Dear Sir

The bearer of this note is Mr. George W. Edwards formerly of this city now of Boham and a member of the senior class Bowdoin College. I know Mr. E well and have no hesitation in assuring you that we have very few young men in our state whose opinions are more deserving than his. His character is unblemished and he has a decided taste for the military profession. If you can give him an appointment as Lieutenant it will gratify me much.

Hon. S. Washburn
Governor &c

Yours most truly
N. Woods
