Hon J. Q. Hodsdon

I arrived in Washington June 30. Saturday evening. Next morning reported myself to Col. Perry, agreeable to your instructions.
In reply he informed me that Doctor Banks, the now acting Surgeon, ^{refused} to obey my orders, nor recognised any further right to be by the Commander in Chief of the State of Maine, He having been marshalled into the service of United States

You will readily perceive that there is some complication & desire further instruction I am ready to enter upon my duties whenever I learn what they are
