The present season will undoubtedly eclipse any previous one and help to hasten the time when Kennebunkport shall stand unrivalled by any summer resort on our rugged New England coast. In the coming season The Wave will endeavor to preserve and increase its reputation of being one of the best beach papers. No expense or labor will be spared to gather all the news and serve it to its readers in the most attractive style.

FREE SAIL DOWN THE BAY! 1,000 Round Trip Island Tickets to be GIVEN AWAY.

THESE excursions will be especially attractive to our out of town customers who can transact business in the forenoon and enjoy a health-giving trip down the bay in the afternoon, or if not convenient to go that day the tickets are good for any other day during the season. We shall all live as long, and we shall be able to work enough harder in the cool autumn months to make up the gain necessary to secure the $100,000.00.

THESE tickets are good on any regular trips run on any boats of the line Sunday or week day until Oct. 1st. This outing is purely complimentary to our patrons as we sell goods LOWER than any competitor, and at less margin of profit.

THIS excursion of a dozen or twenty miles among the hundreds of beautiful islands to our lovely harbor cannot fail to be appreciated by the hundreds who will enjoy it, many of them for the first time.
