General Hodsdon

Dear Sir
The Volunteer Company under the command of Capt. Wickersham left this place for Rockland to day, and having a desire to serve my Country I now propose to fill up my old Company and offer there services to protect the flag of our Union,

Please send me blanks for enlisting, and such other instructions as you may deem proper

yours. Ebenezer Whitcomb commanding Officer of the D. Company
