IRONS WON 17 TO 4.

CHEBEAGUE BADLY DEFEATED IN A WALKOVER GAME.

Irons Made Twenty-Three Hits off Two Pitchers.

Chebeague was badly defeated Saturday afternoon on the diamond in front of the Hill Crest, by the Irons of Portland, the score being 17 to 4. Runs were scored in all innings by the Irons, but in the fifth and last, while the four that were made by Chebeague were on errors, three of which came in the fourth inning. The Irons were in good form, having played eight games this season without losing one, though the brilliancy of their work did not wholly outclass that of the island boys. Scott was taken out of the box in the fifth inning and G. Hamilton who pitched for Chebeague last year did the twirling for the remainder of the game, but to no avail; the visitors touched his delivery for a large number of hits. Higgins, a new man at shortstop, played the star game of the day, and without doubt saved the score from being five runs higher. On the fourth of July the Irons will play two games here, and they are being looked forward to as a treat, as the Chebeague nine is out to win.

COBB'S PAVILION OPEN AT CLIFF ISLAND.

HUNDREDS OF INVITED GUESTS MADE MERRY SATURDAY EVENING.

Appreciative Gathering Enjoyed Dancing and Refreshments. Fine Decorations.

Emblazoned with bunting and embowered with potted plants, Cobb's new Restaurant and Sea Shore Pavilion at Cliff Island opened Saturday evening. It was the event of Cliff's history and from a social standpoint, the six hundred people present felt, as never before, a pride in the island its enterprising business interests as exemplified in Mr. C. M. Cobb's many improvements and projects, and the general welfare of the residents. As a matter of convenience only, this thoroughly up-to-date restaurant building will be the stepping stone to the future, which is opening so favorably for Cliff Island, and for which Mr. Cobb is building in preparation.

Saturday evening's assemblage at the head of the pier, where the restaurant is located, was composed of the island people, to whom a general invitation was issued, and augmented by summer residents and invited guests. Special music was furnished by a select orchestra, consisting of two violins and a harp and to the rhythmic strains, dancing was kept up until a late hour. Refreshments were served, ice cream and fancy cakes, soda and cigars being dispensed freely by Mr. Cobb's liberal hand. These were in charge of Mrs. Leroy H. Bragg, Mrs. C. M. Cobb and Mr. Guy O. Cobb. Seats on the veranda over the water were at a premium and the interior of the handsomely lighted building was crowded. Seats were placed on the pier and road fronting the open doors. To say that the evening was highly enjoyed and appreciated and that Mr. Cobb was given every wish for success would be only justly representing the feeling expressed by the company present. If there's anything needed in the way of good word or assistance the proprietor will certainly find it always forthcoming on Cliff Island.

The Cobb dining hall will be let for dancing parties by special arrangements and, as the far-sighted plans of the proprietor have provided for this contingency, a piano will be put in. Regular shore dinners with broiled live lobster are to be a specialty for Saturday, July 4th, and after.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING.

GEM THEATRE AT PEAKS ISLAND OPENED MONDAY EVENING WITH GREAT SUCCESS.

Every Seat Taken And a Brilliant Audiences Witnessed a Finished Performance.

The ever popular Gem Theatre at Peaks Island commenced its summer season Monday evening last with an audience that tested the seating and standing room capacity of this cozy play house. The strong society drama, The Charity Ball was the attraction, and at the close of the evening's performance, all present were ready to say that Manager C. W. T. Goding has this season the finest stock company of players ever seen in a cast at this theatre. The play was mounted with all the detail that is always given to productions at the Gem and as regards the members of the company nothing but the highest praises can be given in their favor. Miss Jane Knicker, a great favorite with all and the leading lady of this strong company, was seen at her best and her fine interpretation of the character of Ann Cruger a New York girl—left nothing to be desired. Frank Sylvester the leading man was most enthusiastically received and added many admirers by the strong acting of his part. All members of the company acquitted themselves with great credit and the performance was given with a spirit that showed careful rehearsal and preparation. The Bostonia ladies' orchestra of twelve players, led by Mrs. Belle Yeaton Renfrew, gave a delightful concert before and between the acts and their friends in the audience encored them repeatedly for their part in the success of the opening night. Altogether the first performance was a great success.

GALA DAY.

LONG ISLAND WILL BE STRONGED WITH EXCURSIONISTS ON THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Casco Bay And Harpswell Steamboat Company Are Arranging For a Fine Celebration

The Fourth of July will see the greatest number of people that ever assembled on Long Island in one day if the present plans of the Casco Bay and Harpswell Steamboat Company are carried out. The day's festivities are to commence with the rising of the sun and every hour during the day special attractions and races are scheduled to take place. Among the events offered are boat races of all kinds and field sports in abundance. The special attraction for the day will be the balloon ascension and parachute jump, which is planned for 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. The balloon used, the Majestic, is said to be the largest in this country, and this great attraction will alone serve to draw a multitude of people. Music will be furnished during the day and in the evening a great fireworks display will be given. Hotels and Clam Bakes are preparing for a great crowd and if the weather is favorable Long Island will entertain the greatest throng of people that was ever on the island in one day. The hotel and store keepers on the island have cooperated with the steamboat company and all are doing their part for the celebration of the National Holiday. The steamboat company will give ample service to and from the island all day long. Many parties from the lower islands in the bay are planning to spend the day on the island.

LITTLE DIAMOND.

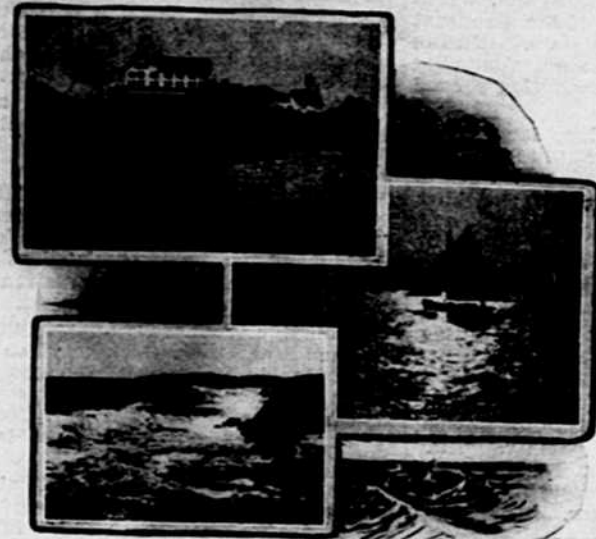

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS SPENT IN IMPROVEMENTS.

Maine Coast Realty Co.'s Casino and Restaurant Now Open.

The most extensive and important work of improving island property in Casco Bay this year has been the development of the tract of land owned by the Maine Coast Realty Company on Little Diamond Island. On a thirty-five acre plot, surrounded by water on three points of the compass and containing natural beauty surpassing description, plans drawn by a leading architect have been put into effect within a few months and at present Mr. George W. Brown, the treasurer of the Company, has announced that the new pier and casino is ready to do business.

The entire scheme or plan is to encourage the building of a high class of summer houses which are provided with gas, water, and sewerage at a place which is in the midst of Casco Bay's cool breezes, yet only 15 minutes' steamer ride from Portland. The tract acquired contained some cottages and those which were suitable will be allowed to remain, while others will be built over or torn down. The grounds and roads are nicely graded, sewers put in, and everything done to make the property an unusually advantageous one for summer residences.

of the better type. The well which supplies water was drilled during the spring months and is 495 feet deep through solid rock all but ten feet of the way and the last 20 feet in quartz. A flow of pure, and ice cold water sufficient for the island has been struck and a big main is laid to the 24000 gallon reservoir on top of Sunset Rock Hill.

A spring of specially fine water which has been developed near the casino is piped 125 feet across the beach and this water is used for the restaurant only. It passes through a coil in the refrigerator and is thus kept ice cold. Over at the Casino or restaurant building at the head of the new wharf, Mr. Brown has followed a striking plan and incorporated into the grounds a small island giving a natural grass plot fronting the water. The whole building is as modern a structure as could be devised, and when it is stated that the fish and lobsters to be cooked for a-la-carte meals are taken alive from an aquarium floating in the ocean nearby, the completeness of the methods of serving dinners may be partially understood.

The restaurant is now open and with its cool area, water surrounded, being half way down the 300 foot pier, it is sure to become a feature of Portland Harbor in itself. The seating capacity is 150 but this may be doubled by using the second floor hall. Lavatories are provided on each floor. A few rods to the east is the natural swimming tank, holding about 200,000 gallons of sea water. This is sun heated and a plunge can be taken in water of Newport temperature at any time of tide. After a little use this may be emptied and the next tide refills it automatically. No pumping is done and the bath is in the open air. An 18 room bath house fronts the beach and tank.

Mr. L. A. Payne is the resident manager for Mr. Brown and Mr. Wm. Needham is manager of the restaurant.

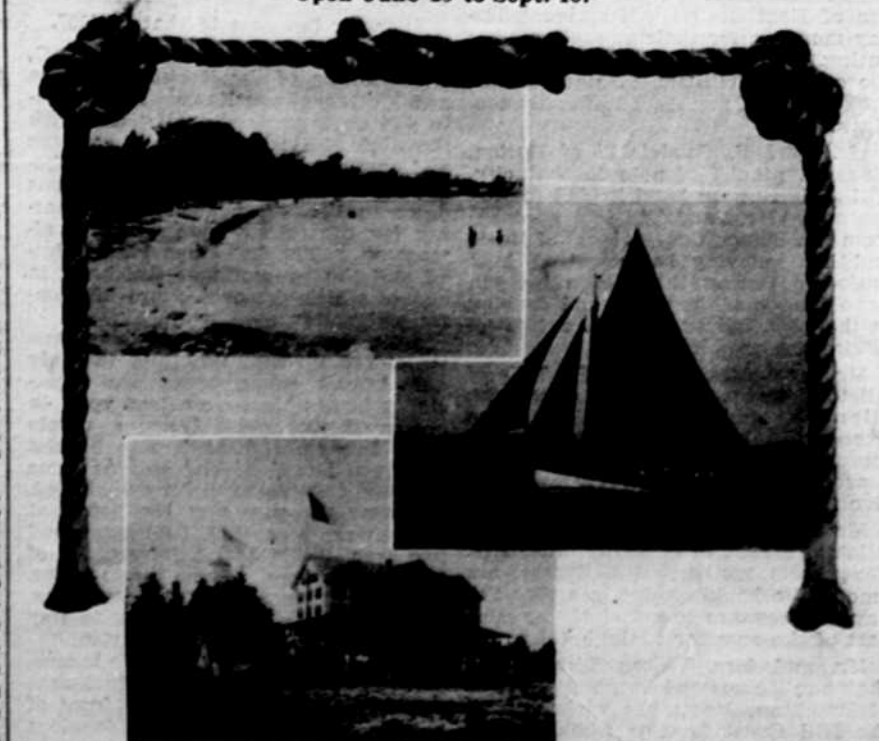

The Woodfords Free Baptist church held their annual picnic here Tuesday last. About 200 attended.

Work on the new Casino and pier of the Maine Coast Realty Co., is fast nearing completion. The sun heated bathing tank, which opens to the sea, is already finished.

STEAMER FOREST QUEEN LEASED

Should the weather conditions be favorable many no doubt will come to the island for the day.

The summer the Misses Brewster toured Europe they came to Baileys for a short visit before they went abroad.

Mr. Fred Loomis is to be here with his family this season at this summer house and he arrived on Saturday with his family and two nurse maids. They have rented the Spruce Lodge.

HILL CREST.

URDAY. MANY TO REMAIN

Dancing Party Will Be Given in the Dance Hall Saturday evening.

The masquerade dance, which was to have taken place at the new dance hall on the evening of July 4th, has been postponed for two weeks on account of lack of time in which to make the affair a success. However, an informal dancing party will be given and all the guests and summer cottagers on the island are invited to be the guests of Mr. Hamilton on that evening. A delightful evening is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bicknell and family of Dorchester, Mass., were among the arrivals of Monday last. The family are to remain until after Labor Day and will entertain many of their friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Goodman and son of Cambridge, Mass., are due to arrive Friday for a vacation that will keep them at the house until the end of July. Mr. Goodman is with the John Carter & Co., wholesale paper house of Boston, Mass.

THE HAMILTON.

NEW ARRIVALS NOTED THIS WEEK.

Hotel Now Receiving Guests Daily,
And is Booked For August As Usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cohen of New York City, who arrived Tuesday, are a charming young couple who are enjoying their honeymoon in Maine. They brought with them a most pleasant recollection of their wedding of a few days since at a country house not far from New York where hosts of friends had made merry a big house which was most profusely decorated with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Cohen will remain for some days at least.

The tennis court and grounds are being attended to and it is expected some good match games will be played during the season.

Mrs. M. P. Knowlton and Miss Elizabeth Knowlton with two others, all of Springfield, Mass., arrived Wednesday and are an appreciated addition to the Springfield Colony already on the island for the summer.

Among the Wednesday arrivals were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. County and child of St. Davids, Pa., who are no strangers to Chebeague, having spent several seasons here. Mr. and Mrs. County were at the Summit House last year.

Manager Edgar H. Paine will give weekly dancing parties on Saturday evenings after the season opens fully at the Hamilton. These socials are looked forward to as the finest dances of the Bay as the floor here is unequalled and the parlor and lobby are handsome rooms for setting off the ladies' exquisite gowns.

MERRICONEAG HOUSE.

SHORE DINNERS FOR TRANSIENT PARTIES VERY POPULAR.

Renovating Of The House is Completed.

The Merriconeag House with its ideal location and superb view is becoming more popular as the season starts in with its shore dinners for transient parties. The work of renovating the house is now entirely completed and the guests who are registering here will receive the best of attention.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Palmer and daughter, Miss Fannie and son Paul, stopped at the Merriconeag House for dinner Sunday, enroute to Poland Springs. Mr. Palmer is the managing owner of the Palmer fleet of vessels.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ledwith of Boston are registered here for two weeks.

On Saturday last there were forty-three members of the New Hampshire Newspaper Editors here for dinner. The party came in the forenoon and returned to Portland by a special trip of the Machigonne late in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cummings of New York, who have been registered here for many seasons and are among Harpswell's best known summer residents, are to return again for the summer during the early part of July. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings are both enthusiastic devotees of yachting.

Major Joseph Gildersleeve and son of New York City, arrived yesterday for an extended stay here at the Merriconeag. They are guests of several years standing. One of the Major's amusements is usually a saluting cannon which when fired always gains recognition by steamboat captains.

ROCKMERE HOUSE.

THE HOTEL AT LITTLEJOHN'S ISLAND HAS BEEN OPEN THREE WEEKS.

Outlook for July and August indicates
Superior Business to that of 1907.

At Littlejohn's Island, Proprietor G. H. Hamilton of the Rockmere House and Cottages was down from Cambridge early in the spring and with the work of finishing two new cottages and some improvements about the hotel, including a broad flight of steps down to the wharf, has been preparing for the rush season which is almost on. The hotel has been painted and the two cottages finished, in one of which the owner and his family will reside.

Several parties of guests have been registered through June and the July and August engagements are appreciably larger than even last year. In one mail this week fourteen people were booked. A handsome booklet has been issued which contains some striking cuts never before published.

Among the guests at the hotel at present are Mrs. P. J. Darlington and two sons, Philip J. and Sidney, Jr., of Kennett Square, Penn.; also Mrs. Margaret B. Jackson of the same city. They are here for an indefinite stay and were registered on the 15th.

The new 32 foot power launch, Esther, which carries the Rockmere pennant, is to be moored in front of the wharf this week. She develops 13 horsepower and will seat thirty people comfortably, beside having cabin room sufficient for protection. She was built at the D. P. Smetts shops at Bailey Island.

PEAKS ISLAND HOUSE.

HAVERRILL COMMANDERY, K. T.
HAD A TWO DAYS' OUTING
LAST WEEK.

Notes of Guests and Other House Jottings of Interest.

Among the well known Boston people to arrive during the past week were Mrs. Cecelia Sullivan and her charming young daughter, Miss Cecelia, who were registered Saturday. They will be joined in August by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sullivan and child of the same city, who will remain until the close of the season. Mr. Sullivan is of the J. A. & D. A. Sullivan firm of domestic importers of Atlantic avenue.

Mr. John McCrillis and daughter, Miss Mary McCrillis of Dorchester, Mass., arrived Monday and will be season guests as usual. Mr. McCrillis is chief trustee-officer of the City of Boston. His popularity as a promoter of social occasions, whilst and card parties at the hotel is well known and his services at these affairs are much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Boston, who have spent five seasons at the Peaks Island House, were among the Saturday arrivals. Mr. Campbell is a traveling man and says Peaks is the best yet for rest and recreation.

Mrs. Belle Yeaton Renfrew, the accomplished and most popular director of the Gem orchestra is again summering at the hotel. Her winter season, after many important engagements with College, Educational and Carnegie Library courses and the Redpath Bureau bookings, ended as usual with the offer of a full summer's contract in New York, but Mrs. Renfrew finds that the season at Peaks, while less remunerative, offers a restful change of scene and with twelve players at the Gem Theatre, she is giving patrons of that playhouse a rare opportunity to hear classical and popular weekly programs. In making up these programs, which are arranged on Wednesday for the following week, Mrs. Renfrew will be glad to honor requests for selections and this privilege will be often taken advantage of during the summer by her many admirers and friends.

The Haverhill Commandery, K. T., numbering eighty, spent several days here last week during the conclusion of Knights in Portland. Manager Rowe met the commandery in Dover and when they arrived each room was ready and the baggage already in, a demonstration of system which gave no small satisfaction to men who are accustomed to the usual confusion incident to a large party's arrival at any hotel. During their stay the Haverhill Band, twenty-four players, gave several concerts and furnished music for two dances in a most finished manner. A pleasant diversion which will be long remembered, was the strenuous effort of a few of the Knights to exemplify the working of a new and untried degree. Although Manager Rowe and several others passed the ordeal, it is likely their experience will prevent a general adoption of the feature as a permanent one. The special sign of this degree however seemed to "take" immensely. It was given by the Commandery as a parting salute on the final parade up Congress street, but was of course understood only by the initiated few.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson of Auburn, who are making the hotel their summer home for the seventh season, were among the Saturday guests and are now enjoying life at Peaks.

The Ely orchestra, which has given such unalloyed satisfaction as the Peaks Island House orchestra for several seasons, is composed of Marie Zelensky Ely, violin; D. Jennie Howe, piano and Shirley M. Hot, cello. The music at Sunday's concert was of the usual high order. The program of seven numbers included several classical selections and was most highly appreciated by the guests.

The Bowery Beach Magazine Club was at the house at dinner, Tuesday.

Mr. Louis N. Kamber of Portland is registered as a season guest. Mr. Kamber has been coming to the hotel for five seasons past and from here makes daily business trips to the city. He is proprietor of the American Clothing Co., of 255 Middle street.

Mrs. Carolyn Hittinger of Boston, who spent August here last summer, was down for a few days recently and will return after the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Fagan of Newark, N. J., are registered for a few weeks. They are new comers to Peaks Island, but are among a large number of Newark people who make Casco Bay their destination in summer.

Bailey Island

Mrs. Xanthus Smith and daughter, Miss Pollie Smith, Philadelphia, are at their beautiful summer home at the east end. Mr. Smith will not be here until later and will be on the island as soon as his business permits. Mr. Smith's two sons, Xanthus, Jr., and George R. Smith, made the trip from their home in Philadelphia in the automobile and arrived on Friday after having a most successful journey for the number of miles covered.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Stevens of Chelsea, Mass., opened their cottage near the east end the latter part of last week and were joined by their daughter, Miss Ruth Stevens. This is their second season at Bailey's and last year they were occupants of the same cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were one of the many sufferers by the loss of property in the recent Chelsea conflagration and were unable to save much of their household goods as the fire spread rapidly.

Miss Annie Pletts, who has been teaching the grammar school grades at the local island school, left for her home at Brunswick for the summer. Miss Pletts boarded with Mrs. Lewis Doughty at the east end during the school term.

Baileys is doing well this season in the "June Bride line," and if the summer closes as it has opened and as some of our lads and lassies have apparently planned, the autumn leaves will be reluctant to "fade away." Among the latest on the list are Mr. and Mrs. Luther I. Bonney both of Turner Center, Maine. Mrs. Bonney was formerly Miss Kathryn Bigelow and with her parents has for many seasons occupied the Driftwood cottage in Little Harbor. She is a graduate of Leavitt Institute and later a teacher in the Lewiston Normal School. Mr. Bonney is also a resident of Baileys and has for several seasons occupied the Turner cottage. He is a graduate of Leavitt Institute and later a graduate of Bates College and now is a teacher of Greek in Deane Academy, Franklin, Mass. Mr. Bonney's friends all agree with him he has found a "bonnie bride" and will all do their best to supply plenty of sweet clover to make life sunny for the "Bonney's."

Mr. Bernard Johnson has been seriously ill with bronchitis. It was feared he would develop pneumonia and for several days he kept his bed.

Mrs. Sarah B. Estabrook and daughter Antoinette arrived on the night boat Friday, June 25, for the season. They are at their delightful summer cottage here.

Miss Margaret Black, who has been teaching in the public schools on Orr's Island, returned home last week. Miss Black will again have charge of the Post office during the summer season.

Mrs. J. L. Seward of Malden Row with her daughter, Christina, and other friends spent Monday at the Gurnet.

Rev. Charles Oliphant and family of Lawrence, Mass., arrived Monday afternoon. They are comfortably settled in Mrs. J. R. Johnson's house.

A party of young people from Lewiston and Turner Center are expected at the Turner cottage to spend July 4th.

Ralph Sprague, the popular purser of the Casco Bay and Harpswell line, is now purser on the steamer Machigonne for the season. Mr. Sprague is a student at Bowdoin Medical College at Brunswick. Last season Mr. Sprague was purser of the Aucoisco and by his courteous attention to the wants of the patrons of this line, he made many friends, all of whom are glad to see him with us again this season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cross and daughter, Miss Burbridge Cross, and also Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Starbuck and son, Lawrence, Jr., all of Washington, D. C., are at the new cottage, "Afterglow," of Mr. Cross on the shore front. They are to spend the entire season here at Bailey Island.

The Misses Gillinder of Philadelphia are occupying the Charles York cottage at the east end for the summer.

Miss Gertrude M. Partridge of New-tonville, Mass., who was here at Bailey's during the greater part of last season, has been visiting at Old Orchard and yesterday arrived on the island to spend the summer at the Seaside and Cottage, the same as last year. Miss Partridge is an artist of note at china painting and recently has been studying painting with water colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter with Miss Flora Smith of Lewiston, opened their cottage, the "Rosemont," on Summer Hill for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Potter have occupied their cottage here for several seasons.

Mr. George Gray Barnard, the world famous sculptor, is honoring Bailey's Island with a few weeks' visit, after which he will go to Paris where he will resume work once more. Mr. Barnard has the contract for the Harpsburg, Pa., capitol and is doing work that will surpass anything in the past. Both Mr. and Mrs. Barnard are residents of New York. Mrs. Barnard who was formerly Miss Monroe, is a native of Virginia. With them are their two children, Miss Vivian and Master Monroe Barnard and later they will be joined by Mr. Barnard's brother-in-law, Mr. Eric Pape the artist and illustrator of Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Besaw of Bath, Me., were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Sunday of last week.

Mr. Fred L. Berry of Wayne, Me., is visiting Mr. James G. Stetson, who conducts Bailey's Island up-to-date ice cream parlor and souvenir store.

Mrs. Preston W. Strong and daughter, Virginia, of New York, have registered at the Woodbine and Cottage for the summer months.

THE GOLD PARK MINING CO.

of GOLD PARK, situated in LANDER
COUNTY, NEVADA

Capital $1,000,000. Full Paid and Non-Assessable

OFFER AN ATTRACTIVE AND SAFE MINING INVESTMENT

The Gold Park Properties of Gold Park, Nevada, consist of three WELL-DEVELOPED U. S. Patented Gold Mines, and eight additional Claims, comprising 290 ACRES OF HIGHLY GOLD MINERALIZED PROPERTIES.

Secure this valuable stock now selling at PAR $1.00 (having advanced nearly 200 per cent since October, 1907), and ENJOY THE DIVIDENDS THIS SUMMER, which will be paid monthly and CONTINUOUSLY—A new complete NISSEN TEN-TON STAMP MILL just installed, with "trailing" capacity of 30 TONS DAILY TO EACH STAMP, 3 SHIFTS, 8 Hours each. No fluctuations.

NO MINES IN THE HISTORY OF AMERICA HAVE EVER SHOWN MORE TANGIBLE EVIDENCE OF ENORMOUS WEALTH, OR PROMISED MORE IMMEDIATE DIVIDEND RETURNS, THAN ARE SHOWN TODAY IN THE "GOLD PARK" PROPERTIES. THESE MINES COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH THE BONANZA MINES OF THIS COUNTRY AS TO APPRECIATION OF STOCK AND DIVIDEND-EARNING POWER. Assays (20 in number) recently made on ores now to be reduced thousands of tons of high grade ore mined and operations with new mill begun.

Direct all communications and make all checks and P. O. orders payable to M. WOODBURY SAWYER, President, Gold Park Mining Company, Suite 212, 43 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Tel. 2626 Hay. Home Address, Suite Westminster. Call or send for Prospectus and SEE COMPANY'S GUARANTEE.

WILL JUMP TO FIVE DOLLARS PER SHARE VERY SOON

Experts Declare That Gold Park Mining
Co. Has One of the Most Valuable Properties in Nevada.

Very interesting and authentic information relating to the Gold Park Mining Company's properties, at the time of their acquisition, taken from "The Tonopah Miner," Saturday, July 25, 1908, with an accompanying letter from a noted mining engineer and expert, H. W. Hammond, to Fred B. Pitney, Vice-President and General Manager at mines. The requisite points alluded to in Engineer Hammond's letter met the approval of Mr. Pitney and the Gold Park Management, and have been followed out to the letter, there being now installed a complete Nissen ten-ton stamp mill. With assays on ores now being mined running from $84 to $234 and upwards, and negotiations being entered into for the immediate installation of seven additional Nissen ten-ton stamps, the Gold Park Mining Company stockholder, or prospective stockholder is certainly to be congratulated. The Gold Park Mining Company stock now selling at par, $1.00 per share, having increased nearly 200% since October last, with its next jump, sell at not less than $5.00 per share, with monthly dividends declared. A limited amount of this most valuable stock remains yet to be sold. Secure what you can of it and enjoy the dividends this summer. Write or send for prospectus.

THE GOLD PARK DISTRICT ACTIVE.

Austin, Nev., July 23, 1908.—The old Gold Park district, which is situated in Lander county, forty miles westerly from Austin, the nearest railway terminal, is coming to the front once more. The original Gold Park property has been taken up by Washington, D. C., capitalists, after a careful sampling of the ores. The property consists of three claims and a mill-site, all patented, and five other claims and a townsite. On the property there is a ten-stamp mill, with sufficient water to run fifty stamps. The workings on the patented claims, consisting of tunnels, winzes, upraises and drifts, aggregated over 3000 feet, giving at the most a depth of 250 feet, from which a profit of more than $300,000 was taken in the early days. By driving in the main drift a depth of 700 feet can be gained. Very little stopping has been done. The mines were closed down on account of bad management. The ore in sight shows an average of $50, assays ranging all the way from $5 to $425. The ore is free milling, and with a mill already on the ground and an abundance of wood and water, the property should be a great money-maker.

The Gold Park Mining Company, the present owner, since taken possession has put twenty-five men to work, and by August 1st will have the mine and mill running full blast, and hopes by the first of the year to add ten stamps to the mill. The formation is trachyte, with porphyry and quartz dikes. The hills are very steep, making mining cheap, and with the extension of the Nevada Central railroad, which has been surveyed through the valley where this property is situated, all supplies and machinery can be placed on the ground at low cost.

Goldfield, Nevada, July 7, 1907.
H. W. Hammond, Mining Engineer,
Goldfield, Nevada, to Fred B. Pitney, V. P. & Gen. Mgr.
Gold Park Mining Company, Austin, Nevada.

Dear Sir:—In response to your inquiry as to my opinion of the Gold Park properties, which I have visited several times and examined with some care, I beg to state that in my view your urgent need is a small new mill to enable the ore now available, in the most economical manner, and take care of your future production of them, through future development, pay expenses as you go along, but will give you the money to develop your property adequately, and in a large manner, and should soon put you in the dividend paying class.

I would recommend for your use Nissen stamps and Wilfley concentrators, both for their efficiency and cheapness in operation. One Nissen stamp should handle about ten tons of your ore a day, and a battery of four should give you a very nice production. As you know, The Boston Consolidated Mining Company, after extended experiments has adopted the Nissen stamp for its new three thousand ton plant at Garfield, Utah, and now has become one of the great camps of the state.

Mr. John Ray is on a three weeks' trip to New York and other cities. When Mr. Ray first came to this island he purchased a motor boat which was at the time, without a name. After cruising about the bay for several weeks, and meeting with the small disasters to which every new "motor-boat" is heir, he finally selected a name for his boat, and there appeared on her bow the word "Trouble." Wishing later to have a larger boat he purchased a beautiful model, one of the best in these waters. All thought to see some poetic name on this new boat but after running her for a few weeks, Mr. Ray, much to the amusement of all his friends had this name painted—"More Trouble." And so they are known all over the bay as "Trouble and More Trouble."

The cottages are filling fast, and at the end of this week nearly all of them will be full. Mrs. John Clark of Boston is at the Waumbek for July. Mr. C. N. Newhall made a flying trip to Boston this week.

Miss Farrar's Story.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, the young prima donna, was present at a Lenten luncheon of debutantes in New York.

Miss Farrar told the debutantes that there was happiness in work. She urged work upon all of them. Work, she said, would preserve them from degenerating into such a type as Mrs. Rose of Melrose.

"Mrs. Rose's type is too familiar," she said. "To show you the sort she is:

"Mr. Rose came home from business. Mrs. Rose lay on a couch. He sat down by her side and said:

"What did the doctor say, dear?" "He asked me to put out my tongue," murmured Mrs. Rose.

"Yes?"

"And he looked at it and said 'Overworked.'"

"Mr. Rose heaved a long sigh of relief."

"Then, my dear," he said firmly, "you'll have to give it a rest. I have perfect confidence in that doctor."

New York Journal.

The Brusque Host.

George Conklin, the famous animal trainer, was talking to a reporter at the circus in New York.

"The secret of animal training is gentleness. Nothing sudden or brusque must be done. An unexpected caress may anger an animal more than a kick in the ribs."

"Sudden, brusque, unexpected things never go, no matter how well they are meant. Once I was showing in Scotland."

Mr. Conklin smiled.

"We trainers," he said, "supped one night with a Scotch admirer. The old man was the soul of hospitality, but I admit I was rather startled when he leaned toward me and said:

"Stick in, man Conklin, stick in. Yer friend Coot's two muffs aheid o'ye."—Washington Star.

REMEMBER THIS.

When you go into the country, make up your mind that you are going into God's great gallery of charm and beauty to enjoy yourself and to see what you can get out of it. Resolve that you will come home laden with riches that no money can buy; that you are going to extract from the landscape—from the mountains, the valleys, the fields, and the meadows—a wealth which does not inhere in the dollar.

Learn to drink in beauty and health at every pore. Try to realize that the flowers, the grass, the trees, the brooks, the hills—the charm and beauty everywhere—are God's smiles; that they are for him only who can appreciate them, who can respond to them, who can appropriate their message. They can not be bought; they belong only to him who can enjoy them.—Success Magazine.

Sea bathing is now really fine. The temperature of the water is as high as it is the last of July ordinarily and the number of bathers is constantly on the increase.

The clambake pavilion at Long Island is doing more business than ever. Is this not an evidence of the result of judicious advertising, coupled with business ability? Long Island has had a very satisfactory growth in popularity and it bids fair to continue.

Little Diamond Island is now provided with a water supply and a gas plant. This will give it a new start in the field as a coming summer resort nearby Portland. The lots are said to be selling rapidly to an excellent class of people who will build expensive cottages.

The Breeze tide cards are being sent out for July. They are neat and handy and the demand for them is so large that the publishers have not only mailed copies in bundles to hotels, but have sent numbers of the cards to bay people who have sent in requests for them. They are free.

Chebeague Island is to be treated to a concert by its own band Saturday night. The people of the island should see to it that the money needed to give the players encouragement is forthcoming. The concert is to be given on the grounds at Hill Crest.

People who wish to travel back and forth between the islands are confused when they try to work out their schedule from the steamer time tables. If the running time of each steamer could be published it would save a lot of brain work and probably be the means of putting more money in the company's pocket.

Chebeague Island has one of the very few and in fact the only winning baseball nine in Casco Bay. There is great credit due the boys for the interest they manifest and the two games weekly on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons form no small part of the amusement for the summer visitors as well as the island people during the months of July and August. The attendance so far as regards numbers has been most praiseworthy, but the funds secured are not so satisfactory. When one considers the excellent game of ball which the home team usually put up it is not too much to expect that there should be no person not interested enough in the national sport to contribute the regular admission fee of twenty-five cents, which goes towards paying the expenses of the visiting team as well as the running expenses of the home nine. At each of the games played to date the total collections have not exceeded twenty dollars, this sum not being sufficient to meet the expenditures. We trust the team will receive the support it certainly deserves.

A COMMUNICATION

SUGGESTION FOR ORRS ISLAND'S PROSPERITY.

It is for the vital interest of every person living on Orrs Island or who owns property there to not only wish Orrs Island well, but to act together for the good of the island.

It is a mistake, everybody says who has the experience to know, not to advertise the various kinds of business already established or which is likely to be established as publicity has made all the other islands in the Bay build up.—Charles E. Davis.

How to Make an Excursion Boat.

Get a pot of paint, some pine boards and an abandoned engine. Also a keg of spikes and two smokestacks large enough to hold a red emblem.

Put your boat together very carefully, seeing that all the pieces fit onto the keel. After it is all ready shake it lightly to see it doesn't fall apart. Then place it gracefully on the surface of the bay.

It is quite possible that it may leak at first. If so, fill the cracks with laundry soap.

Now for the fittings. Put a couple of cheval glasses in your cabin and a toothbrush attached to a chain in the wash-room. Buy at auction some life-preserver coats and fill them with breakfast foods. In case of accidents you are thus providing the passengers with nourishment.

After you have selected your captain and crew, secure permission from the proper authorities to run the boat loaded to the guards with women and children. This can easily be done—provided you have the necessary cash.—Life.

French Chemical Scarecrow.

According to recent experiments by Stanislas Tetard, a widely known French agriculturist, wheat and other cereals can be protected against the ravages of crows, which are particularly fond of the grain when its sprouts are just pushing above the ground, by treating the seeds, before they are sown with a mixture of coal tar, petroleum and phenic acid.

This treatment, which delays the growth of the seed for a day or two, but causes no damage, imparts an odor which is insufferable to the crows, but which disappears after sprouts have attained a larger growth when they are no longer subject to attack.—London Globe.

The population of the world is now estimated to be about 1,503,000,000. Of this number 150,000,000 are black, 600,000,000 yellow and 750,000,000 white.

GUESSING CHARACTER.

How People of Various Professions Have Done It.

There can be little doubt that close observation of people, and ability to read their character and their thoughts is of immense value in trade and commerce, especially for a shop assistant or salesman in persuading people to buy goods, or in detecting would be swindlers. It is said that you can tell a man's character from the way he wears his hat. If it is slightly on one side, the wearer is good natured; if it is worn very much on the side, he is a swaggerer; if on the back of his head, he is bad at paying his debts; while if worn straight on the top, he is probably honest, but very dull.

The way a man or woman walks is often a very good guide to character. Witness the fussy, swaggering little man, paddling along with short steps, with much arm action; the nervous man's jerky stride; the slow slouch of the loafer; the smooth-going and silent step of the scout and so on.

"I was once accused," says Lieut. Gen. Baden-Powell, from whose work on "Scouting for Boys" this information is taken, "of mistaking men with waxed mustaches. Well, so, to a certain extent, I do. It often means vanity and sometimes drink. Certainly, the 'quiff' or lock of hair which some lads wear on their foreheads is a sure sign of silliness."

Apart from being of extreme interest and value to boys, the advice which the redoubtable "B. P." gives on the art of judging character by keeping your eyes open should be of much service to grown-ups. You can generally tell from a person's boots whether he is rich or poor.

"I once was able," says the famous soldier, "to be of service to a lady who was in poor circumstances, as I had guessed it from noticing, while walking behind her, that, though she was well dressed, the soles of her shoes were in the last stage of disrepair. I don't suppose she ever knew how I guessed that she was in a bad way."

"But it is surprising how much of the sole of the boot you can see when behind a person walking—and it is equally surprising how much meaning you can read from that boot. It is said to wear out soles and heels equally is to give evidence of business capacity and honesty; to wear your heels down on the outside means that you are a man of imagination and love of adventure; but heels worn down inside signify weakness and indecision of character, and this last sign is more infallible in the case of a man than in that of woman."

"It is an amusing practice when you are in a railway carriage or omnibus with other people to look only at their feet and guess without looking any higher what sort of people they are, old or young, well-to-do or poor, fat or thin, and so on, and then look up and see how near you have been to the truth."

"Mr. Nat Goodwin, the American actor once described to me how he went to see a balloon ascend at a time when he happened to be suffering from a stiff neck. He was only able to look down instead of up—and he could see only the feet of the people around him in the crowd, so he chose among the feet those that he felt sure belonged to an affable, kind-hearted man who would describe to him what the balloon was doing."

"I was speaking with a detective not long ago, about a gentleman who had both been talking to, and we were trying to make out his character. I remarked, 'Well, at any rate, he is a fisherman, but my companion could not see why; but then he was not a fisherman himself. I had noticed a lot of little tufts of cloth sticking upon the top of his coat.'

"A good many fishermen, when they take their flies off the line, stick them into their cap to dry; others stick them into their sleeve. When dry they pull them out, which often tears a thread or two of the cloth."—Tit-Bits.

Insomnia.

Insomnia is the not uncommon fate of the brain-worker who, after years of continuous mental strain, retires from active life. The reason is that mental activity demands a large supply of blood for the brain, and the blood vessels gradually accommodate themselves to this large supply. But, when the hard work is over, the brain does not always realize that it needs less nourishment, and hence the condition of excessive mental activity which is what insomnia is.—Letter in London Mail.

Work of Watch Wheels. The main wheel of a watch makes 460 revolutions a year, the central wheel 8760, the third wheel 70,000, the fourth 525,600 and the escape wheel 731,860.

SOME AGED BRIDEGROOMS.

Well Known Men Who Wed When Far Advanced in Years.

Social records give several instances of ancient bridegrooms. The list is headed by the Earl of Wemyss. He was born in 1818, and when about 82 took as his second wife the handsome dark haired Miss Grace Blackburn. Then the Earl of Mount Edgcombe married at 74, taking as his second spouse his cousin Caroline, Countess of Ravensworth. And the wedding of the late Marquis of Donegal at the age of 80 made an event of December, 1902.

Baronets seem set on making second or third marriages after they have become octogenarians. In 1906 Sir Hector Hay, at the age of 85, took to wife Mrs. Fordyce, widow of Major Fordyce of Aberdeen, and in the same year Sir James Langrishe, when 82 years old, married as his second wife Miss Algitha Gooch, only sister of Sir Daniel Gooch.

Also in 1906 Sir Robert Turing, at the age of 79, married Mrs. Herbert Ramus, a niece of Lord Congleton, and Sir Henry Vavasour when well over the allotted span married Miss Alice Codrington, a cousin of the Duke of Beaufort. Sir Henry is now nearly 94, keeps well in mind and body, and makes long trips to the Continent.

The late Sir Charles Tennant (father of Mrs. Asquith) took a second wife when well on in the 70s, and a child was born to him when he was 80 years old.—From Tit-Bits.

Noise.

Noise, at first cultivated in this land by the Indians, has reached its climax in the college yell. It is used at political conventions, at christenings and at women's clubs.

No monument was necessary for the man who first invented noise. His work lives after him.

Noise is used by cities, which have the first call for it. They split it up into as many sounds as possible and divide it among all.

Noise varies in its volume and intensity, from embryonic and immature sawmill to a baby crying in the night.—Life.

An Emperor Obeyed.

While the Emperor (Nicholas I) was in Moscow witnessing a performance of "Lucia di Lammermoor" at the splendid opera-house, one of the largest in the world, a fire broke out and the theatre was burned to the ground.

The emperor calmly told the Governor-General: "I shall return here next year on the same day; I shall expect to find the opera-house rebuilt exactly as it was before, and I shall listen to a performance of 'Lucia' by the same company"—and he was obeyed.—From "The Court of Russia" by E. A. Brayley Hodgkiss.

Women Doctors.

It is a real grievance that students of the London School of Medicine for Women should have to go to Edinburgh or Dublin for a college diploma. There is, of course, the University of London, and some women have done well there. But the medical degrees of the London University are for the few.—British Medical Journal.

A Dog's Artificial Ear.

A shoemaker of Philadelphia has a dog which recently had one of its ears cut off by a tramcar. The dog is a pet, and therefore it has been supplied with an artificial ear made of leather and covered with curly brown hair to give it a natural appearance.—Home Notes.

A Suggestion.

A Boston gentleman has, out of sympathy, married a woman who was knocked down by his motor car, and had a leg amputated. We believe that if this kind of thing were made obligatory by law, we should hear of fewer people being run over.

Boy Was an Observer.

"What is the best place in which to keep fresh milk in hot weather?" asked the teacher. "Please, teacher, in the cow," answered the small boy who had just returned from a country holiday.

No Room for Him in the Parlor. "Briggs says he spends most of his time at home in the kitchen."

"I wonder why?" "I believe he said his wife was a 'parlor socialist.'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hydrophobia Extirpated. Hydrophobia has been extirpated in England. The method is simple but vigorous. The owners of dogs are compelled to keep them muzzled, if they are allowed to run abroad, or, if they are taken out unmuzzled, the owner is obliged to keep them in leash. A quarantine is strictly enforced against the importation of dogs from other countries until their exemption from disease is thoroughly established. The thorough enforcement of these precautionary measures for a few years past has made rabies impossible in England. Both men and dogs are safe in that country. The apparent hardship of the experiment is fully justified by the resulting good. Similar laws should be made and enforced in this country.—Philadelphia Record.

Littlejohn's I.

Among those owning motor boats and power launches at Littlejohn's and Cousin's Islands are Mr. Peter F. O'Brien of Allston, Mass., who takes great pride in the "Peter F."; Mr. Thomas Spear of Melrose, Mass., who owns and runs the new "Ray View"; Frank Dickerman, of Boston, whose 55-footer "Minna" is the trim craft of the inner bay, and has both speed and comfort; and Mr. Gilbert H. Hamilton, of Cambridge, who has just received a 32-foot boat, the "Esther," new from the shop. All these are on Littlejohn's Island. At Cousin's Island there are no less than five fast power boats. Harold S. Sawyer owns a nice one, also Silas Hamilton. Alfred C. Drinkwater, Raymond Talbot, and Seth Groves are all motor boat owners, and do much pleasure and business sailing in them. Many of these boats can go to Portland in less than steamboat time.

The wharf at Littlejohn's is to be broadened on the front, and a freight agent is wanted at once. The Seaboard, which lies here over night, is the largest boat which has ever made regular trips to this landing, and with the other large boats coming during the day at intervals a wider wharf is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Deffen of Brookline, Mass., arrived at the Shepard cottage Saturday last.

Mr. Colton Hicks and family have arrived for the season and are at their pleasantly located cottage on the foreshore.

Mrs. Edgar A. Dunn and family, Miss Henrietta Pierce and Miss Lena Holden, of West Somerville, are stopping at the "Idle Wilde" for the season.

Mrs. A. M. Ames, Mrs. Fullerton, and Mrs. Marshall of Boston have arrived at the Arcade.

Mrs. Orange Smith, Miss Edith Smith and Mrs. Smith's two grandchildren, Margaret and Rebecca Bird, arrived at their cottage for the summer Monday last.

Capt. Amos Cummings is preparing his bowling alleys for the season which is expected to be a busy one.

Mrs. George A. Willis and two children of Dorchester arrived on the island Saturday, and have taken a cottage near the Rockmere for the summer.

Misses M. E. and A. M. Hall of Malden are among the arrivals of the past week. They have rooms at the Arcade.

Mrs. George Chamberlin, Mrs. T. H. Kingston, Mr. Ralph and Miss Edith T. Kingston, of Malden, Mass., are at the Kingston cottage for the season.

Miss Huningwood, who was ill, is reported as more comfortable. The Rev. S. S. Huningwood of Arlington, Mass., spent Sunday on the island at the Prescott cottage.

SHEARING THE SHEEP.

Machinery Used on Western Ranches—Example for Wall Street.

Hustling nomads who travel northward from early spring until late summer, men who combine the joys of the trail with periods of fiercely energetic labor, are the sheep shearers of the West. Two thousand miles is not too far for them to go between the first and last job of the season—all the way from Southern California to a ranch in Manitoba. They are wealthy enough from their earnings to travel in Pullmans if they wish and play the role of tourists visiting the country while actually being wage earners seeking new jobs. They may wire ranch owners that they are on the way, and the employers hasten to prepare for their reception with choice food and quarters, as if they were honored guests. Without their skilled labor the wool crop could not be coined into gold and thirty-two million sheep west of the Missouri River would shrink to the value of spring lamb served in Eastern boarding houses.

The shearer does not put on the airs of the cowboy, whom he has largely superseded, but he is a soldier citizen and has a proper pride in his feats of skill and endurance. There is an emulation in removing fleeces like that attributed to operators in Wall Street, yet the work is wholesome and beneficial to all hands concerned, including the sheep. Policy itself prevents the shearer drawing too much blood, because he remembers that more wool will be wanted next year. There is a hand method and a machine method of taking off the clip, the latter being more economical and expeditious. Thomas W. Lawson has lately indorsed the machine system of finance, which supports agricultural experience. The champion shearer of the United States is not as well known as might be. His name is C. M. Marquis, and his record of 320 sheep stripped in eight hours, at Two Dot, Mont., several years ago, has never been equalled. This was at the rate of one sheep in a minute and a half, and the champion did not stop even when taking a drink from a glass held to his lips. It takes a man of iron constitution to be a first class shearer. He has to remain in a stooping position during the entire process of removing a fleece, whether using hand shears or the whirling machine tool that is like a barber's safety clipper. The variation in the weight of fleeces has its effect on the shearer's output. The best ranges in Oregon, Montana and Wyoming will average an 8-pound fleece, full of natural oil, while the sheep from the desert will not average over five.

Ten dollars a day is the average earning of the expert shearer, who may be a former cowboy, a Mexican or a so-called "kangaroo" hailing from Australia. The social rank of the Mexican is often forgotten, in view of his economic position, and the citizens of Red Gulch will consent to drink at his expense and listen to the news he brings from down South or across the Canada line. If there was ever a popular movement to lynch the "greaser" for a real or imaginary offence its climax would surely be postponed until all the sheep were clipped. It is important to get the sheep sheared at the right time.

On large ranges where power is used, there are long sheds, and shafting extends down both sides of the shearing place. About twenty shearers are lined up in one shed, each man operating a clipping machine connected with the shafting. The sheep are brought in from the range in comparatively small lots of 2500 and put into corrals, whence they are driven down chutes to the shearers. A dazed sheep is grabbed by the neck, flung into a sitting posture between the shearer's legs and deprived of its coat of wool in a few minutes. The fleeces are stuffed into bags holding four hundred pounds, and many of them are shipped to warehouses at Billings, Mont.—New York Tribune.

Remarkable Cure of Pneumonia.

Dr. M. R. Combs, one of Terre Haute's best-known physicians, is recovering from pneumonia, and the medical fraternity say that his life was saved by heroic treatment of which there is no record of a like case. A freezing water bath was given him at the moment he was thought to be dying to shock the respiratory centres and thus restore respiration. Cold water baths in cases of fever are frequently administered to lower the temperature, but Dr. Combs' temperature was normal. He was kept in the bath three hours. The death rattle ceased after a short time following the immersion and respiration soon became stronger.

The entire staff of Union Hospital had been interested and assisted in the fight for his life when, at the critical stage, Dr. Niblack suggested the ice water bath.—Indianapolis News.

Alligator Pear Here.

One of the novelties with which the dealers in fruits are tempting palates these days is the alligator pear, or avocado, an import from South America. The first thing that occurs to a person seeing this fruit for the first time is to wonder why it is called an "alligator pear," or a "pear" at all, for that matter. In general appearance it resembles far more closely a giant green fig, its skin sprinkled thickly with tiny black spots, to which the qualifying half of its name may, perhaps, be due.

When divided the resemblance to a pear vanishes altogether. From the centre is taken a black pit, as large as an egg leaving the fruit much like a muskmelon cut in half. The meat is a light pink in color, and possesses a delicate flavor suggestive of peanut butter, but totally free from oiliness. The halves are served as they are cut, to be peppered and salted to taste, with the addition of olive oil to complete the salad.—New York Sun.

Polk Miller's Story.

Mr. Polk Miller, of Richmond, blew into the editorial office of the Almanack like a fresh breeze from the South a few days ago, and was promptly asked, of course, for the latest dinky story in Virginia. He said it was about substituting a wild turkey for a tame turkey. One of his friends bought a turkey from old Uncle Ephraim and asked him, in making the purchase, if it was a tame turkey. "Oh, yais, sir, it's a tame turkey of right." "Now, Ephraim, are you sure it's a tame turkey?" "Oh, yais, sir; a tame turkey of right." He consequently bought the turkey, and a day or two later when eating it he came across several shot. Later on when he met old Ephraim on the street he said: "Well, Ephraim, you told me that was a tame turkey, but I found some shot in it, when I was eating it." "Oh, dat was a tame turkey of right," was Uncle Ephraim's reiterated rejoinder, "but de fac, is, bass, I've gwine to tell yer in confidence dat ere shot was intended for me."—Advertiser's Almanack.

Seating capacity at tables 150, and this can be increased to 250 when conditions demand it

THE CASINO is situated on Shell Island which is a part of Little Diamond; only being removed from it by a sand bar that is covered only at extreme high tides. It is the beauty spot of Casco Bay and is within 10 minutes sail of Custom House Wharf. It is an ideal summer watering place and, with the addition of a system of water works, sewage, gas plant, SUN HEATED SEA BATHS, lawn tennis court and croquet grounds, is, by all odds, the finest development in the real estate line that has ever become a fact within the limits of Casco Bay, or of Portland itself. It is owned by an incorporated company that is pledged to conduct it cleanly and above board. No violation of law will be tolerated, either in liquor or short lobsters. The already made improvements amounting to some $15,000.00, exclusive of the new wharf which cost $1,600.00 more. All roads and avenues, shores and flats are the private property of the Maine Coast Realty Company and no dispositive property is allowed upon the property. The concessions are the exclusive property of the company and all persons peddling, trading and soliciting business without first having obtained permission will be considered as trespassers and will be dealt with accordingly. Little Diamond Island is a quiet, reserved resting place for the people who wish to make it their summer home. It is exclusive and select and the management promises to keep it so and does not offer it with its unequalled privileges to everybody, but only to those who wish to enjoy the natural advantages and beauties of the place in an orderly and respectable way. No rowdiness will be tolerated. Lots of land will not be sold to people who are unfavorably known and if lots are desired by a stranger satisfactory references must be furnished before conveyance will be made. Free use of the bath houses and swimming pool to all owners of lots or residents will be allowed as long as the resident owner is of good habits and of reputable character, but when this condition ceases to obtain, the management reserves the right to withdraw all privileges previously granted. A reward is offered for information that will lead to the conviction of any person disfiguring the trees or buildings on the westerly end of the island. There are groves of beautiful oaks and birches and they are esteemed as of great value and it is to be hoped that it will not be necessary to resort to drastic measures to protect them from mutilation. To all clean, orderly, well behaved, respectable people looking for a summer home Little Diamond Island offers more privileges and advantages to the square foot, for the money than all the rest of Casco Bay put together. A lot of land on Little Diamond Island bought at 10c per square foot, 12c, 14c or 15c is the best investment that can be found today. It is safe. It is sure. There are so few of them, and there are so many people wishing to own that few, that nothing can possibly stop the enormous rise in value that two years' time will surely bring to pass. The development of Little Diamond Island is, of in all our experience have we had a property that was such a universal favorite and that everybody seemed to be so eager to own a piece of. The beautiful oak grove, specially adapted for picnic parties is hereby offered free of the State of Maine. Clam bakes, shore dinners, banquets large or small, furnished on application. Ten yacht anchorages, a part or all of which will be kept in reserve at all times for the free accommodation of yachts visiting Little Diamond. Motor boat anchorages, floats and winter storage, gasoline, hard grease and lubricating oils, ship and yacht stores furnished at reasonable prices. Sailing and deep sea fishing parties, either large or small, arranged for on application at the Casino.

To prove to you the advantages we have to offer in our beautiful Casino with more than 4,000 square feet under one roof, with a kitchen equipment unexcelled, cold storage, pure cold spring water and everything to match, we ask that you visit us and see if the half has yet been told. No Excuse for Failure to Wage War Against Rottenness and Corruption Gilded Youth as Bad as the Hobo.

By President Roosevelt.

FUNDAMENTALLY this country is sound; morally no less than physically. Fundamentally, in its family life and in the outside activities of its individuals the country is better and not worse than it formerly was. This does not mean that we are to be excused if we fail to contend effectively with the forces of evil, and they waste their time who ask me to withhold my hand from dealing therewith. But it is worth right will ultimately prevail. You who are training the next generations are training this country as it is to be a decade or two hence; and while your work in training the intellect is great, it is not as great as your work in training character. More than anything else I want to see the public school turn out the boy and girl who when man and woman will add to the sum of good citizenship of the Nation. It is not my province, nor would it be within my capacity, to speak about your pedagogic problems. You yourselves are far better able to discuss them. But as a layman let me say one or two things about your work.

In the first place, I trust that more and more of our people will see to it that the schools train toward and not away from the farm and the workshop. We have spoken a great deal about the dignity of labor in this country; but we have not acted up to our spoken words, for in our education we have tended to proceed upon the assumption that the educated man was to be educated away from and not toward labor. The great nations of mediaeval times who left such marvelous works of architecture and art behind them were able to do so because they educated alike the brain and hand of the craftsman. We, too, in our turn must show that we understand the law which decrees that a people which loses physical address invariably deteriorates; so that our people shall understand that the good carpenter, the good blacksmith, the good mechanic, the good farmer, really do fill the most important positions in our land, and that it is an evil thing for them and for the nation to have their sons and daughters forsake the work which, if well and efficiently performed, means more than any other work for our people as a whole.

We have all of us often heard some good but unwise woman say "I have worked hard; my daughter shan't work;" the poor woman not realizing that great though the curse of mere drudgery of overwork is, it is not so great as the curse of rapid idleness; and it does not make any difference whether the idleness be that of the hobo at one end of the scale or the gilded youth at the other. Do not waste time in envying the idler at either end of the social scale. Envy is not the proper attitude toward them. The proper attitude toward them is a good humored but thoroughgoing disapproval of the man or woman who is so blind not only to the interests of society as a whole, but to his or her own real interests as to believe that anything permanent can be gained from a life of selfish and vacuous idleness.

The effort should be made to teach every one that the first requisite of good citizenship is doing the duties that are near at hand. But, of course, this does not excuse a man from doing the other duties, too. It is no excuse if a man neglects his political duties, to say that he is a good husband and father, still less is it an excuse, if he is guilty of corruption in politics or business, to say that his home life is all right. He ought to add to decency in home life decency in politics, decency in public life.

Glory and Duties of Motherhood

By President Roosevelt.

UNLESS the average woman is a good wife and good mother, unless she bears a sufficient number of children so that the race shall increase and not decrease, unless she brings up these children sound in soul and mind and body—unless this is true of the average woman, no brilliancy of genius, no material prosperity, no triumphs of science and industry will avail to save the race from ruin and death. The mother is the one supreme asset of national life; she is more important by far than the successful statesman or business man or artist or scientist. I abhor and condemn the man who fails to recognize all his obligations to the woman who does her duty. But the woman who shirks her duty as wife and mother is just as heartily to be condemned. We despise her as we despise and condemn the soldier who flinches in battle. A good woman who does full duty is sacred in our eyes, exactly as the brave and patriotic soldier is to be honored above all other men. But the woman who, whether from cowardice, from selfishness, from having a false and vacuous ideal, shirks her duty as wife and mother earns the right to our contempt, just as the man who, from any motive, fears to do his duty in battle when the country calls him.

man or artist or scientist. I abhor and condemn the man who fails to recognize all his obligations to the woman who does her duty. But the woman who shirks her duty as wife and mother is just as heartily to be condemned. We despise her as we despise and condemn the soldier who flinches in battle. The Evolution of Literature

By George Harvey.

LITERATURE, like religion, science, and life itself, is evolutionary. In the beginning, as Professor Brander Matthews concisely points out, fiction dealt with the impossible—with wonders and mysteries as of the "Arabian Nights," with tales of chivalry like "Amadis of Gaul" and weird romances. Then came the improbable, full of adventurous deeds, such as chain the imagination but never are performed. Followed the Probable of Balzac, Thackeray and Dickens, accompanied by the inevitable as represented by the "Scarlet Letter." "Romola," "Smoke" and "Anna Karenina." Precisely where we stand to-day it would be difficult to determine; certain it is that the recent recrudescence of unduly chivalric tales has run its course and more substantial diet is demanded. May it not be possible that the reading public has become so large that there is no longer one, in the sense of having a common taste, and that desires, likes and dislikes are more diversified than ever before.—The North American Review.

Policemen Put to the Test

By Thomas Byrnes, Ex-Chief of Police of New York.

My principle was always to put a man on his honor with me, and if he broke it I broke him. When I first took charge of the Detective Bureau I had only four detectives. They were all older men than I was—I took that into consideration. I called them into my private office. "Be seated, gentlemen," I said. "You are no doubt wondering why I kept you four men here. I'll tell you; principally because I believe you're on the level. So long as you stay that way with me, I'll treat you the same way. If you don't I'll dismiss you from the service in disgrace. You can always count upon me as your friend. If you make mistakes, and we will all work together to make this the greatest detective bureau in the world." These four men were as true as steel. I tested them not once, but forty times, and they never went back on their sense of honor to the department.

There is a lot of backslapping in the rank and file of the police, and if the Chief once listens to that sort of thing he has lost his usefulness as a commander. If the men once discover that the Chief can be influenced other than by his own knowledge and discernment, he loses the respect of the force.

Mrs. C. A. Briggs and son Earle of Boston arrived Monday to spend the greater part of July and are to return for another extended sojourn during the month of August. Before coming to Casco Bay Mrs. Briggs and son with Mr. Briggs were at Atlantic City for two weeks, where they had a most delightful time. Business affairs will not permit Mr. Briggs to remain on the island, but he will join his family at stated intervals.

Daniel A. MacEachern of Beverly, Mass., is to be in charge of the clam bake pavilion at the Casco Bay House this season, and the affairs will be run in a most satisfactory manner, which will be greatly appreciated by the many people who visit here. Mr. MacEachern is a graduate of the Beverly High School, class '07, and while attending that institution took part in all the high school athletics as well as being one of the fastest men on the football eleven for two successive seasons.

The Portland Fresh Air Society held an outing yesterday at the Casco Bay House Clam bake pavilion. Mrs. Jean L. Crie is president of the society and there were five hundred members present.

Mr. Daniel A. MacDougall of Maplewood, Mass., arrived Sunday for a two weeks' vacation. Mr. MacDougall is with the Fuller Greene Co., of Boston, wholesale confectioners.

W. Corneli Damarest, F. R. Damarest and T. P. Damarest, with their aunt, Mrs. L. A. Rusling of Passiac, N. J., are at the Casco Bay House for the summer. The family have been here for several years and are having a fine cottage built on the south shore which will be ready for occupancy early next season.

Miss Minnie Caswell of Phoenixville, Pa., registered at the Aucoisco House on Monday for the season, where she will be the guest of Mrs. K. B. Batchelor.

Master Elliott L. Bragg of Errol, N. H., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. M. Cobb.

Mr. William W. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Gould and son of Portland, were among the Sunday excursionists to come down. Mr. Gould is a Casco Bay yachtsman and recently sold his power boat to members of the Portland Yacht Club. Mrs. R. J. Thomas and daughter, Miss Amy Thomas of Milwaukee, are visiting with the Misses Bennett at the "Shadynook" cottage here. Other members of the party who are registered at the Aucoisco House are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wentworth of Portland, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carr of San Antonio, Tex. The visitors, although coming from different parts of the United States, have spent their summers together elsewhere.

Miss Norma H. Paine of Richmond, Va., registered at the Aucoisco House for an extended visit on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Knight of Westbrook, Me., opened up their cottage "Sunset View," on Thursday for the greater part of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harmon joined them on Sunday evening for a short visit. Mrs. Harmon is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knight.

Mrs. Marion Pollister and a party of lady friends are enjoying the week at the Wannelaki Lodge to enjoy an outing.

Miss Eva Griffin has pitched a tent near the wharf, and during the summer will have ice cream for sale.

compared with the many other summer resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Robinson of Portland were recently the guests of Mrs. K. B. Batchelor at the Aucoisco House. Mr. Robinson is with the firm of S. A. True & Co. of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Welsh and son, Percy, and daughters, Misses Clara and Olive, who are at Cundy's Harbor for a few days' sojourn, were at Cliff Island on Friday for a visit, making the trip on their motor boat. Percy Welsh returned to his home at West Newton, and the rest of the family returned to Cundy's Harbor, where they will remain for a few days longer.

A. H. Southard has completed work on the well at the Spruce cottage.

Mrs. Alonzo Cobb and daughter, Dorothy of Portland, are at their cottage "The Cozy" for the season. They arrived on Thursday last, and this summer will make their thirteenth successive visit here. Mr. Cobb is traveling passenger agent for the Maine Central Railroad, and is also interested in the welfare of Cliff Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. McKee are at their cottage for the greater part of the summer. Mr. McKee has been traveling through the Middle States for the past year, and was recently married at Newark, N. J. On Saturday evening next a reception will be given to the residents of the island, and a large number are expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Snediker of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., arrived the latter part of last week, and are registered at the Aucoisco House for the summer. This is their first season on Cliff Island.

The Wannelaki Lodge and Cliff Cottage have been completely fitted for the entertainment of summer guests, and already a large number have arrived. The Wannelaki Lodge will be a great convenience to the people who registered here, and will accommodate a large number over that of previous years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mathews of Cumberland Mills are at Ocean Spray. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews are another honeymoon couple and Cliff Island seems to be the mecca for brides and grooms this year.

So. Harpswell

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spencer and family of Lewiston, Me., is at his cottage for the summer, which is situated at the bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spencer are visiting for one week and Mrs. Fred Bartlett of Brockton is to be a guest at the house for two weeks.

Thomas of Brookline; "Sheerwater II," L. H. Spaulding of Winchester; and the "Dias," George A. Brackett of Roxbury. Spaulding, is a new yacht and is one of the finest that has been owned by Harpswell summer residents. It is forty-six feet over all and is finished in bright mahogany above the water line and is built by Lawley, the celebrated yacht builder of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Page and son of Georgetown, Mass., are at the C. E. Connor cottage for the season.

The house of Capt. Orville Pinkham narrowly escaped being burned to the ground last week and but for the promptness of the men at the Auburn Colony the fire would have made great headway. Hot ashes thrown in a barrel at the rear of the house ignited the barrel and the wind spread the flames. South Harpswell is greatly in need of fire protection as a fire would become uncontrollable in a short time with a strong sea breeze.

Mr. Sidney Ensign is expected to join his family at the colony on Saturday, July 4.

The dealers on the island are getting their supply of gasoline now from the tank-boat Delivery of New York. This vessel is propelled by a powerful gasoline motor and will call at a dock and fill barrels with an automatic pump. East End.

Again the heat of summer turns our thoughts to this quiet nook, and we gladly exchange the burning rays of King Sol for the enervating breezes straight from Old Ocean, and the scorching pavements for the velvety daisy-studded turf of this most lovely spot. Whoever has once enjoyed its peaceful quiet wishes to return if for only a short time. The cottages are fast filling and accommodations will soon be at a premium.

His two sons, Xanthus, Jr., and George, are enroute in their auto, and the rest of the family are coming by rail and are looked for any day.

By the kindness of Mr. Edward Webber we had an opportunity to view a gigantic monster of the deep, such as in our ignorance we had never supposed inhabited these waters. A short ride in Mr. Webber's power boat took us to Lowell Cove, Orr's Island, where on the mud flat was stranded what the fishermen called a mud shark. The creature evidently enjoyed fresh mackerel and, in making a meal thereof, he succeeded in winding and binding himself securely with four one hundred foot nets belonging to Mr. Albert Richardson of Orr's Island. It was caught not far from Ragged Island, and was towed in by several of the power boats. Mr. Richardson was obliged to cut up the monster in order to clear his nets. Its length was 35 feet, girth 12 feet, and estimated weight six to seven thousand pounds. We saw the liver; it was a large dory load. The measure across the tail of the shark was about six feet and sections of the backbone were not less than six inches in diameter. Now I expect you will say, "Poof, a fish story! Well, I can help that. I would not have believed it myself if I had not seen it."

Modest Greatness.

One day a letter was received at the postoffice in Paris bearing the following inscription: "To the Greatest French Poet." The letter carrier was instructed to deliver it to Victor Hugo, who refused to receive it and sent it to Lamartine. This genius also declined to accept the letter and passed it on to Alfred De Musset. The latter, equally modest, re-sent it to Victor Hugo, who finally accepted it. The letter had reached its destination.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Cousins Island

Drinkwater—Rent.

One of the prettiest weddings that ever took place on the island was celebrated Wednesday, June 24, at high noon at the Baptist chapel here, when Miss Edith Drinkwater, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. John G. Drinkwater of this island was united in the bonds of matrimony with William Stuart Rent of Waverly. The interior of the church was handsomely decorated with wild flowers of every variety, the effect being most charming. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, being preceded by the bridesmaid, Ada B. Seabury of Yarmouth and the best man, Alfred Drinkwater, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert H. Stanton, pastor of the First Baptist church of Yarmouth, the double ring service being used. The bride looked charming, her gown being white batiste trimmed with lace, her flowers being white sweet peas.
The bridesmaid was dressed in white with pink sweet peas. About seventy-five relatives and friends were present at the ceremony, all of whom later attended the reception which followed at the island home, where the happy couple will reside. A dainty collation was served. The young couple were the recipients of many presents.Among the out of town guests were the following: Mr. and Mrs. William

George Rent, Miss Grace Rent of Wa-verly; Mr. Edwin Hamilton and daugh-
