

E. J. EDDY, Treasurer Fidelity Trust, Portland.

SEEK NOT the bank where the wild thyme grows
 But the Bank where the business method shows,
 Where the man, who saves, may find a place
 To put his cash, at a fair increase;
 Where a Ricker presides, in a business way,
 And directors direct, the livelong day.
 In Portland—such a bank is found;
 In such, an Eddy circles round;
 And every day sees, firm and sure,
 Its deep foundations laid, secure.
 Seek you a Bank! You'll find it there:
 "Fidelity Trust—Upon the Square!"
