

Small Group Health Insurance Renewals by Geographic Area

Executive Summary

June 2016

The following charts reflect the range of increases in health insurance premiums received by small employers from data provided by the carriers. The information from these charts was originally intended to illustrate the impact of PL 90 on small group health premiums. PL 90 allows geographic rate adjustments to be made without the previous limit on the combined adjustments for age and area beginning with the October 2011 renewals. Starting with January 2014, the information from these charts also reflects the impact of the Affordable Care Act (ACA). Some renewals beginning January 2014 reflect benefit changes required by the ACA as well as the rating factor changes. Other renewals represent grandfathered or transitional plans that were allowed to continue for existing policyholders only.

Rate increases can also vary significantly among different groups for reasons unrelated to the ACA. Employers whose circumstances change may see larger increases due to factors other than those associated with ACA implementation. Average base rate increases each quarter vary for each carrier depending on the experience of the business and expected trends. We have attempted to gauge the impact of PL 90 in past reports by tracking and comparing the increases from quarter to quarter. Data going forward will attempt to show the impact of the ACA on small group renewals in much the same way.

The first chart compares 1st quarter data from year to year for 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016. The percentage of rate decreases increased from 15.4% in 2013 to 45.8% in 2014, then decreased to 6.4% in 2015, and then increased to 28.6% in 2016. Another item of note is that the aggregate number of small group renewals has increased slightly after decreasing over the previous three years. The second chart gives a geographic comparison for 1st quarter 2016 renewals. Area 1 received the most decreases at 33.6% while Area 3 received the least decreases at 20.3%. There were no increases over 40% in any of the areas for 1st quarter 2016 except for one increase over 100% in Area 4 and one increase over 80% in Area 2. The third chart shows similar data as the second chart but includes the prior quarter data grouped with the 1st quarter data for better credibility. Both the second and third charts reflect similar trends, but the grouped data in the last chart indicates slightly less variance among the areas. The majority of groups (74.6% – 81% by area) received a rate increase from 0 – 20%.
