NO. 41

STARTLING FIGURES ON MAINE'S GRAIN CROP

With a grain crop in 1916, the total valuation of which was $5,601,000, Maine is entitled to some consideration as a cereal producing territory. These are the figures of the national department of agriculture. But the significant fact is that if other grain growing states had developed the science of intensive farming and getting the most out of an acre of cultivated land that it can grow, as has Maine, the chances are that it would have been unnecessary for Congress to have established a minimum price of $2 per bushel on wheat after this year; likewise there is great question as to whether Mr. Hoover would have been called upon to make the official price of 1917 wheat $2.17.

The average production per acre in Maine is in most grains higher than that of any other state, while in all it is one of the highest averages. Take the matter of wheat, for illustration. With a total acreage 5,000 devoted to wheat in 1916, the state produced a total crop of 135,000, with an average yield of 27 bushels per acre. Kansas the biggest producer of wheat in the country that year, had 8174 acres and harvested, in round numbers, 98,000,000 bushels of grain. This was an average of 12 bushels per acre. Had her farmers been able to equal the acreage production of Maine of 27 bushels to the acre, Kansas in 1916 would have furnished the world 210,698,000 bushels or more than twice what she did.

But that isn't all. The price which the Maine farmer received for his crop in 1916 was, average, $1.87 per bushel, whereas the Kansas farmer got only $1.44 per bushel for his crop. But one state in the country got a larger price per bushel for its wheat than Maine and oddly enough, that was not one of the western wheat growing states but South Carolina, where the farm price was $1.89. Maine's average yield of wheat for the past ten years has been 25.7 bushels per acre and the average price, $1.14.

In the great production of Maine oats rank first. Last year its total farm value was $4,100,000. The total acreage of the state was 170,000 as against 175,000 in 1915. As a natural consequence the crop took a drop so that the total production was but 6,120,000 bushels, whereas in the previous year it topped the seven million bushels figure. But oats were worth much more in 1916 than in '15, so that the farmers received that year, as said, $1,100,000, as against $3,150,000 in 1915, an increase of $950,000. Here again was the state up among the singers in the matter of high production. The average was 36 bushels to the acre, which was exceeded by but ten states. The Maine oat growers received 67 cents a bushel, where as this was equaled or exceeded by but seven other states. Corn is always a reliable Maine product. No doubt the average Maine man figures that it is the most valuable grain crop the state produces, yet it falls below oats. In the matter of corn in 1916, the acreage, as with oats, fell off from 1916, being but 15,000 acres, a decrease of a thousand. The production fell off 11,000 bushels to 645,000, but the value to farmers was $768,000, a jump of $210,000 over the amount they received for their 1915 corn.

Here, too, Maine farms had a fine yield, the average for the year being 43 bushels per acre, which was exceeded by but one state, New Hampshire and equaled by but two, Connecticut and Vermont, so that New England holds the championship so far as intensive farming in corn goes. It will probably cause much surprise to many to know that Maine's third grain crop is buckwheat, but such it is and her production per acre is the largest in the country and the average price per bushel to the farmers is the greatest of the nation. Last year on 14,000 acres the State produced 336,000 bushels and her farmers received for it the modest sum of $319,000.

The same year Maine grew barley on 6,000 acres and harvested a crop of 156,000 bushels worth to the farmers $162,000.

NEBRASKA ENJOYING BOOM IN POTASH

Nebraska's potash lakes are doing their bit in this war and plants for working the potash from the waters of the lakes are springing up in western Nebraska like mushroom towns in a new mining region. Plenty of capital is offered to finance the projects, and the work is not to be discontinued after the war, according to those engaged in the business.

A University of Nebraska professor discovered that the lakes in the sand hill region of East Alliance, Neb., were heavy with potash in suspension. Plants are now at work working the potash from this water.

Most of the potash furnished the world came from Germany before the war, and the domestic potash proves to be a valuable aid to America in its war work, now that the original importation supply is cut off.

One of the largest plants is now being erected near Alliance, the water bearing potash being pumped from the lakes 20 miles away. Thousands of men are employed in the industry, and all the plants are carefully guarded against bomb plots and other pro-German activities.

WHAT WE'LL GET FROM WAR

Every traitor and every near traitor in the United States is inquiring "What are we going to get out of this war?"

Well, among other things, we are going to get a better grade of patriotism than we have been having.

We are going to put an end to building up foreign colonies in the United States as breeding places of treason.

We are going to quit making the foreigner believe he is the only creature on earth worth while.

We are going to love every foreigner who really becomes an American, and all others we are going to ship back home.

We are going to stop hiring men in banks and public offices simply because they speak foreign languages.

In this way, we expect to encourage the speaking of the English language. We are going to have consultations with the I. W. W.'s to ascertain whether or not they have a real grievance or any just cause for their treasonable mouthings and threats. If they have any just cause, we are going to remove it; then we are going to shut their mouths for good and all.

We are not going to let men come into the United States without some kind of a bond, guaranteeing that they are not going to engage in burning property or in carrying on secret work on behalf of the country they came from.

Out of this war, we are going to get a new United States. We are going to hate nobody, but we are going to be prepared to fight whenever necessary.

We are going to have the freest country in the world, but we are not going to allow any traitorous highbrows to set their own standards of freedom by which to convert freedom into treason.

There are a good many other things "we are going to get out of this war." When the soldier boys come home, we are going to have two millions of patriots who, having fought for the flag, will make good citizens and thorough patriots.

The people of the United States are going to get more out of this war than will be returned to any other country in the world.

GERMAN FEAR OF 1918

The German rulers fear the year 1918 and what it has in store for them. They have so far, been successful in making the people believe that they are winning the war, but they themselves know that 1917 has brought no victories—rather it has been marked by an almost unbroken series of defeats. On the Western front the Allies have taken position after position which were deemed impregnable, and all efforts to retake these strategic points and retain them have only resulted in heavy losses. The German rulers know that each day sees the Allies on the West growing stronger, gaining in artillery supremacy, with a constantly accumulating store of munitions and with an increasing strength in the air. While the German army is growing weaker, the Allies, with the prospect of an addition to their forces of at least half a million of men from the United States, will greatly outnumber their opponents by another Spring. On the Austrian front Italy has driven back the armies of Austria and taken from them places which were rendered so strong by nature that no military man dared to hope for great achievements in that section. The result of this Italian success has been to threaten the entire Austrian line and to bring Germany's ally face to face with the danger of invasion. The Turks have lost Bagdad to the British and the railroad to Basamara is now in British hands with the Armenian army threatened in the rear. Only on the Eastern or Russian front have the German armies scored victories and these as the German rulers know were not due to military supremacy but to the utter demoralization of the Russian government and army.

The U-boat campaign has not accomplished its purpose. Thousands of tons of shipping have been destroyed, but England is not in danger of starvation, nor has the supply of munitions, food and troops from this side of the Atlantic been seriously interfered with. Within a few months this country will begin launching ships to take the places of those the submarines have destroyed; while every week witnesses the increased effectiveness of defensive measures adopted against the U-boats with the prospect that eventually those under-sea craft will not be able to sink one ship, where they are now sinking ten.

It is true that Germany has captured Riga and opened a gateway to Petrograd. But this success while it served to cheer the German people is of little military value. In fact it may prove more of an embarrassment than anything else, for it almost compels Germany to advance against Petrograd, three hundred miles distant, thus greatly widening the circle of the armies which must be kept supplied, and just now Germany can ill afford to extend her lines—what she needs is to concentrate them as her man-power grows less. If Petrograd be taken it will be an empty victory unless it succeeds in forcing Russia into making a separate peace. So far as Petrograd is concerned, the country of which it is the center possesses no resources which will serve to replenish the German supplies and the Allies will lose little by its fall. Some say that if Petrograd be captured it will incite the demoralized Russians to reorganizing and making a desperate attempt to drive the invaders from the soil. Of course, Germany may be able to bring about peace with Russia—a possibility that the Allies fully recognize and somewhat fear. But every effort is being made to hold Russia in line and to build up her unstable government and restore something like discipline to her shattered army.

But the war must be won on the western front if it be won by force of arms. By another spring the United States will have a big army in France. Its presence will give the Allies more courage than they have possessed since the war began. The German rulers may be able to prevent disaster for a year, but towards the close of 1918 they will be close to defeat. By that time it is believed the German people will be ready to take matters into their own hands which will hasten the day of peace. The hope of the Hohenzollern rulers today is to bring about peace before they are disposed and even this hope because of President Wilson's attitude has been shattered. We will not make peace with Emperor Wilhelm or any of his tribe. This is why the year 1918 presents a fearful prospect for the present rulers of Germany. It is then they fear they may be overwhelmed and suffer a crushing defeat.

BREWER MAN DOES WELL SHEEP RAISING

Roscoe Kent of North Brewer is one of the state's most enthusiastic stock raisers and he is deeply interested in the revival of the sheep industry. At the Riverside Grange Fair, Mr. Kent exhibited, in addition to fine exhibits of Jersey stock, a flock of eight Hampshire Down and Oxford sheep and lambs. He had two four-months-old lambs for which he has refused $8 each. Mr. Kent says he has realized $140 from the sale of the wool from 11 sheep and the sale of 11 lambs. Besides this he still has the sheep and the two best lambs remaining. He raised from the 11 sheep five pairs of twin lambs and three singles.

POTASH TO LAST HALF

A CENTURY

At last the bill permitting development of what has been called by chemists "the greatest known deposit of potash in the world" has been passed by both the Senate and the House. This deposit is in the briny waters of Searles Lake, California, and as the lake and surrounding land had been withdrawn by the Government from the operation of mining laws, new legislation was required before it could be taken out. During the last three years and before the present session the needed bill had been passed twice in the House, but action by the Senate was prevented. In years preceding the war our supply of potash came from Germany. Imports in 1913 were 529,000 tons; last year only 10,000 were received, and there has been an extraordinary advance of price. Search for deposits in our own country has not been fruitful, if Searles Lake be excepted. Small quantities have been taken from feldspar, alunite, and seaweed, but our output in the first half of the present year was only 14,000 tons. Volcanic rocks in Wyoming contain much potash. The Geological Survey's estimate is that nearly 200,000,000 tons lie there, but it was said in the House debate that "no workable process for extracting" the minerals had been found.

In the California lake, whose area is 39,000 acres, there is a great supply, and it can be made ready for the market at reasonable cost. The Geological Survey and the Bureau of Mines say that the lake's waters hold in solution 20,000,000 tons. In a letter to the House Committee on Public Lands a few days ago George Otis Smith, Director of the Survey, said:

I see no way to increase this output (of 14,000 tons in six months) or anything like the scale needed and especially from a source that may be expected to permit competition with the German potash, except by opening up Searles Lake under the best possible conditions, which I think are provided in the measure which the committee has reported.

Secretary Land, in a letter to the same committee, showed how agricultural yield per acre was increased by potash fertilizer, and said he regarded the bill as "an important war measure." It was supported by the Council of National Defense. Two companies that have reduction plants near at hand will now acquire by lease the right to take out the potash. There is enough in the lake to supply our needs for half a century. Hereafter we shall not be dependent upon Germany's mines, and Germany will lose a large and profitable part of her export trade.

HOW THE WAR HAS CHANGED NEWPORT

"Like thousands of other places, Newport has been made over by the war. The very streets look different; the spirit of its people has undergone a sweeping transformation. Although this is true of every other city, yet I think it is most evident in Newport—for in the past the spirit of Newport has been social, its activities have been the activities of society, and in many ways it has been a social model for the rest of America."

Mrs. French Vanderbilt is the authority for this statement. She has written for the October issue of Harper's Bazar an article on the Red Cross and other war relief work in Newport.

Naturally, with such serious work on all sides, the character of Newport has changed completely. And the cause for this change was the visit of the "U. S. S." The people of Newport had to house and care for the victims of this merciless raider of the seas. They were, however, not prepared for this sort of thing, and on realizing it they built up, without any loss of time, a very efficient Red Cross organization, and now everyone is engaged in some kind of war relief work.

HELP SWELL THE TIMES TO- BACCO FUND

If you want to see two bits do double duty and at the same time know that you are bringing cheer into the life of at least one American soldier in France, send 25 cents today to the TIMES Tobacco Fund. By special arrangements made by the TIMES this amount will purchase a tobacco kit containing 50 cents' worth of cigarettes, smoking tobacco and cigarette papers, and that kit will be sent to Sammie fighting at the front with the allied armies.

The lucky Sammie will get your name on a postcard, with a return side for his acknowledgement and you will be proud to receive this token from Uncle Sam's boys in the trenches.

How many tobacco kits will you authorize us to send for you? Send 25 cents for each kit desired to the TIMES Tobacco Fund.

An apple eaten in the evening will cleanse the teeth mechanically and chemically, says the Popular Science Monthly, and if followed by vigorous brushing will protect them from bacteria during the night.

YOUR OLD CLOTHES

"ROOF" THE SOLDIERS

Did you ever imagine that the old suit you discarded may go into a roof over your husband's, or brother's, or son's head in one of Uncle Sam's cantonments where the new soldiers are in training?

The high-grade asphalt roofing which our Government experts have chosen to roof the sixteen big cantonments is what manufacturers call a "by-product" roof. Its base is a thick, soft felt made of old rags and these rags come from tons and tons of our last winter's clothing that have been collected and made into roofing felt. This information will surprise many people, who may still have in mind the old-time "paper-roofing" or "tar paper," or the later so-called "rubber" roofing; but these are largely bygones. The modern roll roofing is made of soft, pliable felt which is saturated with several times its own weight of blended asphalt. Thus asphalt has become the established economy product for overhead as for under wheels, in preference to wood, tar or metal.

A writer in the Saturday Evening Post, Mary Roberts Rinehart, recently mentioned the extreme discomfort experienced by some of the Officers Reserve Corps men under metal roofs in the older cantonments during the summer. The cooler, non-conducting asphalt has brought about much more comfortable conditions in the hot southern camps, and it also keeps the interiors warmer in the extreme cold up north, where other camps are located.

"By-products" are playing a big part in this war. The Germans have carried the idea farther than any other nation. For fighting purposes they have followed the plan of using "everything but the squeal." Uncle Sam is not far behind them in conservation now, and is learning more right along. In the case of the asphalt roofing, for instance, few people realize how far the economy hunt has gone. In addition to the fact that Uncle Sam's buyers and builders found this roof quick and easy to lay, low in maintenance cost, long-lived, water-proof and weather-proof, fire-retardant, and other things a good roof should be, it was pointed out that as asphalt roofing came in compact rolls it would save space in freight cars—and also that it would conserve lumber, which is hard to get for shingles especially.

How many households look into their purchases as carefully as Uncle Sam does? With him, losses great or small cannot be tolerated, because in the aggregate the leakage of supplies and money would be simply staggering. When you consider the number and size of the cantonment—a small city, each of them, and the millions of square feet of roof needed, the money saved in selecting a durable asphalt roofing is important.

Next time you go to visit "your soldier" at his cantonment, look at the roof and remember that your old clothes may be doing their mite to "protect" him.

WAR TAX AFFECTS EVERYONE

In the $2,700,000,000 war tax bill, which is now a law "catches" almost everybody from the cradle to the grave and for good measure levies a few new taxes on the heirs.

Baby's first days of talcum powder will, under the two per cent. manufacturers' tax on cosmetics, help Uncle Sam carry on the war and after death the federal collectors will be on hand to get inheritance taxes at advances on the present rate on $50,000 to 10 per cent. on $1,000,000. Between birth and death most of man's activities will be taxed, voting a proxy at a meeting of a cemetery association being one of the few specifically exempted.

Those who have profited most by the war, the recipients of enormous excess war profits, will pay the most to help carry it on.

Almost half the total amount of the bill, or about $1,100,000,000 is to be collected from them.

The person who writes a postal card will be caught, for cards will sell for two cents each by the provisions of the bill. Letters will be three cents. One will be taxed when he goes to a moving picture show, if the admission is over five cents, one-tenth of the cost of the ticket. The rate will affect all who attend amusements, from the man in the gallery to the one in the box. A host of stamp taxes designed to raise $30,000,000 also will get the man with little money in many ways. His greatest consolation is that the consumption taxes which would have made him pay on coffee, tea and sugar were stricken from the bill.

The man of moderate means, as well as the wealthy, is affected by the income tax section. Normal rates have been doubled and exemptions lowered to $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married ones. Surtaxes for incomes above $5,000 range from one to 50 per cent. the maximum applying to incomes over $1,000,000. This section is expected to raise $600,000,000.

As Angela Moore, the little American girl who braves the dangers of the war zone, "Our Mary" appears in what is readily thought to be the greatest dramatic effort of her career. In scenes that demand much of her histrionic finesse she offers a portrayal that is unlike anything hitherto given to the screen by this famous little actress.

As an attraction extraordinary, Manager N. C. Martin of the Martin Theatre announces his engagement of the new Mary Pickford picture, "The Little American," conceded to be the greatest patriotic message ever seen on the motion picture screen. Staged under the personal direction of that master of screencraft, Cecil B. DeMille, creator of "Joan the Woman," this production, it is generally felt, surpasses even the wonderful achievement of that masterpiece.

Popularly known as "America's Sweetheart," Miss Pickford presents a particularly fitting characterization in the title role of this new Artcraft picture. Presenting a story of especial timely theme by Mr. De Mille and Jeanie MacPherson this production, it is promised, will bring home most effectively, conditions involving the present great war. Stirring views of remarkably spectacular war scenes, both on land and sea, are pictured in the most modern manner of photoplay technique.

In the production of "The Little American," various well-known authorities on conditions prevailing across the ocean, have collaborated with Mr. De Mille, with the result that even the most minute detail has been pronounced perfect. Again the combined arts of Mary Pickford and Cecil B. DeMille have been linked together in the cause of the photoplay and judging from advance reports, this production will go down in motion-picture history as one of its greatest works of art, as well as one of its most powerful appeals.

Sarah Elizabeth Drew

The death of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Drew, Sept. 22, cast a gloom over the entire town of Oakfield, where she has lived the greater part of her life. Mrs. Drew, who had been in poor health for a long time, had a general breakdown in April, and later went to the Aroostook hospital in Houlton. Failing to improve she returned home, Aug. 11th, and her condition grew worse until the end. Tender care was given her during the five months she was confined to her bed.

Mrs. Drew was born in the state of Iowa, Feb. 13, 1872, and was the daughter of Calvin Howard and Sophia Byron, both of Linneus. The father died when Sarah was but four years of age, and the mother returned to Maine with her four children, Samuel, Calvin, Sarah and Sarah. When Sarah was only seventeen her mother died. She taught school for ten years and then was married to Samuel Drew, a farmer in Oakfield. She was the mother of five children, the oldest dying at two months of age. Besides the father, four children survive to mourn their loss, Anna I. Arabella G. Howard A. and Hannibal H. Drew.

The funeral services were held at her home, Monday, Sept. 24th, at 10 A. M., conducted by Rev. H. R. Sisson, of Island Falls, who spoke comforting words, "God is our refuge and strength, a great help in time of trouble."

Mrs. Edith Holden, of Oakfield, and Mrs. Ella James, of Island Falls, sang her favorite hymns; "No Burden Allowed to Pass Through," "O'er Jordan's Wave I Do Not Fear," "We Shall Sleep but not Forever." The pall bearers were Martine N. Crandall, Phillip Brennen, Edgar F. White and Stanley R. Clark. The beautiful flowers were silent tokens of the love and esteem of her many friends. Her body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery of Oakfield. She was an untiring worker for the poor and needy, and a faithful, loving mother. The husband and family thank the many friends who assisted in her last illness, especially Mrs. Barbara Brannen, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Chas. Barnes, who went often to see her at the hospital.

"God calls our loved ones but we lose not wholly
What he hath given,
They live on earth in thought and deed as truly
As in His Heaven."

ONE LAW FOR BOTH, AT THE DREAM

"One Law For Both," the newest photodramatic spectacle made under the direction of Ivan Abramson since the showing of his last production "Enlighten Thy Daughter," will be shown at the Dream Theatre next Friday and Saturday.

The theme of the production is broader than the obvious plea for a single, equal standard of morality for both sexes. It has a three-fold message; the author purposes to convey through the medium of the screen his plea for a single law, to be equally applicable to all orders of society.

Home Defense

For over 30 years thousands of homes have been safely defended against evil effects from Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Cramps, Chills, etc., by this wonderful soothing, healing, pain destroying anodyne. From a physician's prescription, and a chemist's art as well as external use.

BEDDING

AT A PRICE THAT IS RIGHT

Despite the strenuous war times we are in a position to quote better prices on all varieties of bedding than you can imagine is possible. This is due to early buying in large quantities and the taking of all discounts.

Early Buying is just what you should practice also as stocks are bound to go down whilst prices are bound to go up.

both in a political and economic sense.

To emphasize his propaganda, the author has located the greater part of his story in Russia. The heroine, a young Polish noblewoman, has been embittered against the Russian Government because her parents had been arrested on the suspicion that they were unfriendly to the Imperial Government, and summarily exiled to Siberia. The health of her younger brother had been seriously impaired by the police at the time of the arrest, and she devotes herself to the overthrow of the House of Romanoff, and the liberation of Poland and Russia.

The locale of the production shifts to America, where the girl, now recovered from her terrible experience with the government official, that was the price of her brother's liberty, is engaged in translating the work of a prominent American writer. Romance comes to her in the new land, and she marries, without, however, divulging her secret. In her new role of wife, she effects a reconciliation between her sister-in-law and that woman's husband, pleading for forgiveness for the man's trespasses. Events come to pass that make it necessary for her to confess her own past to her husband. He spurns her from him in disgust. Her sister reminds him of the time when he had asked her to forgive her husband, and proclaims a single law as the only human, just, standard of life. A realization of the truth of this contention comes to the man, and he again takes his wife to his arms.

Throughout the entire production, the diverse atmospheres of Russia and America are skillfully blended by a masterly use of the "flash" and "cut-back." The contrasting scenes are arranged to such advantage that great dramatic force is achieved.

A merchant relates the following: "For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had catarrh. CANDIDATE FOR CO. COMR.

It is with pleasure that the TIMES announces the candidacy of the present member of the Board of County Commissioners for renomination, Hon. S. P. Archibald of Monticello.

The position of County Commissioner is one which demands a broad experience in business methods, a wide acquaintance all over the county, an adaptability for dealing wisely with all classes of people, and in all looking after the interests of the County. Mr. Archibald fills the bill in all these qualifications, and his first term, which expires next year has given him experience in the details of the office which makes him more valuable to the county than a man less experienced in the work of this office.

Mr. Archibald has a host of friends not only in his native town of Monticello, but all over the county who will give him their hearty support at the primaries in June 1918.

HOULTON'S ALLOTMENT

Houlton, first and foremost in the County in all things, has certainly had a difficult proposition put up to her in her allotment for the second Liberty Loan.

According to the figures given out, Houlton has been allotted a minimum of $410,000 and a maximum of $677,000 which seems to be more than her share according to other places. However, the local committee is hard at work and everyone should do his bit to help reach the goal desired.

AT THE DREAM

"Each to His Kind," a thrilling drama by Paul West, will be seen at the Dream on Wednesday, Oct. 10, under the direction of the Jesse L. Lasky Company with Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor in the title role. The story of this Paramount Picture was especially written for Mr. Hayakawa by Paul West and prepared for the screen by Geo. Dubois Procter. In this production, Hayakawa is seen as an Indian Rajah who at school in England was much sought after in British society. Supporting Mr. Hayakawa are such prominent artists as Vola Vale, Tsuru Aoki, Ernest Joy, Walter Long, and others.

"Sweetheart of the Doomed" Louise Glaum, star of Triangle pictures, makes her appearance in "Sweetheart of the Doomed," a Thomas H. Ince production, at the Dream Theatre, Thursday, Oct. 11.

As the notorious charmer of Paris and Monte Carlo, who becomes the angel of the armies of France, Miss Glaum has an opportunity to display not only her originality in matters of dress, but her ability as an actress of emotional power.

A full account of the feature production for Friday and Saturday "One Law For Both" will be found in another column of this issue.

Monday Oct. 15, Universal presents the 13th chapter of the great Mystery serial "The Voice on the Wire." "The Animated Weekly" and other splendid dramatic and comedy subjects, including Fatty Arbuckle in his latest Paramount Comedy "Oh Doctor."

The Triangle-Fine Arts picture "An Old Fashioned Young Man," which will be shown at the Dream Theatre, Tuesday, Oct. 16, is a distinct novelty among recent photoplays.

Robert Harron, as the chivalrous young man of today, travels from Pacific to Atlantic and back again to obtain proof that will clear a woman's name of scandal.

When the boy has succeeded in vindicating her reputation, he discovers that she is his own mother and that she has been separated from his father because of the scandal, which originated years before.

"HAVE YOU GOT ANYTHING TO SMOKE"

If You Were in France You'd Hear That
Suppose you were in France today, perhaps in the midst of a crowded street alone; no acquaintance among all these strange people; shut off in a large measure from real social intercourse with them by a lack of knowledge of the language.

You can without much strain of your imagination, realize just such a situation. Suddenly around the corner, comes two young fellows in the trim, business like Khaki uniform of the army of your own country.

What would you do?
You'd rush up to them and grab their hands; you'd laugh with joy; you'd tell them who you are, where you came from; you'd try to discover some acquaintances; or common experiences. And after a few minutes, suppose one of them said "Have you got anything to smoke?" What would you do?

You'd go the limit. If you had cigars, you'd hand them over; or cigarettes you'd say "You bet I have; good United States smokes; the kind you can't get in France. You fellows are welcome to what I have; and if you'll come to my hotel, I'll give you more."

Under ordinary circumstances you couldn't do it; the French customs office wouldn't let you bring in a lot of American smokes. But you can do just that without going to France. You can send one or fifty of our special smoke kits to our soldiers in France at 25 cents each. The French government admits these kits duty-free. A post card in each kit stamped, with your address on it ready to mail, will come back to the sender of the kit.

The readers of the TIMES have responded generously during the past week, and we have received since the last issue of this paper $11.75. Previously acknowledged $13.75. Total to date $25.50. Any amount will give a great deal of pleasure to some one's boy in France.

The following were the donors during the week: Walter C. Benson, Ray Mc Naughton, A. Friend, T. J. Fox, Mrs. Wesley Robinson, J. H. Randall, Easton, B. V. Thompson, Easton, L. L. Curtis, Easton, Geo. W. Richards, A. W. McGary, L. J. Bubar, Linneus, Mrs. John Watson, Frank C. Merritt, Washington, D. C.

LOCAL ROADS

One of the best pieces of road built in this section, is the piece of State Aid just completed under the direction of Road Supt. Jas. Fortier, on the Bangor road, so-called.

This starts midway of the river road east of Cary's Mills and extends for a distance of .9 of a mile as far as the road leading to New Limerick, one which is much used and will be much appreciated by all, especially those living in Linneus who already have some fine pieces of State Aid on this road.

The fences have been built and the culvert ends will be finished at once. The road crew is now working on the Reed bridge on the B road, and they will then come into town and finish up the work on sidewalks.

The town is awaiting the motion of contractor Van Tassel who will build the sidewalks, but on account of a large amount of work he has been unable to get to this work.

The posts for the street signs are all sawn and the signs themselves will be done this week, and put in place immediately. This work was delayed also on account of delay by the man who was to furnish the posts and stock for the signs.

JAKE WISE

The community was horrified when it learned, Thursday morning, of the tragic death of Jake Wise, which occurred late Wednesday night, when his automobile in which he and a party of friends were riding in Amity was thrown from the road after striking a stray calf, causing him to lose control of the car. The heavy Packard car was overturned pinning under it Mr. Wise, who was instantly killed; his companions escaped uninjured.

Mr. Wise was one of Houlton's best known citizens, having lived here about 25 years, where he has done business. He possessed many splendid traits of character, among others being his benevolence, as many a person and family in town can testify to. Jake Wise was an honest man; he was no hypocrite; all his work was done in the open, nothing underhanded. He leaves behind many friends. To his wife, who before marriage was Miss Hope Lovering, and to his children, the sympathy of the entire community is extended. By his aged parents, too, and his brothers and sisters, his death will be keenly felt.

Mr. Wise was born in Russian Poland, and his age was 42 years.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Smyrna St. Sunday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Thomas Whiteside of the M. E. Church. Burial was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

REMAINDER OF QUOTA TO GO IN TWO WEEKS

"Clear your docket—carefully and fairly, but promptly," says Adjutant-General George McF. Presson, provost marshal of Maine, in a communication sent out last week to all members of local and district boards and all appeal agents.

The provost marshal's communication is as follows:

"Within two weeks from this date Maine will be called upon to furnish the last 15 per cent. of her first quota of 1821 men. The authorities at Camp Devens will soon report the number of men who failed to pass physical examinations at the camp, the number of men who have reported at the camp and the number of men required to fill the quota.

"Up to this time leniency has been permitted in certain quarters. Men have been permitted to remain at home to finish farming and some cases have been decided within the five day rule. All postponements of appearances for entraining must come to an end in time for the next movement; all pending cases must be decided at once.

"In other words, all cases must finally be disposed of so that no man will be sent to camp with this quota who should not have been sent until the second call.

"Clear your docket carefully and fairly but promptly.
"The men who go are entitled to full two weeks' notice. You will not be able to give it to them, but you must approach it as nearly as circumstances will permit.

NO AUTUMN EXCURSION

When do the Fall excursions for Boston start? is the question asked by many people on the street.

The TIMES has been informed that owing to the congested conditions on all railroads, the management of the different roads, at a meeting recently held, have decided that no reduced rates would be allowed this year.

RATES FOR TEACHERS

Round trip tickets on the Bangor & Aroostook railroad will be sold beginning Oct. 24, at special rates for those attending the Maine State Teachers' association, which meets in Bangor, Oct. 24, 25 and 26. These tickets will be good on all regular trains until Oct. 29, inclusive, for the return.

Those desiring the return should be sure that the agent from whom the ticket is purchased stamps the return on the back of the ticket, or they will not be valid.

NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR AROOSTOOK FARMERS

C. H. Berry, the well known Bangor St. horse dealer, has so far this season sold 800 horses, so he informs the TIMES. It is easy to estimate what these horses would cost at an average price of $400 each; it can be seen that the investment for horses in this section runs up into big figures.

Probably no other one dealer in the County has sold such a large number, although a very large number of horses have gone through Houlton for up-country points.

ENGAGEMENT OF POPULAR YOUNG HOULTON PEOPLE ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Helen Gordon Chadwick and Russell Hale Britton, has been announced. Miss Chadwick is the daughter of John G. Chadwick, while Mr. Britton is a Presque Isle young man and for the past few years has been local agent for the American Express Company.

Both are among the town's most popular young people. Mr. Britton goes with the next contingent of the quota from southern Aroostook to join the national army.

GELLERSON-CHAMPEON

The marriage of Maurice Allen Gellerson and Bernice K. Champion, occurred in Bangor, Monday, Oct. 1st.

Mr. Gellerson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gellerson, Court St., and has been associated with his father in business for some years, in which he has been a most successful salesman.

Mrs. Gellerson is a Houlton girl, born here, educated here, and for some time she has acted as stenographer in some of the leading law offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Gellerson, on Tuesday morning left for Massachusetts, where they will spend a short time attending the Brockton Fair and visiting friends, after which they will go to Portsmouth, Va., where Mr. Gellerson has a position.

The best wishes of many friends are extended to the young couple.

AROOSTOOK'S THIRD CONTINGENT GIVEN ROUSING SEND-OFF

Several thousand citizens from Houlton and adjoining towns were on hand Wednesday, to participate in the send-off celebration for the departing members of the National Army for the training camp at Ayer, Mass.

This consignment of 86 men makes a total of 85 per cent. of the entire quota, the remaining number, 15, is expected will be called soon.

Mr. O. P. Hackett had charge of the arrangements for the demonstration and promptly at 8:30 the crowd began to assemble on Water St., where a procession was formed, consisting of a platoon of police, Hodgdon and Houlton Bands, Houlton Fire Department, Camp Fire Girls, members of the local Exemption Board, followed by the members of the new army under charge of Gay M. Bradbury.

A short halt was made in Market Square where short speeches by Hon. Thomas V. Doherty and Hon. Leon Pierce were made, after which the ladies of the Red Cross Chapter presented each man with a "comfort kit."

When the order, forward march, was given, the streets were thronged with thousands of interested friends who followed the procession to depot square where after the final roll call was made the boys were given an opportunity to take a final leave-taking of friends and relatives.

As the train from the north pulled into the yard a wild demonstration took place when the up-country contingent joined with the others in the cheering.

Each succeeding departure of our young men for training camps brings closer home to those left behind, the fact that we are at war, and sooner or later, as our boys become trained for service, and are sent forward to enter the battle front for active participation in the fight, and the probable casualties that must occur, then it will be, that we will begin to fully realize what the sacrifice means to the parents who on Wednesday last gave their boys, that the honor of the nation might be upheld.

God-speed to Aroostook's young manhood, may they give a good account of themselves and return to the loved ones left behind.

community who seem to look upon any kind of a bond as a speculation and a risk. There are many of these people who lay away money, in bills, and keep it for safety, and yet these same United States bills are no better than a Liberty Bond, for the U.
S. Government is as much behind these bonds as they are behind their currency.The great advantage of a Liberty Bond is that money laid away outside of the banks does not earn anything, while a government bond is earning 4 per cent. and can be used in the place of money at any time why then should a person who has money laid away, neglect to buy Liberty Bonds, the savings that one has will earn more by so doing.All this from the point of dollars and cents, but look at it from a patriotic standpoint. Everyone should, as a citizen of this Great United States, do his or her part in this war, many are giving their services by going to the front and to the training camps. The Red Cross workers are doing their part, and everyone is being called upon to do something, but a person who has $50 or over, in being asked to buy a Liberty Bond is doing less than many people who are giving their services, because they are getting paid for their money, and the United States are behind them, that is why many of our shrewdest bankers are urging their clients to buy Liberty bonds, as the very best investment in the market.It's certainly a phenomenal thing that the bonds of the United States government the best security on earth, should sell to net four per cent. Never before has such a thing happened. There have been many times when two per cent. bonds could be floated at par by the government.
The United States Panama canal bonds sold a few months ago, before the war broke out, for a premium of two to four per cent. And they pay only three per cent.Conditions in the security market now are wholly abnormal, and can't last after the war. European investors have been unloading on us their American securities, as they wanted the money to put into their own government issues. Our people have had to dig money out of all kinds of investments to buy back our securities held abroad. This has reduced the price on everything, including government bonds.In the face of this selling movement, the first Liberty loan has sold for but a few cents under par. It seems as certain as everything in business can be, that after the war these bonds will go up. If under normal conditions a three per cent bond sells at 102 to 104, a four per cent bond should bring a good deal more than that.Here then is a chance to get interest that is higher than many savings banks used to pay and at the same time a practical certainty, that the value of the principal will advance within a very few years. Usually when you speculate, you must take risks. Here is a chance to get the advantage of speculation without taking any risk. It should not be necessary to work the patriotic movement so hard to sell these bonds.BUY A LIBERTY BOND.*Distinguishing Character.Nor it it always in the most distinguished achievements that men's virtues or vices may be best discerned;
but very often an action of small note,
a short saying, or a jest, shall distinguish a person's real character more than the greatest stogies or the most important battles.—Plutarch.Law of Booty.The law of booty governing the Israelites is given in Numbers 31:26-47.
Booty consisted of captives of both sexes, cattle and whatever a captured city might contain, especially metal treasures.POISONING THE FOOD OF OUR FIGHTERSSome specially masculine wartime utterances eminent Americans have come out the past week. Chief among them in scope are President Wilson's words as he clasped hands with the departing Frenchman Henry Franklin-Bouillon, now reported from exultant Paris: "To the last man, to the last dollar, the whole force of the United States is at your service."
The grim but full-hearted resolution which marks outright manliness in the face of terrible yet imperative obligations is in those words.The world has long seen that Germany would fight America. It was just a question of when—now or later, now with the allies, or later alone. We have decided that it shall be now, when the devastating struggle is and can be kept on the other side of the Atlantic, rather than be allowed to spread to our home shores, and when we can stand shoulder to shoulder with great nations whose cause is our cause, rather than let them spend their strength on the monstrous German militarism and then go at it ourselves over here at home without their heroic aid. The German purpose is obvious, unswerving, and unescapable. We have chosen our course in view of that purpose.
America is to defend her own life now, and in so doing she is to be the deciding factor in determining the fate of Christendom and lands beyond.Therefore, there must be no weakening of our might by anybody here at home. Free speech is precious.
But when it is used against the welfare of all it becomes pernicious.
When the nation's young men are making the land tremble with their tread as they gather to safeguard its heritage and destiny, he who uses the right of free speech to weaken or baffle the nation's solemn purpose must be given short shrift. Col.
Roosevelt spoke with characteristic manliness when he said: "If I were this minute a member of the United States Senate, I should be ashamed to sit in that body until I found out some method of depriving La Follette of his seat in that chamber which he now disgraces by his presence there."
Powerful bodies in Wisconsin and Minnesota, the home region of Robert La Follette, as well as in other parts of the country, have strongly endorsed these words and more like them. Mr. Taft, judicial and good natured always, has added the support of his own ex-presidential voice.
I am in agreement with Mr. Roosevelt in wishing that some way could be found to punish men like Senator La Follette on the ground that their activities are traitorous and their speech seditious.President Nicholas Murray Butler capped the week's sheaf of man-voiced utterances. "Our soldiers," said he, "can fight the soldiers of the enemy. You and I have got to fight sedition and treason here. Gentlemen, you might just as well put poison into the food of every boy that goes to his transport as to permit this man to make war upon the nation in the halls of Congress." That phrase, "Poison in the food," ought to carry the case home to the hearts of all Americans who, as President Butler said, "sit idly by and see pine." It puts the truth in piercing form. To this we add one word only.
It was "the gentleman from Alabama," none other than the rampant
Mr. Hoffman, who uttered it. But it is too robust to lose. He called the men who aid and abet Germany
"Potsdammers."KNITTING AND KNITTINGMajor Grayson M. P. Murphy, head of the American Red Cross in France, is inquiring in quite a frantic manner why more American women are not knitting. Now that query makes us think a bit. There are plenty of American women knitting it seems to us. Why, from 16 to 60 they are wielding the needles with all degreesA Letter include that word "purpose" for a careful inquiry convinces us that not more than one woman in 10 is knitting for the soldiers. When you see a girl knitting a bright colored sweater your first thought is that she is a patriotic, industrious bit of femininity, but if you consider a moment it will occur to you that ten to one the sweater is either for herself or for a Christmas present to some girl friend.It is the girl or woman who pulls the gray or khaki yarn from her bag that is doing the real service to her country. With the others knitting is a fad. It may be cruel to say it but it is cold fact just the same. Let every girl who is knitting a fancy sweater for herself or a friend stop to think that the same amount of energy and gray khaki worsted might save some brave boy from actual suffering this winter. The extravagant use of brightly colored yarns should be curtailed, for every ball used takes one from the possible supply of gray or khaki. Somehow it seems to us that knitting gayly hued sweaters for personal use in these war times is particularly un-patriotic, and, moreover, a prodigal feast that is sadly out of place just now when we are all trying to practice economies and self denials.The Whole Neighborhood Knows

EVERY SICK DAY

Means a Day Lost from Business or Other Usefulness

Not to mention your own misery and the fact, that frequently others are obliged to lose their time in waiting on you when you're sick. The answer is, "Don't get sick." Be careful to eat good plain wholesome food. Let alone rich food, pastry, candy and sweets, anything which you know is hard for you to digest.
Cheer your food thoroughly, and if very tired, rest a few minutes before eating.
Do these things, and you will have done a lot towards keeping well.
But if you are suffering from sick headache, nausea, loss of appetite, cold in the early stages, or acid stomach, don't put off taking a small dose of the true "L. F." Atwood's Medicine. For more than sixty years, it has helped people to keep well and earn a full day's pay. 35 cents a bottle. "L. F." MEDICINE CO., Portland, Maine.

WAR TAX EFFECTS EVERYONE
Manufacturers are levies of one quarter of a cent a foot on motion picture films, two per cent. on the sale price of chewing gum and three per cent. on automobiles, musical instruments and jewelry. Even drowning one's troubles in drink or sending them up in smoke will cost more, for the levies on all kinds of drinks and tobacco soar. The new rate on whisky is $2.10 per gallon and on beer $2.50 a barrel. Wine taxes will be doubled and even grape juice will be taxed a cent a gallon.

A person cannot escape taxes by travel. Eight per cent. is assessed on passenger tickets and steamer tickets also pay a tax.

Some confusion and misinterpretation has arisen out of the working of the section imposing stamp taxes on negotiable instruments, which has been misconstrued to mean that a tax should be placed on bank checks.

The bill says:
"Drafts or checks payable otherwise than at sight or on demand," etc., two cents for each $100. The official interpretation of this section is that as a check is payable at sight and on demand, it therefore, is excluded from tax.

BOOKS FOR WAR CAMPS

If you cannot fight at the front, you can send a book to the man you are sending to the front to do your fighting for you. The government has asked the American Library Association to assume responsibility for supplying the camps and cantonments with reading material. Every group of soldiers, small as well as large, is to have books. The Public Library in this town has been asked to get donations of books and magazines in Houlton. These will be sent to the various camps and cantonments throughout the country and will be made available to the soldiers, either directly, or through such agencies as have facilities for distribution of books.

If you will write in each book your name and address, the soldier who reads it will know that someone in Houlton is his friend and stands ready to help him.

The following is suggested as to the books and magazines desired:
Poorly printed, uninteresting, obviously out-of-date books, are not worth shipping to the men. Type should be good and clear and the books in fair condition.

Books of good stories will be wanted most, books of adventure, sea stories, detective stories, historical novels and collections of short stories, especially humorous ones. Such authors as Kipling, Doyle, McCutcheon, O'Henry, Stockton, Bindloss, Tarkington, Hopkinson Smith, Oppenheim, etc., have been found popular authors with men. Good poetry and drama can be utilized.

All the men must be helped by these libraries. Some of them have not established reading habits. Some of the books must therefore be light and easily read.

Foreign language study books, especially French grammar and dictionaries, are much needed—possibly more than any other non-fiction books. In one camp nearly one-fifth of the men are studying French. They should have easy readers and stories besides their text books.

Books of travel, biography and history, especially lives of heroes and travels in the countries at war.

Technical books on aviation, wireless, telegraphy, submarines, automobiles, signaling, first aid and hygiene, drawing, and lettering.

Ethical books on patriotism, courage, good citizenship, with simple non-sectarian devotional books.

Fresh, attractive, magazines are also desired—such as American, Century, Harper's, Everybody's, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science Monthly, Scientific American, Saturday Evening Post, etc. None over two years old should be included.

The material is needed at once. Why not select today the books which you are willing to give? Do not give worthless, unattractive books, but some of your good, fresh, interesting, and valuable ones.

Send the books and magazines to the Cary Library between the hours that the smallest contribution is not of 9 and 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m. o'clock upon any week day. If you cannot send the books and magazines, notify the librarian, and they will be called for. DO IT TODAY.

REDFIELD GIVES INDORSEMENT TO SMOKE FUND PLAN

Secretary of Commerce Redfield today added his indorsement to Smoke Fund plan for providing tobacco for the boys in the trenches. He said:

"I am sure the American people will be glad to add to the personal comforts of our boys who are fighting their battle."

"It is our fight, you know—the cause of every one of us."

"Let the boys have their smokes and have them generously."

"Let them feel that we are all behind them, and that we think and care for them."

"So shall we add at once to their comfort and their fighting power."

Public men everywhere are supporting the idea of TOBACCO FUNDS for the soldiers. A big patriotic movement is sweeping the country and we are glad that the TIMES was among the first to take up this work.

Your part is very simple. You know about our fund. You know the Cary Library between the hours wasted—every penny helps buy tobacco and cigarettes for our boys in France. So send along your money and get your friends to send their money. This great work has just begun and we are out for a record. We want a substantial evidence of the patriotism of our citizens.

The kits that the TIMES is sending contains brands that are familiar to the soldiers. Here is a list of them so you can see for yourself what a large amount of comfort 25c. will buy.

"Here's the 45c. worth of tobacco which is sent for your quarter:

A package of Tuxedo tobacco and four books of cigarette papers.

Three pouches of Bull Durham tobacco and three books of papers.

Two packages of Lucy Strike cigarettes, twenty cigarettes in each package.

A return postal card addressed to the contributor on which the soldier will pen his appreciation and gratitude for the gift.

Our Comprehension.

Let us raise our conceptions to the magnitude and importance of the duties that devolve upon us; let our comprehension be as broad as the country for which we act, our aspirations as high as its certain destiny; let us not be pygmies in a case that calls for men.—Daniel Webster.

Conservative.
Conservation of supplies and resources is now being preached to us from every quarter and, of course, is for the benefit of mere man. Everyone knows that a woman endeavors constantly to get by with a minimum amount of waist.—Indianapolis Star.

New Way to Test Bills.
An English inventor has patented a process for so treating the edges of paper money that, when placed in a phonograph of his invention, they produce words attesting their genuineness.

Give Numbers Clearly

"SEVNATEFISIX."

Everyone realizes the possibilities of error in telephoning when 7-8-5-6 is asked for in that way.

When numbers are given to our operators in that disconnected, hurried or otherwise indistinct fashion, it is more than likely there will be an error and a wrong connection made.

There is an absolute necessity for the clear enunciation of all telephone numbers: the operation of our switchboards is directed wholly by numbers. A wrong number or a misunderstood number invariably means an error call, for which our operators should not always be held responsible.

"Sev-en eight fi-ve six" is the better way to give the above number. Clearly pronounced numbers uttered directly into the telephone transmitter will obviate a majority of error calls.

When you have given a number to our operator, she repeats it. You should listen for that repetition, for then you may correct her if she has misunderstood you. That will save a great deal of delay and trouble; and, if you will also say "Yes" or "That's right", if she repeats properly, she will have your assurance that she is doing her work correctly.

This is Daisy Baker's Mother. Her hints and suggestions on household economy and home baking, which will appear in these columns from time to time, will be found of interest and value to every housewife.

What Can You Do to Cut Down the Cost of Living?

"Start in with baking at home. It's easy to make good bread—better than you can buy—and you'll be surprised how much you can save."

"What you save on the cost of the bread is only half the story. The better your bread, the more your family will eat, and, in eating more bread they will naturally eat less of other more expensive foods."

"There is twice as much food value in a pound of flour as in a pound of meat—and the meat will cost you probably five times as much."

"All you need is a good recipe and a good flour—these two things are essential."

"One of the best flours that I know—one that I have used in my own baking for years, is made in Ohio—right in the Miami Valley where the rich limestone soil produces a soft winter wheat of peculiarly superior quality."

"Ask your grocer for a sack of

WILLIAM TELL FLOUR

"It's easy to work with; you can use it for everything, and it gives a most delicious nutty flavor to your baking."

"Try it in your own home."

WILLIAM TELL FLOUR is the Flour of the Triple Guarantee. Guaranteed under the Ohio Better Flour Label, by the manufacturer who made it, and by the grocer who sells it.

THIS 300 ACRE FARM FOR SALE

This farm is located in the town of Palmyra, Somerset County, State of Maine. 4 miles from Newport, 5 miles from Pittsfield, and 3 miles from West Palmyra, our shipping point on the R. R.

This farm is nearly evenly divided into fields, Pasture and Woodland. The fields are free from rock, and the soil is like Aroostook Co. soil, none better for the potato business.

My average in the potato business for five years has been from 125 to 160 bbls. to the acre except last year which was a little less.

The pastures are the best, well watered, and will carry 50 head of stock. The woodland will speak for itself enough for half a dozen families, also abundance of timber of all kinds.

Young orchard sufficient for home use.

In Newport the Borden Condensed Milk Factory do a large business and their delivery calls daily for milk.

In Pittsfield a creamery is located and they call regularly three times a week for cream. So the farm is located very nicely for a dairying or potato business.

This valuable property consists of a splendid and commodious set of buildings, modern, a lovely view of the country for miles around, with a small but beautiful sheet of water close by, also church and school privilege within five minutes walk. The Maine Central Institute a 30-minute drive.

This modern set of buildings are comparatively new. House and ell have 14 finished rooms and bath all newly painted, hard wood floors.

The house is heated by hot water. In basement a pneumatic 1000 gallon water tank is installed which gives us a nice water pressure all over buildings.

Hot and cold water at kitchen sink and men's wash room also at bath room.

House and barn are connected by a shed 50 feet long in which are wood shed, work shop and carriage house.

Barn 100x40 ft., also a tie on side, will handle 50 head of cattle. An automatic water supply in front of stock. Two silos in barn. Cellar under house and barn, the whole structure resting on granite foundation.

The following buildings have been built in the past four years: Store House 22x60 ft., Ice House 12x18 ft., Hog House 15x40 ft., Hog House 20x60 ft., with cooler installed and arranged to handle 18 brood sows. Potato House 30x50 ft., capacity 15,000 bushels.

About 70 acres of land all ploughed ready for spring crop.

This farm is under a high state of cultivation, as it has been carrying for the past 20 years from 40 to 60 head of cattle.

If interested write or phone at my expense. I will be pleased to meet you at Newport and show you what I have to offer.

For dairying or potato business it cannot be excelled. It is also nicely located for an ideal summer home.

I have other business which I have to attend to and therefore I am offering this for sale.

DAIRYING IN DANGER

Exposition Makes Attempt to Stem the World-Wide Cow Shortage.

A world-wide shortage in dairy cattle which threatens to send dairy products sky-rocketing to record price levels, has caused the management of the Eastern States Exposition and Dairy Show at Springfield, Mass., from October 12 to 20, to urge the exhibition of dairy cattle, as a stimulant to dairy production in this territory. Big premiums for all the common breeds are offered.

Government specialists assert that the dairy industry of continental Europe has broken down, because of the pressing demand for meat and the necessity of conserving grains for human food. Long after the war has ended these countries must look to the United States for pure-bred breeding stock to be used in building up this great industry again. High prices are certain to rule for many years.

Even in our own country there is a serious shortage of dairy cattle, and dairy experts believe that the most critical phase of the problem has not been reached. The high price of feed, the shortage of experienced labor, and the high price of meat, which is leading many dairymen to send their cattle to the butchers, are playing havoc with dairy herds everywhere.

FIRST NATIONAL SHOW.

Vegetable Growers of This Country and Canada to Exhibit Their Best.

The first national exhibition of the Vegetable Growers' Association of America will be held from October 12 to 20, in connection with the Eastern States Exposition and Dairy Show at Springfield, Mass. The annual convention of the association will be held at the same time.

The entire Women's Building at the exposition's plant has been assigned to the vegetable and fruit shows. Since the vegetable growers' association represents every part of this country and Canada, and they have never had a national show, they are planning to send to New England the greatest collection of market garden products ever assembled. The premiums and special prizes to be awarded amount to several thousand dollars.

GOPHER STATE ENTRY.

Minnesota to Send Big Exhibit of Vegetables to Springfield.

Gardens in Minnesota are being searched for their best products to be shown at the First National Vegetable Exhibition at the Eastern States Exposition and Dairy Show from October 12 to 20, at Springfield, Mass. The entry of the Minnesota State Vegetable Association was the first to be made from outside of New England. Secretary Richard Wellington promises a fine display from the Gopher state.

The state exhibits will be a notable feature of the show. More than a score of associations are getting their material ready.

PIGS FROM CALIFORNIA.

California is a long ways from Springfield, Mass. But there is a man in that State who has some Berkshire hogs he thinks are good enough to send across the continent to the Eastern States Exposition and Dairy Show, from October 12 to 20.

Development of Wireless.

Experiments have been made in Sweden with a form of wireless transmission and reception enabling an aviator in flight to have communication with the earth; other experiments have been made with a contrivance which is believed to be able to direct the course of torpedoes from airplanes.

POTATOES

Local buyers are paying $3.25 for Green Mountains, and $3.50 for Cobblers.

Many of the farmers have finished digging, but those with large acreage still have some to harvest. The yield will be small on the acreage, about 50 per cent of normal, but what stock there is, is of excellent quality.

Shipments out of the county to Oct. 6 are 1921 carloads as compared to 5,285 last year at the same time.

The Produce News says: The market is in fairly good shape and prices have shown slight advances. Daily receipts are fairly liberal but not up to ordinary at this time of year. Stock is coming from nearly all sections but Jersey, Long Island and Maine furnished the bulk.

One thing which has strengthened the market has been Government contracts. If it had not been for these, the market would have been considerably weaker and might have shown a decline.

Maine stock is showing rather poor quality and a considerable dry rot in the small quantity offered. These potatoes are discounted. The best round Maines sell up to $4 but poorer quality brings less. South Jersey potatoes are pretty well cleaned up, but Giants bring around $3.50. Some South Jersey stock here early in the week brought around $4.50 and was selling on a basis of $1.35 f. o. b. shipping point. Shippers were asking around $1.10 f. o. b. Freehold for Giants.

Only limited quantities of State stock are arriving. The potatoes are a trifle green and show some dry rot but it is believed that this will not last as the cold weather will clean it up. State shippers are asking $2.25 bu. delivered and a great many are storing, anticipating higher prices later. This seems to be the general feeling with shippers in all sections who have confidence that the market will advance rather than decline. This condition is responsible for the moderate arrivals here.

Long Island is shipping fairly freely but not as much as could be done, as growers were not figuring on higher prices later. Buyers are paying $1.50 bu. and stock which is the best on the market, is selling here around $5 and 5.25 for 150 lbs. Some Michigan stock is on its way. A few were here this week and the quality was much superior to anything previously offered from that State.

URGE DRAFTING OF SINGLE MEN BEFORE THE MARRIED

Recommendations that the liability of married men subject to military service by conscription, be postponed until all available unmarried men shall have been called into service, are made in a list of suggestions for the improvement of the administration of the draft act prepared in New York by a number of local board members and addressed to the President, governor, the provost marshal-general and the state adjutant general.

The drafting of married men, while single men without dependents are not called, results, the resolutions say, "in much intense public dissatisfaction and resentment which, as the number of such cases increases, must more and more seriously impair public confidence in the whole principle of conscription."

"It also causes the indefinite separation of husbands and wives which inevitably tends to produce serious moral and social dangers," the recommendations continue. "Exercises an adverse influence upon the population of the future, inasmuch as marriages are naturally fewer in war time; and imposes unnecessary public burdens in increased casualty and death payments and unnecessarily withdraws from production the able, more experienced and established men."

"Of course our recommendation is not intended to apply to registrants whose marriages were contracted with a view to evade conscription," the document adds.

The recommendations also suggest that registrants be examined only as fast as the government can put them in cantonments and also that power be conferred upon local boards to discharge registrants who, in good faith, support dependents whether or not they belong to classes specifically enumerated in the regulations.

Another suggestion made is that to discharge be denied a registrant having dependents. "Merely because in the opinion of the board his savings are deemed sufficient to maintain the dependents, where those savings are not large enough to yield an income capable of supporting them without impairment of principal."

HATHEWAY DRUG CO., HOULTON

Pure blood is indispensable to the health and strength of the lungs. The delicate structure of these organs makes it necessary. When the blood is impure the lungs lose their tone, and even if they are permitted to expand freely, they have not the power fully to perform their important work. The fact is, there is nothing more necessary in our physical economy than pure blood—the kind of blood that Hood's Sarsaparilla makes. This medicine is the good, old reliable family remedy for diseases of the blood, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, and low or run-down conditions of the system. At this time, when coughs and colds are so prevalent, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an invaluable tonic. Get it today, and begin to take it at once. Accept no substitute.

MAKES GOOD IN THE NORTH

A cough remedy must be good to give satisfaction in a northern state's variable weather. Bertram Bros., Green Bay, Wis., write: "We have used Foley's Honey and Tar and recommend it to anyone who needs a good, reliable, cough and cold remedy." Relieves croup, opens air passages, eases straining fight for breath. Sold Everywhere.

The Red-Hot Purpose.

That which dominates the life, which is ever uppermost in the mind, generally comes somewhere near realization; but there is a great difference between a lukewarm desire and a red-hot purpose. It takes steam to drive the piston in the engine; warm water will never turn the wheels. The longings that fail of realization are usually just below the boiling point.—Orison Swett Mard- n.

PROMPT ACTION AVERTS TROUBLE
A constipated condition not only poisons the blood stream, but quickly affects the liver and other organs, causing biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, bloating, etc. Foley Cathartic Tablets are mild in action, yet cleanse thoroughly, without nausea or other after effects. Keep bowels regular. Sold Everywhere.

LIBEL FOR DIVORCE

To the Hon. Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be held at Houlton, in the County of Aroostook and State of Maine:

Amber O. Hillman of Island Falls, in said County of Aroostook, respectfully represents that on the 21st day of January 1914, at Woodstock, New Brunswick she was lawfully married to Don P. Libellant, formerly of Island Falls, that ever since said time she has conducted herself towards said Libellee as a faithful, true and affectionate wife but that said Libellee, regardless of his marriage covenant and duty, on the tenth day of July 1914, utterly deserted your Libellant without cause, and that said desertion has continued to the present time, being more than three years, during which time he has contributed nothing to her support.

And your Libellant further alleges that she has resided in good faith in said County of Aroostook and State of Maine for more than one year prior to the filing of this libel.

That your Libellant has made diligent inquiry, but that the residence of said Libellee is unknown to your Libellant, and cannot be ascertained by reasonable diligence. That there is no collusion between them to obtain a divorce; but that your Libellant believes that said bonds of matrimony ought to be dissolved, wherefore she prays that a divorce may be decreed.

And your Libellant further prays that she may have the custody of their minor child, named Ethel E. Hillman, aged three years.

AMBER O. HILLMAN.
Dated at Houlton this 24th day of September, 1917.

Signed and sworn to before me this 26th day of September, 1917.

Certain-teed Roofing

CERTAIN-TEED is the best roof, not only because it costs less to manufacture, but also because it is weather-tight, light weight, clean, sanitary, fire-retardant, and costs practically nothing to maintain.

It is now used as the preferable type of roof for office buildings, factories, hotels, stores, warehouses, garages, farm buildings etc., where durability is demanded. CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness (1, 2 or 3 ply).

There are many roll roofings on the market, but only one CERTAIN-TEED. It pays to get the best. It costs no more to lay a CERTAIN-TEED roof than it does to lay a poor roof, but there is a vast difference in the wear. You can't tell the quality of a roofing by looks or feel. Your only safety is the fact. Be sure that it is CERTAIN-TEED—then you are certain of quality and guaranteed satisfaction.

Certain-teed Slate-Surfaced Asphalt Shingles

STATE OF MAINE

Aroostook, ss. Supreme Judicial Court. In Equity. August, 1st, 1917.

E. D. RYDER vs. R. L. PITCHER CO.

E. D. Ryder of Caribou, in the County of Aroostook, and State of Maine, complains against the R. L. Pitcher Co., a corporation duly existing by law and located at the town of Caribou, Aroostook County, and says:

1. The plaintiff is clerk of said R. L. Pitcher Co.

2. At a meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, legally called and held at said Caribou, on the first day of August, 1917, the said stockholders voted to dissolve said corporation.

3. There are no existing assets of said corporation to be distributed, and no liabilities.

Therefore plaintiff prays:

1. That said defendant corporation may be dissolved and terminated.

2. That the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as the need of the case may require.

3. And that such notice of this bill may be given to the defendant corporation as the Court may see fit to issue.

E. D. RYDER, Aroostook, ss. August 1st, 1917.

Then personally appeared E. D. Ryder and made oath she has read the above bill and knows the contents thereof, and that the same is true of her own knowledge except the matters stated to be on information and belief; that as to these matters she believes them to be true.

(L. S.) Before me, John B. Roberts, Notary Public.

STATE OF MAINE

Upon the foregoing petition ordered that notice be given to the stockholders of said R. L. Pitcher Company, by publishing a true and attested copy of said petition and of this order of Court, three successive weeks in the Houlton Times, a newspaper printed and published at Houlton, in said county of Aroostook, the last publication to be at least thirty days before the next term of this Court to be held at Houlton, in said county, on the third Tuesday of November, 1917, that they may then and there appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

LIBERTY LOAN BADGE OF HONOR

The second Liberty Loan of 1917 has a new button to distinguish the buyers of the Bond. The Government calls it a Badge of Honor.

In the first loan nearly a million buyers of bonds in New England received buttons but there was great delay in their delivery. The buttons to be given to buyers of the Second Loan bonds have already been shipped to the banks and the bond buyer can get his button when he buys his bond.

The financial requirements of the Government in carrying on the war will call for systematic saving in order to buy bonds. Before July 1, the Government will require $13,000,000,000. It must be raised either by selling bonds or by taxation. The necessity for saving to take these bonds is easily seen. Nor should any person be excused from the obligation. It is not to be a question of choice but of necessity. The Government can draft money as well as men if it has to, but if the people purchase Liberty Bonds it will not have to put taxes to the conscription point.

If anyone says it can't be done, take it to Osgood, he will do it quickly.

The well known Irving-Pitt Loose Leaf Binders, Ring Binders, Price Books, etc., can be obtained at the TIMES office.

Impossible Task.

A snug fortune awaits the ingenious somebody who will devise a method, or scheme, or something, by which the victim can convince a book agent that he knows as much what he doesn't want as the book agent does.—Macon Telegraph.

BONDS FOR THE MASSES

It is becoming increasingly evident that the second Liberty Loan—much larger than the first—must depend for its success on citizens of small or moderate means. The 3½ per cent. government bonds were subscribed for in liberal amounts by the rich, because the issue was war-exempt and war taxes on big incomes derived from corporation securities bade fair to be exceedingly heavy. The forthcoming bonds will be 4 per cent., but the income derived from them will be subject to super-tax and the war profit tax. That will render them less inviting to investors of great wealth for as the income rises so does the super-tax. The super-tax on incomes up to $100,000 would still leave a better return from the 4's than that from the original loan, but the possessor of an income of $150,000 would net only 3.55 per cent. on his investment in the 4's.

Multi-millionaires may buy the 4's for patriotic reasons, but not for profit. The new loan will appeal most strongly to those whose incomes are not subject to, or not so heavily hit by, the super-tax. There were over 4,000,000 subscribers to the first loan; there is likely to be a larger proportion of small subscriptions to the coming one. To enable the masses to lend their savings to the government, the Treasury will issue $5 war savings certificates (to be sold in post offices) bearing 4 per cent. interest and exchangeable for bonds. This, with the chance of doing a good turn for the country, will undoubtedly induce many people who never saved before to save now, in order to get these certificates.

The aggregate of the little hoards thus employed will no doubt be immense. It will not in itself assure the success of the loan, but it will be a considerable factor to that end. The certificates will be for so low a sum there will be less likelihood of depositors' withdrawing funds from savings banks to make the purchases. It would be a calamity if savings banks were depleted for this purpose, as in order to raise ready cash they might be obliged to throw their securities holdings on the market at sacrifice prices, causing financial disturbance. It is better for the people to use their current savings for purchase of government issues and this can be done by buying on the installment plan.

Intelligent investors, small as well as large, do not overlook the fact that many sound corporation bonds are now yielding so high a return that it will pay better to buy and pay taxes on them than to buy tax-exempt bonds. Few persons can afford to put their entire reserve into government obligations. They feel the need of diversifying investments and even up on interest. Especially inviting are the short-term notes of reliable corporations which carry generous yields. While the government will probably have no difficulty in raising all the money it needs, there is likely also to be an increasing demand for the excellent senior securities now on the financial bargain counter.

Parents' Interest in Children.
Psychology pronounces the law of interest from parent to child to be true. Therefore, if parents desire their children to succeed in music or in any other subject, the surest way to obtain that success is to take more than a passing interest in their work, and see that they practice the studies which are designed to insure that success.

FOOD WILL WIN WAR

Editor,
The Houlton Times,
Dear Sir:—

"Food will win the war." Men and money are available but food and its conservation will ultimately end the war victoriously for the Allies.

Every possible effort is being made by the United States Food Administration to encourage the general public in a campaign of Food Conservation, the purpose being to enroll all of the 100,000,000 people of this nation into one big volunteer Food Conservation Army.

The campaign to save food for export is already being conducted by a carefully organized group of volunteer workers under the direction of the Federal Food Administrator of the 48 states according to plans promulgated by the National Food Administration of which Mr. Herbert Hoover is the Director.

This campaign should receive the active support of your organization and we respectfully urge you to notify your members at the earliest possible date of the present Nation-Wide Drive to encourage the saving of wheat in all forms.

The observance of Wednesday and Thursday of each week beginning September 26 and 27 and continuing during the entire period of the war as days when white bread should not be served or used is the first call upon the general public.

The appeal to release wheat flour by observance of two white breadless days each week is made because:

1st There is sufficient corn to feed our people.

2nd American people like corn bread and corn products, while our Allies, except Italy, cannot use corn because of economic conditions and customs.

3rd Corn meal is not a staple product and loss would be large in distributing to foreign people.

4th "OUR BOYS," and the ALLIED SOLDIERS need all the wheat we can save.

Your cooperation is solicited in this greatest of all Educational campaigns in "WINNING THE WAR FOR DEMOCRACY."

We also offer the suggestion at this time that on all your stationery and envelopes you print the following: "FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR. DON'T WASTE IT." And that you also recommend to all the business houses in your city to do likewise.

Yours very truly,
W. B. Moore,
Campaign Director.

Federal Food Administrator,
Leon S. Merrill.

Fireflies as Ornaments.
The bizarre dictates of fashion, which suggested carrying a monkey, or wearing a lizard or chameleon were anything but esthetic or attractive. At first blush the wearing of an insect seems repulsive, but anyone who has seen beautiful Brazilian or Creole women making use of fireflies, or cucujos, fastening them in little transparent bags of light tulle to their dresses and hair might change his mind and be entranced by the sight of these living jewels glowing in the darkness of scented gardens.

Man Should Know Truth.
Each man should learn what is within him, that he may strive to mend; he must be taught what is without him, that he may be kind to others. It can never be wrong to tell him the truth; . . . even if a fact shall discourage or corrupt him, it is still best that he should know it; for it is in this world as it is, and not in a world made easy by educational suppression, that he must win his way to shame or glory.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

IT SOUNDS LIKE FAIRY STORY SAID A HAPPY BUSINESS MAN

Hundreds of remarkable statements about Tanlac, the new reconstructive, system purifier and stomach tonic, have been given by well known people here, and the endorsement just given by Frank M. Elwell, the well known merchant of 338 Woolford street, Portland, shows that Tanlac is just as much praised in other cities. When a business man like Mr. Elwell speaks as he did, no doubt remains.

"I think, since my experience, that anybody who is ailing and does not take Tanlac is foolish," said Mr. Elwell. "I suffered from stomach trouble, catarrh of the head, rheumatism and my kidneys were also affected."

"I was in this condition for over a year and couldn't get relief. I had to be careful of what I ate and didn't dare think of eating heavy foods like beans, or corned beef and cabbage, or any greasy foods, though I craved for them. Even careful as I was I would have gas, bloating, pains and nausea after meals. My stomach got so sore I was afraid I had something that required an operation. I also had pains in my back and legs. The catarrh bothered me a lot."

"The mucus would drop in my throat and interfere with my sleep. I had all I could do to get through my day's work. I had about lost all hope when I read a Tanlac statement by another business man I knew well and whom I knew would have to be very sure he was right before he would publicly endorse a medicine."

"I started out to find him to ask him about it when I met him on the street. I asked him, though there was no need of that, for he looked so much better I could see what Tanlac had done for him."

"Tanlac is the only medicine," he told me and I went right after a bottle. At once I realized that I was on the right track, for the first dose of Tanlac reminded me of the medicine my mother used to give us children. It was made of roots, barks and herbs like Tanlac.

"I am on my second bottle now and I know it sounds like a fairy story, but my stomach feels fine. No more gas or pain. Yesterday I had corned beef and cabbage for dinner and didn't suffer at all. My catarrh has gone. My kidneys are normal and I don't have those old pains in my back and legs. I just can't say enough about Tanlac for what it has done for me."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine that receives these wonderful endorsements such as no other medicine ever has won, is being specially introduced in Houlton by the Hatheway Drug Store.

Tanlac may be obtained at H. D. Hart's, Monticello; at L. A. Barker's, Oakfield.
