Sir,

I transmit herewith a Report and Joint Resolutions of the General Assembly of Alabama, responsive to certain Resolutions of the Legislature of South Carolina in relation to the Georgia and Maine Controversy, with a request that you will lay the same before the Legislature of the State over which you preside.

With perfect respect
I am Sir, yr obt. Serv.

A. V. Bagby

His Excellency
The Governor of Maine

The Committee on Federal relations,

To whom was referred certain Joint Resolutions of the Legislature of South Carolina, in relation to Georgia and Maine Controversy, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to Report; That after a careful examination of the facts and circumstances set forth in the preamble to the said Resolutions connected with felonious stealing and carrying away, the slave Ottobah by Daniel Philbrook and Edward Kilbride from the State of Georgia, and transporting him to the State of Maine, and the refusal of the Executive of the State of Maine, to surrender said Philbrook & and Kilbride as fugitives from justice upon demand made by the Governor of Georgia, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, they have come to the conclusion, that the demand made was legal & proper, that the right was clear under the Constitution, & that the refusal to surrender was inconsistent with the Constitutional obligations of a State; They therefore con-
-cur in the following Resolutions of said State, and recommend their adoption by the General Assembly

Re. 1st of this State. Resolved 1st That it is the duty as well as the right, of any State; to insist on the faithful observance of the Federal Constitution, by each State in the Union.

Re. 2^d. That to define crimes and felonies within its jurisdiction, is an incident to the sovereignty of each State, and that no other State can question the exercise of that right.

Re. 3^d. That to demand the surrender and removal of fugitives from justice is by the Constitution a right, and the arrest and surrender a duty; the denial or impairment of this right is inconsistent with the Constitutional obligations of a State, and subversive of the peace and good Government of the other States. Resolved 4th That the right has been impaired if not denied by the authorities of the State of Maine, and that this State, will never consent, that any State shall become an asylum for those who are fugitives from the Justice of other States. Resolved 5th. That this State will make common cause with any State of this Confederacy in maintaining its just rights under the guaranty of the Constitution of the United States; and should the obligation
