

of the December (Christmas) number. Nicholas will be delayed until the first ber, owing to the largely increased the extra work on the frontispiece, to be printed in seven colors. The St. Nicholas is always the greatest the year, and the editors are said to have transcribed this year's pictures, poems, carols, etc. It is story, "Grandmamma's Pearl," by tt, part of a serial story by J. T. ge, one of Mr. Stockton's best fairy beautifully illustrated article, "The be Cloth of Gold," an original "Al-children," "Coasting on Lake Winni-

