TWO-A-WEEK.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT

Rockland, January 27, 1912.
Personally appeared Neil S. Perry, who on oath declares: That he is president in the office of the Rockland Publishing Co., and that of the issue of The Courier-Gazette of January 23, 1912, there was printed a total of 4,580 copies before me.

The canvass for the Presidential nomination is now in full sway, and for the next few months will be waged with an intensity and bitterness which have perhaps never been equalled in this nation. And this applies equally to both parties. The Republicans have their so-called progressive element which demands Roosevelt or La Follette as a substitute for Taft, while the Democrats do not know whether they are afoot or horseback. In the absence of any definite statement as to Roosevelt's position it seems reasonable to look for President Taft's renomination, but Roosevelt sentiment is cropping up in all parts of the country and no man dares prophesy where it will end. Whether the Chicago convention names Taft, Roosevelt or La Follette the Republican party will be able to go before the voters in November with a candidate whose worth has been demonstrated.

Skeptics who thought that Charles W. Morse would recover with astonishing rapidity as soon as his sentence had been commuted must be forced to admit that his condition is not a whit less serious than it was officially reported to President Taft. The loyalty of his home city must have affected the released banker very keenly for his message of thanks was sent to his home paper, the Bath Times. It was as follows:

"Please extend to every citizen in my native city this my first message of thanks. Their cheerful words and noble exertions in my behalf during the last two years have been of the greatest comfort to me and their many messages of congratulations and good wishes received in the last few days are a stimulant to me in my present struggle for life."

Demand for a seven-hour day was submitted to the convention of the United Mine Workers of America Wednesday. To the average person, working from 8 to 12 hours a day, and uncompensated at that, it would seem that the mine workers' request is carrying things almost too far. Eight hours' work, eight hours' sleep and eight hours' recreation is supposed to constitute the ideal day for laborers, but a seven-hour day would spoil one's appetite for work altogether.

Senator Gardner's committee appointments are extremely gratifying to that gentleman, and are the best that could be expected under the circumstances. The Bath Times, however, sounds a note of regret that Maine loses its accustomed position of influence on the Commerce committee and that "he expressed no wish for that position in which he could be of assistance to one of the most important Maine industries."

Democratic city officials in Portland are moving into the million dollar city hall built for them by a Republican administration—Watersville Sentinel.

If our memory serves us correctly something of the same nature happened in Augusta after the state house had been remodelled. But never mind, it will soon be housecleaning time again.

Fortify the system against disease by purifying and enriching the blood—in other words, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hungry Democrats Seeking County Offices—The Presidential Situation As It Now Stands.

At least four Knox county Democrats are seeking the nomination for register of probate, and under the free and easy system of the primaries it is by no means certain that the list will not be enlarged before the voters are called upon to register their choice. The office is now held by Clarence D. Payson of Thomaston, who seeks a renomination. Petitions are also being circulated by George W. Gushue of Appleton, Edwin O. Heald of Rockland and Henry H. Payson of Hope. The name of Archie G. Bucklin of Thomaston has also been mentioned.

Tyler M. Coombs of Vinahaven was in the city Thursday and said to have intimated that the clerk of courts nomination would not come amiss. The present clerk, Gilford B. Butler of South Thomaston, has not officially indicated what course he will pursue, but there is some talk that he will contest the senatorial nomination with Senator Staples and A. B. Packard of Rockport. Mr. Packard's petition is in circulation here.

John B. Crockett of North Haven would like the Democratic nomination for county commissioner.

A Republican Progressive movement, having for its object the nomination of Senator La Follette for Presidency, is being organized in Thomaston. Dr. G. L. Crockett, one of the leaders, intimates that the movement will be statewide.

The Opinion has definitely made up its mind to support Hon. Woodrow Wilson for the Democratic Presidential nomination, and has hoisted the New Jersey pedagogue's picture at the mast head. The Opinion seems to have been converted to its fact that Gov. Wilson shied at Harper's Weekly's support.

Headquarters of a state organization pledged to support Gov. Harmon of Ohio for the Democratic Presidential nomination, were opened in Louisville, Tenn., Tuesday.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa endorses the Presidential candidacy of Senator Cummins. He was for Taft until his colleague appeared on the field.

Arrangements have been completed for opening headquarters in Chicago for the purpose of assisting in the election of delegates who favor Theodore Roosevelt for the Presidential nomination.

Edward Grosscup, chairman of the New Jersey State Democratic Committee issued a statement Wednesday that Gov. Wilson would have a majority of the New Jersey delegates to the Democratic National convention and practically a pledged delegation.

Declaring that Henry Watterson is Kentucky's choice for the Democratic Presidential nomination, members of the lower House of the Kentucky Legislature Tuesday put through with a whoop a resolution inviting Mr. Watterson to address the House at his pleasure.

Ex-Congressman William P. Jackson, Republican national committee man from Maryland; Republican State Chairman John D. Hanna, and Congressman Thomas D. Parran went to Washington Wednesday and pledged to President Taft the support of Maryland's 16 delegates to the Republican national convention.

THE ROCKVILLE CHURCH

Optimistic Club Appeals to Friends for Financial Assistance in Making Necessary Repairs

The ladies of Rockville have organized a club, the immediate purpose of which is to raise funds for the repair of the church. There is need of a new ceiling. The old one has fallen in places and is quite unsafe. There is also need of new windows, paint, carpet, etc. A few years ago the spire was removed in repairing on account of the necessity of funds. It is the intention of this club to build a new spire also.

There is desperate need of funds to accomplish all this. The membership of the church, through death and removal, has become reduced to about 22 resident members and the work of raising money for repairs devolves on the women. We know that this paper has a wide circulation, reaching the hearthstones of many Maine people who are far away and we are hoping that all who read

Progressive Republicans in Wyoming, who organized Wednesday, declared for Theodore Roosevelt as the Republican Presidential nominee in the coming campaign and pledged themselves to oppose the "standpat" faction in the party headed by United States Senator Warren and Congressman Mondell.

The McKinley-Roosevelt Club, one of the largest and oldest in Northwest Missouri adopted resolutions Wednesday night endorsing Roosevelt and Hadley for nomination as the Republican national ticket. A Roosevelt Republican association has been formed which has a thousand members though only organized a few days ago.

"I am for Taft as strong as any man can be," declared Postmaster General Hitchcock at the White House Tuesday. "I did not realize until a day or two ago how far these stories about my alleged differences with the President had gone. I probably shall have something to say on the subject." Mr. Hitchcock manifested great indignation that his loyalty had been questioned.

Gov. Hadley of Missouri in a statement Tuesday said he favored the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as the Republican Presidential candidate. His statement in part says: "From information that has recently come to me from all parts of the state I am convinced a large majority of the Republicans are in favor of the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as our candidate for President, and a large majority of people are in favor of his election."

A vote for Republican and Democratic Presidents was taken at Yale University Tuesday and President Taft was the choice of the first party with former President Roosevelt a poor second. Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey was the choice of the Democrats after the votes cast for Governor Simeon E. Baldwin had been thrown out for technical reasons.

The militant progressive Republican league at its annual meeting and banquet in Boston Wednesday night decided not to commit itself to any Presidential candidate for the present, but a platform was adopted in which support was pledged to the initiative and referendum; direct nomination and election of United States Senators; direct nomination and election of the President of the United States; abolition of the electoral college, and nomination by direct referendum of the delegates pledged to a progressive Republican candidate for President.

President Taft was endorsed for re-nomination by the Republican party at the Fourth Congressional district Republican convention in Oklahoma Tuesday after Roosevelt's supporters had made a determined effort to stampede the convention. Defeat came only after a hard struggle and during which spectacular methods were used to impress the delegates with the boom which the supporters of Roosevelt had set in motion. Edward Perry, district chairman, led the fight for Roosevelt. On the vote for temporary chairman the Perry people had a momentary vision of victory when it was announced their candidate had been chosen, 74 to 65. A canvass of the vote disclosed an avowed supporter of President Taft had been elected, 72% to 63%. The delegates are the first to be chosen of those who will select the party's Presidential nominee at Chicago in June.

This will feel our great need and untie their purse-strings, and that the dimes, quarters and dollars will flow into the "Optimistic" treasury in abundance. All contributions no matter how small will be gratefully received and can be forwarded to either Mrs. Abbie Kirkpatrick, secretary, or Miss Mabel Oxtun, president, Rockville, Maine.

CRACK BELFAST BOWLERS

Interest in bowling in Belfast is very good this winter and some very interesting contests are being waged at the alleys. Leon Hayford and Maurice French have this week issued a challenge to any two men in the state, to a ten string match of candle pins, to be rolled on the Belfast alleys, the total pinfall to win. A return game will be given. The Belfast alley is now conducted by G. M. Dunton and the contests between local and visiting players this season have been exceptionally good.

ENTANGLED IN ENGINE

Capt. Freeman W. Kent Has Serious Accident on Board His Lobster Smack.

Capt. Freeman W. Kent of Rankin street, who commanded the lobster smack Bernice & Belle for Simmons White & Co., became entangled in the engine Wednesday when the smack was between Stonington and Swan's Island, bound for the latter port.

The accident was not known until Capt. Kent's brother Martin went into the cabin, and found him lying among the machinery, his face and throat badly lacerated.

Distress signals were hoisted, and in due time the services of a doctor were secured. Capt. Kent was unconscious for some hours, but Thursday's reports from Swan's Island, where he was taken, said that he would recover. The injured man is a brother of Capt. Fred W. Kent of Granite street.

Mr. Thornridge was able to sit up for a short time Wednesday, but is still very sick.

There is a large attendance at the Rockland Commercial College this winter. New students recently enrolled are:—Hollis B. Nevels, Isle au Haut; Elmer E. Thomas, Isle au Haut; Alvah E. Ames, Union; W. Stanley Hills, Grange; Alton H. Gross, Stonington; Donald Gross, Stonington; Marion S. Sawyer, Southwest Harbor; Hazel Wall, Rockport; Arthur S. Hall, Jefferson; William G. Williams, Clark's Island; Carl Borgerson, Owl's Head; Frank E. Hamer, Tremont; Lester B. Grant, Sedgwick; Rena A. Connor, South Thomaston; Guy R. Whitten and Calvin Stinson of Prospect Harbor and Ella D. Fields of Islesboro have graduated from the business department. Mr. Whitten has a position as bookkeeper at Camden.

There is an interesting scene in front of the St. Nicholas hotel each morning and noon when a big flock of pigeons assembles for its feast of corn provided by A. C. Ingraham, the clerk. On the occasion of the feathered guests were counted. The custom had its beginning when Mr. Ingraham began tossing peanuts to a few pigeons. His flock increased so rapidly that it became necessary to substitute less expensive fodder. The other members of the hotel staff became interested in "Fred's" philanthropy, and they now chip regularly for a supply of corn. The pigeons are absolutely fearless as far as Mr. Ingraham is concerned and will alight on his arms and shoulders to partake of their meal. From there they go to the Park street watering trough and drink their fill of the crystal fluid which comes rushing down from Mirror Lake.

Graduates of Coburn Classical Institute, of whom there are several in Knox county, will be interested to learn that George Stanley Stevenson has resigned the principalship of the school, and will establish a boys' school. President Roberts of Colby college commenting on the resignation, said: "The period of Mr. Stevenson's principalship has been one of very great prosperity. Attendance has largely increased, important additions to the school equipment have been made, a new athletic field has been provided and the reputation of Coburn for scholarship and for character building has been enhanced and extended. Mr. Stevenson has given himself with unstinted devotion to the task of making the Institute an ideal place for the training of boys and girls. This effort has been increasingly successful throughout his principalship, and Mr. Stevenson turns over to his successor a school with which any man may well be proud to identify himself."

At the Meeting of Knox Lodge of Odd Fellows Monday evening, the revised bylaws of the lodge were voted on, each section separately, and all were adopted. The revision was made by a committee of which Past Grand John Colson is chairman. No radical changes have been made, the revision having been undertaken in order to bring them up to date and to conform with new methods of doing business and to such alterations as have been made in the constitution within the past few years. The draft has been sent to the Grand Lodge committee on by-laws for their approval, and the new laws go into effect immediately that is obtained.

Harold L. Karl arrived home this week from Cali, Colombia, S. A., where he has been for the past 20 months in charge of an electric light plant installation. Another Rockland boy who was associated with him for a time, Lucien Thomas, is now installing four water turbines in Rancagua, Chili, for the Braden Copper Co. of New York. Mr. Karl did some sightseeing in the course of his journey home and among other things took a view at close range of the Panama Canal. Mr. Karl's personal description of his South American experiences is promised for an early issue of this paper.

There is a possibility that he may return to that country after a few months' needed rest and recuperation at home.

BICKNELL BOUGHT IT
 Wrecked Steamship Carolyn and Its Cargo Became His Property for $900—May Yet Be Floated.

The steamship Carolyn, which went ashore on Metinic island Jan. 10, was sold at auction Thursday to Charles E. Bicknell of this city for $450. Mr. Bicknell also bought the cargo—100 tons of paper and 400 tons of potatoes—paying $225 for each. W. H. Simmons was auctioneer. The sale took place on Tilton wharf, and in spite of his persuasiveness the bidding was not very brisk. Mr. Bicknell expects to save most of the potatoes, in good condition, and to secure considerable wreckage from the steamship.

Mr. Bicknell's crew took 1200 barrels of potatoes from the steamer Thursday, after the auction, and has them stored at Port Clyde. Steamer W. L. Douglass, with two schooners, is now alongside, with the sloop Evelyn N. Thaw as hoister, and the remainder of the potatoes are being taken from the wreck as rapidly as a hustling crew can do it. The potatoes are Arrostook Reds, and are none the worse, it is said, for their vacation on the Metinic reef. The paper will be taken off as soon as the potatoes are discharged, and will be shipped to Holyoke, Mass., to be converted into other stock.

Mr. Bicknell has his eyes on some valuable wreckage, but vision, even of pulling the hull off the rocks. He says the steamship is not injured nearly as bad as the public has been given to understand.

Capt. O'Leary returned to New York Thursday.

WEST ROCKPORT

Mrs. Lucy Andrews of Camden, after some days visit at the home of Mrs. Henry Fogler, has returned to her home in Camden.

Mrs. H. Fogler has nearly recovered from the injury which she received from a fall near her home not long ago.

Erma Orbeton of Rockland is spending a two week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Orbeton.

D. M. Keller was recently thrown from his sleigh receiving injuries as a result of which he is obliged to keep near home.

Edward Reed of Rockland was the guest of Miss Erma Orbeton Sunday.

Owing to the extreme cold a few days ago, several water pipes burst in this vicinity. But we are fortunate in having Orville Brown in our neighborhood as a plumber.

Mrs. Aaron Andrews is confined to her home with a cold.

Miss Nellie Maxey of Glen Cove is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Leach.

The rain of last Saturday made very good skating for the boys in our streets.

The icy condition of the roads keeps the blacksmiths very busy.

The meeting of the New Century Club, Monday evening was of more than usual interest. During the evening F. S. Philbrick gave a fine description of the Panama Canal, using a map which he had received from the U. S. government that added very much to the interest. He has a pleasing way of explaining the canal locks to the person who has never seen one. The program for the next meeting will be incidents in the life of Benjamin Franklin, by members of the club, as his two hundred and sixth birthday occurs the present month. The general questions for the next meeting will be "What element in the makeup of our nature is most essential to our greatness?" and "What element in the history of the United States has contributed most largely to its world-wide renown?" Five new members joined the club. Following the exercises it was deemed proper to give the balance of the evening to a social anniversary in the interest of their club president as it was the eve of his 77th birthday. Many kind congratulations were given and an original poem was read by Rev. Mr. Tupper, which was very appropriate and well received by those present. Light refreshments were furnished and the evening will long be pleasantly remembered.

"CONGRATULATIONS TO G. A. MILLER"

For this joyous little meeting on January 27th, I have thought of your club and birthday in form of a little rhyme.

That you whom it may apply, for whom we have assembled to say,

That we rejoice with these dear friends, on this Anniversary day.

Seventy and seven long years have past, golden years have been to thee,

With life and health and vigor, and with the land of the brave and free;

Among whom this far, too far, has run thy race, And the joys of Heaven await thee from this world of sin and strife.

Seventy long years and seven, have gone by like lightning sparks,

Which time has carried along in its wake, with treasures destined to thy heart;

Of thy earliest home, and its sacred scenes, the children that played on the knee,

The reflections of which, cause you still to say, Oh! give back just one hour to me!

They cannot come back for time rushes on according to God's great plan,

And these many long years were assigned thee to do whatever you can,

In making this world more happy by those themes you most dearly love,

And with those, to avail this long life, that home of the Father above.

Then await in contentment those blessings, expecting those joys that's untold,

Your time in life is appointed, when to travel the streets of gold;

Your time is yet to do for the Master, there's a kingdom yet to be won,

In the time of His own selection, from this world He will call thee away.

So we join in acclaim of thanksgiving to God our Father above,

That your life has been spared to this meeting, of friends and loved ones;

That many more years may be added, as noble and true as the past,

For so long as this place will be blessed, for thy crown to gain at last.

—M. G. TEFER.

NEW EMPIRE THEATRE

More show for the money than ever before, is a fitting remark when asked about the present vaudeville and picture offering at Rockland Theatre. Nearly two hours of good, clean and pleasing entertainment is what you will see and hear if you attend either of the performances. There is no particular feature, each act is in a class by itself. First we are introduced to Capt. Powers and company. The captain has six artists besides himself, also uses a large quantity of special scenery. "A Cyclone at Sea," is the name of the act. The act is entirely different from any ventriloquist offering before seen in this city.

J. Louis Mintz and Jennie Palmer in an original comedy entitled, "The Other Half," scored one of the hits of the bill. Excellent singers combined with their original offerings form a combination that will win for them the applause and appreciation of their auditors.

The picture program for today and tomorrow will also occupy an important place in the make-up of the bill. Two feature subjects will be presented, the first, "The Warrant," a dramatic story of the West, showing how a young husband was reformed. The second picture, "The Life Saver," telling a very pretty story, also showing the drill of the U. S. Life Saving Crew. This picture was taken and acted off the coast of Maine. Two good comedy pictures, "Commy, The Canvasser," and "The Spender Family."

By special request, Edison's famous picture story in three reels, "Foul Play," will again be presented at this theatre next Monday afternoon and at every performance Tuesday.

Edison's famous picture story "Foul Play" at Rockland Theatre Monday afternoon and Tuesday at each performance.

A great show, not only of vaudeville but pictures out of the ordinary, is sure to draw hundreds of theatre-goers to the New Empire Theatre Friday and Saturday, as Manager Eugley has two big extra big features for the last two days of this week. The original Wangdoodle Comedy Four is one of the greatest comedy acts in vaudeville, and made a big hit at the Empire yesterday with the large audience. Their singing, dancing and funny sayings caught on in great shape, which goes to show that Rockland audience are not as cold as claimed when they get anything they like. For Friday and Saturday Manager Eugley has secured one of the greatest war pictures ever shown in this city "The Battle," made and produced in this country by the American Biograph Company. It is without question one of the most thrilling and exciting of all war picture plays. It was shown for a solid week in Portland at the Casco Theatre and repeated for three days more at the Congress Theatre, Portland, drawing packed houses daily at both. It is sure to pack the Empire. Anyone who sees this picture once will surely see it again. All the local manager asks of the theatre-goers is that they come early if they wish seats. Don't wait for someone to tell you about this picture. Go today and then take your friends over again. Four big shows will be given Saturday, with a special price of five cents to all school children at the matinee so they may all see this great war picture. Don't fail to see this, the best show yet, at the Empire today.

"Beverly of Graustark," at Rockland Theatre Monday night only.

GREAT BASKETBALL

Eleventh Hour Rally Gives Rockland Y. M. C. A. First Game in Series with Rockport Y. M. C. A.—Camden Girls Had a Walkover.

In the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Thursday night Rockland Y. M. C. A. defeated Rockport Y. M. C. A. 25 to 24 in the first of a series of five games which will virtually determine the basketball championship of Knox county.

The visitors apparently had the game cinched up to the latter part of the second half, and nobody was prepared for the sudden and brilliant manner in which Marshall's five turned the tables, scoring three goals in rapid succession and tying the score. The winning goal was made by Marshall on a very pretty throw.

Penalties were very numerous, and in throwing goals from fouls E. Grant easily excelled his opponents. Rockport's team work if anything was a trifle better.

DISCRIMINATION WINS !!!

In every walk in life discrimination between the true and the false wins and enjoys success. In questions of form, of style and of values, whether financial, commercial or medicinal, the judgement of the men and women who select and appreciate and utilize the true and genuine product, proves most profitable and most satisfactory to themselves and to all who follow them.

Therefore, in connection with so important a subject as the physical well-being of the people, the most eminent physicians insist on full information as to the wholesome nature and truly beneficial character of the component parts of the remedies used and prescribed by them, and the wise manufacturer not only supplies them with the knowledge desired, but also combines for them in proper proportions the very substances most approved by them and omits every objectionable substance. The world-wide acceptance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna by physicians and the well-informed of the world, as the best of family laxatives, is due to the universal satisfaction which it has given for more than a quarter of a century and also to the fact that it is a remedy of known quality and known component parts and to the further fact that the California Fig Syrup Co. presents it to the world simply as the ideal strengthening personal laxative to cleanse and sweeten the system gently, yet effectually, and to dispel colds and headaches and to assist in overcoming constipation. To get its beneficial effects—always buy the original and genuine, for sale by all leading druggists. The full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is always plainly printed on the front of every package.

FARNHAM'S EGG SANDWICH

He Got It in Swell New York Cafe, Much to Tete Copping's Disgust—Also Two Pieces of Pie.

Rockland, Jan. 20.
Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
A goodly number of your readers have taken the pains to tell me that my little letters written to The Courier-Gazette while I was away were read with interest. Thanks! Rockland people are loyal to their own.

I wish to say just a few words about one of our talented boys who is making his way in New York. I stopped in New York City on my way home and hunted up Cecil S. Copping. Found him in bed (about 3 to 4 a. m.). He got his toes on and gave me the glad hand and took me in tow. It was pretty cold but the pace he set kept our blood circulating all right. He took me around town and showed me more in one day and night than I could have seen in a week without a guide. Skyscrapers and big department stores, music publishers, subways and elevated trains were thrown at me faster than I could take them away and when he said "eat" I was ready for it.

I wanted to dodge into a lunch room and have an egg sandwich, but "Tete" sat down on that proposition hard. What! your first time in little old New York, and eating egg sandwiches? Nay, nay, its "Riggs" for us. It was sure a swell place. They feed 5000 there daily. I was looking for a large and varied assortment and then I called for an egg sandwich. Cecil looked disgusted and the waiter looked surprised, but I got what I wanted and was happy. "Tete" is sure some slick article on city style and when I ordered two pieces of pie he gave up in despair. I could see that the waiter thought I was a "freak," but the pie was certainly good. Cecil said I might just as well wear a tag with "Maine" on it as to order the way I did. I went under the river to Brooklyn and attended a rehearsal of one of the best orchestras I ever heard of. It was the Hoadley Musical Society, and has 60 members. Herbert Bramham is musical director and is a top-liner and a fine chap to meet. They are not stingy with their compliments to Copping. They played his "Skim-o-ooh" march and gave him a big hand on it. They handled the classics beautifully and Cecil is right on his job on the bassoon end. I judge from his talk that he doesn't realize that it is only a step from this orchestra to the greatest in the country. In New York City a man must either have "class" or be quickly outclassed, and that "Tete" can "hit the pace" and stay in the running is proof positive that he has the goods. We are always glad when our boys "make good." Put Cecil down in the list. Now, Copping, keep hard at it and your future at the top is a sure bet. I saw Jimmie Ross in Boston and he wants to be remembered to his Rockland friends.

PENALTY IS HEAVY

Whether You Buy or Sell a Vote—Something Worth Remembering in the Year of Political Excitement Ahead.

While it is true (or was a few years ago) that a man cannot be punished for selling his vote, the Maine laws are not so indulgent. Section 95, Chapter 6, Revised Statutes, Page 420, says: "Whoever by bribery, menace, wilful falsehood or other corrupt means, directly or indirectly, attempts to influence any voter, in giving his vote or ballot, or to induce him to withhold it, or to deter or hinder him in the free exercise of his right of suffrage, at any election, held under the provisions of the Constitution, or of this Chapter, and whoever receives, or offers to receive, a bribe for his vote as aforesaid, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment more than one year, and be ineligible to any office for ten years."

MOTOR BOAT SHOW

Auxiliary Yawl Sea Bird, Equipped With Camden-Built Engine, will be a Feature.

The little auxiliary yawl "Sea Bird," which made the voyage from Providence, R. I., to Rome, Italy, last summer will be on exhibition at the Boston Motor Boat Show, Jan. 27-Feb. 3, fitted and rigged just as she was when she made the remarkable passage. Thomas Fleming Day, her owner and skipper has loaned the boat for exhibition and will during the show deliver an illustrated lecture describing the trip. The Sea Bird is 25 feet over all, 19' water line, and carries 400 square feet of sail. She is equipped with a 3 h. p. Knox engine.

The Sea Bird for so small a craft has a remarkable record, having during an existence of nine years been called over 30,000 miles. She is the first American yacht to be reported by wireless, passing Nantucket lightship the day after the Marconi system was installed, and is the first American ship to ascend the River Tiber and enter the Port of Rome.

She was 32 days making the passage from Providence to Gibraltar, a distance of 3260 miles. Her longest day's run was 183 sea miles or 214 statute miles, a record distance for so small a craft.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have been full to say that a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable.

His misfortunes serve as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore the gastric juices, their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach well and strong.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, F. H. Call, 364 Main St., Rockland.

THE MEDOMAK'S WANTS

The office of Col. W. E. Craighill of the United States engineer corps, Portland, was the scene Monday of a lively meeting of representatives of the Medomak river.

Col. Craighill, called together for the purpose of giving Col. Craighill their ideas as to what should be done to improve navigation on the Medomak river. The matter has been in hand for some time and engineers have made a survey and plan of the river and its approaches.

Col. Craighill is anxious to find out what the people who use the river want done to it to make it serve them better. The hearing was given for this purpose and the information obtained will be used by Col. Craighill in making up his report to the War Department.

Fewer persons committed suicide in 1910 than in 1909, according to the latest figures on the subject announced by Dr. Cressy L. Wilbur, in charge of vital statistics for the Census Bureau.

The death rate from suicide for 1910 was 16 to 100,000 of population in the Census Bureau's death registration area, which comprises about one-half of the country's population and covers twenty-two states and a number of the larger cities in other states. The rate was 16.5 in 1909. There were 8,590 suicides in 1910. Suicide by firearms was the favorite method of self-destruction, and showed an increase over 1909.

Poison was a close second. Methods employed were as follows: Firearms, 2,561; poison, 2,456; hanging or strangulation, 1,265; asphyxia, 941; drowning, 517; cutting or piercing instruments, 144; jumping from high places, 137; crushing, 88, and other means, 81. California led the states with 29 suicides to 100,000 of population, while Maryland, with 10.3, had the lowest rate.
