PERCIVAL BONNEY. EVERY regular attache of the PRESS is furnished Pullen, Editor. All railway, steamboat and hotel managers will confer a favor upon us by demanding credentials of every person claiming to represent our journal, as we have information that several "bumers" are seeking courtesies in the name of the PRESS, and we have no disposition to be, even passively, a party to such frauds.

ications that are not used. Taxation Without Jurisdiction. To the current number of the Atlantic Monthly Mr. David A. Wells contributes paper on taxation without jurisdiction which will greatly interest capitalists and students of jurisprudence. Though the article contains little that is new either in fact or in inference, its clearness of statement will arrest the attention of the reader and disabuse his mind of certain popular fallacies in regard to the matter. Mr. Wells treats chiefly of taxation without territorial jurisdiction, taxation without returning an equivalent in the way of its correlative protection to person or property, and double taxation or taxation at one and the same time by conflicting jurisdictions, of one and the same

The proposition that personal property shall be excluded from direct assessment for the reason that no system has been devised which will enable a state to tax it with any approach to uniformity and equity, has not, in Mr. Wells' opinion, received a full measure of popular approval, though many are finding out that "the assumption of power on the part of state officials to tax citizens for personal effects situated beyond the territory or jurisdiction of the taxing power, or, as the statute of Massachusetts has it, wherever they are, is something wholly unwarranted." The illegality of the assumption has been definitely settled by a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court. The taxation of personal property is looked upon by Mr. Wells as a relic of personal servitude, having for its prototype the ancient taille, and he hails the decision as an indication that hereafter states must limit the exercise of their taxing power to persons (poll tax), business, and property within their territorial limits. The right to tax arises from the correlative duty to protect. Of course where there is no jurisdiction there can be no protection, and consequently no rightful taxation. That things cannot occupy two places or two jurisdictions at the same time is an axiom of jurisprudence as well as a law of As a logical result of the decision in the foreign:held bonds case, which, in respect to extra-territorial taxation, is only legally applicable to states, Mr. Wells holds that cities, towns, and even school districts will commit acts of spoliation by taxing any property actually situated beyond their territorial boundaries and jurisdiction. He reasons that "as it will be a matter of great difficulty, if not a physical impossibility, accurately to ascertain what movable personal property was on a given day within any given taxing district of limited territorial area, or to restrain it in such a district if disposed temporarily to move off in anticipation of the day of assessment, the ultimate result will be exactly what equity and the principles of sound political economy require should be, namely: an entire abandonment of all attempts to tax personal property, and the adoption of a plan of taxing but a few articles-tangible property and fixed signs of property like real estate-in such a way that the results of the taxation will diffuse themselves with equality and uniformity not only over all personal property, but also upon

A collateral subject is the question of the taxation of indebtedness. The right to tax contracts between resident debtors and creditors at the time when made cannot be doubted; but the practice of taxing by state authority debts to a creditor who resides in a state other than that of the residence of the debtor is held by Mr. Wells to be taxation of inter-state commerce. The borrower always has to pay, in additional rate of interest or some other form, the tax upon the contract. So if Maine taxes through the agency or medium of resident creditors, bonds and mortgages made in Michigan, she taxes extra-territorially debtors in Michigan. But she has no power to tax a debtor in Michigan. When a citizen of Maine, (to vary Mr. Wells' illustration) lends money or sells commodities to a citizen of Michigan the money or the goods pass out from the jurisdiction of Maine into the jurisdiction of Michigan. If the transaction is represented by a book account the Michigan man has the property and the Maine man has in return a conclusion of law. If the Maine man has a written promise to pay, in form of a note or bond and mortgage, he has simply in possession a contract made outside the territory of Maine by a man in Michigan.

From this Mr. Wells advances to the position that debts are titles or conclusions of law and not property, and have no situs independent of the property which is the subject of the qualified title. For example, a deed is a title to land, and a credit is a qualified lien or title to all of the debtor's property according to certain priorities of lien. If one state taxes the land and another state taxes the deed on the valuation of the land; or if one state taxes the debtor's property and antice. The debtor, for upon him in reality the whole burden falls, pays a double tax. The conclusion drawn is that credit, title and ownership are not things, but are conclusions and deductions of law from certain facts, having no situs because having no corpus to be located, or body to be taxed, or materiality to fill space in any state. Mr. Wells frames a reductio ad absurdum after this manner: If the credits or ownership of evidences of indebtedness which persons who change their residence from a foreign land to this country bring with them, are property, then they must be imports and exempt from all state taxation. "Under this theory who can doubt that such 'imported credits' would soon become a favorite subject of importation, and that the owner would lawfully consider himself as the original pack-state on real property outside.

WE knew that the Democracy were divided on the currency question, we were aware that they were not as one as regards free trade, but we did think that they were united in support of the dogma of "home rule," and that they agreed as to its interpretation. But it appears that we were mistaken. The fathers of "home-rule," the learned doctors who have been expounding the dogma on the platform and in the press, it to be done, and so will go your liberty." to the citizens at large as eminently fit. We the PRESS in regard to the School Committee was acted upon, and that the nominations were made without regard to party.

Current Notes. The Boston Post thinks the reason the Beecher trial was adjourned over Monday was because G. W. never told a lie. Mr. Conkling is right, at last, in this, that We heard a keen-sighted social philosopher assert the other day, that the rapid physical deterioration of the New Englanders as a race might be dated from the time when they gave up cider and the hearty good-living which it typifies, and took to tea and mental pabulum instead. The Massachusetts farmer in Eudicott's time ate his four meals a day, measured six feet two in his stockings, read the Bible, and died, believing it, at four score and ten. Nowadays he has cut down his apple orebooks stayed as thome, and sells the ple orchards, starves at home, and sells the last gleaning of wheat to educate his son at Cambridge, finds his religious speculations in Emerson, until his lean body, being too tired to work longer, goes down to death to prove the truth of these speculations at the untime-ly age of fifty-five.—N. Y. Tribune.

Further particulars of the Washington suicide by leaping from the dome of the capitol to the roof below say that "brains were scat-tered all over the building." This proves that the poor fellow died before his time. He-should have waited till the meeting of the next congress, when brains will be sadly needed all over the building.—Detroit Post. The people elected the Democrats to carry out these promises and pledges, and we think they ought to have the fullest and earliest opportunity to begin the work. We think that scrict justice, and a proper respect for the ex-pressed will of the people, demand that the present Congress shall pass a joint resolution providing that the next congress shall begin its session on the 5th of March, 1875. If the Democrats honestly carry out the measures and redeem the pledges upon which the peo-ple elected them, then the whole country is entitled to have the promised blessings at the earliest possible moment. If, on the contrary, he Democratic party has no purpose to redeem its promises, and its programme was a fraud, as is generally suspected, then the country has a right to know this fact before the next elections.—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Wells says that the road is the | nouncement of their existing, but in which taxable property, and that the stock and | merchants had to do without the goods, bebonds are not property at all, but merely the cause they could not find them. This is a severe commentary upon those people who make things in order to sell them, but who fail to inform customers where they may be had. It is safe to say, as a rule, that anything that is worth patenting is worth advertising.

"The Big Bonanza" will be the next sensation at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. Mr. Daly calls it a "contemporaneous and local society novelty." Mr. John Drew will make his first appearance in New York in this forthcoming "contemporaneous and local society novelty." The twenty-third ode of the first book of Horace, commencing "Vitas, hinnulco, me similis, Chloe," has lately been set to music as a tenor solo by Mr. C. K. Salaman. The idea is a happy one, and the execution felicitous. The quartette, "Interger vitæ," is familiar to most people; but this is the first time one of the odes has been arranged as a solo. The song is dedicated to the late premier.

One of the late Senator Sumner's paintings, a full-sized copy of Guido's Magdalen, has been presented to the Art Gallery of Amberst College by Mr. Jonathan French. The original is in the Barberini Palace at Rome.

Mrs. Lucy Hooper, in a visit to the painter Meissonnier, describes his personal appearance as follows: "It is impossible to imagine a finer head and torso than those of this renowned painter. Above his full chest and broad shoulders rises a head which might tempt the pencil of Velasquez or of of Vandyck, crowned with a mass of iron-gray hair, the lips and chin shaded by a thick, silvery beard, and the whole lighted by a pair of brilliant and laughing hazel eyes. He is, however, of very short stature, his legs being disproportionately short. The bright cordiality of his manner was exceedingly charming, as was also the unaffected readiness with which he displayed his pictures and replied to our questions concerning them." It has been decided that it will not be neceswill not be able to act for several months. Frank Maeder, his agent, has closed his engagement with him. An American college of music, which will occupy a magnificent building, and be conducted generally on a very grand scale, is talked of in New York. An odd letter has just appeared in London, from Mr. Holman Hunt, the great artist. It has not escaped observation that in his pictuze of "The Shodow of Death" he has represented the Saviour sawing with his left hand. As Mr. Hunt affects above all things to be a strict realist, he is naturally very much nettled that this peculiarity should have been pointed out, and endeavors to justify the liberty he took in this matter. He explains that the grouping of the picture was such that he could not have painted the Savionr using his right hand without separating the two figures by placing between them an uninteresting mass of wood, which would thus have occupied the most precious part of the canvas. He adds that he expected the spectator to fancy that "that Saviour had stepped over the plank to approach his mother, or to see how far the sun yet had to sink, and recognizing that it was already late enough to prepare for the evening's relaxation and studies, that he had assumed the position which gave the most relief physically and mentally, before turning to put away his tools." "Henry V," will continue the great theatrical attraction of New York for many weeks; it being agreed by critics and populace that it is the most splendid of Shakespearean spectacles ever presented in this country, and withal an excellently acted drama. Shakespeare's play has been "cut," and the sequence of the scenes changed, so that the story of the French campaign is shown, "stripped of all that does not heighten the pictorial interest." The effect, says Mr. Wheeler, in the World, is as if necromancy had suddenly drawn away the dusky curtain of the past, and the fierce ligh of the present shone upon the mediæval day, and woke it into form, color and action, so that the scenes of Froissart and Holinshed are in carnated before the modern eye. Minnie Hauk, the young American prima donna who was so great a favorite at Vienua, has been engaged to give yearly for several years a six months season of "star" performances at Berlin. Mark Twain intended "The Gilded Age" "for a tragedy," says "Brunswick" of the Boston Saturday Gazette. "After it was dramatized, he wrote to a leading tragedian to take the part of Col. Sellers. The gentleman wrote back that it was a comedy, and that John T. Paymond was the man he wanted. Then Mr. Clemens sent for Mr. Raymond, read him the pl: and said, 'Now, do you see any comedy in that?' 'I see nothing else,' replied Mr. Raymond. The turnip dinner, that Mr. Raymond makes to deliciously funny, Mr. Clemens meant should be pathetic" Niccolini is Rome's favorite tenor. He reach es high C with a full, round tone, and phrases in the broad, free style of the old school. As an actor he is said to excel. Ruskin makes several contributions to the water-color exhibition in London, this winter. One is "a most elaborate and delicate study of the glacier des Bossons, Chamouni, a piece of marvelous draughtmanship, showing the ice creeping like a huge flat reptile, down the hill-side. The foreshortening of the varying curves, and the delicate, jewel-like color of this astonishing specimen of skill and patience loyally employed are worthy of the most profound respect." It shows that John Ruskin can practice as well as preach. Another of his pictures at this gallery is "Dawn on Ætna, 26th of April, 1874," which is described as grandly poetical. "The pyramidical mountain, clad in belts of light and shadow, which are proper to the hour, is solid, simple and severe, rich in tender and beautiful coloring. A jet of steam, rises straight into the air from the very apex of the mountain, until, at a vast height, it turns at a right angle, and is dissipated into space in

The fight has broken out in New York. Mayor Wickham and Tammany Hall construe it to mean the power to plunder New York at their own sweet will, to make vacancies in fat offices and fill them with hungry patriots, to govern the city unrestrained by state authority. Governor Tilden does not seem to be quite clear as to the meaning of home rule, but is very sure that it doesn't mean the power to plunder the city of New York under the forms of local self-government. Really these Democrats agree upon nothing except the desirability of getting into public office. An old prediction made by Lord Shelburne is just now attracting considerable attention, and is of interest in the light of recent events. Lord Shelburne astonished Mr. Laurens, one day, by saying that he was sorry for his (Laurens') people. Being asked why, he replied that they would lose the habeas corpus. Pressed for a further explanation of his meaning, he said: "We purchased it with centuries of wrangling, many years of fighting, and had it confirmed by at least fifty acts of Parliament. All this taught the nation its value, and it so ingrained into their creed, as the very foundation of their liberty, that no man or party will ever dare trample on R. FROM AUGUSTA. Legislative Matters. End of the Session

[Special to the Press.] AUGUSTA, Feb. 24. The session of the Legislature closed its business without the least hurry and without any attempt to push through any doubtful measure at the last bour. The speeches at the close were earnest, but in excellent taste. The sessions to-day at times have been lively, but the usual paper war did not begin until this evening and was moderate compared with previous years. SENATE. [Special to the PRESS.] Augusta, Feb. 24, 1875.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock. The bill in relation to poor debtors was taken from the table and put on its passage to be en-

Senator Emery addressed the Senate at length in favor of the bill. He thought the present method of practice relating to disclosure is very expensive to the debter who is poorly able to stand the burden. And the present laws are very liable to be abused, and that the hardship occasioned is unjust and unreasonable.

Senator Foster thought the law as it stands is not possible of a construction of hardship The debtor has remedies sufficient at law to prevent any abuse, unless he is obstinate and refuses to pay. He also thought the creditors had some claims which should be considered. Mr. Emery thought the principle was wrong of arresting a man first and sending him to jail and making him disclose afterward. He should be allowed to disclose first and if he will not do this he should be sent to jail. A motion to indefinitely postpone was lost. On motion of Senator Stevens the matter was referred to the next Legislature. Senator Hall offered the following amendment to the constitution of the state, entitled: 'Qualification of Voters.'' No person shall have the right to vote who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and write his name; provided, however, that the provisions of the amendment shall not apply to any person prevented by physical disability from complying with its requisites, nor to any person who now has the right to vote. Senator Lord advocated the amendment He said it was a method of compulsory education which would be brought home to everyone in the state. The resolve was refused a passage by the following vote:

Yeas—Campbell, Emery, Foster, Hall, Hanson, Hinckley, Kent. Lord, Rounds, Stevens, Thurlough, Webb—12.
Nays—Atwood, Corthell, Cross, Cushing, Cutler, Donworth, Dyer, Foss, French, Goold, Haskell, Morrison, Prescott, Richardson, Russell, Support, 18

The resolve giving to Benjamin Smith a pension for life came from the House and was ndefinitely postponed. Senator Hyde called up the resolve for mili tary purposes and offered an amendment to the House amendment, that $6000 be appropriated for the purpose of a general muster to be held in some retired place away from large cities, and the time should be devoted entirely to instruction in military and camp duty. Senator Swasy opposed the amendment and advocated the resolve as reported by the committee. He was opposed to heaping reproach upon the soldiery of the state by saying they were surrounded by drunke ter. Far from it. Senator Haskell favored an efficient military organization such as he believed ours to be and advocated the resolve. Senator Hall advocated the cause of the militia and enlarged upon the importance of the organization. The amendment was adopted and the resolve passed to be engrossed.

The tax bill assessing a tax at the rate of four mills on a dollar was passed to be engross ed in concurrence. The Senate insisted upon its bill regulating the travel of members and proposed a committee of conference. The resolve in favor of the Maine General Hospital was called from the table by Senator Cutler. Senator Morrison moved to amend by making the appropriation $5000.

Senators Gould and Foster advocated the bill The Senate refused to take action and the re solve was finlaly passed. The resolve in favor of Jas. Farmer and others was indefinitely postponed. The resolve to pay the orphans of soldiers a pension of $12.50 a month to those who have no other pensions was taken from the table, and pending action upon it the Senate adjourn-ate voted to insist on its action. The bill granting pensions to soldiers' and sailors' orphans was taken from the table and indefinitely postponed.

Senator Swasey called up the capital punishment bill and was proceeding to explain where he stood when in the midst of the debate the cry of "Message" was beard, and in filed the House Committee of 24 headed by "Sam" Leavitt, who proceeded to deliver the message from the House requesting an evening session, and then they filed out again. The Senate would have been happy to have acceded to the request had not their business been in such an unfinished state that it was thought impossible. It was finally decided to have an evening ses-

The capital punishment bill was then called up and the yeas and yeas called on the question which resulted as follows:

EVENING SESSION. messages in the Senate were passed with the House regarding the finishing up of business and a communication received from the Governor giving the list of acts and resolves passed this session. Then Mr. Donworth rose and offered a resolve of thanks to the secretary who responded with a hearty speech. He gave a short history of the session's work. There have been six hundred subjects presented for legislation; two hundred and sixty-eight acts and one hundred and seven resolves have been passed; fifteen have been recalled and one vetoed. Twelve cheese factories with a capital stock of $40,500 have been incorporated and eleven savings institutions. Only two bundred and nineteen dollars have been allowed out of claims amounting to rising barometer, cooler westerly winds and over $16,000. Twenty-three wharves have cloudy weather.

been authorized; two granite, two brick, eight slate and nine mining companies have been incorporated with a capital stock of over four million five hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. Three railroads have been chartered with a capital stock of $950,000 and authorized to issue $1,150,000. You have refrained from much tampering with the public laws, for which the people will doubtless thank you. You have levied a state tax of $89,975,318 and appropriated $162,148,719 of the people's money.

A resolve of thanks to the President was offered by Senator Haskell and feeling remarks were made by Senators Foster Foss, York, Emery, Cutler, Swasey, Rounds, Stevens, Morrison, Cross, Corthell, Cushing, Atwood, Dyer, Donworth, Kent and Thurlough. The resolution was unanimously passed. The President feelingly responded.

Senator Hyde presented a resolve thanking the reporter, W. E. S. Whitman, for his faithful performance of duties. The Senate then adjourned sine die.

HOUSE.

The House was not doing much all the morn ing as it was waiting for the Senate. The Senate sent back bilts relating to the luties and pay of sheriffs enforcing the liquor aw, and bill an act to amend sec. 5 chap. 116 Revised Statutes, relating to fees, with refer ence to next Legislature. The House insisted. On motion of Mr. Randall the House voted to present its copy of the Bible to Messenger Walker, and on motion of Mr. Tolman of Deer Isle, the Clerk and Assistant Clerk were preented with the dictionaries of the House. The bill in relation to woman suffrage, on notion of Mr. Snow, was referred to the next Legislature. Mr. Reed of Bath, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported a bill to assess the state tax, amounting to $899,753.10. The bill was read three times and passed to be engrossed. In convention Hon. P. P. Burleigh of Linneus, was elected Land Agent, receiving 117 votes to 19 for Daniel Randall, scattering 8. Mr. Reed of Bath, moved to reconsider the vote on the matter of the new Insane Hospital, which was done. He then introduced gan amendment which provides for a commission to report relative to the advisability of the purchase of the United States Marine Hospit-and report to the next Legislature. The House passed the Constitutional amendment finally by a vote of 180 yeas, no nays. The House refused to adopt the Senate amendment to the military appropriation. It also adhered to its vote on the Municipal Court jurisdiction bill. A number of bills and resolves were passed to be engrossed and finally disposed of.

AFTEROON SESSION. The House met at 21 p. m. and continued in session doing little business ,but waiting upon The resolve giving land to J. F. Turner et als., was indefinitely postponed in concurrence, A committee of twenty-four was raised to wait upon the Senate and ask that body to nake arrangements to adjourn to night. EVENING SESSION. The House adjourned to night at 10.30, after session of 50 days. Little of importance was done in the evening session, beyond the final passage of a few bills, and there was not the east hurry. At 9.30 a committee waited upon the Governor and informed him that the Legslature had acted on all the business before it. The Governor reported through the Secretary of State that he had approved or allowed to become laws without signature 254 acts and 106

esolves and had no further communications to make. Mr. Leavitt of Eastport, offered a resolution of thanks to the Speaker, which was responded to by Messrs. Wheelwright, Lyman, Tefft, Snow, Harris, Pitcher, Randall, Tinkham, Anderson and others, in which Speaker Thomas was most warmly commended and the non partisan character of the House recognized by the minority party. Mr. Thomas responded in a fitting speech, in which he briefly noted the work of the session and thanked the House. Votes of thanks were also tendered to all the officers of the House. The members joined in inging "Coronation," "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Old Hundred," and after Rev. Dr. Tefft had pronounced the benediction, Speaker Thomas declared the 54th Legislature ad-

Wagner and Gordon. A Reprieve Probable.

The Question of the Constitutionality the Law Requiring the Governor to Fix the Date of Execution.

[Special to the Press,]

AUGUSTA, Feb. 24. Judge Tapley went to Auburn to-day to apply to Judge Danforth to get an order of notice for a hearing on the point of the constitutionality of the law requiring the Governor to fix the date of execution in the case of both Wagner and Gordon. Judge Tapley telegraphed the Governor this evening that Judge Danforth was inclined to give a notice of hearing upon the point in both cases, if it would not conflict with the purpose of Gov. Dingley, as e did not like to take the responsibility enirely of taking the accused out of the hands of the Executive against his will. Governor Dingley telegraphed Judge Danforth that if he lesired to issue such notice of hearing, that he would hold himself in readiness to grant a reprieve until there was sufficient time for a nearing. At midnight Gov. Dingley had not received any intimation from Judge Danforth, but it is more than probable that he will, and that the Judge will issue an order of notice of such hearing, to be had before any Justice of the Supreme Court in chambers, within three weeks, and probably before Judge Danforth while holding court in this city. If Governor Dingley receives such an intimation he will grant a reprieve for thirty days.

If the law referred to is found to be unconstitutional the accused will be imprisoned for life by law.

It is believed that the execution [will not take place on Friday. Warden Rice reports that both of the men are calm, that all things are in readiness for the execution, the gallows being erected within the prison yard. Judges Walton and Virgin were at Auburn to-day, but it is not stated whether or not they ROCKLAND, Feb. 24 -Two large two-story poarding houses on Hurricane Island, owned by the Hurricane Granite Company, and kept, one by Capt. M. A. Achorn and the other by W. P. Hendricks, were entirely destroyed by fire at 10 o'clock last night, and the other boarding house caught fire, but the flames were extinguished after it was badly gutted. The houses destroyed were worth $2500 each; insured for $1500. They accommodated fifty men each, and the boarders lost everything. Four men were hurt by buckets and ice falling upon them. The fire was caused by the exploion of a kerosene lamp in one of the rooms of Captain Achorn's house. The wind was not blowing at the time, otherwise all the large boarding houses would have been destroyed. The Ice Blockade at Rockland Broken.

THE SCANDAL.

New York, Feb. 24.—The Brooklyn City Court room was a sea of moving heads this morning and all the parties to the suit were early in their places. The greater bulk of the spectators were lawyers practicing in the New York and Brooklyn courts, who had gathered to hear the opening for the defence by General Tracy, who was nearly a quarter of an hour late. After a few prelimenaries Mr. Tracy rose and said: The time had now arrived for the defence to open their case. There are great interests involved in this trial. They can not be over estimated as they involve religious and moral interests of society. Either this defendant was to go forth vindicated from this court room or with a stain upon him, or his Gen. Tracy's Opening court room or with a stain upon him, or his life and character.

My client takes his stand here alone, but supported by his God and the justice of his character. The defendant early devoted himself to the ministry of God. It was no bed of rest. He struck out for the wild West, rung the bells in the forest glade, assisted by his dear wife, who accompanied him. He is now the same true, simple, unaffected man as he was then. The seasely of then went on to relate was then. The speaker then went on to relate the history of Tilton, who, he said, had begun life upon the staff of a newspaper as a reporter. He embraced the wildest views and be-lieved that the world would follow in the way which he led. He became a deist, denying the which he led. He became a deist, denying the existence of a God and denounced the marriage relations as a fraud and hindrance to the advancement of the world. Theodore Tilton fell from his high eminence, to which few men attain, to the bottom of an abyss. In the blind impotence of his rage he determined to visit his anger upon Henry Ward Beecher, imagining that he had been the cause of his destruction. Mr. Beecher was the friend of both Theodore Tilton and his wife. The friend, wife and children must be trampled down to secure that yindication for which he had bartered his (Tilton's) whole soul.

When Mr. Tilten lived in Oxford street, Mr. Beecher began his visits to the house. He was invited by the former, but Mr. Beecher's visits were not very frequent. Now, said the counsel, I want you to consider, gentlemen, that Mrs. Tilton is the true defendant in this case, she whose lips are sealed in this matter. Theodore Tilton's every wish was met by Mrs. Tilton, who did everything in her power to make him happy.

Counsel then came back to Mr. Tillon's career when he succeeded Mr. Beecher in the editorship of the Independent, and in the first year of his office, said the counsel, he wrote the letter containing the charges against his friend and pastor. Counsel here quoted from a letter written by Mr. Tilton to Mr. Beecher, speaking of the friendship between them.
"If," says the letter, "I should die before you, be a father to my children. I believe human triendship outlasts human life, and meanwhile may the Father above protect you." The letter was signed, your eternal and devoted friend Theodore Tilton.

In her hour of sorrow about Mr. Tilton's religious sentiments his wife sought Mr. Beecher for advice. Counsel then read portions of a letter sent by Mr. Beecher in 1868 to Mr. Tilton, giving him coansel and advice in religious matters. Shortly after this, said counsel, Mr. Tilton showed a change in his views. Habegan to talk to his friends on the subject and did not hesitate to tell his wife that he regarded the marriage relation in a different light from that in which it formerly appeared to him.

The devoted wife and mother was forced, day after day and week after week, to listen to these views which were extremely offensive to her. In the year 1866 Mr. Tilton formed a friendship with a lady whose family he had visited in the West. He invited her to his house and introduced her to his wife. His acquaintance with her made Mrs. Morse furious, and the lady, finding how deceitful he was and hearing his views as to how he regarded ladies, dropped his friendship.

He wrote a letter from where he was stopping with this family in the West, to his wife, telling her how much happier he was with this western family than he was in his home in Livingston street. But in 1868 his wife could conceal her feelings no longer, and when spoken to he confessed his weakness and husband and wife prayed for strength to uphold him in the future. On January 26, 1868, he wrote his wife a memorable letter from the Hudson River railroad, in which he said that she was all that a man could desire. She answered this letter on the 31st, and admitted in it her harshness and took all the sin of his falling upon her. The letter says: The letter says:
"I am the chief of sinners, but understand how you feel. We must both cultivate our respect by being what we seem, and let us not have even a shadow of doubt in each other. Though all the world disagree, let us be as

He had made her believe that her harshness had made him a hypocrite so that he had hidden his feelings from her with regard to At this point Gen. Tracy interrupted his address and the court took the usual recess of one hour.

After the recess Gen. Tracy resumed his opening. He quoted from Mr. Tilton's letter to his wife of Feb. 9, 1868, "I am once more a man among men," said the letter, "through your ceaseless prayers and efforts. Each of your letters fill me with increased love for my wife; you have the richest of all human hearts, Law hedged to you forwar?" Another letter I am pledged to you forever." Another letter of Feb. 18, 1868, from Mrs. Tilton to her hus-band was also quoted, acknowledging the re-ceipt of the former letter. Another letter was written by him, said the counsel, to Mrs Til-ton on the 20th of February, assuring her that he had broken his connection with this western he had broken his connection with this western family. These letters were all written in the West, and contained assurances of fidelity to her. In the summer of that year he returned to New York and renewed his acquaintance with his old associates. Another letter, written in his office in New York, in November, says: "It is his great regret in life that he could not see her as happy as she deserved to be. She had the kindest soul that ever was put into a body. The greatest mystery to me is be. She had the kindest soul that ever was put into a body. The greatest mystery to me is that I have hearkened to others. The troubles are of my own making. Would to God they were of my own endaring; but your kind letter of this moroing is very dear to my soul, and I write this to thank you for it." Another letter from Mrs. T. dated Feb. 20, 1868, to Tilton, says how glad she would be to have him home again with her. In a letter of March 8, 1868, she says to him she never saw her path as clear as she say it now and whatever he should do as she saw it now, and whatever he should do she would act as a Christian and a mother. Notwithstanding his promise in January 26th, Theodore Tilton in 1869 and 1870 was forgetting his good resolves and falling back to his old habits. Tilton then feared Beecher's power habits. Tilton then feared Beecher's nower and he was continually disparaging Beecher. In 1808 a new paper was started in New York, called the Church Union, and in 1870 Mr. Beecher became its editor. The rapid increase of this paper alarmed both Bowen and Tilton, and the latter's views became milder, In 1870 rumors of Tilton's immorality reached Bowen's cars, and the details of the Winstead affair. The young lady was no mere child, as he says, but was a larger woman than Mrs. T. This reached Bowen's ears, and there also appeared in the New York papers a report that Tilton was going to elope. It was these stories that caused Bowen to desire his dismissal, culminating in the publication of an editorial in that caused Bowen to desire his dismissal, culminating in the publication of an editorial in the Independent which committed the paper to the doctrines of free love.

Mr. Tracy went on to state the trouble between Bowen and Tilton, and to argue that the first charge against Mr. Beecher arose in connection with these troubles. Some time before the hour of adjournment Mr. Tracy found that an accident had happened to his notes and he was obliged to suspend till to-morrow.

NEW YORK. The Railroad War. New York, Feb. 24.—Some important facts bearing on the great railroad war are made public to-day.

It was rumored in railroad circles that the New York Central Railroad Company had broken one of the agreements of the Saratoga compact, and that trouble was likely to arise from it. By that agreement none of the three Trunk lines were to allow the sale of tickets by ticket sellers on commission. It was stated on good authority that the New York Central had compited if not authorized the sale of their good authority that the New York Central had permitted if not authorized the sale of their tickets on commission.

The railroad commissioners held a meeting at the Windser Hotel, all three commissioners being present. After a session of several hours the commissioners arrived at a decision that as the controversy between the Pennsylvania and Baltimone & Ohio railroads had not been brought officially before them, and as the reports from the three trunk lines showed that they were working in harmony together. that they were working in harmony together, the further consideration was unadvisable and the subject was dismissed.

A Maine Man Robbed. E. C. Dunlap, collecting agent for a firm in China, Me., was drugged and robbed Tuesday morning in a low drinking saloon in Amity street, of drafts amounting to $3000 on the North National Bank of Boston. The drafts were sent back to him at his hotel yesterday, but a barkeeper and confrere were arrested and held for trial.

The Coal Monopoly. A reporter conversed with Thomas Dickson, president of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company as to the situation and the probable action of the associated coal companies. Mr. Dickson said that the representatives of these companies were in harmony, and the result of their meetings had been to create a closer affiliation of interests. Identity of interests had shown the imperative necessity of mutual good faith for the protection of all, and the lines would be drawn closer than in other years. The companies also had decided not to make "short contracts' this season. The question of ton-nages had been carefully considered, but final action thereon had been deferred for a few days. In a conversation with another prominent officer of a coal company the reporter was informed that the companies intended to fix the price of coal during the coming season "as high as Providence would permit and as low as

Mr. Garfield, after explaining the bill, said that the Committee on Appropriations had attempted this session to pursue the same policy as it did last year in keeping down the appropriations. The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was two millions less than last year because the Geneva award appropriation was in last year's bill. The post-office appropriation bill gave about one and a half million more than last year. The pension bill was about the same. The sundry civil appropriation bill was about

Mr. Sener claimed that his committee had marched square up to its duty and had not found the Attorney-General to be as much smeared as the gentleman seemed to think.

Mr. Beck returned to the charge against the Attorney-General, connecting him with the safe burglary business and saying that Harrington had won this spurs when he had his safe broken open, and in furtherance of that conspiracy had become fit to be appointed Assistant Attorney-General of the United States.

He warned the Republican side of the House that the time was coming when obnoxious tariff bills could not be passed while $3,000,000 items were appropriated blindly. The discussion drifted through devious ways into the question of political troubles in Alabama and of the use there of what is known as the "overflow of bacon" for the influencing of votes. On this point a noisy altercation took place between Luttrell of Cal, a member of the Alabama committee, and Mr. Pelham of Alabama, the former asserting and the latter denying the use of such bacon to induce col ored voters to vote the Republican ticket.

Mr. Sheats of Alabama asserted there never had been a pound of that bacon used to influence voters and denounced as a lie the charge that Republicans had intimidated Democratic voters in Alabama either by bacon or any oters in Alabama either by bacon or any other improper means. (Laughter.)

A scene of great confusion and uproar took place in which the principal actor was Mr. Luttrell of Cal., who called for the reading of an affidavit and then when it was partly read sought to stop the reading in order that he ght occupy the remainder of his five minutes

Several Republicans insisted that the paper should be read and Mr. Luttrell asserted that the other side was trying to stifle free speech. At length G. F. The Efforts for a Compromise. New York, Feb. 24.-A New Orleans special to the Herald last night says it is now very evident that the Wheeler compromise will be accepted by the Conservatives. At the cancus of the Legislature the vote to go into executive session is admitted on both sides to have been that the care of a test vote; it stood 37 to 33. Dispatches hav been received from many leading Democrats advising this course, and the probabilities are that the majority in favor of its acceptance will that the majority in favor of its acceptance will be still larger. Dispatches were received, stating that in the event of its acceptance Wheeler would immediately return to New Orleans to make the arbitration necessary to the adjustment. Governor Kellogg expressed his satisfaction at the results, and says he has always been willing to abide by the decision of the Congressional Committee, that he had been notified last Saturday of the decision in his favor, and was at a loss to understand why Mchery should have protested when he repeatvor, and was at a loss to understand why McEnery should have protested, when he repeatedly agreed to abide by the same decision.
Pinchback has been telegraphing to the colored element vigorously. He charges that Kellogg the great Louisiana case is at last settled.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL Review of Portland Markets. WEEK ENDING Feb. 24, 1875. There are but few important changes to note in th rice current this week. The severe weather which has proved so serious a drawback to trade has begun to moderate, and business may reasonably be exected to start up. The money market is very quiet-Gold closed at 114g.

Apples have fallen about 50c on a barrel, and prices now range from $1 50 @ 2. Ashes are lower for pot, quoted at 7½ @ 10c. Butter has touched a very low point, the quotations being 30 @ 37c. Cheese very low point, the quotations being 30 @ 37c. Cheese is very steady. Coffee is quiet. Copper is steady. Drugs are dull; opium has taken a further fall to $8 75. Dry goods are steady. Fish show an increased demand; cod are firmly held and have advanced 25c for small; herring have also risen 25c. Flour shows a better feeling. Groceries are quiet. Grain is unchanged in price, and in fair demand. Iron exhibits no change. Lard is a little more active, but there is no change in prices. Leather is firm, with a steady demand. Lumber is very quiet. Molasses is dull. Naval stores exhibit no change. Oils have advanced 10c for sperm. Produce is fairly active; eggs have fallen to 27 @ 30c, and a further decline is probable. Provisions show increased activity, especially in pork products. See is are quoted at 11½ @ 12c for clover, and $3 12 @ 325 for herd grass. Spices exhibit no change. Sugar is without change. Teas are quiet. Tin is held at an advance for plate. Tobacco has recovered from the flurry and prices are settling down.

Boston, Wednesday, Feb. 23.

The shipments of boots and shoes from this market to places outside of New England for the past week have been 33,21 cases, and 52 cases rubbers, against 34,758 cases for the same week last year.

The shipments from Lynn for the week have been 6028 cases, against 6724 cases for the same week last year. Total shipments from Haverill for the week have Total shipments from Haverill for the week have been 3911 cases, against 4473 cases for the corresponding week last year.

There is nothing new to note in the boot and shoe trade in this market. There is nothing more than a fair spring business in the aggregate, while it is less evenly distributed among manufacturers than usual, so that while some houses are working quite up to their capacity others are comparatively quiet. The boot manufacturers are not so busy as usual, and there is no disposition to make up goods for a market unless they are ordered. The Wool Market.

The Wool Market.

Boston, Feb 24.—[Reported for the Press.]—The following is a list of prices quoted this afternoon:

Domestic—Obio and Pennsylvania pick-lock 58 @ 60c; do choice XX 54 @ 55c; do fine X 53 @ 55c; medium 54 @ 57c; cearse 50 @ 52c; Michigan extra and XX 51 @ 53c; fine 50 @ 51c; reedium 51 @ 52c; common 47 @ 48c; other Western fine and X 49 @ 52c; medium 49 @ 52c; common 45 @ 48c; pulled extra 40 @ 55c; superfine 40 @ 55; No 1, 25 @ 35c; combing fleece 57 @ 65c; California 15 @ 40c; Texas 25 @ 42c; Canada 40 @ 55c; do combing 65 @ 70; Smyrna washed 17 @ 33c; do unwashed, 14 @ 22c; Bucnos Ayres 18 @ 38c; Cape Good Hope 33 @ 37c; Australian 45 @ 56c; Donskoi 20 @ 36c; Mestiza pulled 50 Ayres 18 25; Cape Good Hope 36 25 12; Austria, in 45 26 25c; Donskoi 20 26 36c; Mestiza pulled 50 28:2]c.

The demand for Wool is fair and prices remain quite steady. Stocks in the hands of manufacturers is quite small and, with a better demand for goods and more remunerative prices, the prospects of the trade are more hopeful, than for some time past. We do not look for any material change in prices, up or down, for the present but with any increased demand for Wool the market must be firm and strong. In New York no business of importance has been consummated since our last. The demand has been limited to the actual daily requirements of manufacturers, who seem to believe that prices will recede from their present position, and are holding back to await the time when they can purchase on, what they consider, more favorable terms.

In Philadelphia the quiet condition of the market moted last week still continues, owing to the partial suspension of operations by many Eastern mills, caused by the ice in the streams. The market is very bare of medium grades, which are in steady demand at full prices, while fine Wools are entirely neglected. an 45 @ 56c; Donskoi 20 @ 36c; Mestiza pulled 50

Assisting Nature. It is of no use attempting to force nature. She won't stand it, and rebels. She must be coaxed, as t were, not driven. For instance, in attempting t overcome constipation or indigestion, violent, or what physicians call, by way of euphony, "heroic" treatphysicians call, by way of euphony, "heroic" treatment, is sure to defeat the purpose in view, which is, or should be, to permanently remedy the evil. The use of drastic cathartics is especially to be deprecat-cated, for though they temporarily overcome costive ness, yot the intestines are so weakened and inflamed by them as to be rendered unfit to perform the ejective function properly. How much better to assist nature in such a case with such a mild and salutary aperient as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which strengthen at the same time that they relieve the bowels. Not only is this result achieved by their use but the activity of the torpid liver is restored, the stomach invigorated, and the entire system greatly benefited.

Dyspersia is the most discouraging and dist ing disease man is heir to. Americans are particularly subject to this disease and its effects; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness neartburn, water-rash, gnawing and burning pains in the pit of the stomach, coming up of the food coated tongue, disagreeable taste in the mouth, im-pure blood and all diseases of the Stomach and Liver. Two doses of Green's August Flower will relieve you at once, and there positively is not a case in the United States it will not cure. If you doubt this go o your Druggist, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by W. F. PHILLIPS & CO., Wholesale Agents.

This s an action of assumpsit upon an account annexed to the writ to recover the price of two dozen eye glasses charged at $21.87, and two gold thim bles The plaintiffs are manufacturers of spectacles thimbles and solid rings in New York, and the defendant is a jeweller in Lewiston, Maine. The tes-timony showed that the goods were sold by sample by an agent of the plaintiffs, usually called a runner or drummer. The thimbles were ordered by letter and sent by mail.

The defendant introduced no testimony but claime that the plaintiffs could not recover because they had not shown that the agent who sold the goods by sample was licensed, and cited section 1, Revised Statutes 187I, which provides that "No person, ex cept as hereinafter provided, shall travel from town to town, or place to place, in any town, on foot, or for sale, or offering for sale, any goods, wares or merchandise, whole or by sample, under a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, and the forfeiture of all property thus unlawfully carried, etc." The presiding judge ruled pro forma that the plain

DECEASED.—Tuesday morning Mr. Daniel G. Rollins, father of F. J. Rollins, Esq., of this city, died at his residence in Great . Falls. He had been an invalid for more than three years, but was able to drive out in pleasant weather. and was in full possession of his mental faculties to the last. Mr. Rollins was a descendant of James Rollins of Devonshire, England, who came to Newington, near Portsmouth, N. H., about the year 1637, and on the Piscataqua river purchased a farm, which has ever since been in possession of some lineal decendant bearing his surname. His mother was Betsey Shapleigh, a descendent of Alexander Shapleigh of England, who came to America as the agent of Fernando Gorges, about the year 1635, and whose farm was in Kittery, (Elliot) Me., on the east bank of the Piscataqua, nearly opposite that of James Rollins. This farm has ever since been in the possession of a lineal descendent bearing the name of Shapleigh. Mr. Rollins has for the last forty years lived at Great Falls, N. H., extensively engaged general business. For several years he was President of the Great Falls and Conway railroad, and for ten years was Judge of Probate for the county of Strafford. Three of his brothers, Richard of Iowa, and Samuel S. and Andrew W. of Great Falls, are still living, as are also his two sisters. The children have numbered eleven, nine of whom, four sons and five daughters, are now living. The sons are Franklin J., collector of internal revenue at

Portland; Edward A., formerly at the head of

York city and county, and George F., now residing at Washington. The daughters are Mrs. Thomas C. Parks of Newton, Mass.; Mrs. Oliver W. Shaw of Austin, Minn.; and Mrs. Susan A. Pope, and Misses Caroline E. and Mary P. of Great Falls. CHANDLER'S BAND .- A good musical organization in a city of the size of Portland, should be assisted and encouraged as a local institu tion of considerable importance to the pleasure and enjoyment of its citizens, and also as a neans, sometimes extremely desirable and f valuable, of showing to our guests and friends the cordial reception which speech alone can not quite convey. Mr. Chandler proposes to supply this want the coming summer, with a a first class band and orchestra second to none that comes here, in combination and tout ensemble, made up of men of character as citizens as well as capabilities as musicians-a combination not always to be found in large cities. To uniform such an organization in the style desired by those who employ them, and to compare with the metropolitan bands, with whom they must often meet here and elsewhere is a tax which the band business of Portland will not warrant. Consequently all who desire to see ourband as well equipped as others, should remember that the uniform is worn to please every one but the wearer of it, and as every one cannot assist by employing the band, another way is opened, which a large number of our business men have improved by ferwarding to Mr. Chandler their "encouragement" in quite generous sums. Others have shown their interest by purchasing tickets to their concert which takes place on the 9th of March. All who wish to see a good band should take this as a hint to go and do likewise. THIS LIGHT HOUSE DISTRICT -The Navy Department has appointed Commander Henry F. Picking Inspector for this district to succeed the late Commander Weld N. Allen. Commander Picking arrived in town yesterday and will assume the duties of the position at once. Commander Picking was born in Pennsylvania, in 1840, and appointed from that state to the Naval Academy, 1857. Attached to the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, on the frigate St. Lawrence, 1861-2; present at the sinking of the privateer Petrel, and engagement with the rebel ram Merrimack, and Sew all's Point batteries, 1862; East Gulf Blockading Squadron, 1862, West Gulf, 1863; on duty at Naval Academy, 1864; South Atlantic Block ading Squadron, 1864-5; in skirmishes with patteries on Sullivan's Island same year; on steamer Swatara, West India Squadron, 1865-6; commissioned Lieut. Commander July 25th, 1866; attached to steamer Swatara, European Squadron, 1866 8; League Island Navy Yard.

plains itself: The following-"That Mr. Wescott, the Republican nominee and present encumbent, has pledged himself to support Orin Ring as City Marshal"—copied from the Boston Globe into to-day's Argus is untrue in every particular. The name of Orin Ring has never been suggested to me for that or any other office. GEO. P. WESCOTT.

February 24, 1875. The statement in question appeared in the Portland correspondence of the Globe. In view of the fact that the Portland correspondent of that paper is an attache of the Argus, the publication of the statement by the Argus is decidedly cool, and very characteristic. The 75 in all. animus of the publication is evident.

PORTLAND AND OGDENSBURG RAILROAD. At an adjourned session of the special meeting Tuesday afternoon the following order was "That the Mayor may be, and he stockholders of the Portland and Ogdensturg Raiiroad Company, and represent the interest of the city at said meeting, and also to oppose the consolidation of the management of said corporation with any other corporation." The consolidation referred to is that meationed in Monday's issue of the PRESS. OUR DANCES .- The managers of "our dances" so popular last winter, will give a grand ball at Army and Navy Hall, Monday evening March 8th. The invitations and tickets are very handsome, and the order of dances will be the most elegant ever gotten up in this city. Those who are fortunate enough to receive invitations will look forward to this ball as the event of Cumberland County Medical Society. The regular meeting of the Cumberland County Medical Society was held yesterday Dr. T. A. Foster presented a patient for exmination with emphysema of the lungs. The records on the last meeting were read and confirmed. The first paper called for was one by Dr. Foster, on "Injury of brain from a fall." It was a case of probable fracture of the skull without displacement, ending in recovery. The Doctor explained at some length the meaning of the symptons, by the anatomical distribution of the Dr. Gordon then gave a verbal report of two very interesting operations for prolapsus uteri, with rupture of the peritoneum, explaining upon the blackboard the various steps of the operation known as Emmet's operation. The result of both cases was very satisfactory.

The time for adjournment having arrived, Dr. Hersom's report was postponed till the next meeting. The interest in these meetings is steadily increasing, and the number in attendance is very satisfactory. The business committee have in contemplation plans for still further increasing the value of these meetings generally. SIR MARMADUKE.—Eichberg's new operetta of Sir Marmaduke (which, by the way, is to be given in this city on the 18th of March) will nuch interest Portland people because of the appearance in it of Miss Alice Carle. The Boston Advertiser highly commends the work.

and has the following to say: The music by Mr. Eichberg is well worthy of comic opera. It is all light, sparkling and full of melody. The concerted pieces show Mr. Eichberg's mastery of composition, and the piano score is richer and more symphonic than modern, compositing to works of much Bichberg's mastery of composition, and the piano score is richer and more symphonic than modern composers give to works of much greater pretensions. None of the music is tedious, and nowhere do evidences of too close following or imitation of other works appear. The words are necessarily of a character to deter most singers from selecting music of the opera for the concert room, but there are two or three of the fifteen numbers which are sure to become familiar in that way—notably the quarrel duet for tenor and soprano, "Now pray hear me," which is perchance the best number in the opera, and will elicit an encore nine times out of ten. Mr. Woolf has succeeded admirably with the libretto. He has altered Mr. Morton's dialogue but very little, but in the songs he has written lines such as can be found in few English operas.

As for the singing, that goes almost without saying. Of course Mrs. Smith gave the soprano music with excellent effect, and that which fell to Mr. Barnabee and Mr. Winch was admirably rendered. The contralto, Miss Alice Carle, was probably a stranger to the majority of the audience. We believe she is a Portland lady, and was first engaged here as the contralto of the First Unitarian church in Cambridge. She is a bright-eyed brunette, quite young, and of a pretty face and figure. She has a clear, strong and brilliant contralto voice, capable of fine execution if she succeeds in overcoming a decided nasal tendency. Her style, though as yet somewhat crude, shows very decided dramatic genius, which, if cultivated, should enable her to take good rank. Smith, of course, made no pretensions to acting. Mr. Winch was decidedly amateurish, and Mr. Barnabee, though quite funny at times seemed to lack energy, and his impersonation had a decided tendency toward monotony.

THE MUSEUM.-The "Romance of a Poor Young Man" had its closing representation last vening. It is to be regretted that larger ouses have not greeted this really fine play,a play which, in many respects is the best thing which has yet been put upon the boards at the Museum. We trust it may be revived ome time in the future under more favorable rcumstances. This evening the popular sensational drama of "Led Astray" will, by special request, be put on, and will of course draw MAINE DENTAL ASSOCIATION .- The members met in the Council Chamber yesterday moruing and after a discussion of "Celluloid and its uses," adjourned to the office of Dr. E. Bacon, where the Microscopical Cabinet of the society was examined. It was expected that Dr. Bacon would perform a clinic, but he was Council Chamber and adjourned.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT .- On this and to-morrow evenings the Bisbee dramatic club give an entertainment at the vestry of the Congress Square church. The two dramas entitled "The Tempter," and "Never say Die," and the burlesque opera entitled "Arabella the Fair," will be given. The best of music will be furnished during the evening. This club is prepared to put these plays on in fine style, and it should have a full house each evening.

the revenue department at Washington; Dan-SOCIAL FESTIVAL.-The social festival at iel G., Jr., Assistant District Attorney of New the First Raptist church last evening was well attended, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. A good quantity of fancy articles were disposed of during the evening, and the refreshment room was as usual well patronized. This evening the festival will be contiqued and if any one wants to get a good cup of coffee let him stray into the vestry during the evening.

THE ATMOSPHERE of Love is a pure, sweet breath, This desideratum is one of the results of using SOZODONT, which not only invigorates and preserves the teeth, but renders the teeth as fragrant as a rose.

THE place to buy black brilliantines is at Rines Brothers, Middle street, opposite H. H. Hay's. MEN's heavy rubber boots only $2.50 for Woonsocket or Boston make, at Hall's rubber store, under Falmouth Hotel.

Better than Going South.—"Go South! go South!" is the parrot cry of the friends of the consumptive. It is well meant, but silly. Few of those who are suffering from lung and throat complaints can go South, or would be benefited if they did go. Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is worth more than millions of cubic feet of southern air as a remedy for every species of pulmonary complaint. It will cure any cough, any cold, any brouchial complaint, and effectually arrest the tendency to consumption. PIKE'S TOOTH ACHE DROPS-Cure in one

PREPARED BY H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass. What is Vegetine?—It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers; for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep,—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has cured and relieved thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the Vegetine. Give it late trial for your compaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is re mended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure these Complaints. VALUABLE INFORMATION.

Gentlemen—My only object in giving you this testimony is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which 4aused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be n blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently, I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from Pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before and I attribute it all to the use of Vegetine. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vegetine's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely. C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Liniment Iodide of Ammonia.

A Message to the Suffering.

When a remedy is productive of such relief as to excel all other remedies in its curative results, it is a duty to make it known as general as possible. This consideration has actuated the proprietor WM. M. GILES, to bring before the public his LINIMENT HODIDE AMMONIA. IODIDE AMMONIA.

The remarkable cures it has effected classes it as one of the most important and valuable remedies ever discovered for the cure and relief of pain in any form. It cures Neuralgin, Face Ache, Rheumatism. Cout, Frosted Feet, Chilblains. Sore Thront, Eryspelas, Bruises and Wounds of every nature, in which the effects of extenal applications are almost magical, and in which its internal administration is found to be most efficacions. Ebysicians prescribe it for their patients and accord it their unhesitating approval as an invaluable discovery.

The LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA is an essential appointment in all well-regulated stables and where large numbers of horses are provided for and where there is a liability to the visitations of a class of epidemic diseases for which this preparation is a recognized remedy. No stable should be without it, for no stable can really be deemed safe that is not supplied with it.

MR. WILLIAM M. GILES, Chemist: Dear Sir—
Your Agent. Mr. Guy S. Frazey, called on me early in July last to introduce your LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA. Being a skeptic in regard to the great variety of articles patent for the cure of all sorts of diseases, I had no faith in your Iodide, but, after a long discussion with your agent, it occurred to me that I had a horse I was using for private that had a shoe bile on his near forward leg. I told him if he thought it would remove that bunch, I would try it.
Suffice it to say that I have used it very persistently till the present time, and I now find it nearly removed, and think it will shortly disappear entirely.
From this trial of your remedy I cheerfully recommend its use to any one who has a horse or horses afflicted in this way. I would further say that, while using it for the above, the same horse started another bunch on the off leg; the Liniment was applied immediately, and the bunch has disappeared.

JUST published by the Peabody Medical Institute; a new edition of the celebrated medical work entitled SELF-PRESERVATION. It treats upon MANHOOD, how lost, how regained and how perpetuated, cause and cure of EXHAUSTED VITALITY, IMPOTENCY, Premature Decline in Man, Spermator-rhea, or Seminal Losses (nocturnal and diurnal), Nervous and Physical Debility, Hypochondria, Gloomy forebodings, Mental Depression, Loss of Energy, Haggard Countenance, Confusion of Mind and Loss of Memory, Impure State (t the Blood, and all diseases arising from the ERRORS of YOUTH, or the indiscretions or excesses of mature years. INTERNATIONAL STEAMSHIP CO. It is, indeed, a book for every man, young and middle-aced men in particular. 300 pages, bound in beautiful French cloth, illustrated, price only $1.

A Book for Every Woman, Entitled. SEXUAL PHYSIOLGGY OF WOMAN, AND HER DISEASES; or, Woman treated of Physiologically, and Pathologically, in health and disease, from Intancy to Old Age. 350 pages, bound in beautiful French cloth. With the very best prescriptions for prevailing diseases. Price $2.00.

A Book for Everybody. A Book for Everybody.

A Book for Everybody.

The Peabody Institute has also just published a newbook trearing exclusively of NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASES, more than two hundred royal octavo pages, twenty elegant engravings, bound n substantial muslin, price $2.

Either of the above books are sent by mail to any part of the world, closely sealed, postage paid on receipt of price. Or all three books sent to one address at the same time on receipt of only $4. Here is offered over eight hundred and fifty pages of the ablest and best printed and bound popular medical science and literature, on subjects of vital importance to all, for only $4—barely enough to pay for mailing. It should be borne in mind that these great Medical Works are published by the Peabody Medical Institute, an honored institution, established with large funds for the sole purpose of doing good.

These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the Married or Single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced, to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the New Discoveries of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before full to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books. The press throughout the country, the clergy and the medical faculty generally highly extol these extraordinary and useful works. The most fastidious may read them.

Address the Peabody Medical Institutte, No. 4 Bulfinch St. (opposite Revere House), Boston, Mass. N. B. The author and consulting physicians can be consulted on all of the above named diseases, and all diseases requiring skill AND EXPERIENCE. fion with the steamer between Eastport and Calais for passengers.
