North Yarmouth, July 2^d, 1862.

Gentlemen -

Mr Henry P. Herrick, a native of this town is desirous of entering the Army with some suitable Commission, and it gives me much pleasure to assure you that if a place could be given him, no efforts on his part would be omitted to discharge the duties becoming a man.

As I think I have known you his youth & a more worthy young man than him, I do not know - he is energetic - industrious, steady in his habits & has a good Constitution, & would make in what I have a fine officer, I have no doubt,

Hoping a plan may be ready for him -
I remain

Yours Truly,

To Gen Washburn
