HOTELS AND SCENERY

OF KENNEBUNKPORT AND KENNEBUNK BEACH,

With a Complete Hotel Directory.

For the benefit of those who come to our shores for the season, as well as for the sojourners for a few days, it has been deemed advisable to mention a few of the principal places of interest and amusement at these growing and attractive summer resorts. Leaving the R. R. station and crossing the bridge one enters at once into the heart of Kennebunkport village with its wide streets, broad, spreading trees and its large, old-fashioned houses built by sea captains and ship owners in the palmy days of the West India trade. The tourist can well afford to spend a day in looking over the many quaint articles of interest in this delightful, old-fashioned sort of a place.
They will notice the front yard fences of antique design, doubtless copied from foreign patterns that the builders may have seen in some trans-Atlantic town. The weathercocks of odd design, the old-fashioned knockers that have done duty since the days when great ships sailed out of this, then busy, seaport town. All these will come in for their share of his attention, and should he enter these quaint but comfortable abodes he would see queer old articles such as would set the an-tiquarian's heart beating with joy.

Right in the center of the village is located the Parker House. This elegant house, combining convenient and sumptuously furnished rooms with great architectural beauty make it a most desirable summer house for those needing rest and recreation from the busy mill of life. The grounds are finely laid out and ornamented with beautiful flowers and plants. Tall trees shed down their grateful shade, while between their branches steals the invigorating air heavy with saline odors from the ocean.

Leaving the Port village, where the Norton House, a favorite resort for transients as well as regular boarders, is located, and moving toward Cape Arundel we come first, after passing the Nonantum House, which is one of the most comfortable and best managed houses at the beach, to the Highland House. This place is very appropriately named, the house being situated on a cliff overlooking the river and ocean and commanding a fine view inland. The house is designed for the comfort of the guests, as well as their amusement, as a glance at its broad piazzas and green lawns will show.

Moving on past the boat houses and Indian tents we come to the Riverside House and the Arundel. The former is located close to the river bank and on a spot of much beauty. The grounds are well kept and shady, and all in all, the house is a most attractive one. The Arundel is a mansion of imposing appearance and beauty.
While sufficiently retired, it yet gives its guests a magnificent view of the sea, calm in repose or terrific in storm as the case may be.

Passing on we come to the Glen House. All that has been said of any other house may well be said of this, for an inviting summer house it is unrivalled. Just beyond and past the Bickford House, finely located so as to command a magnificent ocean view and one of the best patronized hotels at the beach, is the Cliff House and Glen Cottage which, under the efficient management of Mr. B. F. Eldridge, has acquired a justly famous reputation. To those who know anything of the house no words of praise are necessary. Slightly in rear of this, on rising ground, is the celebrated Ocean Bluff Hotel. This is the largest hotel in Kennebunkport, and for years has been noted as a famous rendezvous for Southern and Western people. The view from the house is indescribably grand. But a stone's throw away the waters leap and lash themselves against the "stern and rock bound coast," throwing up a vast cloud of misty spray. Every room commands an ocean view. One thing may be said of the Bluff—it is never hot there. So near the sea and so elevated is the location that no matter how torrid the day may be it is always cool here.
Crossing the river is a ferry, the only house that at first presents itself is the Seaside, kept by Mr. I. P. Gooch, one

THE RACES.

Saturday Finishes a Brilliant Season--The Prizes Awarded by the Committee on Saturday Evening in Arundel Hall.

Again fortune favored the lovers of sport. Saturday was a perfect day, one of Kennebunkport's best, clear, cool and breezy. Every one was discussing the probable features and result of the coming yacht race. The yachts sailed twice around the triangular course from opposite the boat house on the bathing beach, to a point off Wentworth's beach, hence around the Mile Channel buoy to starting point.

At about 11.30 a. m. the yachts took position for the start. The Freeman crossed the line first, closely followed by the Clara Belle. In the first round the Freeman led the Clara Belle by three seconds. All attention was now given to these two yachts which promised a very close sail. Not once did the Freeman lose the lead, making the second round five minutes ahead of the Clara Belle, the Arundel coming in third, while the yacht Mary was distanced.

The following prizes were awarded: First prize, Freeman, Captain Elbridge, $10.00.

Second prize, Clara Belle, Captain Gooch, $5.00.

Third prize, Arundel, Captain Chick, $3.00.

THE DORY RACES.

The dory races in the afternoon were equally as interesting as those of the morning. The pier and hotel piazzas were lined with people who were disappointed to find only two entries for this race. All others refused to race against Captain Chick, who had never been beaten and was thought invincible.

The course was from the pier around the Spindle and return, a distance of one and one-half miles, against a heavy running sea.

Promptly at 3.30 the start was made and a sharp contest from the first ensued for fifteen minutes. All eyes closely watched every stroke of the contestants, when to the surprise of the few Williams came in by ten yards ahead, winning the race with apparent ease.

First prize, Williams, $5.00.

Second prize, Chick, $3.00.

In the evening an unusual large company gathered in Arundel Hall to witness the presentation of the Lobster Boat and Canoe Club prizes to winners of the above and the several other races of this season. Commodore MacMaster presided. After the reading of the several races and announcement of the winners as given by judges, Rev. E. L. Clark presented the following awards in a most pleasing manner:

August 15, four-oar race for boys under 16 years:

First prize, Masters Murry and Down, coxswain, Master Tenny.

Second prize, Masters Walker and Thurston, coxswain, Master Sperry.

Medals and knives for prizes.

Canoe races of same date:

First prize, Agnew Brothers.

Second prize, Howe and Pearson.

The first prize was a beautiful canoe paddle decorated by Artist Prosper L. Senat; the second prize, silk canoe pennants lettered in gold.

August 22, four-oar men's race, lady coxswain.

First prize, won by Pearson and Nevins; coxswain, Miss Peckham.

The oarsmen's prize was a handsome silk flag lettered in gold; coxswain's prize, a very tasty gold scarf pin in the shape of a miniature canoe.

The hop which followed was the largest and most successful of the season.

You have been spending the summer in or around Portland. You have enjoyed the delightful air, the pure water, the invigorating breezes, the cool nights and the charming scenery of what is at this season of the year, the most beautiful place in America. You are about leaving for home and we take it for granted that you want to carry back some souvenir of your vacation or some little gift for those members of the family who didn't come. Maybe you are satisfied with a clam shell, or a smooth pebble or a complete set of menu cards as relics of this summer's outing. Possibly a few photographs will do for mementoes of your trip to Maine. If, however, you prefer to take back something for a souvenir that will not only remind you of Portland but be a substantial source of satisfaction to yourself or your friends, come to our store before you go and look through its twenty-six departments. If you don't find the thing that was "exactly what you wanted," if you fail to find anything in our collection that you think the stay-at-homes would care for--you still have the clam shells, etc.--and your visit to us will not have been time wasted, because you cannot spend two or three hours looking at the rare things we have to show without being interested and entertained.

Remember our establishment is not a "Dry Goods Store;" it is more like a Bazaar filled with all manner of useful, and useless, and beautiful things.

If we were to enumerate even the special novelties which the store is crowded with now, this whole column wouldn't hold the list, and you could get no idea of our stock if we were to attempt description and quote prices. The only way is to go all over the store and down in the basement, see everything and notice the prices marked in plain figures, then make your selection and have it sent to the hotel, the railway station or home by express. Any article too heavy or bulky to carry can be sent anywhere in the United States or Canada by express and we guarantee its safe delivery.

To-morrow we shall say a word or two about our Infants' Outfits department and the new goods which are arriving then.

Wavelets.

At the Hop.

With eyes as bright
As stars of night,
And cheeks like flowers in bloom;
A vision fair,
With witching air,
She whirls around the room.
Out at the seaside give to me Tepidure's fair votary.

How bright her face!
What charming grace!
The maiden I adore,
In beauty's pride,
Behold her glide,
Apoem on the floor.
Thy should not I her praises sing?

Edge W. E. Parmenter of Boston at the Grove Hill House last week.

Paul I. Andrews of Kennebunk is next week for Bowdoin College, and he will enter for the course.

John W. Black of Pittsburg arrived in the yacht "Orinda" and is stayed at the Ocean Bluff Hotel.

The last week of the season is the best. Parties, dances and excursions of every description make life gay.

When you go, if in want of a good corralize, remember that Bonser has the best goods at the lowest prices.

Broad from here to Kennebunk the worst of conditions. It sadly draws the attention of the authorities for another season.

Agents for the Kennebunk Laundry that their work never was as well as this season. Reason—French runs his business.

A good number from Kennebunk went to the republican flag raise the village Monday night, where had a good part of the cheering.

Al. Seco, the head waiter of the House, is very popular with the there. All express the desire he will be returned for next year.

Next Saturday we shall issue the well edition of THE WAVE for the month of 1888. Send in all the locals persons you would like to have printed.

W. W. Wilkins of Manchester, N. H., the ear and eye specialist so known in that vicinity, is stopping his family at the Granite State Hotel.

The long man at the Grove Hill has been taken to depart but it was hard work, and harder still for the guests, part with the handsome Jacob Clough.

L. Dane, Esq., of Kennebunk has spent a good part of the summer at the Sea View, is the talked of nominee for the legislature. course he'll go.

The improvements of the Seashore which are in progress, are a move in the right direction and will do much to advance the progress of this resort.
The ball is rolling.

The season is nearing its close and the guests are departing; many, however, will remain to enjoy the quiet and seclusion during our mellow autumn days—the most pleasant of all the year.

Miss Blanche Paul, daughter of the proprietor of the Grove Hill, Miss Stella Bean of Stillwater, Minn., and Miss Cornelia H. Wright, daughter of Col. Carroll D. Wright, will all three attend school at Mt. Vernon Seminary, this winter.

Dr. Gallighan of Boston, Mass., owns the finest turnout on the beach. On pleasant afternoons, when the tide is out, he can be seen driving on the broad sandy beach in his handsome cart drawn by a spirited Kentuckian thoroughbred which cost him $3500.— Old Orchard Rambler.

Miss Cornelia H. Wright, daughter of Col. Carroll D. Wright, the well known statistician and commissioner of the department of labor, is a guest at the Grove Hill House. Miss Wright is a very entertaining young lady, dances like a fairy, and has a beautiful personal appearance. She will be a favorite wherever she goes.

With such pleasing and brilliant guests as the Misses Wilkins and Boyd of Manchester, N. H., who are now sojourning at the Granite State, it would be expected that every week is a week of merriment at that house.

On Tuesday evening of last week the company joined in a novel candy party; on Wednesday evening a delicious ice cream party, while on Thursday evening all were invited to a lunch of roasted corn, on the beach; Friday evening was made especially enjoyable by an interesting bean bag contest followed by a social hop.

A most enjoyable musicale took place Wednesday evening of last week at Arundel Hall, Miss Cochrane of Natick soprano, assisted by the Messrs. Taylor, pianist and violinist. All who were fortunate enough to be present had the satisfaction and pleasure of hearing a voice of much sweetness and unusual compass; add to this an evident genial willingness and entire absence of the least effort on the part of the singer. The violin solos and piano accompaniments were very smoothly and completely rendered. A large part of those present stopped to congratulate the singer and to express their regrets of her early departure from Kennebunkport.

It is as impossible that one of our summer tourists has failed to notice the beautiful grounds at the Kennebunk station as it is impossible to be there and not see the constant large number of admirers of nature's self that during the short wait of each train turn their eyes and steps towards the tasteful flower beds, etc., there. Great pains and expense together with long and careful endeavor adds to its extreme beauty each year. It should be a source of gratification that this, the first and last impression to our summer people, is of such a charming order.

Perhaps no place on our coast is undergoing a more beneficial and radical change than Parsons's beach, situated between the Mousam and Little rivers, and extending inland about one-half of a mile. Almost unrivaled by natural resources, owned by people possessed of means which allow the widest scope of gratification to the natural individual tastes. Thus everything is favorable for a summer resort. The Messrs.
Parsons are using liberal hands to execute generous ideas. New buildings are in course of erection while others are being renovated; roads and walks laid out; trees and shrubbery of every nature cultivated; thick and bushy wood transformed into pleasant groves.
On all sides luxury is fast taking the place of simplicity.

HOP AT THE GROVE HILL.

The Guests at the Popular Hotel on the Hill Participate in a Pretty Party.

Saturday evening a dress hop occurred at the Grove Hill Hotel which proved an admirable success. Rippling peals of laughter drowned the war of the waves that dash upon the rocks. Dull care is drowned in forgetfulness and sweet smiles chase away despondency.

There were a large number present.
The ladies were dressed with much taste and elegance.

Miss Blanche M. Paul, the petite daughter of the host, led the Grand March with Mr. Charles H. Cobb of Boston and wore a becoming gown of white challis spotted with blue shields.
Some of the other costumes were those of Mrs. Paul, cream wool and gold thread braid; Miss Cornelia H. Wright, Miss Paul's guest, of Washington, D.
C., a quaint gown of light china silk; Mrs. W. H. Clapp, Stillwater, Minn., bronze satin trimmed with bronze pas-smenterie; Mrs. Leunggren, New York city, white cashmere, gold thread braid, with diamonds; Miss Clough, Millford, Conn., light blue cashmere; Miss Robbins, Rochester, N. Y., white cashmere with ribbons; Miss Carter, Winchester, Mass., white albatros and lace; Mrs. Cutler, Winchester, steel gray china silk, steel bead trimming; Mrs. C. F. Goodridge, Cambridge, Mass., black lace and diamonds; Miss Daniels, Newton, Mass., steel blue silk and velvet, sapphires; Mrs. R. W.

Francis, Reading, Mass., black velvet and lace; Mrs. Emma Fullerton, Reading, ecru albatros and brown surah; Miss Sutherland, red foulard silk with white polka spots; Miss Grace Bragdon, Boston, sage green henrietta cloth; Mrs. Pretat, moss green cashmere; and several others equally noticeable.

The Amphian Ladies Orchestra dis-coursed excellent music, and it surely was inspiring to dance to such bright merry strains. JULES RICHTER.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

BROUGHT TO A MOST SUCCESSFUL CLOSE.

The Winners of the Cups and the Presentation of the Boat Race Prizes.

The tennis tournament began Thursday a. m.; finished Saturday night.— In Saturday's WAVE we gave the complete score and names of the winners in the doubles.

The singles were begun Friday p. m.
Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Talcott opened the singles. Mr. Cunningham played a fine game and won the match after a severe struggle. Mr. Talcott played in the finals in the morning and was tired out in the last set. He played a plucky up hill game but was beaten.

The match between Mr. Taylor and Mr. Terry was won by Mr. Terry who played an easy placing game. Mr.
Taylor's lobbying was the feature of the match.

The great match of the day was between Mr. Terry of Yale and Mr. R.
Brown of Harvard. Mr. Brown had Mr. Terry 5-3 on the first set, but the latter, by fine playing, won the set amid great applause from the spectators. On the next set Mr. Terry was four games to Mr. Brown two. At this moment Mr. Terry lost his "mascot" pin, i. e. a gold wish bone, and he went to pieces, Mr. Brown getting two games in succession. At this juncture Mr.
Terry's mascot was found and returned to him by Mr. Taylor amid the applause of the onlookers. Mr. Terry being much relieved won the next two games by magnificent volleying and curving.

The next match between Mr. Taylor and Mr. Talcott was won by the former who played a very pretty game. The match then adjourned until Saturday.

THE PLAY.

The third day of the tournament opened with a match between Mr. G.
Taylor and Mr. B. Taylor. It was a well contested match and although Mr.
G. Taylor won, the play was very even and earned great applause, Mr. G.
Taylor taking the third set by fine volleying. The next match between Mr.
Nichols and Mr. A. Taylor was taken quite handily by the former. Mr.
Nichols plays a very steady game and his back-hand shots were the features of the match.

The great match of the morning was between Mr. Cunningham and Mr.
Howe. Mr. Cunningham won the first set by hard volleying. On the second Mr. Howe rallied and won the set quite easily, beating Mr. Cunningham 6-2. There was now great excitement and after a short rest the contestants took their places amid great applause.
Mr. Cunningham took the set by the score of 6-4. Mr. Howe's placing in this set with the playing of the "Lawford" stroke by Mr. Cunningham bro't out round after round of applause.

Mr. Bolles and Mr. Talmage then took their places on the court. Mr.
Bolles taking the first set by the close score of 6-5. Mr. Talmage although beaten played a good volleying game.
Mr. Bolles pretty plays were greeted with great applause. In the second set Mr. Talmage went to pieces and Mr.
Bolles took the set 6-0.

The next match between Mr. But-man and Mr. Cater was won by the latter after some sharp rallies. Mr.
Cater did not play his game in this match. Mr. Small of the Parker House won by default from Mr. Harry Brown whose playing in the doubles excited great admiration.

The second round opened with a match between Mr. Terry and Mr. Talcott. The former was thought to be a sure winner but he did not play his game and Mr. Talcott won the match by the score of 6-3. Mr. Talcott in this match played a strong game and showed himself to be a very strong player.

Mr. G. Taylor and Mr. Nichols played next. Mr. Nichols took the first set 6-3. In the second set Mr. Taylor rallied and won the set 6-5. The next set was very exciting, Mr. Nichols taking the set and match amid the applause of the spectators.
