LOSS OF SCHOONER HARD ON OWNERS.

THE JOHN A. ALLEN RUN DOWN OFF GEORGES BANKS SUNDAY.

Crew Lost Heavily And Nearly Lost Lives By Sudden Sinking of Ship.

The running down of the schooner, John A. Allen at the Banks last Sunday morning, was a hard blow to South Harpswell where all but one fourth of her was owned. The schooner had made two previous sword fishing trips this season, part of the profits of which were in the possession of the crew, as they had not been home since the first trip. This of course was a total loss to each individual together with clothing etc., which they had not time to remove. The hardest loss is to the owners as no insurance was carried by any of them. They are Captain John Toothaker, who was on board, three-eighths; Albert H. Douglass, also on board, one fourth; E. G. Pinkham, one eighth; Emore I. Allen, one fourth. The John A. Allen was an almost new boat having been built about six years ago by E. I. Allen at Harpswell Center, and was one of the finest schooners sailing from this coast. Though not the largest of the sword fishing fleet, she was handy and quick in stays and an easy going sea vessel in all weather. She was valued at $6,000, in addition to the property of the men on board. A stock of about $200 worth of provisions and ice just taken on at Boston went down also.

The story of the accident is of the usual short but tragic kind when a collision occurs at sea. Out there on the Georges Banks where fog almost always prevails, the hardy fishermen of the Allen were enshrouded in a thick blanket of mist. It was about 7.20 o'clock in the morning and most of the men were below ready for the day's work of sailing about looking for sword fish. William Latham of Long Island was the first on deck, and had been there but a few minutes when

MERRICONEAG HOUSE.

LOADS OF BUSINESS HERE AND NO MORE ROOMS TO BE HAD.

New Tennis Court Being Constructed.

The way things look at the Merriconeag now seems to indicate the need of putting out an "S. R. O." sign at once. Standing Room Only seems to be about the way you get your quietus when you step up to register. It has been jokingly suggested to Col. Campbell that he put out tents on the grass slope to accommodate the overflow, but unless he can room the guests under the hotel roof he prefers to allow them to go to the other houses in this section of the Bay.

The most noticeable thing being accomplished for the additional pleasure of the guests is the new tennis court, which is being laid out on the site of the old one. The new court will be a great improvement being of clay and sand, full size for singles or doubles and as level as a floor. The boat landing has also been extended through the placing there of an additional float. This is a new one and has a separate bridge so that its outer edge is at least 100 feet from the shore. It was put there through a mutual arrangement between the hotel and Mr. J. G. Bridge of the Colony, who will also use it.

The welcome home of Judge John J. Ryan from his Quebec trip was a rousing one from every point of view. Being dignified into the semblance of a Broadway military parade by the gallant bearing and firm stride of the leader and "ring-leader" the veteran Com. George H. Stevens, and the effect with Bobby Bibber seated on a wheelbarrow gracefully draped in the American flag, playing the flute, while the other musicians played bass drums, snare drums, dinner bells, cymbals, bullpipes and cannons, the latter bombardment by the old artilleryman, General Joseph Gilder-sleeve, the effect on the onlookers was immense. Judge Ryan after being escorted to the veranda was said to have supported himself against the railing and declared it was the best thing he had ever witnessed even in strenuous political days.

Col. Campbell was glad to welcome Mr. Charles M. Hays, General manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, together with Mrs. Hays and family and some friends, who sailed down from Cushings Island Sunday and took dinner here. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hays, Mr. George Ewing, Mr. Thornton Davison, Mr. D. E. Galloway, Mr. Henry Phillips, Miss O. Hayes, Miss Louise Hayes, Miss Clara Hayes, Miss Georgia Hayes, Miss Ruth Hayes and Miss M. V. Hayes. All are from Montreal and are stopping at the Ottawa at Cushings Island.

Mrs. John J. Ryan entertained some ladies by a drive to High Head taking dinner there Sunday. Those participating were Mrs. E. C. Burke, Mrs. H. E. Ashcroft, Mrs. M. Howard, Mrs. A. W. Sander, Mrs. H. Reichenback and Mrs. J. J. Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Kirby of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived Sunday on the afternoon boat. Mr. Kirby is

CHEBEAGUE FIELD DAY.

THE COMMITTEE IN CHARGE ARE PLANNING FOR A FINE CELEBRATION.

Band Concerts, Games, Etc., Will Be On the Program.

The general committee representing all the hotels and boarding houses with several of the leading citizens of the island met Monday evening last at the Hill Crest to organize and arrange for the annual Field Day of this island. The committee organized with the choice of John S. Crowley of the Casco Bay Breeze as chairman, Thomas J. Bissell, Newark, N. J., secretary and L. B. Clark of Springfield as treasurer. The committee after most careful consideration voted that this year the event should cover two days, and accordingly Monday and Tuesday of August 13 and 14 were selected as the date for celebrating this popular event. An efficient committee are hard at work securing funds and it is the earnest hope that each one will do their small part, no matter how little, to help securing at least $250.00 which is the amount they desire to have, if the celebration is to do credit to the island. Several other committees were appointed for other matters essential to the success of the affair. Saturday evening the general committee will meet at The Hamilton at which time a definite program will be arranged for the two days' sports.

BASE BALL SEASON STARTED SATURDAY.

BUSTINS AND CHEBEAGUE CROSSED BATS FOR THE OPENING GAME.

A Good Attendance Present Saw Bustins Island Win With Score of 5 to 4.

When the much heralded game of base ball between Chebeague Island and the Wychmere team of Bustins Island was opened last Saturday the base ball season for Casco Bay was begun. Teams are now organized at Long Island, South Harpswell, Peaks Island, Chebeague Island and Bustins Island and between their respective captains or managers a schedule of semi-weekly or weekly games is being arranged. The first game was held Saturday when the fast team composed of the Wychmere island defeated the Chebeague nine in a seven inning game on the latter's grounds by a score of 5 to 4. The features of the game were double plays by Wiggin and Littlepage and MacMillan and Littlepage of Bustins', the fine throwing of M. Hamilton also the good work of the Chebeague infield. Rain interrupted the game in the eighth when Bustins had scored two and had a man on first.

TO BAILEY'S ISLAND.

A. D. Snively.

In the very beginning of things,
When the earth was taking her form,
A rock rose out of the sea
To battle with wind and storm
And in the fight it prevailed,
But it came out beaten and worn,
With its edges jagged and scarred;
And thus an island was born.
The living things of the world
The flowers, the birds and the trees,
Saw where it lay in the sun,
And came to live in its breeze.
You can ask the fir and the pine
That grow in the Eden wood,
And they, with the gulls, will say
That they "saw it and it was good."
The daisies that cover the fields,
The sand-peeps along the shore,
Will echo the same refrain
That their ancestors did of yore,
It is written on Riven Rock,
It is measured at Water Cove,
It's as plain on Southern Cliff,
As it is in Northern Grove.
It comes from the sky above
It comes from the sea below:
"We saw it and it was good,
And we helped to make it so."

BAILEY ISLAND.

NOTABLE GUESTS AT THE GREAT RESORT OF THE LOWER BAY.

Newsy Notes By The Stroller About Bailey's Beautiful Shores.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hathaway arrived again at their cottage Tuesday after spending the time since the Fourth at their home in Mechanic Falls. They will remain until August 1 at which time the cottage is let to Mr. and Mrs. Folsom of their city. The Hathaways will return here after Labor Day. Mr. Hathaway's friend, Mr. Ludolphus W. Mason, who with his wife was a former cottager here was taken to the higher life during the spring. His widow still resides at Mechanic Falls. Their cottage here was purchased by Mrs. Charles York about two years ago.

Miss Carrie R. Hall, clerk of the Registry of Deeds office at South Paris, Me., came to the island for two weeks. She is registered at the Seaside. Walter D. Crafts was in Portland, Monday on his usual weekly business trip. At Mrs. F. E. Beede's charming Bonnyview,—"Where one may dream away the summer day And spend the eve in song or mystic play,"— Are the following delightful people;

Peaks Island

H. S. Ford and family of Charlestown, Mass., are at Camp Rockside for the rest of the summer.

Mr. Fred Riley, who has been quite ill at the Gladshelm cottage, has recovered and is now doing finely.

Mr. C. G. Norris has taken the Noyes' cottage for the remainder of the season.

J. C. St. Perry and family of Winter street, Portland, have opened their cottage "The Perry" and will occupy it during the month of August.

H. J. MacMurray and Mrs. MacMurray from St. Louis, formerly of Auburn, Me., and Mrs. Libby of Boston, Mass., have been the guests of Mrs. John MacMurray at Notorest cottage.

J. Arthur Jackson, who was the guest of Messrs. Stevens and Freeman at the Bay State cottage, is clerking at Fred Littlefield's store.

Miss Frances Belcher of New York visited Miss Gertrude P. Murphy on Elephant avenue, recently.

Mrs. McKay and son James, who were guests of Mrs. Colesworth lately, have returned to their home.

Next Friday evening an exciting race is billed at the Gem Roller Skating Rink, between "Billy" O'Brien and "Bob" Elwell. The exact instance has not yet been decided, but will probably be from three to five miles. The contest promises to be interesting, as both are fast men on rollers. Elwell has been racing at the Park Square Rink in Boston all last winter and this spring.

Last Wednesday the race between St. Clair and Clark proved to be a very exciting contest, Clark winning by only a few yards.

George C. Hazelton's comedy "Miss-tress Nell" is playing at the Gem this week. This show is the most elaborate and expensive of any yet offered, and should draw large houses. An effort was made by Manager Goding to secure this play two years ago, after Henrietta Crossman's success in the leading part, but he was not able to do so on account of Miss Crossman's refusal to permit the comedy to go out with stock companies. However, Mr. Goding secured the first performance outside of New York, and theatregoers who patronize the Gem this week will witness an entirely new and original play.

Mr. W. H. Sinclair went to Cumberland Mills last week to purchase a horse for Littlefield & Co., grocery store.

Mr. Archibald Ogilvy's daughter Florence is seriously ill at her home near Trefethen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knowlton and child of Boston, who have been staying at the Bay State cottage for the past few weeks, returned home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Douall and son of Portland arrived at the Bay State Wednesday and are to stay the rest of the season.

Master Dryden Davenport went out deep sea fishing with Captain Randall's party one day last week, and surprised himself as well as the rest of the party by capturing a 20-pound cod. Master Davenport is the guest of Miss Cabeen at the Sunny Brae.

Mrs. R. G. Hilborn of Curfew cottage, Oak Lawn Cove, has been entertaining her brother, Mr. George F. Lord, who holds a responsible position with the T. P. Beals Co. of Portland.

Miss O. A. Tully entertained her friends, Miss Lucy Townsend and Mrs. Homestead of Waterville at her cosy summer home part of last week.

A number of jolly young people made this end of the island (Trefethen's) quite lively for an hour or two last Tuesday evening. Some of the early retires kicked a little at the "noise," but many others enjoyed Charlie's tenor, Frank's bass, Joe's alto, and the young ladies' chorus, especially the solo by Fanny and duet by May and Florence.

Mrs. G. H. Noyes and son Clarence of St. Johnsbury, Vt., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. E. Noyes at their cottage, the Albion.

Mrs. A. D. Mitchell of Bowery Beach is the guest of her son, Mr. E. N. Brown and family for the balance of the season.

Mrs. Margaret Robertson and daughter Mary of St. Catherine, Ont., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cook at their pretty cottage at Evergreen Landing.

No guests at "Camp George."

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Drinkwater are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Drinkwater at their cottage, the Thrifty. Mr. F. H. is connected with the Portland Evening Express.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erskine will entertain Mr. Erskine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Erskine, at their cottage, Dorset, for the balance of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Steele entertained the Ladies Circle of the Second Parish church and their invited friends last week at their summer home here. A picnic dinner was served at noon, after which various outdoor sports were indulged in, and the time passed all too quickly. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Steele for the pleasant time enjoyed by all present.

Miss Flora Miles of West Baldwin has been the guest of her friend, Miss Ruth Morrill, at her parents' summer home, the Shirley cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Peters, who have been spending the past month here, have returned to Portland. Last Sunday they entertained a party of friends at their cottage, Narraganset, and in the party were the following: Mr. Irving Watts, Miss Emma Watts, Mrs. Lottie Sodergren and daughter, Miss Ida Anderson of Caribou, Lou Ball, Ray Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thompson and daughter Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sterling of Laurel cottage entertained Mrs. Frank Beal and daughter Maud of Congress street last week.

Mrs. George Truscott of Saco has been visiting Mrs. E. Soule at Pine Tree cottage. Mrs. Soule also is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Mary Davis of Bar Mills.

Miss Helen Beals of Auburn, who has been spending the past month with Mrs. A. D. Webber of Wayside cottage, is now on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Abbie Turner in Portland.

Mr. George A. Bynon is improving his cottage with a new piazza. Mrs.

Bynon entertained her sister, Mrs. George Cleaves of Chebeague, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Morrison had as their guests last week Mrs. Wm. H. Wright of Oakdale and Miss Pierce of Portland.

Mrs. E. G. Robinson and daughter Helen of Munjoy Hill called on friends here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have been greatly missed here this summer, for they were great entertainers. They leased their pretty cottage, Nostedown, for the season to Mr. Charles Crocker.

Mrs. Thomas Foss entertained the whilst club of which she is a member at her cottage at Evergreen Wednesday. Last Wednesday Mrs. Charles Porter of Trefethen's entertained the same club at her cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Tracy and two children, who have been spending the first of the season at Bide-a-Wee cottage, returned to their home on Beckett street, Portland, last week, and will be greatly missed as they were great entertainers.

Last Friday evening a very pleasing musicale was given in the parlor of the Oceanic House for the guests and friends. Miss Ellen Thompson was the reader, and Miss Marion Johnson the vocalist.

Mrs. Patchen had as her guests her sister, Mrs. G. A. Powers and children of Somerville, Mass. Mrs. Powers will in the future reside in Portland.

Long Island

Miss J. Alice Holcombe entertained the Jolly Twelve Whist club, of which she is a member, at her mother's cottage, Sunny Slope, last week. A bounteous shore dinner was served, at noon on the piazza, which was profusely decorated with wild flowers, ferns and American flags; instead of the usual whist, sports were indulged in. No mention is to be made of the bathing suits, but a red-hot ball game was one of the features, and the ladies are thinking seriously of challenging the island team. (Here is your chance, Andrew.) The most "useful" decoration was the bouquet which graced the centre of the table. The members of the club were Mrs. Brackett, Stockman, Turner, Merrill, Hammett, Heiber, Jarvis, Mrs. Will Heiber, Mrs. Chas. Jarvis and Miss Holcombe. The last heard of them on their return was the strains of the song, "Mother, mother, bathe me in arnica."

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Mountfort gave a clambake on "Overset" last week to a party of friends which was greatly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present, for "Vint" is quite a professional. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. Mountfort, Mr. Frank Pride, a well known lawyer of Westbrook and Miss Mildred Harvey of Medford, Mass.

Madame Ann Belcourt and children of Ottawa, Ont., who are stopping here on the island, were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Looney at their cottage, Sans Souci, at the West End. The Hon. Narcis Belcourt, who is now in England, is expected to arrive here about August 1, and will join his family here. He is the speaker of the House of Commons of Canada, and is abroad on official business.

Miss Louise M. Payne of Waterville, Mass., is the guest of Miss Belle Lalor, who is spending the season with Mrs. H. L. Davis at the West End.

Mrs. Frank Vaughn and daughter of Wellesley Hills, Mass., are visiting Mrs. H. M. McNeil of the Pink cottage.

Miss Ethel Gray of Berlin, N. H., was the guest of her uncle, Mr. Geo. B. Gray at the West End last week.

Miss Marjorie Gray of Westbrook, who is spending the summer here with her parents, gave a pit party last Thursday evening to a party of her young friends. The cottage was prettily decorated, and refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was passed.

Mr. W. P. Libby and family of Boston, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. F. W. Ford at Seward cottage, No. 4. Mr. Ford spent Sunday with his family. He is connected with the Boston Transcript.

Miss Marion Bliss of Newtonville, Mass., is visiting Miss Alice Eaton at Seward cottage, No. 3, Mr. J. L. Eaton, Jr., is also spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eaton.

Mr. G. R. Seward is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Cook of Providence, R. I.

The employees and employees of the Portland creamery chartered Mr. Bickford's motor launch for a trip down the bay last Sunday. The first stop was at Goose island where a picnic dinner, to which all did good justice, was served. The trip back was made without an accident, and all were well pleased with the day's outing.

Mr. J. W. Conant entertained his friend, Mr. Geo. McClellan of Dedham, Mass., this week at Seward cottage, No. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Dabyer and Mr. and Mrs. Ellison of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McBryde of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKenney of Beach avenue, last week.

Mrs. Eugene Libby and sons of Roxbury, Mass., and Mr. Walter Messer of Haines & Messer, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lambert part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gaylord of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook at the West End last week.

Miss Alice Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huston and daughter, Margery of Woodford's who were visiting at Medford last week, have now returned home.

Mrs. J. H. McCarty entertained Miss Mary Clarry of Portland over Sunday at the Ideal cottage.

Miss Nettie Goulding of Natick, Mass., is visiting Mrs. Perley Harriman at Verona Villa.

Mr. Claud Berry of Camp Wigwam has been enjoying his vacation on the island.

Mrs. Jordan of Glenwood avenue visited friends on the island last

The Bay has "got busy."
Come down—the water's fine!
"Far from the madd'ning crowd's ignoble strife"—we are.
Don't you find the Breeze's tide cards pretty handy these days?
Our advertisers want to get acquainted with you. It will be to your mutual advantage.
Remember, your island is but one of 365, and it isn't the part of wisdom to say its the finest till you've visited some of the others.
Beautifully tempered weather the past week. What a contrast to the newspaper reports from Boston and New York. There have been just enough cooling showers of evenings, too.
Not a bad idea if we could have street lights in summer at least, at South Harswell and Bailey's Island, also Chebeague, and some of the inner bay islands. The crying need is for the lights similar to those at Long Island. A gasoline light seems to be the best substitute for electricity.
We saw a little tot walking with her father the other day—scarcely old enough to stand on her feet. Suddenly she stumbled and fell on her face, hurting herself cruelly. But with a man's heart in a wee little girl's body, she picked herself up, never allowing the tears to fall that welled up into her eyes. With lips tightly compressed she stifled the sobs that most older people would not have been ashamed to utter. Brave little woman! And the father, big, awkward, heartless man, whose face had obscured itself in her path causing the accident, had not a word of sympathy or look of concern. But another instance of how men fail to cherish the blessings that are theirs—there were others watching the incident whose hearts yearned to have such a daughter—but yearned in vain.
Our summer exchanges are soaring to the clouds. There is no excuse for dullness at the Summit with "Life" from Bar Harbor in our midst. The Breeze blew in from Casco Bay the other day, and now the Wave has rolled up from Kennebunkport. Strangest of all, the Echo came flying from Bethlehem before the Bugle sounded from Bretton Woods.—Among the Clouds.
The above clipping from that unique and widely known summer publication, Among the Clouds, printed on the summit of Mt. Washington, is fresh evidence of the originality of its editor, Mr. Frank H. Burt, who, though often encompassed by clouds, allows none of them to befog his intellectual abilities. It might be said without stretching the truth, that not only can he catch the breath of Casco Bay doings through the new columns of the Breeze, but many clear days he can look down from his high altitude and with a powerful glass probably distinguish the very islands of our famed resort. A look from that distance would hardly compensate, however, for the inevitable absence of one of our hotel shore diners, and we hope the Breeze will blow strongly enough some day to actually waft a whiff of the real "live broil" up there and induce the aforesaid editor to come down and have one with us.
LARGER EDITIONS.
We have been forced to it. Stress of business growth and increased patronage, coupled with the more lengthy reports of our representatives on the several islands, have made it imperative that the Breeze grow in accordance. Commencing August second the Casco Bay Breeze, the official organ of this summer resort section, will be published in twelve-page editions—a surprising improvement during the past two seasons. It proves that our paper is welcomed and appreciated by the business men, the all-year-round residents and the summer tourists—shows, too, that we are not seeking for the paltry present profit, but to give our patrons the very best paper that we can publish—an ever improving journal, devoted to whatever most interests them.

It is gratifying for the publishers to be able to make this announcement. It marks the accomplishment of one of their biggest aims for the past five years, and to all—advertisers, readers, correspondents—who have aided in making this possible, we extend thanks for co-operation, and express the wish that our relations for the future may be as pleasant as they have been in the past.
WATCH US GROW!

ONE THING AT A TIME.

"We cannot serve two masters," the good book tells us, and this is equally true of practical and spiritual matters.
If we would be true to ourselves, we must be true and constant to each thing we attempt to do, and not suffer ourselves to be diverted by every whimsical impulse.
Benjamin Franklin would never have discovered the secret of the lightning if he had not put his whole mind on that one subject. Edison would never have made the great discovery and invention in electricity which he has made if he allowed himself to draw maps, read books on travel, or write letters while he was studying the subject of electricity. Nor would our own hero of Casco Bay, Robert E. Peary, have been, as he now is, on the eve of the greatest scientific achievement of modern times—the conquest of the North, the discovery of the North Pole—had he not clung with a grip that could not be shaken to this, his ambition, from boyhood days.
Instead of doing many things in a half-hearted way, these men have put their whole mind into the one subject, not even allowing any one to speak to them while studying and experimenting, and the world in consequence hailed them as GREAT.

We cannot all be Franks, Edisons or Pearys, but we can all attain success in our different avocations by using the body, brain and spirit to bear on whatever work is given us to do. Then success will come.
Remember always that your spirit or will power, for they are the same thing, is far stronger than your mind or brain, far stronger, as a rule, than your body. People, too, often forget that no matter if you inherit a sort of jack-of-all-trades, and good-at-one brain from parents or grand parents, no matter if you are blessed with a vigorous, healthy constitution, you also inherit a divine will power if you care to use it, and nurture the strength to push its execution.
Until the mind is broken to concentrated thought, it is very much like a wild colt—it insists upon thinking of all sorts of things, except the one subject you desire it to study. But you must pull it back. Until the body has been likewise trained to moderation and been strengthened by proper relaxation and recuperation, it is like the same wild colt, valiantly of the power to do, it overdoes, it undertakes to move loads too heavy for it, and will not admit overtaxation, a too great strain until it has weakened itself irreparably. This is USE-LESS.

If you are studying fractions, shut out all thoughts except fractions. See only figures. If you are sweeping a room, see only that room until it is done, then turn your mind to pleasant paths, and strive for any intellectual height you choose.
Just begin today, right away, to do one thing at a time, and to think of nothing, talk of nothing, till it is done. Keep to this rule and you will be able in five years to achieve more than you could achieve in twenty-five any other way.
And, by the way, what it is you are here at the bay for now? What is your "one thing" at the present time? Isn't it to recuperate? Isn't it to regain strength for the fight during the fall, winter and spring, when you will be toiling away at your life's purpose? Isn't it now for you to recreation your body and mind that they may be strong to carry to a glorious fulfillment all that your dauntless spirit urges? One thing at a time. You know your one thing for the present—have at it. DO IT NOW!

Three Floors of Select Goods.
The island trade is heavily patronizing the store of Eastman Bros. & Bancroft. A step into their three floors, full of select things of the season, on the quietest day of the week, shows a steady flow of trade. The Eastman store has that invaluable asset to any firm, the confidence of the buying public.

Any Child a Genius if Properly Trained

By Mrs. Harry Hastings, Member of Woman's Democratic Club.

NY normal child—physically and mentally—can be trained to accomplish the work that would seem only possible to a genius.
Placed in good environments and properly trained, the normal child will do what we expect only of unusually gifted ones.
Environment and proper training have far greater influence than heredity. I consider a weak heredity a very slight handicap if intelligence is used in training the child.
I quite agree with Burbank, that we could produce a finer race if more intelligence than is usually given is expended upon the child, but Burbank's ideas that he has worked out in plant life with such startling conclusions can never be accomplished with children, for, after all, the child itself is an intelligent factor in development, and can, at a very early age, because he has a will power of his own, seek associations or have them thrust upon him that parents cannot control.
I believe that the mother should herself, or have some highly capable person, look after the physical welfare of the child the moment it is born, because in that way a child can be saved the unnecessary illnesses usually looked upon as the natural heritage of all children. A child should from the very beginning be trained to have the physical habits which are necessary for its own welfare and the comfort of the family. From the physical habits of regularity come the ethical habits of obedience, and the child can soon be taught that when he is obedient he is comfortable and therefore happy. When the habit of obedience is acquired a child is easily trained to have a reverence for the law, which is a vital point in social life.—New York World.

Lo! the Poor : : Pessimist

By P. Joiner.

I MET my friend the other day, looking intently at an exhibition of feminine lay figures in a fashionable shop window. "Ah!" I said to him, "thinking of taking a wife, and looking out for new gowns, are you?"
"No," he replied, "matrimony is too rich for my blood. I can't afford it. Look at those lay figures. I believe I'll buy one of them. They will be just as useful so far as being a helpmeet goes, and they're cheaper. Just look at the crowds of women in this street and in those shops. They are rivaling the poor sandwich men. Every one of them is a walking advertisement. Why, nine-tenths of the whole lot have no use for a man except to pay bills. They don't want to have any duties or bear any responsibilities. What they prefer is to be wrapped in lavender and cloth of gold, placed in niches to be looked at and admired.
"Oh, if they do have any aim in life, it is to shop, visit the dressmaker, attend matinees, stop at the Double Blank Hotel or spend an evening over bridge. No, I'm going to buy a lay figure. For variety I can get one of these new gowns every month for my model. It stays at home. It doesn't drink or gamble. It looks pretty and it never chatters."
Will some one of your correspondents, skilled in the eternal feminine, tell me how to answer my bachelor friend? He needs direction and encouragement.—New York Sun.

Methods Of Vice Protection in New York

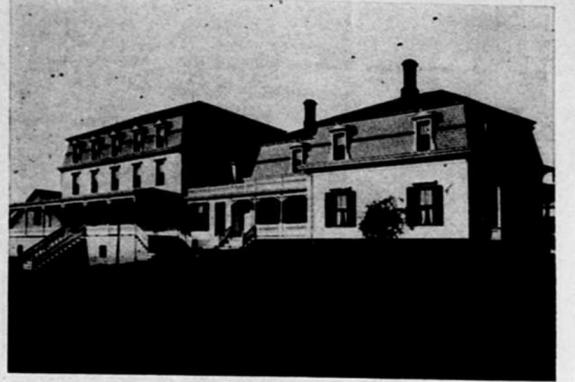

By Former Police Commissioner William McAdoo.

I F there are a considerable number of pool rooms in a police precinct, the suspicion rests on the police captain that he, or those under him, are receiving money for allowing them to operate. It is the same with gambling houses and houses of prostitution, and hotels or other places used for assignation purposes; and where this is widespread, in a city like New York, so that these vices are found more or less in a large number of precincts in Manhattan, some in the Bronx, and not a few in Brooklyn, one is face to face with the alarming situation that the toleration of these vices is corrupting and demoralizing the whole police force. If the men in a precinct know or believe that the captain is receiving money for permitting a disorderly house, pool room, or gambling house to run, they will, of course, not only have no faith in him, but they will evade their duty in all respects, because they will have constantly before their eyes the fact that a policeman can be successfully corrupt, and that the officers who command them are not only not doing their duty, but making money by failing to do so. The chances are, therefore, that some of the men who have this example before them will in turn become grafters and blackmailers. If the captain can collect a large sum of money every week or month from a disorderly house, the chances are that the man on post will insist on robbing the unfortunate street walker and making her pay for the privilege of carrying on her infamous trade on his post, and, indeed, become a partner in her infamy, her quondam protector. Once a man has put himself to the plough of grafting and blackmail it seems almost necessary that he run the furrow to its end. The moral courage has oozed out of him entirely; he must henceforth pass his life in the threatening shadow, a slave to those who know his secrets, a weak tool in the face of opposition or threats.—Harper's Weekly.

FIRST WEEK DAY WHITE MOUNTAIN EXCURSION

For the Glidden Trophy Touring Party and Automobile Mountain Climbing Contest.
The Maine Central Railroad announces its first week day excursion to the White Mountains to take place on Monday, July 30th.
This is on the occasion of the arrival at Bretton Woods of the Glidden Trophy touring party of automobiles which has been enroute from Cleveland, Ohio, and Buffalo, N. Y., to the White Mountains via Montreal, Quebec and the Rangeley Lakes, and it is also the meeting of the Bay State Automobile Association.
What will interest our people and particularly the summer tourists who are with us is the fact that in connection with this meeting the Annual White Mountains Automobile Climbing Contest will take place that day. In previous years the climb to the clouds has been made up Mount Washington but it took too long to get to the base of operations and tourists, other than those who were in automobiles, were unable to witness the event. This year the climb is to be made through the Crawford Notch and the first car will leave the Willey House at the foot of the Notch in the great bowl of the valley of the Saco between Mounts Webster and Willard at 9 a. m., Monday, July 30th, and the contest will continue all day and probably part of Tuesday.
There is a magnificent opportunity to view the struggle in the Notch as people can go right to the seat of war and view the contest from the Crawford House plateau and along the sides of Mounts Willard and Webster between which extends the Notch Carriage road along the valley of the Saco River and on which the contest is to take place.
Tickets will be sold from Portland at $1.50 for the round trip, good Monday, July 30th only and in addition tickets will be sold at $3.45 from Portland to Crawford, Bretton Woods and Fabian's and return which will be good going Saturday, July 28th, Sunday, July 29th or Monday, the 30th, and are good for return until Tuesday, July 31st inclusive, as late as by train leaving Fabian's at 4.57 p. m. Going to the contest, passengers from North Conway and stations north thereof, can take the train leaving North Conway at 7.25 a. m., due at Crawford's 8.40 a. m., Bretton Woods 8.47 a. m., and those from Portland can take the train leaving Portland at 9.10 a. m., and this train may be taken from Sebago Lake and stations north. Passengers from Cumberland Mills, South Windham, Newhall and White Rock taking the local train leaving Portland at 8.45 a. m., which connects at Sebago Lake with 9.10 a. m. express from Portland.
For those who wish to take advantage of the tickets sold Saturday and Sunday so as to have a day or two in the mountains there are trains leaving Portland at 9.10 a. m., 1.30 and 9 p. m., Saturday and Sunday leave Portland at 9.30 a. m.
Parties from Kennebunkport, Kennebunk, Saco, Biddeford, Old Orchard, Front's Neck, Scarborough, can join this excursion by taking the morning trains which arrive at the Union Station, Portland, previous to 9.10 a. m., and there are steamer connections from all points in Casco Bay.
It seems to some of us that reform is mighty billous.

Eastman Brothers and Bancroft

Littlejohn's I.

Mr. J. G. Barton of Chicago, representative of Ohio Varnish company, Cleveland, is stopping at the Rockmere house for a few weeks with the Misses O'Donnell from Chicago.

Mr. Dickerman's beautiful launch "Minna" made an early trip to Peaks Island, bringing back Mrs. Dickerman's sister, Mrs. Rowe and husband from Somerville, also Mrs. Pierce of Boston for a day's outing at the Barnacle.

Mr. O'Brien's mother and sister Charlotte from Allston are visiting Mr. O'Brien and family at their cottage. This is their first trip to Littlejohn's and they are much pleased with the island.

Mrs. J. P. Prentiss and daughter Mary are again located at the Rockmere.

Mr. Edmund Munsie, wife and daughter Margaret of Leominster, Mass., arrived at the Rockmere Monday for a short vacation. They are finding the place all and more than they anticipated. Mr. Munsie's sister Mrs. Lacy with Master Malcolm Munsie are at Capt. Sawyer's for the summer. Mr. Munsie is manager of Nixon's drug store in Leominster.

Mr. William A. Quigley, with his friend Mr. Cornelius O'Brien both of Boston, are at the Rockmere for two weeks. Mr. Quigley is employed by the John Hancock Insurance company, Devonshire street, and Mr. O'Brien by the Frank Riddon Electric company, Summer street.

Mrs. Smith and daughter Edith are entertaining Miss Coleman of Williamsburg, Va., Miss Sammy of Chicago, also Miss Dillingham of Philadelphia. Miss Smith and Miss Dillingham are away at present on a short trip to Quebec.

Mr. Dennis of Allston, Mass., is stopping at the Melrose house.

Mr. B. R. Terhune, professor of Latin in the high school at Trenton, N. J., and Mr. J. G. Conner, president of Conner Mill Work company of the same place with their wives, have been touring for about 10 days. They spent a part of their time at the hotel, leaving Saturday morning on their return home.

Mr. Thomas Mackenzie of the law firm of Findlay, Mackenzie & Findlay, Baltimore, arrived at the Rockmere Wednesday after a trolley trip from New York. He is an extensive traveler, but considers these islands as beautiful as any in the St. Lawrence river and quite as attractive as the islands which lie off Stockholm.

Wednesday a party of 12 took a three hour ride around in the bay in Harold Sawyer's naphtha launch. It was a beautiful day for such a trip and they found it most delightful.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Cook and daughter Emma with Mrs. Sarah Kirtledge and three daughters, Misses Lola, Lizzie and Mildred, also Mr. Thomas Haines, all of South Framingham, arrived Sunday morning at Miss Cook's cottage.

Mr. Seavey is at the Lyndehurst with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Carlton Hicks. Mrs. Hicks made a short trip to Boston Monday returning Wednesday.

Mr. J. Ready of Boston, who is located with his family at the Ronco cottage, made a short business trip to Boston the past week. He reports Boston as a very hot place and was exceedingly glad to get back to the cool breezes of Littlejohn's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moulton are again at the Arcade for the rest of July.

Mrs. Albert Tuttle from Dorchester arrived at the Highland cottage Friday for the rest of July; Thursday the party occupying the Highland cottage took a pleasure trip to Portland, Riverton Park, etc.

The Misses Rose and Clara Lamb are occupying the Ellms cottage for a short time. This is their third season.

Mrs. Ellms returned to her home in Melrose, Wednesday, and Miss Minnie Messenger, who has been stopping at the Log Cabin with her is now pleasantly located at the Rockmere.

Mr. Robert Cook and son Arthur, also Mr. Daniel Manning, arrived Wednesday morning on their yacht "Comet," from Dorchester, and encountered a heavy thunder shower Tuesday night and had quite a thrilling experience, losing their gaff topsail and losing their compass. We are glad to report their safe arrival and understand they are to remain with us till the end of July.

Mr. Robert Moore returned to his home in Allston Saturday. His solo singing at the chapel Sunday was much enjoyed.

Capt. Alfred Drinkwater took a large party out in his new yacht La Femme. They brought home some very nice samples of the finny tribe. Everyone was seasick, except the person who happened to be describing the trip.

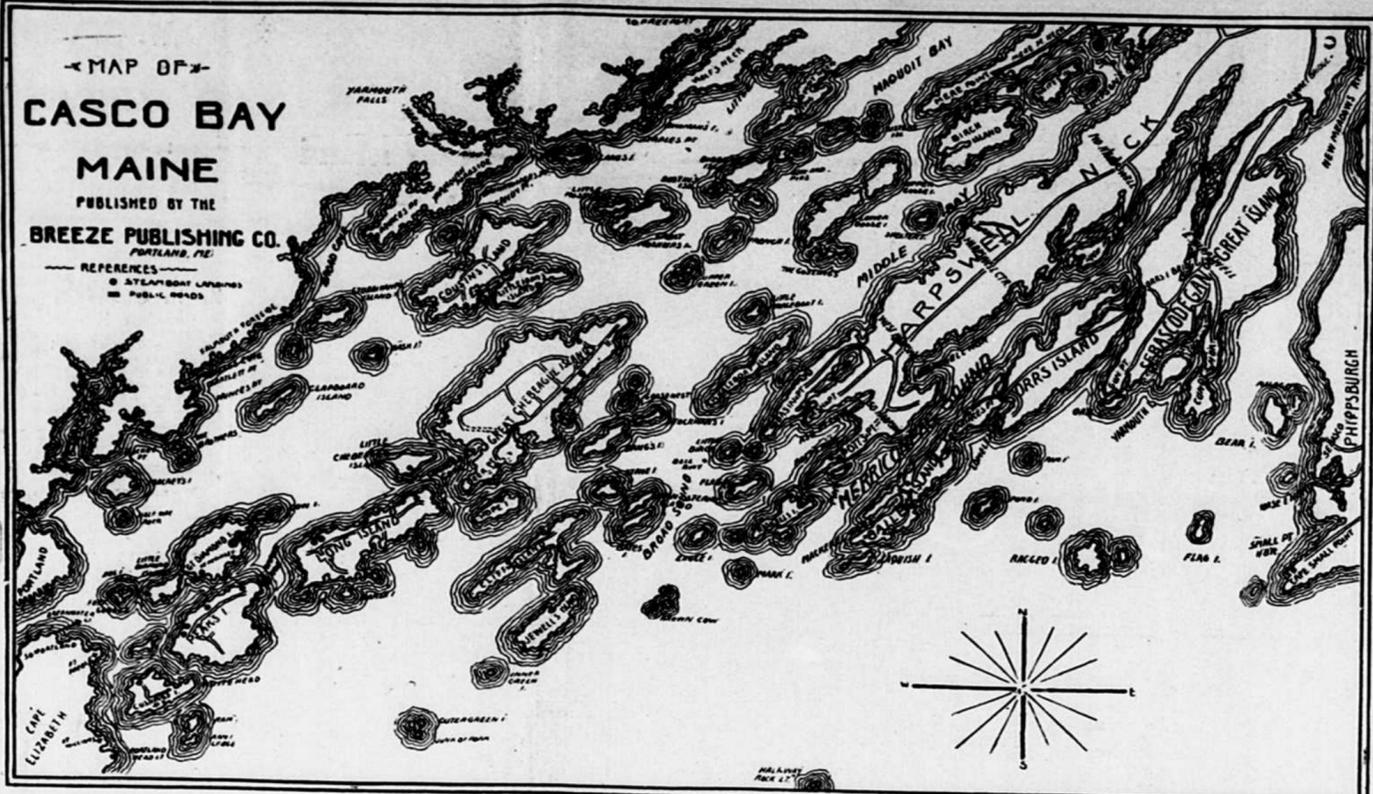

Misses Ethel and Lella Nicholl of Allston are rooming at Mrs. Hopkins in "The Birches." Miss Ethel is employed in a Tremont street millinery establishment and Miss Lella is a successful teacher in the Bowdoin school, West End, Boston.

Miss Gertie Carr, bookkeeper at Ripley Howland, Jewellers, Bromfield street, Boston, with her friend, Miss Snow of the C. E. World, are at the Rockmere for a short time. This is Miss Carr's second trip this season.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Griggs of Allston are registered at the Rockmere.

Mr. A. W. Hopkins arrived Saturday to spend Sunday with his family at "The Birches."

Mr. Arthur Batson of Allston is

Those weary, wearing, dull, heavy headaches that so many women have to suffer! But do they HAVE TO suffer? Half the headaches in the world are due DIRECTLY to DEFECTIVE EYE-SIGHT. And yet some women would prefer to endure the headaches rather than WEAR GLASSES, which, if PROPERLY FITTED, would give them instant relief. Do not delay getting the glasses, though, or the headaches will continue and the result will be fatal. COME TO US and HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED. THERE IS NO CHARGE.

The annual family reunion of the Burrows families was held last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stokes. Fifty-five different representatives of the Burrows were present. The party spent the day at the White beach, and a picnic dinner was held at noon. The day was spent in various ways. Some speeches were in order, after which fishing, bathing and a red-hot ball game were indulged in. The phenomenal plays were so numerous that of space won't permit mention of all of them. All present were Portland families, except Mr. Jenks and family and Mr. Loomis and family of Montreal and Mr. Buck and family of Sherbrooke. Miss Edith Hughes of Cash's Corner spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. Jordan Christie at the Casco Bay House.

shower Tuesday evening kept many from the theatre party. All the cottages at the East and West Ends are now occupied, and many social gatherings are held every evening, with dancing Wednesday and Saturday nights at Cushing's. One ought to be contented here.

Mr. C. W. Boyer of Somerville, Mass., is spending a few days with his wife at Edgewood.

Mr. A. O. Paine of Malden, Mass., was the guest of Mrs. Fred Tucker at the Oriole.

Mr. Chas. A. Burnham of Beverly, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Woodbury at their cosy home in Woodbury square. It seemed good to see "Genial Charlie's" face once more. Although married he is the same old Charlie.

Mr. Frank C. Mariner, with a party of friends, spent Sunday with his father, David A. Mariner.

Mr. Arthur Wallace went out sword fishing on the Parkhurst with his uncle, Capt. Annis Wallace, last Tuesday.

Last Friday night the Pioneer club of Mariner's Landing gave a surprise in honor of its vice-president, Mrs. Addie Leavitt's birthday. Music and games were indulged in, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. Henry Woodbury met with a very painful accident. A crab bit his fore finger and blood poisoning set in. Although getting along nicely, it is still in a very dangerous state.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross and daughter of Deering was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ilsey at Ilsey-hurst last week.

Mr. Fred Tucker of Malden, Mass., spent Sunday with his family at the Oriole.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker of Worcester, Mass., are stopping at Bide-a-Wee.

Mrs. A. Isley of Ilsey-hurst has been spending a few days in Portland with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harris will leave Saturday for a visit to Mr. Harris' mother at Rumford Falls. They will return next week via Auburn, Lewiston and Freeport, stopping at Casco Castle for dinner on the way, coming from Auburn to Portland by trolley.

Cliff Island

Cliff's the place for roughing it! See them come on every boat! Mr. Rufus Grant, Mrs. Grant and son from Cumberland Mills are staying at the Grand View.

Mrs. E. Tredwell is staying with E. A. Solomons and family and Mrs. A. Searis of Brooklyn at Albert Griffin's cottage, which they intend to occupy until September.

The latest arrivals at the Cliff Cottage are Mrs. Ralph Opdyke and Master George Opdyke of Montclair, N. J., and the Misses Mabel and Angie Sally of Woonsocket, R. I.

Mrs. Faulkner and her son Charles of Boston are visiting Mrs. C. F. Spoford at Cove Cottage.

Mr. Joseph S. Walton and a party of four from George School, Penn., are at Cliff Cottage for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodcock of South Portland visited friends on the Island Sunday.

Mr. G. L. Rodier of Mitteneague, Mass., and his friend Mr. Craig are at Cliff Cottage for two weeks.

Miss Harriet E. Works of Biddeford Pool is visiting the Misses Downs at the Maryland cottage.

Miss Edith Pettinill is visiting friends in Westbrook.

Mr. E. A. Maxwell, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Elizabeth Maxwell, the Misses Mabel and Jean Maxwell and their musical Thomas cat "Teddy," and Miss M. B. Scott make up a jolly party at Mr. Johnson's cottage near the landing.

Master Guy Johnson and Master Ray Johnson of Westbrook are visiting C. E. Pettinill. The youngsters have a tent near the shore and are having a fine time.

Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Leveck and Mrs. Barbour from Portland are at Henry Cobb's cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Spear of Northampton, Mass., are at Mr. H. B. Johnson's cottage for two weeks.

Mrs. O. A. Cobb of Cumberland Mills is spending a few days with her son, Mr. C. M. Cobb.

Mr. A. H. Southard is hustling the work on his new motor boat, and hopes to have it done next week. It is large and comfortable, being built especially for the purpose of taking out parties.

Mr. David Coyle is deservedly popular with the cottagers, as he is a fine musician and a good dancer. He has built a fine little dory which he has christened the "Suky Jane."

Mr. Coyle will probably spend most of the summer on the island. He returns in the fall to Princeton University.

Mr. John Stone of Malden, Mass., will arrive the first of August on the island. His beautiful yacht, the "Iris," will then be one of the most admired craft in the bay. Mr. Stone is a graduate of Harvard, class of '04, and is now studying law in Boston.

Mrs. Margaret H. Furman of Wayne, Pa., is visiting Mrs. C. F. Hunter at "Pine Cone Camp." Mr. C. F. Hunter of Philadelphia will spend the month of August with his family at their beautiful summer home.

Miss Annette Chase of Baltimore, who with her mother is occupying Lente cottage for the summer, has hired Mr. Frank Griffin's piano, and her delightful musicales are another diversion for the summer cottagers.

Miss Laura J. Ashmore of Philadelphia, Pa., is here for the summer. Miss Ashmore is principal of the Minnie Murdock Kendrick primary school of West Philadelphia, one of the leading schools in the Quaker City. The building is named in honor of Mrs. George W. Kendrick, who during her life time was one of the leading spirits in educational work in that charming city. Miss Ashmore has been coming to our island for several seasons past.

BAILEY'S ISLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Webster of Chicago, Ill., who are traveling along the eastern coast for rest and recreation arrived here Saturday last and will remain a week or more taking short trips to the nearby islands. They are registered at the Seaside.

Rev. M. Irving Reese, rector of the Episcopal church at Milford, Mass., with his wife was here on the island for a few days last week. During their short sojourn they were resting at the "Willows," the annex of the Robinhood Inn. The rector and his wife are no strangers to this island and both admire the rest and seclusion that can be had here. Seven years ago they were the guests of Mrs. Mary McGann at her cottage on the sea bank which has since been disposed of to Miss Julia Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell and son, Leonard W. Howell, of Worcester, Mass., who have been here for some time will spend the remainder of their outing with Mrs. Beede.

Mrs. D. J. Darling of Lincoln, Mass., Miss Belle Darling of Westboro, Mass., Miss Ethel Borden of Dorchester, Mass., and Miss Elsie M. Baker of Boston, Mass., are here at the Perkins cottage for a vacation of life and pleasure.

The summer colony of this island has no more ardent yachtsmen than Louis R. Sayre of the Central Manual Training school of Philadelphia, Pa., who is summing here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Sayre at the Johnson cottage. Daily Mr. Sayre with his young son, William, are to be found either fishing or cruising in his sloop "Eleanor," which is one of the finest crafts at anchor here. Mr. Sayre came to the island at the close of the school term in his city and usually remains the entire season.

Miss Edith Cole is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. Everett Stevens, at her summer home "Breezemer" on Summer Hill.

Bradford Massey, son of Dr. G. Betton Massey of Philadelphia, who has been spending a three week's vacation, the guest of his aunt, Miss J. Massey, at the Inn, and also with his chums, George and Xanthus Smith, Jr., at their father's home here, returned to his home Saturday last. Young Mr. Massey during his school years always spent his vacations with his aunt at the Inn. At the present time he is in the employ of John P. Ellison, wood merchant of Philadelphia, it being his intention of engaging in that business.

Mr. L. Everett Stevens is spending a short vacation with his wife at their cottage "Breezemer." Mr. Stevens, business affairs will not permit him to take an extended outing.

Prof. E. S. Sumner and wife of Worcester, Mass., are here for an outing at Mrs. Beede's, the Bonnyview, on Summer Hill. Prof. Sumner is an organist of note.

Mr. Albert Newman of New York, with his mother, Mrs. Mary Newman, of Milton, Mrs. May Pheon with her son, James, of Auburn, Me., and Mr. Wallace Copeland and Miss Deborah Blossom of Turner, who are visiting at Orr's Island, spent Wednesday last at Rosemont cottage, the guests of Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Porter, who are summering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud R. Johnson have moved into their new cottage which has just been completed by our local contractor Charles S. Thomas.

Mr. Charles A. Gilman of Lewiston, Me., owner of the Sea Cliff cottage on Maiden Lane, was here on the island one day last week.

Prof. Sydney T. Skidmore, professor of physics and chemistry at the Philadelphia Normal school for girls, is expected any day to join his wife and daughter, who are summering here at the Wells cottage. Prof. Skidmore is a great disciple of Emerson.

It was stated in last week's "Breeze" that it was the intention of Mr. Franklin T. Root to return to the island early in August to spend ten days and return with his wife to New York. It has since been learned however that business duties will detain Mr. Root all the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Root leaves the island next Friday and will stay with her husband at the city home.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Charles T. Root left the island for New York to attend to some business matters. He will return within a week or ten days.

Mr. L. A. Boynton, who has been visiting at the Root cottage, left for his home in East Orange, N. J., on Tuesday afternoon. He will join his mother and sister who are going to spend the summer at Shelter Island, N. Y.

Mr. H. Willard Gray of New Rochelle, N. Y., was among the Saturday arrivals. Mr. Gray was met in Portland by Mr. Woodman in his yacht the "Winjoy." Mr. Gray is a regular summer visitor and has a host of friends at Bailey's.

While sailing in a stiff breeze on Thursday, the gaff of Mr. Woodman's yacht "Winjoy" snapped. This spar was the only piece left from the late yacht "Arthur Franklin," a fact which comically completes the round of mishaps connected with this aged boat.

On Thursday afternoon last a tea party was given by Miss Root to a party of friends. Tea was served on the broad front piazza of the "Tekitisi," the Root cottage. The party included Mrs. Clara Louise Burnham, Mrs. Franklin T. Root, Miss Wells, Miss Matilda Wells, Miss Margaret Snively, Miss Muriel Snively, Mr. DeForest Snively, Dr. Lamson, Mrs. Lamson, Mr. Lawrence Boynton, Miss Root, Mr. Royal Root, Mr. George Root, Miss Esther Root and Miss Seward.

Mr. Cyrus P. Curtis in his steam yacht the "Machignonne," again dropped anchor in Mackerel Cove on Saturday morning. It was his intention to call on Mr. C. T. Root, but as the latter was in Portland, he stayed but a short time.

Dr. and Mrs. Lamson left last Saturday for their home in Hartford, Conn., to the unanimous regret of their large round of acquaintances at Bailey's.

The fine schooner yacht "Ada," owned by Boston parties, was here at anchor at Mackerel Cove Saturday morning last. The party had been cruising eastward and were bound for home.

Among the arrivals of Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Foster, of Lisbon Falls. Mr. Foster is postmaster in that city. He and his wife called on friends who knew them during the time they used to spend their summers here and, though obliged to cut their stay short, they expect to come down again in August.

Mr. Leslie Lord, who has been in New York for a week, returned Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Gurney, who will spend the season here with her daughter, Mrs. Lord.

The South Harpswell Yacht Club organized Saturday at a meeting held in the new club building. Arrangements were talked over and plans for such races as it is thought can be successfully held this summer were discussed. Officers elected were: Commodore, L. H. Spaulding; Vice Commodore, Charles P. Sherman; Treasurer, Miss Annie Packard; Secretary, John P. Thomas; Fleet surgeon, Dr. E. A. Austin; Fleet Captain, Osceola Currier.

Mr. Gilbert Ridgway of Jersey City, arrived for the season Saturday. He has joined his friends at the Auburn Colony.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fay of Auburn, who are boarding at Stover Bibber's, will stay through August. They have been here for fifteen summers and are well known on the Point.

Miss Spaulding has her new sail boat, the "Slapping Sal, III, which arrived Friday from Boston. The new boat was put through her paces by her owner the same day and it was decided that more ballast was needed before she would be equipped for racing.

Mr. Morton Holmes of Malden, Mass., is spending his two weeks vacation at the Bibber cottage as usual.

Mrs. George Elliott of East Rochester, and her nephew Fred Emerson, of Dover, N. H., are at South Harpswell to stay until Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Robbins of Lewiston are stopping for a short time at the Solid Comfort cottage.

Mr. Floyd Philbrick of Hebron arrived Saturday for a weeks visit at the Strout House.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody Dascomb are entertaining Mr. Woodward of Franklin, Mass., for the week.

The yacht Alfreda of the Bunker Hill Yacht Club, which was anchored here for a few days, left Tuesday morning. The boys were a jolly crew and made frequent visits to the stores on the point where they never tired of raiding the pie counters and ice cream tables.

It is a pleasure for all South Harpswell people to be able to welcome again in our midst Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Becket of Montreal, who are stopping at the Ocean View Hotel for the mid-summer. Their son Mr. Frank Becket of New York having joined them last week, the guests will doubtless be treated to some music as Mr. Becket senior is a well known musician and a critic, while his son is a pianist and excellent singer.

Mr. Harold Bartlett, who has been in Auburn for a few days, returned to the Young cottage Friday.

Mr. Charles M. Hays, general manager of the Grand Trunk railway system, landed here Sunday with a party of twelve including his family and friends. They called down in a sloop yacht from Cushing's Island, where Mr. Hays is summering at the Ottawa. The party took dinner at the Merriconag and expressed themselves delighted with its situation.

Chebeague I.

Camp Ola.

This little camp in the thick pine woods of Soule's grove, calls forth the admiration of the guests of Chebeague. It is owned by Master Cyril Bissell. At the entrance is an ornamental sign of pine cones which reads "Camp Ola." Lose care all ye who enter here." The bungalow is made of matting and ornamented with pine cones. Comfortable rustic seats are scattered throughout the grove and all visitors are welcomed. Ice cold lemonade is always on tap and boiled lobster and green corn dispensed weekly. Many delightful hours are whiled away at Camp "Ola."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mansfield are mourning the loss of their year old child, Virene Leona, who passed away Monday evening at their home. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon when the kind feelings of their friends were expressed by many floral tokens. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones, who are doubly afflicted having lost an only child just two years ago.

Mr. H. C. Westervelt of Philadelphia, who is summering at his cottage at the west end with his family is away for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bates and family are pleasantly located at their summer home purchased last year. Mr. Bates drives a handsome light turn-out.

Mrs. Bertrand Doughty of Boston is passing the summer with Mrs. John Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nichols of Boston will spend the month of August at the Sunnyside House, Jenks Landing.

Miss Berra of Portland will visit Miss Brenda Sinkinson for the month.

On Stave Island for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. William McNair of Portland with their children, William, James and Edith. Their summer home there has been thoroughly repaired and a new cellar blown out this season. The family use a motor boat to connect with the steamboats at Cliff Island or Littlefield's Landing here and have been down since the middle of June.

Mrs. M. L. Pinkham has recently purchased another lot of land adjoining her cottage. Mr. Hart, who is visiting Mrs. Pinkham and Mrs. Hart, has been making some improvements about the place, clearing the scrub and bushes from the new land.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Currier of Mechanic Falls are entertaining Master Herman Richardson of that city and Miss Ruth Herrick of Brockton, Mass., for a week at Camp Sunset.

The strollers at "Camp Iownit" enjoyed a deep sea fishing trip with Capt. Seabury Tuesday last going out to Half Way rock. The boys were all anxious for the honors; but the manner in which W. A. Thelling and Wm. E. Bunton hooked the finny tribe, each securing 17 left little encouragement for the other members of the party. Altogether about fifty were secured.

Mrs. Frederick J. Hsley of Congress street spent several days of this week at Amordale.

Capt. and Mrs. Simeon Smith spent several days of last week at Great Chebeague Island, the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Oscar Charleson.

Mrs. Stephen Gould and daughter, Miss Isabelle Gould of Portland have been the guests of Mrs. Enoch Rose during the past week.

Among the recent guests at Amordale the summer home of Capt. and Mrs. Oscar Charleson are Mrs. Moses Gould and Miss Florence Gould of the Eastern Promenade, Mrs. Louise Plummer of Woodfords, Mr. Gilman and Mr. Oscar Seabury of Pine street, Portland.

Miss Charlotte Hsley of Congress street is passing two weeks at Amordale where she is the guest of Miss Mildred Gorman.

On Wednesday the Elizabeth Wadsworth Chapter of the D. A. R. was entertained by Mrs. Oscar Charleson at her summer home Great Chebeague. Carriages and motor boats met the party at the wharf and conveyed them to the house where their hostess was waiting to greet them. The house was most tastefully decorated with bunting, flags, evergreen and cut flowers. A delicious shore dinner was served on the spacious piazzas and a delightful day passed by the party. The guests returned to the city on the late boat voting the outing one of the pleasantest ever enjoyed by the Chapter.

M. A. Haase of Newton, Mass., with his wife and family are at their delightful summer cottage the Barnacle for the season. The family have been here for the past four years.

The local ball nine have made arrangements to play the Casco Castle fans on the local diamond here Saturday afternoon August 4. The visitors are playing a strong game this year and no doubt will give "our boys" a hard fight. The game will be called at 3 p. m.

Roswell Hamilton is erecting a wire fence on the five acre lot of Mr. Needham of Hudson, Mass., which is on the main road adjoining the residence of Capt. Benj. Hamilton. It is understood Mr. Needham may erect a fine cottage on his property in time for occupancy next year. Mr. and Mrs. Needham with their daughter, Bertha are at the Hill Crest for their outing.

Mrs. A. L. Grannell with her two children, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman at North Conway, N. H., for two weeks returned Tuesday. She was accompanied to the island by her sister, Miss Clara Eastman and her grandmother, Mrs. May Eastman, who will remain for a visit.

The citizens and boarders of Great Chebeague were greatly entertained in observing the "set-up of the Strollers" of Camp Iownit. There seemed to be no confusion as every one was detailed for his respective work, under the supervision of Prof. Partridge, late of a traveling show.

The Strollers carry the largest outfit of any of the campers on the island, and it reminded the oldest inhabitants of the old-time traveling circus coming to town.

The camp is composed of such prominent young men as W. E. Bunton, William Thelling, Stanley Brown, Clarence Parsons, Clarence Schnetzer G. W. Chickering and W. O. Partridge, Jr. They go camping yearly in various well-known places of the New England states and were finally persuaded to try Chebeague at the suggestion of Messrs. Bunton and Thelling, who joined the camping outfit after summering on the island for the past eight seasons.

The Routine of the "Simple Life" is broken only by the salutation to the steamer by the chief gunner Parsons with his cannon, who in return is answered by our courteous captain Taylor of steamer Maquoit.

All the members are gifted with exceptional talents and have concerts every afternoon and evening and the phonograph can be heard at all hours, where they are greeted by an appreciative audience composed of sojourners of the islands or the summer colony.

Willard Hamilton principal at the High school at Caribou, Me., and one of the popular members of our summer colony in years past is at present in Chicago studying law. Mr. Hamilton was an active member of the Chebeague ball nine covering second base and during his management the fans were considered the best nine in this bay. His absence this year is greatly regretted by his many friends on the island.

Dr. I. D. Carl of Boston was at Peak's Island Sunday for the day, but during the forenoon he chartered a naphtha launch and came to this island to visit Mr. Wm. A. Thelling of Boston, who is camping with the Strollers at "Camp Iownit" which is beautifully situated on the shore front in Soule's pastures. The doctor was delighted to find his friends so delightfully situated.

Mr. Carlton Littlefield, who is employed at the Portland Company, spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Littlefield.

Mr. Eben E. Bates has just had a one and one-half power motor put in his boat. She was put in commission last week and Mr. Bates is ready now to scour the bay for pleasure or profit.

Mrs. Carrol Curit left for Rockland Friday, being called there suddenly by a message which brought the sad news of her father's death. Mr. Jeremiah Hamilton was related to many of the residents here, among them being his brothers, James M., John A., and Benjamin. He owned considerable property on the island and lived here for years being loved and respected by all who knew him. His brothers John A. and Benjamin attended the funeral, which was held from his late residence in Rockland Sunday afternoon.

Mr. R. Pennington Sinkinson of the New York Edison Co.'s construction department, arrived Sunday for two weeks at his father's home here. His brother, Mr. James O., returned Sunday, leaving his wife, two children and maid here to remain through August.

Bustin's Island

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Rickards of Wakefield, Mass., are at Green Lodge for a few days. Mr. Rickards is connected with a large shoe manufacturing concern in Brockton and Mrs. Rickards has been organist at the Baptist church, Wakefield, assisting her father, Geo. F. Wilson, the choir director. Mr. Wilson is director of music in the public schools of Beverly and Wakefield.

Miss Florence Festerson leaves Green Lodge for her home Brooklyn, N. Y. July 23 after a three weeks' visit.

Mr. Ed. L. Emerson, wife, son and daughter, who have been visiting Dr. Fourtin and wife at the Maplewood, leave for home Monday.

The following are at the Sunset Cottage for an outing: Mrs. Merrill and Chaperon, Mrs. Dixon, Jr., Martha Soule, Viola Dixon, Louisa Talbot, Clara Dixon, Dorothy Abbotts, Emma Dixon, May Allen, Phyllis Plummer and Beth Soule. Sunday they entertained Mrs. Charles Dixon, Senior, Mr. Charles Dixon, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Warren, Mrs. Alice Coffins, Neal Fogg, Joe Kelsey, Glenwood Small, Willis Merrill, Frank Soule, Phillip Soule, Charles Foss and Roland Hinckley.

Religious services were held for the second time this season at the grove last Sunday. A large audience was present to listen to the preacher, Rev. F. E. Bolster, of Sheffield, Mass., who, is a summer resident of Chebeague, kindly accepted an invitation to speak at Bustin's. He took as his theme the sower sowing the seed whom he pictured as a busy, active man doing his appointed work regardless of consequences. Miss Alberta McCloud played a violin solo as a prelude most acceptably.

Mr. and Mrs. Sougatt of Lawrence, Mass., were among the very welcome arrivals at Bustins this week.

Miss M. E. Patterson of the Waumbec had as week end guests, Mr. L. A. McGowan a real estate man of Portland, Mr. P. F. Connally, clerk of the Maine Steamship Co., and Joseph M. McGowan, of Connery and McGowan of Portland.

Mrs. Elmira Keyes and son from Auburndale are at the Norumbega for a few days.

Mr. J. H. Bibo, of Woodbury, N. J., one of the summer colony here, has delightfully entertained many of the cottagers on his fine motor boat, at different times. Fishing parties, trips to the main land, and visits to the different islands in the bay have been enjoyed through his courtesy.

Master Herman Bibo met with quite an accident while wrestling with one of his boy friends. He fell in such a way as to injure one of the nerves in his right arm. At present he goes about with it in a sling.

Mr. S. B. Kelsey, assistant postmaster of Portland, Mr. Sheehan, Supt. of the mailing department, and Mr. Barrows, were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. J. J. Gray enjoys his weekly visits here. His two motor boats are always to be seen in these parts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crosby visited Mr. Crosby's sister, Mrs. William Carberry, Sunday.

Camp Wychmere has begun its fourth season with the largest enrollment in its history. The following boys are now enjoying Bustin Island lie: Morgan P. Hunter, Morriss-town, Pa.; O. A. Lochrane, Nashville, Tenn.; B. Kemp Littlepage, Charleston, W. Va.; Norman Hunt, Reading, Mass.; Nathaniel Clark Reed, So. Weymouth, Mass.; Stanley Heald, So. Weymouth, Mass.; Thomas Kerr, New York; D. W. Abercrombie, Jr., Worcester, Mass.; Clifton Suggatt, Lawrence, Mass.; Cole Porter, Peru, Ind.; William P. Rutter, Lawrence, Mass.; Alfred C. Clifford, Philadelphia; Harold S. Randlett, Winchester, Mass.; Emil Bacharach, Boston; Seymour Goodman, New York; William Hadley, Webster, Mass.; Harry Wiggin, Boston.

The Camp fleet of sailing dories are very popular and the triangle course off the island is the scene of hard fought races almost every day. One or two deep sea fishing trips are made every week and the boys show themselves to be successful fishermen. Two cruises on the sloop Iris under the skillful management of Capt. Mayo, one of the Camp directors, have been made recently, one to Boothbay Harbor the other to Bath. A party of boys with George Moses as guide returned Monday from a pleasant canoe trip of a week's length, up the Presumpscot to Sebago and Long lakes. All these trips are to be taken often and they are eagerly looked forward to by boys and councillors alike. Later in the season a party will make a tramping trip in the White Mountains. Evenings around the fire place in the living room in Wychmere cottage are enlivened by stories from Jos. Small of the U. S. Life Saving service or Capt. Mayo or guide George Moses; while instruction and practice in sailing the Iris and handling the power boat, Wychmere, as well as in the use of the canoes offered beautiful pastime, and useful knowledge and the glow of health on the boy's faces proves again that Casco Bay air is wholesome. The Camp is under the management of D. B. Macmillan, Capt. Alfred Mayo and Clifton A. Towle with George Moses of North Gorham.

Mr. G. H. D. L'Amoureux, principal of Traipe Academy, Kittery, Maine, has been the guest of Professor W. N. Donovan for a week.

The Misses Bakerman, daughters of Rev. Dr. Bakerman of Chelsea, Mass., who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. W. N. Donovan, have gone to their summer home at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

LOSS OF SCHOONER HARD ON OWNERS.

he saw a big ship coming out of the fog about 100 yards away. He had hardly time to call to the men below and get them on deck when, with a rush a large steamer struck the vessel a glancing blow amidships and with a broken broadside she filled and sank in about three minutes.

Quick action on the part of the men resulted in a boat being launched, but it was swamped by the waves from the bow of the steamer. The men all jumped and were picked up by Captain Toothaker who had previously got clear in a small dory. The steamer, which proved to be the Vaderland of the Red Star line, circled in the fog and took the men aboard after they had nearly been drawn down by the suction of their own vessel. The survivors were landed in New York.

From that city a long distance telephone message was sent to E. G. Pinkham at South Harpswell advising him of the disaster. Those on board the ill fated schooner, who now consider themselves lucky to have escaped with their lives were: John A. Toothaker, Capt.; Albert H. Douglass, Ralph Pinkham, Thomas Boyd of South Harpswell, Ervin Hamilton of Chebeague, William Latham of Long Island and William Doughty who lived on board.

The passengers on the Vaderland raised a generous purse of $161, for the crew, and the steamer's officers kindly provided clothing for some of the men.

The question of responsibility for the accident seems to be unsettled on account of the impossibility of seeing anything far away at the time the collision occurred but it is to be hoped the owners may be partially recompensed in some way. They had spent about $400 this season on repairs as the schooner was kept up in fine style.
