Neptune was getting tired of the idle frivolity of his court. Even an occasional shark hunt did not seem to satisfy his longing to be doing something worth while. The private secretary one day suggested that he might open an office and so obtain an insight into the Strenuous Life. His Majesty was greatly pleased.

He gave orders that a commodious and attractive suite of caverns on Deepwater Avenue be leased for his use.

"Let William W. Roberts Co. of Portland fit up the offices," he directed his prime minister, "they know just what is needed and they have the goods."

CHEBEAGUE PARK.

H. C. NEEDHAM GETTING HEARTY SUPPORT FOR PUBLIC PLAYGROUND.

Deeds May Pass Early in Fall.

The accompanying cut shows the magnificent tract of land on the east end of Chebeague Island, which has been taken for a park by the association headed by Mr. H. C. Needham of Hudson, Mass., and is to be a public playground and forest preserve for Chebeague residents and summer people. The idea has taken very strong hold of several well known summer residents and with Mr. Needham's forceful promotion of the scheme, the necessary money seems likely to be more than raised by September first. There are upwards of twelve acres in the plot, the cottage on the shore not being included. It is principally virgin woodland and will be cleared up, swings, seats, etc., put in and an open space laid out for tennis, etc.

The plan seems to be one worthy the attention of other resorts on the Maine coast and now that Chebeague has taken the lead others may follow. Mr. Needham has the hearty support of everyone who has the interests of the island at heart, and is putting in his time without remuneration. During the latter part of August an association will be formed and the following gentlemen will be asked to serve in the following offices: President, H. C. Needham, Hudson, Mass.; Vice President, George F. Taft, Allston, Mass.; Secretary, John S. Crowley, Eversley, Mass.; Treasurer, Capt. Alfred E. Hamilton; Directors, Henry W. Bowen, Royal H. Bennett and Rufus A. Soule, and others.

CLIFF ISLAND.

THIS HUSTLING ISLAND IS ENTERTAINING A THROG OF TOURISTS.

Happenings Concerning the Social Life Here.

The number of people on Cliff at the end of July compares favorably with last year, and this means that the island is entertaining more people than at any other year in its history. Its popularity is growing by leaps and bounds.

The Cliff Island Improvement Society met again last Saturday evening but adjourned until Wednesday on account of no quorum. Yesterday the adjourned meeting was held at the residence of Mr. A. A. Holden on the north end of the island. The business conducted included the appointment of the executive committee, also further investigation of the progress of the petition asking for four ladders and twenty buckets to be purchased for the island and placed in responsible hands. The Society are to furnish a place for the equipment, which there is little doubt will be given by the city. There was another matter broached which was somewhat in the nature of a surprise. A tennis court is urgently needed and the matter of looking up the expense of laying out a good dirt court was discussed. Mrs. K. B. Batchelor of the Aucisco House, who was present, has been granted the use of land by Com. R. E. Peary for this purpose and she offers to bear a portion of the expense in order that the guests of the hotel may have an opportunity to play. The Improvement Society will have entertainments later for raising funds. A very successful one was given last summer in the parlors of the Aucisco.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Johnson of Gorham are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson, this week.

The new revenue cutter Androscoegin, which is to take the place of the cutter Woodbury at Portland, awoke the echoes with her musical whistle Tuesday as she passed up the sound.

Mrs. Hinesdale Smith of Springfield, and Miss M. Newsam of Boston are at the Cove cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Kenah of New York, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Eldridge and Mr. Frank Eldridge of Boston, are located at the Leighton & Hills cot-

FAIR NETTED ABOUT $100.

CHEBEAGUE COTTAGES AND HOTEL PEOPLE AIDED FUND.

Sale at Hill Crest Hall Largely Patronized Friday Evening.

The fund which is being raised for the new church building at the east end of Chebeague, was given a big lift Friday evening through the efforts of the summer people here. The fair which has been quickly gotten up for this purpose, was a pronounced success and the tables which were arranged at Hill Crest hall, were quickly relieved of their articles by the throng of well wishers of the island's religious welfare. The hall was most attractively decorated and each booth was dressed in varied colors of crepe paper showing up in a handsome manner, while the comely ladies, who presided at each table, were none less neatly attired in white with here and there a dash of the colors of their respective booths. A feature of the evening which had not been advertised was the appearance of the Chebeague Fund, which gave gratuitously a program of about an hour's length, adding a great deal to the pleasure of the evening.

The proceeds of the fair were approximately $90 to $100, about a third of which was realized from the fancy articles and another third from tickets and door receipts. The money will be added to the amount already in the hands of the church treasurer for the building fund. A lot is already paid for and owned by the society.

The tables were respectively in charge of the following. Fancy articles, a large booth in the center of the hall; Mrs. Philip D. Hawkins, Mrs. L. C. Hyde and Miss Dorothy Hyde of Springfield, Mass. This booth was decorated in white and yellow crepe paper with Japanese lanterns and was lighted by handsome lamps giving a stunning center piece for the floor. Candy: Mrs. William Allen Harris, Miss Rieta Harris and Miss Hart-Lester Harris. The dressing of this booth was particularly pleasing, having a bower of ferns and clematis arranged above a base of white on which antique candelabra and lanterns gave a mellow light. A Russian candy dish filled with bunch berries was placed in the center and fifty pounds of candy in antique hand painted trays and pewter plates looked so good that a throng of buyers soon relieved the table of its weight of sweets. Misses Ambia and Harriet Harris were flower girls, selling nasturtiums and sweet peas from this table also. Grab: a brace of steel tubs half filled with sea sand in which were hidden packages to tempt the children. The process was unique, the buyer of a right to grab being allowed to pluck a flower from branches which were imbedded in the sand. The flower bought the package to which it was attached from the hidden depths. Needless to say there were not half "grabs" enough and nickels came flowing in at this corner profusely. The ladies who devised this booth were: Mrs. W. C. Newell, Misses Mary and Margaret Newell of Springfield, and Miss Elizabeth Ash of Philadelphia. Bread and cake: Mrs. George H. Sweetser, Mrs. Howard S. Hamilton, Mrs. J. Alvin Hamilton, and Miss Bertha M. Seabury. This table looked as neat and appetizing as it might well be expected to being in charge of the ladies mentioned. The dainty and wholesome articles were soon disposed of to cottagers and campers, who were only too glad of the opportunity to get it. The table wore colors of white with green festoons around it. The Hill Crest table took the form of a palm reading booth and in its colors of white and red, the ever popular Hill Crest colors, it proved an irresistible attraction. Mrs. A. P. Bicknell of Boston, was chairman of this table; while Mr. O. L. Potter and Miss McKenzie of Springfield acted as gypsy fortune tellers most successfully. One of the most handsome tables on the floor was that of Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. Sweeney, which was a beautiful booth of red crepe paper, with a festoon border of red and black in the same material hanging to the floor. A big sunshade was suspended over it with a dozen Japanese lanterns pendant there from. The

BOWLING PRIZES AWARDED.

ROLL OFF FOR LADIES AND ALSO FOR GENTLEMEN HELD WEEKLY.

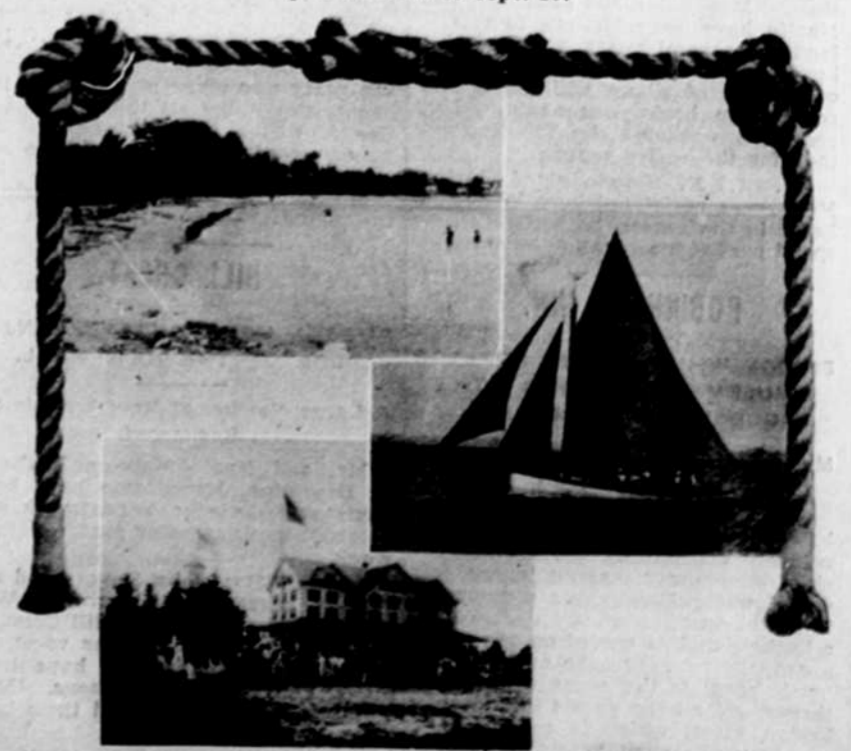

The Sport is Becoming Very Popular With The Summer Visitors at Chebeague.

Friday evening the first weekly roll off for gentlemen was held at the Chebeague Bowling alleys. Those eligible to enter the contest were the ten highest rollers for the week. Attended by a large audience of cheering men and women the contestants battled for two long strings, the prize being a box of fifty cigars for the highest total on two strings. The winner was John T. Coy of Waltham, who is registered at the Summit House, his total being 198, the striking feature of the evening was that on each string he rolled 99. The next highest was Winfield R. Hamilton with 84 and 88, making a total of 172, while those who tied at 140 for the lowest total were: William G. Marple of Dedham and Ivan Bryan of Chebeague. Some rare sport was witnessed during the evening and it was not until the second string was finished that one could be sure of the winner. Six of the ten men who entered rolled over 100 during the week, and the remaining four ranged from 96 to 100.

The ladies roll off following Saturday morning was again a decided success as last week, with the number of ladies as high as fifteen this week. The prize was a handsome white sweater and was won by Miss Alice Perkins of Springfield, who is registered at the Hill Crest, with strings of 75 and 84, total of 159. Mrs. J. F. Bothfield of Newton rolled well, scoring 149 on the two without a spare, which is exceptionally good rolling with very poor breaks. Mrs. O. H. Burkhardt, also of Newton, winner of last week's prize, looked like a sure winner during the first string, she being tied with Miss Penfield at 78, but in the second string a score of 66 brought her average to third place. Much enthusiasm was shown during the contest, and all were eager to make a try for the excellent prize offered by Mr. F. A. Merriam. This week, without doubt, more interest than ever will be anticipated.

Louis Weinberg of New York City is registered at the hotel for an extended sojourn. Mr. Weinberg conducts a wholesale grocery and baker supply store at 36 Hudson street, New York.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Withers of Portland, Me., were here for dinner, Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Spink of Brooklyn, N. Y., registered Sunday last for their summer vacation. This is their first outing on the island and they are greatly pleased with the hotel and its appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wilkinson of Washington, D. C., were among those that registered at the hotel Monday for dinner. Mr. Wilkinson is connected with the U. S. Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

William H. Lambrich of Cleveland, Ohio, was among the transients that was here for dinner, Tuesday. Mr. Lambrich is spending his vacation in the Pine Tree State and at present is located at Portland.

Mrs. A. S. Cushing of Lawrence, Mass., who is here for the summer months, was greatly surprised Friday last, when in honor of her birthday she was remembered with many gifts. Among the number was a wooden souvenir stein from Mrs. Walter D. Crafts and Miss Martha Field and a salt and pepper set from Mrs. L. A. Bickford of Auburn.

WOODBINE AND COTTAGE.

NOTES FROM THIS SELECT
BAILEY ISLAND BOARDING HOUSE.

Many Guests Here From Boston and Vicinity.

Mrs. E. A. Barry and daughter, Miss M. Josephine Barry, of Springfield, Mass., are sojourning here at the house for their summer vacation. Miss Barry was among the tourists of last year.

Miss Mary M. Starr of Brooklyn, N. Y., with her cousin, Miss Mary E. Seaman, also of that city, were among the arrivals of last week. They will remain for a short vacation.

Mrs. J. Scherp of New York is spending the season at this popular summer house. Miss Scherp is enthusiastic over the future of the island as a summer resort and already she is planning to return next summer. Her niece, Mrs. J. Smalenbach and family, of New York, are also with her here.

Mrs. E. M. White of Elizabeth, N. J., is here for her usual summer vacation. Mrs. White has made Bailey's her abode for many summers and she has many friends among the patrons here.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allen of Larchmont Manor, N. Y., with her little daughter, Peggy, registered at the house to-day to spend the month of August with us. Later in the season she expects to be joined by her mother, who will remain here for some time. Mrs. Allen and daughter, Mrs. Martin have been visitors to this island for several years past and they have many friends among the summer colony, all of whom will gladly welcome them back once again. Last year they occupied the Tip Top cottage for the entire season.

Mr. J. F. Connolly of Boston, Mass., was registered here last week. Later in the season he will return to spend part of his vacation here.

ROBINHOOD INN.

BRIDGE WHIST IS THE POPULAR AMUSEMENT AMONG THE GUESTS AT THIS HOUSE.

Many Tourists Registered During The Past Four Days.

The guests of this popular summer hotel are enjoying themselves immensely and sailing parties are the chief diversion. About every fair day Hensley Massey has a party out in his sloop "Gilda" and occasionally a basket lunch is served on one of the nearby islands. In the evenings the music room is the scene of a merry throng and all the guests take part in bridge whist, which is certainly the popular amusement here this season. Later several bridge parties will be given and souvenirs will be awarded to those having the highest scores.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawley and their son, Master Harold Hawley of Scranton, Pa., registered here Sunday for a two weeks' sojourn. Mr. Hawley is a well known barrister with an extensive practice in that city.

W. K. Davidson of Washington, D. C., who has been here for a short vacation, returned home Tuesday last. Mr. Davidson conducts one of the largest drug stores in the National Capital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hart and child of Chicago, with Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Willcox, also of that city, are here for a short visit, their destination being Poland Springs. At this place they will make an extended stay.

Miss Evelyn Hain with her mother, Mrs. Hain, of Washington, D. C., are here for a two weeks' outing, having arrived last week. This is their first outing in Casco Bay and they are delighted with our island.

Miss Florence N. Hannon of New York City registered Tuesday for a five weeks' sojourn.

The Hamilton.

ANOTHER DANCE SATURDAY
LAST PRODUCED MUCH EN-JOYMENT.

New Arrivals Noted. Social Jottings of the Chebeague Hotel.

Owing to the inclemency of the night the hop of Saturday evening was confined to the guests of the house, but it was most fully enjoyed, being quite "en famille" and the floor was given over to a program of dances among which a German and several other pleasant diversions from the ordinary were indulged in. Mr. Walter C. Rogers furnished music as usual in his best style. The cool evening prevented the promenade of the veranda, but perhaps made the ball rooms even more comfortable.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Garland for their home in Ottawa, left a vacancy in the house, which their friends find hard to reconcile. Mr. John H. Garland remained over until Monday and then finally was obliged to tear himself away from the hotel. The Garland party and Mr. and Mrs. William Mortimer were entertained at a lunch at the Cumberland Club by Mr. Theodore Wright of New York just previous to their departure for home. Mrs. Garland and Mrs. Mortimer were patronesses at the opening season ball this year at The Hamilton.

Among the guests who were here last year who have recently arrived are: Mrs. J. H. Richardson, Mrs. H. E. Eaton and Miss Catherine Eaton of Germantown, Phila. They spent a day at Ogunquit on the way down, but could not induce themselves to accept the hospitality of that place in lieu of The Hamilton's many strong attractions. They are most cordially welcomed again at this hotel.

Miss N. F. Eaton of Somerville, Mass., has arrived for a term of weeks. Miss Eaton is connected with the Somerville city schools.

Mrs. G. S. Daso and Mr. R. M. Mansfield of New York City arrived Sunday for a sojourn at The Hamilton. This is their first visit to the hotel.

Miss Catherine Marsh and Mrs. J. T. Brown of Springfield were registered over Sunday, being en route from Squirrel Island to the White Mountains.

Mr. B. B. Howard of West Medford of the Illuminating Engineering Department of the Edison Electric Illuminating Co., of 39 Boylston street, Boston, registered Sunday at the Hamilton for a week's sojourn, this being his first visit to Chebeague, the most delightful island of Casco Bay.

The many friends of Mr. Frederick T. Widmer, the well known jeweler of 31 West street, Boston, and his two sons, who have been regular tourists at this hotel since its opening five years ago, will regret to hear that they are not to be with us this summer. They are at the present time registered at the Oak Grove House, West Boothbay, where they will remain the greater part of the season. The Widmer family were great favorites with all the tourists at this hotel and they were among the principal social workers here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gay of Boston, Mass., registered at the hotel Sunday for a two weeks' sojourn. Both are enthusiastic admirers of this island and they have many friends among the tourists here. Three seasons ago Mr. and Mrs. Gay were at the Hill Crest and they were active in all the social affairs there. Mr. Gay was a member of the Field Day committee that season while in the different events given for the ladies, Mrs. Gay took a prominent part and received honors in many of the races. At the dance given in the house last evening she was one of the patronesses.

The usual Wednesday evening dancing party was given at the house last evening and like all the former parties it was a brilliant affair. The young people were out in force and the German was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Walter C. Rogers furnished music at the piano.

HILL CREST.

GUESTS HERE GREATLY ENJOY
USE OF THE NEW HALL.

A Large Number of New Arrivals are Registered.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Buxbaum of Brookline, Mass., who have been registered here for the past week, will return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan and son Harold, of 25 Standish avenue, Wollaston, registered at the Hill Crest on Saturday for their summer vacation. Mr. Morgan and family have been guests here for several seasons. Miss Agnes Sprout accompanied them here on their trip this season.

Misses Gertrude and Louise Foster of Essex street, Beverly, Mass., registered at the house Monday for their summer vacation. The young ladies are spending their first season in Casco Bay and they, like all other Beverlyites, are delighted with our island.

A party of guests to register at the Hill Crest for over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Geddes and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Wollaston; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kneeland and daughter, Miss Viola; Miss L. B. Ingalls of Melrose and Mr. S. T. Johnson of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. A. Engel with their son Fred and daughter Miss Nellie, of Springfield, Mass., were among the guests to register here on Friday. Mr. Engel and family were at the Hill Crest during August last year and are to remain for about two weeks on their vacation this season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Farmer are expected on Saturday for their summer outing, which will probably extend through the month of August. Last season Mr. and Mrs. Farmer were registered over Field Day and furnished much enjoyment for the guests at the hotel, and entered at the masquerade at the Hill Crest with most original costumes. Mr. Farmer is interested in the George Farmer Shoe Co. at Springfield.

Miss Inez Nash of Worcester, Mass., Elizabeth Highm of New Bedford with the Misses Gertrude E. and Margaret Mackenzie are among the guests to register here for the summer outing, having arrived last week.

Mr. William S. Wallace of Springfield arrived on Saturday for his vacation which is his first visit to Chebeague. Mr. Wallace, leader of the well known Philharmonic Orchestra of Springfield, and is an accomplished player on the violin, and during his visit here will undoubtedly offer his services at a number of the Hill Crest dances, which will be greatly appreciated by the guests registered here.

PEAKS ISLAND HOUSE.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM PLANNED FOR GUESTS' ENTERTAIN-MENT.

Large List of Permanent Guests
Swelled by Many Visitors.

Manager Ralph E. Rowe has arranged a very attractive program of events for the amusement of the many guests who are now registered at his house. The Ely Trio which plays regularly at the hotel rendered a fine concert in the hotel parlors Sunday evening, assisted by Miss Jennie Howe, soloist.

A very interesting entertainment has been arranged for the guests' diversion on Saturday night of this week. It will consist of lectures by Mr. and Mrs. Mujumori, native Japanese lecturers, who came to the house at the special request of Manager Rowe and have been accorded many enthusiastic receptions in the places where they have been heard this season. Mr. Mujumori received his early education in Tokyo, Japan, and later studied at Des Moines College and the University of Chicago in this country, so is eminently fitted to speak on conditions in his land. It is of interest to note that no extra charge is made the guests of the hotel for these entertainments and it is against the rules of the house to allow a special collection to be taken for such an affair.

A very handsome souvenir menu has been prepared which will be distributed to the guests each Sunday at dinner. It is folded in the form of an envelope so that it may be mailed to friends and contains on the cover a pretty little view of the neighborhood which will be different each week.

The Aged Brotherhood of Portland held their 125th anniversary at the Peaks Island House last Saturday. A very enjoyable time was had on the island, the guests partaking of a special clambake which had been prepared for their entertainment.

The most enjoyable social affair which has taken place at the hotel during the past week was the pink domino masquerade, held last Friday evening in which over fifty couples took part. The masquerade had been arranged by Miss Marie Snyder of New York, Mrs. E. Soule, Miss Lilian Jacobs and Miss Mary Honohan. The lively crowd of dancers were all dressed in similar costumes, so much amusement was experienced by the young people in trying to discover the identification of their companions.

The Social Whist Club of Auburn came down for their sixth annual outing at the Peaks Island House last Sunday. Although the party numbered thirteen, evidently they overlooked the superstition connected with their number for they all seemed to enjoy the day immensely and were well pleased with the hospitality which was accorded them. The ladies and gentlemen of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dexter, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Turgeon and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delane Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Devinals.

An interesting statistical record has been kept for the past five seasons of the guests who have been registered at the hotel on each day of the summer. This record shows a remarkable increase of business for the house and indicates its growing popularity among the multitudes of visitors who visit Casco Bay every summer. Comparing the number of persons registered each day this season with the number for the corresponding day last year, it is found that there has always been an increase of at least thirty and sometimes the increase has reached sixty-four. Taking last Saturday, July 25, as a typical day of the season, when 275 guests were registered, it is found that the number of registrations for the two previous seasons on that day was 200 and 218 respectively.

JOHNSON COTTAGE.

H. F. Johnson, Prop., Bailey's Island, Me.
Summer boarders can find nice accommodations here. Bathing, boating and fishing. Bathing beach in front of the house. Excellent table with sea food, lobsters etc. Table board $7.50 per week. Rooms according to location, etc. Open until Sept. 15. To let fine large nice room cottage for the month of August. Excellent view of ocean and bay. Apply to H. F. Johnson, Bailey's Island, Maine.

Bailey Island

A citizens meeting was held last Monday evening in the school house for the purpose of forming committees for the protection of land owners and public sanitary conditions.

Two committees were appointed, the first of which Mr. L. M. York is chairman, two of the committee are Mr. York and Mr. Chas. Root. This committee was appointed for the purpose of laying out plans to form an organization consisting of competent members who will direct and report the work and progress of the committee. The second committee consists of the following members, Mr. E. E. Sennett, chairman, Mr. Frank Johnson, and Mr. A. C. Burnham of Boston. The work of the second committee will be to see that all waste matter and refuse is properly disposed of, and that all drains are kept in good condition.

The residents of our island have noticed a serious delinquency in regard to these matters and in order to keep the island in orderly condition, promote the interests of landowners and retain the glorious beauty of Bailey's Island the above mentioned men were elected as competent and faithful, and in future we see an island not all flecked by flying bits of paper dropped by careless visitors who are regardless of the fact that others who are more appreciative of the unmarred beauty are liable to traverse the same parts. Every citizen and landowner as well as true lovers of beauty will welcome this new move. Another meeting will be held next week.

Mr. Earl Goodwin of Turner, Maine, is the guest of Mr. Clinton Goodwin.

Mr. Bernard Johnson and William Black left Monday last on a three weeks sword fishing trip. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Black sailed on the "Katie Palmer," a handsome vessel, from Portland which has been anchored in Mackerel Cove for several days.

Among the seasons visitors of Bailey's Island, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bradford of Turner, Maine, deserve honorable mention. Their visits to the island are usually short and due to the kind hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goodwin of the Turner Cottage. As manager of the Turner Center Dairying Association, Mr. Bradford is well known in the state of Maine and a large portion of Massachusetts. Under his management the company has established branch factories through the state and placed wholesale stores in several Massachusetts cities, the patronage having increased from fifteen to two thousand charter members. The output of butter shows an increase of 6000 lbs. daily, also a large cream trade is carried on during the year, especially through the summer months. The whole management hinges on the integrity of Mr. Bradford. Today the business is on an excellent footing and continues to grow under his excellent management.

Mrs. E. D. Garabrant of Montclair, N. J., who has been a guest on Bailey's Island and who was registered with Mrs. Cram, left Monday last for a cruise to Bar Harbor in company with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hapcock, a physical teacher of New York. Mr. Hancock owns a handsome yacht. After their cruise, the party will travel to the White Mountains. Mrs. Garabrant expects to return to Bailey's Island later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Root, with their daughter, Miss Winifred Root, and friend, visited at Gurnet, Monday last.

Mrs. Winnie N. Burke, and Mrs. C. F. Caul of Boston, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Goodwin of the Turner cottage.

James G. Stetson has installed a new one horse power Tom Thumb engine for use in manufacturing his famous ice cream.

At Driftwood cottage are Mr. Fred L. Moore and wife from Washington. Mr. Moore has long been identified with the larger improvements of the City Beautiful. By action of congressional committee an entire reassessment of the property of the city has been recently completed. In this Mr. Moore acted in his district as arbitrator and valuer. His connection with the Stock Exchange has continued to a late date.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow R. Leighton of Medford, Mass., are also at the Driftwood cottage. Mr. Leighton is one of the promoters of the Yumuri Rail and Trainway Co. in Cuba, with offices at 50 Congress street, Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Hugh Alexander, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, are among those registered at the "Driftwood." Mr. Alexander is a member of the Bar in Philadelphia.

Mr. A. H. Keim and wife, from Washington are also here. His duties in the Post Office department bring him in touch with many countries through the Dead Letter division for foreign members of the Postal Union.

Miss Florence Kirwin of Brooklyn, N. Y., will return to her summer home at Auburn, Long Island, N. Y., this week. For the past two weeks she has been the guest of Mrs. A. E. Hasbrouk at the Johnson cottage. On Saturday Mrs. L. A. Riffert of Bound Brook will arrive for a two weeks' sojourn. Last season Mrs. Hasbrouk and family were registered at the Ocean View Hotel.

Mrs. Barker at the Breakers on the shore, entertained a house party last week. Among those who were guests here were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raymond, Mrs. Lois W. Timpon and Mrs. Alfred Streuli, all of Plainfield, N. J.; Mrs. John D. Blumox of

AUCOCISCO HOUSE

CLIFF ISLAND HOTEL FILLED TO LIMIT OF CAPACITY.

Croquet Tournament, Euchre Party, and Various Good Times the Past Week.

The Aucocisco House at Cliff Island is having a record season, and every room in the hotel is taken, with the cottage fast filling up. Mrs. K. B. Batchelor's many friends from Southern cities are having jolly times here and reveling in the cool climatic conditions which always prevail at Cliff.

The principal event of the past week was the croquet tournament of Friday, Saturday and Monday, in which the preliminary games were contested by teams as follows: Mrs. J. T. Farrel and Miss Mary Norwood won from Mr. Edward H. Gray and Miss Alice H. Small; Mrs. J. E. A. Rose and Miss M. C. Batchelor won from Miss Elise Fanny Gray and Miss Mary H. Nicholson; Miss Annie P. Jordan and Miss Murphy won from Mrs. G. P. Stellman and Mrs. C. S. Schermerhorn; Miss Clark and Mr. J. T. Farrel won from Miss Margarettha Farrel and Miss Elizabeth Batchelor. The semi-finals and finals were won by Mrs. J. T. Farrel of New York and Miss Mary Norwood of Baltimore, who were awarded two dainty and handsome prizes. The consolation prize was presented to Miss Elizabeth Batchelor of Baltimore.

Another interesting service was led by Rev. Mr. Mead of Richmond, Va., Sunday, at which Mr. Edward H. Gray of Baltimore sang in a finished manner the beautiful tenor aria, "Art thou weary?" He was accompanied in a most delightful manner by Miss Mary H. Nicholson. Next Sunday Rev. S. S. Kroman of Portland, who is summing here on the island, will officiate.

A jolly party of nineteen guests went to Gurnet Bridge Tuesday and took dinner there. It was said that the epicurean sandwiches of Misses Jordan and Paine, also the delicious mayonnaise made by Mrs. Batchelor, were given most careful consideration on the trip by several of the untamed appetites in the party.

The departure of Miss Mary H. Nicholson, whose pleasant company has been most appreciated for the past few weeks, was much regretted. Miss Nicholson is to be at the White Mountains for the remainder of the season.

A photo contest is announced for next week.

The progressive euchre party of last week Wednesday was won by Miss Katharine W. Thomas of Elkhorn, Wis., with a score of eight games. Seven ladies who were tied at seven games each for second place, cut for the prize, and it was won by Miss Margarettha Farrel of New York. Miss Elizabeth Clark of Baltimore won the prize at the bridge table.

Rico Belmont is a lover of ice cream and cake. His birthday was celebrated by a big party at Cobb's Casino recently, and Rico barked his pleasure loudly. Rico is a hooded dog owned by Miss Louise Clark of Baltimore.

Miss Louise Clark gave a fishing party followed by a tea on the rocks Tuesday afternoon, at which a number of guests were invited. The winner of the prize for the biggest fish caught had not been decided up to our going to press, but it was unanimously agreed that the biggest one hooked got away—as usual.

Mrs. Randolph Norwood and Miss Mary Norwood of Baltimore have been registered for a few days. Mrs. T. M. Nelson and Miss M. P. Nelson, who are guests here, will go to East Gloucester, Mass., to remain for a time before returning South.

The Misses Murphy of Baltimore will spend the last of the season at Cape Elizabeth, where they have been some previous years.

Judge Thomas J. Morris and Miss

Morris of Baltimore, who were registered for dinner Friday, were delighted with Cliff Island, and we hope to be able to include them in our summer colony next year. Judge Thomas is a prominent member of the bar in Maryland, and is now stopping at Cape Elizabeth.

ROCKMERE HOUSE

MANY NEW ARRIVALS AT THIS POPULAR RESORT.

Pleasant Outings Enjoyed by the Guests.

Miss Martha M. Jones and Miss Lillian A. Chapin of Chelsea, Mass., are finishing their vacation at the Rockmere after spending part of the summer at Higgins beach, and have enjoyed a very pleasant stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brooks of South Framingham, Mass., who are at the Rockmere for a few weeks, take great pleasure in the fishing trips and clam bakes with which they enliven their time.

Hon. Asher C. Hinds of Washington and Chebeague was a guest of the hotel at dinner last Thursday.

Miss Mary L. Burrage and Miss Esther E. Elwell, who are former patrons of the house, recently made a trip up from Orr's Island, where they are spending the summer, to visit their friends and renew old acquaintances at the Rockmere.

Miss Lena May Yeaton and her sister, Miss Caroline E. Yeaton of Boston are enjoying a very pleasant vacation on the island and are guests of the hotel. Miss Lena Yeaton is now passing a few days at Poland Springs.

Miss Katharine M. Crabtree of Cambridge, Mass., has occupied much of her time while on the island sketching the shore scenes and other points of interest. She has finished some very interesting views and sketches.

Mr. H. H. Hall and his sister, Miss Helen M. Hall of South Framingham, Mass., spent last Wednesday night at the Rockmere. They are on a tour of Casco Bay and the neighboring favorite vacation resorts.

Mr. Daniel Wyman of Arlington, Mass., took dinner at the hotel on Thursday as the guest of Professor P. Schwamb of Arlington, who is summing here.

Miss Fannie Field of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is stopping at the Fern cottage, one of the hotel annexes, is making her first visit to the island and is much pleased with the beautiful surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bone with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bone and Miss Florence A. Bone of Somerville, and Miss Bone's cousin, Miss Annie F. Truelove of Waltham, are enjoying a very pleasant outing at the Rockmere.

Mr. Gilman Waite of Baldwinville, Mass., is spending a few days at the hotel.

A dance was held last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Percy R. Morton, who returned to his home in Watertown, Mass., the next day after a most enjoyable stay at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hopkins of Philadelphia have returned from a short trip to Newfound lake, New Hampshire, where they visited Mrs. Hopkins' mother.

Mr. Raymond Newcomb celebrated his 17th birthday at the Rockmere last Thursday. He received a number of handsome gifts and at supper the table was prettily decorated in honor of the occasion. A very handsome birthday cake had been furnished by the hotel's efficient cook, Miss Oldroyd of Boston, and the young man enjoyed the celebration which was arranged as a surprise to him, very much.

Long Island

The Long Island ball team met their first defeat Saturday at the hands of the Berlin Mills nine. Although the weather was not of the best and the rain persisted in falling, quite a crowd of the fair sex were on hand to cheer the boys on, but through hard luck and unfair play the Long Island team lost by one run, but their courage is good for many more games before the season ends.

Idyllic was the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bates was the scene of a brilliant gathering last Friday night when their daughter, Miss Ethel, gave a baby party. All the guests were in baby costume, and baby games were played. The favors were toys drawn from a fish pond and created much amusement. Fruit punch was served in individual nursing bottles and no one needed any instructions how to use them. The decorations were in pink and very effective.

The spacious piazza was inclosed and dancing was indulged in after the costumes were removed. Those present were Mr. Farwell, Walter Thomas, Misses Kate and Laura Thomas, Ruth and Lillian Ford, Ethel Wight, Mildred Allen, Mabel Davis, Alice Eaton, Bessie Wray, Theodora Demarest, Helene and Mildred Schonland, Messrs. Fred Ford Jr., Ralph and Edward Wight, Alton Mabry, Richard Brunell, Carl Schonland, Dave Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Webster.

Mrs. G. J. Hodgdon of Windemere cottage is entertaining her nieces, the Misses Edna and Hattie Brander of Chelsea, Mass.

Miss Helen Harvey of New York returned to her home last week, after spending a delightful vacation at Westlawn, the pleasant summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodick.

Miss Mabel Davis of the Commonwealth cottage is spending a week in Taunton, Mass., as a guest of Miss Dorothy Atwood.

Mr. Stanley Webster and Mr. Edward Wight of the Pow Wow cottage returned Friday from a business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. James and family of Portland have taken Seward cottage No. 4 for the season and had as recent guests Misses Marion and Josephine Proctor, sisters of Mrs. James.

Mr. Harold W. Stacy of Beverly, Mass., who assisted Mr. Marston several seasons in his store, is again on the island and assisting Postmaster Glendinning at his store. Harold is a great favorite with the young ladies and all are glad to see his smiling features again.

Recent guests at Sunny Slope cottage were Miss Gladys Leavitt of West st, Mrs. Fred Leavitt and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Noyes of St. John street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker of North Fryburg, Me., have taken the Everett cottage and have as guests Messrs. A. Neeland of N. Fryburg, Frank Stevens and Louis Davis of Portland.

Ex-Alderman C. H. Schonland and wife of Lawrence, Mass., returned to their home last Saturday after a visit with their sons, Messrs. Richard and Chas. Schonland.

Mr. Wm. E. Lancy of Everett, Mass., was a recent guest at the Clinton cottage.

Miss Jennie Hamilton of Boston, J. C. Viles and wife of Skowhegan were visitors last week at the Old Homestead cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Cook spent several days last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis at Orrs Island.

Dr. F. H. Nutting took out a very successful fishing party to Outer Green Island last Friday, in his speedy launch Bernice Eugenia. Messrs. Gilden, Ritchie and Selzer were in the party. About 135 pounds of cod and haddock were secured.

Mrs. J. W. Brown of the Earline cottage has just recovered from a severe attack of lumbago. Mr. B. A. Nustedt of Boston was a recent guest at the cottage.

Mrs. Albertina Damon, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Webster and daughter Frances, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Drew and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Libby and son, Mrs. G. W. Heal are at De Shawmut cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Record of East Auburn, Me., spent Saturday and Sunday at the Morrill cottage and had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brackett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Merrill of East Auburn, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Peters of Portland and Miss Ethel Lord and Mr. Neil MacKennon of Boston spent Sunday at Beach Cove, camping out.

Mr. C. W. Legrow, wife and daughters, the Misses Marion and Mildred, are at their cottage, Rockhaven at the East End.

Latest arrivals at the Auburn cottage are Miss Flora Stevens of Boston, Miss May McDowell of New York.

Mr. John Driscoll of Brighton and Mr. E. L. Fischer of Everett, Mass., are guests at the Belmont.

Miss Edith Macalmon of Thomaston Me., Mr. Wm. King of Somerville, Mass., Mr. Carl F. Jones of Somerville and Miss Florence Goodwin of Cambridge were guests the past week at the Bellevue cottage.

Mrs. F. A. Graves of Mattapan, Mass., the owner of Bay View cottage, spent the past week there and had as guests with her, her mother, Mrs. Henry Snow and Mrs. John Tolmon of Mattapan.

Mr. Arthur W. P. Wylie of Chelsea, Mass., is visiting his brother at the East End.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Kalekhot and son, Master Geo. W. Jr., of N. Y. City and Mr. J. H. Thompson of Boston are guests at the Coronado cottage.

Friday a number of summer residents at Mariner spent the day on the south side having a clam bake, which was a great success, bathing and other sports were indulged in during the day. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nichols and Miss Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Watson, Miles F. Jones, wife and daughter, Celeste, Mrs. F. W. Moore, Mrs. Ella Churchill, Miss Florence Goodwin, Miss May Davis and son Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Litzelman of Dorchester spent the past week at Longwood. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Long returned to their home Wednesday and will be greatly missed on the island. Mr. Long is a member of the Mass. Legislature as a representative from the third Middlesex district. Mr. Long's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Long of Cambridge arrived Thursday and will spend the rest of the season at the Longwood.

Miss Marguerite Perry of Waldmar cottage gave a house party Sunday in honor of her friend, Miss Niel Russell, who has been spending the past week with her. A delicious shore dinner was served at noon and the day was enjoyed in boating and bathing. Those in attendance were Misses Winnie and Elwell, Myrtle Stoddard, Niel Russell, Messrs. Frank Berry, J. Black and Reynold Lufkin.

Miss Helen Rose of Fairfield and Miss Vera Small of Fairfield were guests of the Kohrs the first of the week.

Mrs. Clara Foote, Miss Cora Foote and Mr. Edward Foote of Chicago were guests the past week at Camp Anchorage. Miss Mabel spent last week as a guest of Mrs. Sawyer in the Deering Dist.

Mr. Fred Wilson is entertaining a house party at his pleasant summer home. In the party are Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Blake and family of Amesbury, Mass., Miss Inez Clark of Beverly, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ballard and daughter Edna, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Varney of Farmington, Me., Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Whoever prayed for rain must have been most fervent. The wells are full again.

Jenks' Landing on Chebeague has been put on the list of "known" stopping places by the steamboat company. Why not Hamilton's, where there are about 100 times as many people to be accommodated?

The White Mountain Echo is doing double duty this summer, the editor of "Among the Clouds," being on an enforced vacation. The Echo's pages present their usual newsy, natty appearance and are excellently illustrated.

We miss the flag which is usually raised at Eagle Island when Com. Peary or his family are home. The aboriginal reminds us daily of his absence and also of his mission. Those who have strong eyes may see the signal without glasses of any kind from most of the lower bay islands if the day is clear.

Arrangements are being made to provide fire protection of some kind at Cliff Island. The movement is worthy of emulation by some of the bare pole reminds us daily of his apparent as yet to get any organization of this kind started. A bucket brigade, for a start, and a place where the buckets could be kept near the most congested points would perhaps be the means of saving thousands of dollars worth of property.

An open letter to President Eliot of Harvard, asking him to use his influence to obtain a general consideration throughout the country of the advisability of extending the vacation period in our schools until September 15, has been sent to several newspapers. From the standpoint of many prominent M. D.'s the present generation of school children are not in robust health, only about 10 percent being free from some weakness. It would seem that an added two weeks to the rest period would be a step in the direction of benefitting this condition, when we consider the crowding of most of the school-rooms and the shortening of many vacations in the country at a time when outdoor air is the very sweetest. The plan could surely not detract enough from progress of studies to overbalance the added impetus to health.

We cannot admit, argues the New York Evening Post, that the members of our "smart set," with all their stupidity and their passion for the inane, are actuated by any settled principle against buying and reading books. They do, as a matter of fact, buy handsomely printed and bound "subscription" sets; buy them, we hold, with a full intention of reading some day. But so many other things must be done that the day never comes. The families who read are the fairly educated of the middle class—the families of lawyers, clergymen, teachers, doctors, and the like. They cannot afford to give many and expensive dinner parties; they cannot go to the theatre often; they actually have time to look at a book now and then. This is one reason why the rapid increase in our wealth does not mean a vastly greater demand for books. The people who get rich are by that very event swept into a circle of pleasure seekers who have not a moment for reading. They are so busy gratifying their physical senses that they are unaware even of the existence of their minds.

Undoubtedly there are, none the less, many women who have never given a thought to any civic duty. Many intelligent women honestly disapprove of woman suffrage. Still other women believe they are entitled to vote if they wish, but can see under present conditions only a multiplicity of votes to be gained, with no resulting advantage. All this is apart from the question whether woman suffrage is the greatest reform that can come to the world, insists the Boston Transcript. Just one point is certain—all women are no more Hypatias than they are Cleopatras. What is more, they know it. There are many women who are interested in their country and their kind, women responsive to the best in the arts and the humanities, women who live and love and serve their fellow-men, who yet are, if the truth be told, bored by the clamor over suffrage.

Ambassador Bryce pleased the graduates—old and young—at Madison, Wis., by speaking of their institution as standing in the front rank of American state universities. He spoke of the newness of such institutions in the world, and the interest they have for inquiring strangers in the United States. He was glad to learn that in the University of Wisconsin the college of liberal arts had as many students as all other departments put together. "That is as it should be," he said. "The study of the liberal arts fits men to profit by the teaching they will receive from other colleges. They will be all the better chemists, or engineers, or lawyers, or bankers, because they have received a training in scientific theory or in language or literature, which has given them a true outlook over the field of knowledge."

England was rather in advance of America, admits the Springfield Republican, in demanding honest names for drugs and articles of food, and a recent heavy penalty has dealt a serious blow to the profitable traffic in spurious Havana cigars. The stale trick was resorted to of adding a qualifying word: "Habana rivals," the cigars were called, with "rivals" in small print, and it was contended that the meaning was not that they rivaled Havanas in merit. But this excuse did not appeal to the court. The new movement for honesty in trade is incidentally an educational movement for the honest use of the English language. Much perverted ingenuity has gone to the invention of deceptive phrases, and to get rid of such quibbles is a sturdy upward step in commercial ethics.

VACATION TRIPS.

All Day Excursions to Interesting Places in Casco Bay.

Persons familiar with Casco bay declare that the most interesting scenery lies in the most eastern section and assert that the natural grandeur of the view from the mouth of the beautiful New Meadows river to the picturesque Gurnet bridge is not surpassed by any locality in the country. Here the highest land in the entire bay is to be found, and the "forest primeval" and "deep tangled wilderness" of the poet literally prevails. To some these few miles of wilderness, pierced by the beautiful river, might seem prosaic but to those who believe that "every manner of green-wood is a true land of fairy," the crowding fir, spruce and pine simply gives spur to the imagination and makes a sail through this part of the bay an enjoyable journey. The Casco Bay & Harpswell Lines offer a daily excursion down Casco bay and up the beautiful New Meadows river to the famous Gurnet bridge and hundreds of tourists and sightseers are met on these delightful trips through the Land of Vacation. The steamer leaves Custom House wharf every morning at 9 o'clock and reaches the Gurnet at 12.30. Shore dinners of an excellence that has made this resort famous are ready at the Gurnet house on the arrival of the excursionists. The return trip starts at 2 o'clock and reaches the city at 5.30 p. m.

Splendid all day trips can also be made to South Harpswell, Bailey's and Orrs Islands. The palatial steamer Machigonne conveys the excursionists to these charming resorts, leaving the city every day at 9.45 a. m. Matinee sails to the same place leave Custom House wharf every afternoon at 2.15 p. m. These delightful trips cover 50 miles and are largely patronized by sightseers.

The most attractive course in Casco bay in the opinion of many travelers is the one traversed by the steamer to Harpswell Center. The route is through the inner bay, along Falmonth Foreland and the South Freeport shore. Stops are made at South Freeport, Casco Castle, Cousins, Littlejohns, Bibbers and Birch Islands and Main point.

A Frightful Void.

I have been young and beautiful; I have tasted many pleasures; I have been universally beloved. At a more advanced age I have passed years in the intercourse of talent and wit. Yet I solemnly protest to you that all conditions leave a frightful void.—Mme. De Maintenon.

Littlejohn's I.

Mrs. Mary Simmons Hunnewell.

The many visitors and residents of the island were extremely grieved to learn of the death of their neighbor, Mrs. Mary Simmons Hunnewell, who passed away at the cottage of her daughter, Mrs. Kate H. Prescott of Boston, last Thursday, after an illness of six weeks. Simple, but effective funeral services were held at which Mrs. Hunnewell's only son, Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell of Reading, Mass., officiated. The casket was covered with native wild flowers. As a special mark of respect the old flag so loved by the deceased was at half mast before the cottage. After the funeral the body was removed to Boston, where it was laid at rest in Forest Hills cemetery. Mrs. Hunnewell, who died in her seventy-sixth year leaves one sister, Mrs. Sarah M. Fullerton, her senior by six years and two other children, Mrs. Eleanor M. Morton of Newton, and Mrs. Amy T. Willis of Dorchester.

Mr. Frank E. Dickerman recently returned from Bar Harbor in his beautiful yacht "Minna," where he was accompanied by Senator George Butler of Boston and Mrs. Dickerman, on an extensive cruise. Robert Dickerman, their young son, is spending the summer at Dr. Henderson's camp in Chatham, N. H., and reports that he is having a fine vacation.

A large party from South Framingham, Mass., left the island last Saturday, after a most enjoyable stay here. They are: Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cook and daughter, Emma; Mrs. S. J. Kittredge and daughter, Lizzie and Mildred; Mrs. Eva Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller. On Thursday the party had a very pleasant cruise to Mere Point and among the islands in Captain Sawyer's launch.

Mr. F. C. Underhill of South Framingham and his family and guests Mr. H. T. Fuller of South Framingham, and Miss Theresa Cavanaugh of Ashland, Me., who have been spending a most delightful three weeks at the Alpine cottage returned to their homes last Saturday.

On Tuesday the gentlemen of the South Framingham party made a deep-sea fishing trip in Captain Sawyer's sloop and met with fine luck, bringing in a catch of forty-six fish. Mr. Frank W. Underhill was high-liner, with his catch of a ten pound cod. The other members of the party were: R. H. Elkins, Wm. J. Haynes, Thomas N. Haynes, Harold W. Miller, Edward W. Fuller, and O. D. Cook.

On Monday, July 13th, Miss Doris E. Hicks, who is spending the summer at "Lyndehurst" cottage, celebrated her ninth birthday with a party, which took the form of a picnic in the woods. Those present were Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Dunn, Miss Lena Holden, Gladys, Gwendolyn and Martha Dunn, all of "Idewildy" cottage; Miss Nellie Jones of Portland, Master Malcolm L. Munroe of the "Glover" cottage, Mr. and Mrs. H. Seavey, grandparents of Miss Doris, Mrs. Hicks and Master Carlton Hicks. The afternoon passed very pleasantly with games, recitations and singing. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Louise King of Boston, has arrived at the Kingston cottage for the summer. Mrs. T. H. Kingston, who returned to her home in Melrose for a week, is expected to rejoin her family in a few days.

Miss G. M. Featherstone of Boston is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reading at the Hill Crest cottage.

Miss Louise Spear of Melrose, Mass., is spending a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Spear.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Drinan of Cambridge, with their infant daughter, Helen, are the guests of Mr. Samuel Coulson of Cambridge, for two weeks. Mr. Coulson is also entertaining his brother, Mr. Walter Coulson, and the latter's wife of Lawrence, who arrived last Friday. They are accompanied by Miss McMahon of this city.

Mrs. P. J. Darlington and her party from the Gray cottage with several guests from the hotel enjoyed a very pleasant exploring trip about the islands last Monday in Landlord G. H. Hamilton's motor cruiser "Esther," as guests were Mrs. Johnston and her children, Miss M. D. Andrews, Miss L. A. Chapin and Miss Bosc.

Mr. Sidney T. Callowhill of Boston will be at his cottage, the "Log Cabin," through August, and will give lessons in water colors and also china decorating during the month.

Cousin's Island

Services were held at the Cousin's Island chapel a week ago last Sunday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. A. H. Stanton of Yarmouth preached, and the church was well filled. Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell of Reading officiated at the organ and Mrs. G. H. Hamilton sang a solo, "Face to Face," in a very effective manner.

Mrs. H. J. Currier of Bangor is the guest of Mrs. W. F. Prime at the "Avalon" cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gear of Loganport, Indiana, with their daughter, Helen, are staying at the "Firglade" cottage with Mrs. Gear's mother, Mrs. H. C. Thornton. Mrs. O. Brine of Newton, Penn., is also a guest at the Firglade cottage.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Gear, Mrs. O. Brine, Mrs. W. H. Colson, and Mrs. L. E. Colson of the Ridge House, made a trip to the New Meadows Inn by way of Freeport. They returned by steamer in the afternoon and had a most enjoyable outing.

Mr. Edwin J. Hamilton of Somerville joined his children last Saturday at the family cottage, "The Maples" for a few days' stay.

Mr. S. K. James and daughter, Alice, from East Boston, are the guests of Mr. E. M. Pierce of Medford Hillside. Mr. A. C. Whittemore, West Somerville, of the Samuel Ward Co., Boston, is also enjoying a stay with his brother, Mr. E. M. Pierce.

Misses Cora and Marie Duke of Richmond, Va., are guests at the Ridge House for two weeks. Mr. Walter Stevens, who is engaged in surveying a tract of land on Littlejohn's Island also arrived at the Ridge House last Tuesday, for a few days' stay.

Mrs. R. E. Williams of England has left for Digby, Nova Scotia, where she will continue her vacation.

Birch Island

The U. S. Revenue Cutter Androscogin on her maiden trip dropped anchor in the bay Sunday afternoon.

Misses Margaret Kennedy, Dorothy and Mildred Wyman, Eva Smith, Emily Bell, Vera and Bertha Atkinson and Grace Hill, Messrs. Charles Johnson, C. F. MacDonald, Jr., William Walker, and Walter Pemberton, all sojourners on the island, went out in boats to view the neat cutter. They were invited aboard and shown each nook and cranny by the courteous First Lieutenant H. H. Wolf. Capt. G. C. Carmine gave a right royal welcome. The captain is from Maryland and extended the glad hand to his neighbors, the Virginia maids. He illustrated true Southern hospitality, treating the merry group to souvenir banners, autographs, cigars, cake and—repas. Taps were sounded at nine, signal lights unmasked over the water to the returning party. Monday morning at eight, with flying colors, the Androscogin weighed anchor for Squirrel Island expecting to return Wednesday. A number of snap-shots were taken by summer visitors aboard small craft in the bay.

Miss Margaret Kennedy gave a wist party at the Ward cottage. Mr. Everett Alden got the booby prize, while Mr. Pemberton made the highest score.

Mr. Edward Thompson gave a complimentary recital to a few friends in the shady spruce grove. This made an effective setting to his rendition of "Hiawatha." Mr. Thompson has gone to Boston to fill professional engagements.

"The Queer Family," twelve of the young people of Birch Island left on Thursday morning boat for a day's outing. They did Brunswick and the college. Bath, New Meadows Inn, where they had dinner; Merry-meeting Park, and climbed the tower of Casco castle.

Tuesday evening there was a successful candy-pull at the Wyman cottage, followed by dancing. The occupants of Camp Nowhere invited a few of their friends to help eat a fish chowder prepared by the men.

Mr. Willis Baker of Brunswick visited the campers from Monday until Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Kilham and daughter Jane went to Portland Monday. Mr. Pratt left for Boston the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent left for their home in Lewiston, Monday.

Mr. G. W. Gilmore of Brooklyn, N. Y., paid a hasty call at the farmhouse Saturday.

Mr. Trow of Arlington, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Seaver and son of Allston are recent arrivals at the farmhouse.

Misses Ruth and Bertha and Mr. Ray Hayward of Auburn, Me., arrived Wednesday.

Miss Hattie M. Wyman has come with her nieces Frances, Cora and Elizabeth Wyman, for the rest of the summer.

Mr. Everett Alden, known as the "Imp," after a two weeks' visit at his aunt's, Mrs. C. F. MacDonald, is now visiting his uncle, Mr. Harley Alden, at Freeport.

Saturday a party consisting of Misses Eva Smith, Emily Felt and Dorothy Wyman and Messrs. Charles Johnson, Ray Hayward and C. F. MacDonald, Jr., dressed in oilskins, braving the inclement weather, started for South Freeport. Off Bustin's Island the engine refused to work and after three hours of tinkering, the Maquott towed them back.

Miss Booker and her guest, Miss Emily Felt arrived Thursday.

Prof. H. Carleton Smith of Harvard and family, visited Mrs. Ward, Friday.

Mr. C. F. MacDonald, Jr., leaves for Boston Thursday to attend the National Dental Convention where he is to demonstrate some research work.

Messrs. William Walker and Walter Pemberton broke camp Monday. Next week Mr. Walker will attend the Knights of Pythias convention in Boston.

Mr. Pemberton is to camp at Plum Island, Mass.

Extremes meet. A house in St. Augustine, built in 1655, has been turned into a garage.

South Harpswell

At the annual business meeting of the Harpswell Yacht club held last Wednesday evening the same officers were re-elected who have served so capably the interests of the club for the past two seasons. The officers are: Mr. L. H. Spaulding, commodore; Mr. C. P. Sherman, vice-commodore; Miss Annie Packard, treasurer; Mr. John P. Thomas, secretary; Mr. Osceola Currier, fleet captain; Dr. A. E. Austin, fleet surgeon.

No other important business was transacted, but plans for the annual yacht races, open to outside boats, were proposed. These will probably take place during the second and third weeks of August.

Commodore L. H. Spaulding has gone on a week's cruise to Bar Harbor and along the eastern coast in his fine yacht, the Sheerwater II. He is accompanied by Mr. M. Hill of Boston and Mr. O. C. Currier of the Auburn colony.

Mr. Jack Thomas of Hurdicane Ridge left on Tuesday to attend a house party at Lake Champlain, New York.

Miss Harriet N. Hobson is the guest of Mrs. L. H. Spaulding. Miss Hobson's home is in Portland and she will remain in Harpswell for a month.

Mrs. A. A. Couillard and Mrs. A. A. Silsby of Bath are spending a week with Mrs. J. H. Peterson. Mr. Peterson and daughter, Nellie, have returned to their home in Brunswick, but will return to Harpswell in a few days.

Mr. J. A. Steele arrived from Lexington on Sunday to be the guest of Miss G. A. Bird on Hurricane ridge for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. White and family came down from New Meadows to spend Sunday with Mr. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan White, at the Linwood cottage.

The children are Nannie, Dorothy, Clarence and Leon, and the trip was made in the family launch "Unita."

Mr. W. H. White and wife also spent Sunday at the "Linwood," making the trip from Bath in their launch "Nina."

Mrs. Jordan White is entertaining Mrs. O. G. Douglass of Lewiston, and Miss Eva F. Buker, who is a teacher in the Brooklyn Normal Training school.

On Tuesday, Aug. 4th, Mrs. White will entertain the Baptist Ladies' Missionary society in the "Linwood cottage," on Highland avenue at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all the residents and visitors.

Miss Helen Spaulding returned to Ash Point on Sunday after a week's visit with friends in Portland.

Dr. Wheeler of Harvard university who has been spending the past month here, has left for New York City, where he will pursue work in connection with Harvard college.

Dr. Dahlgren of Princeton university, who is spending the summer at the Johnson cottage, is very much pleased with the attractions of this beautiful location and plans to return next season.

Dr. Johnson, who is a thorough yachtsman, having inherited his love for the sea from his grandfather, Admiral Watson, intends to purchase a large yawl from which he will derive much pleasure next summer.

Mrs. W. A. Fitts entertained Mr. Frank J. Bellis of Hudson, Mass., on Wednesday. Mr. Bellis, who is spending his vacation in a tour of the eastern coast, is connected with the department store of W. A. Fitts in Medford, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bean and daughter Delm arrived on Tuesday at the home of R. M. Strout for a week's stay.

Mrs. George Richardson gave a dance at her house for the younger set of her neighborhood last Thursday evening. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the many guests present.

About one hundred and twenty-five guests sat down to dinner at the dining hall of the Auburn colony last Sunday noon, including many guests who had come down to Harpswell for the day to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conant and Mr. Frank Conant with two friends from Lewiston came down Sunday to look over the Conant cottage which is being remodelled.

A very successful hop was enjoyed last Saturday evening by the young people of the colony. A number of guests from the neighborhood were invited in for the affair and music was furnished by an orchestra from Portland.

Dr. Arthur Clark of New Portland and Mr. Russell Lynn of Strong, Me., came Thursday to visit friends in the colony over Sunday. The auto trip of 108 miles was made in remarkably quick time.

Mr. Fillebrown of Newton, Mass., is a guest at the Baxter cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. William Odell of Boston are the guests of Mr. J. A. Blake at the colony.

The colony baseball team will play the Freeport nine tomorrow afternoon on the local diamond.

Miss Lizzy O'Connell of Lewiston with her mother and small brother, Master John O'Connell, has arrived at the Burke cottage for a week's stay.

When in Portland visit R. S. Davis Co., the house furnishers.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCarthy of Dorchester, Mass., are spending their vacation with friends at South Harpswell.

Miss Alice Hayes and a friend from Haverhill, Mass., arrived last Saturday for a two weeks' stay with friends here.

The many friends of James H. Lubee regret that he has been confined to his home by illness during the spring and summer. His condition is reported as very serious.

The crew of the schooner Lochinvar, Capt. John Toothaker, realized $80 each for the two weeks' trip swordfishing from which they returned Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. E. G. Pinkham and her sister, Miss Lillian Hamilton were in Portland Thursday. Miss Hamilton is of Lewiston, formerly of South Harpswell.

Peaks Island

Mr. Francis V. O'Neill, who is spending the summer at Peaks Island, recently returned from a visit to St. Albans, Vt., where he was the guest of the Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan. On Monday Mr. O'Neill left for Aroostook for an extended vacation and expects to be gone for about two weeks, after which he will return to Peaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McClellan have as their guest their niece, Miss Nellie Mae McClellan of Somerville, Mass. Miss McClellan is a member of this year's graduating class of the Somerville high school, and formerly attended the Portland public schools, at which time she resided at Munjoy hill. Mrs. Frank Willey and Mrs. Marion Flanders of Lindenville, Vt., are guests of Mrs. F. M. Clement at her summer home here. Mr. Clement, who is manager of the Lake Huron Co., a large gas and oil concern, left Peaks on Saturday on a three weeks' business trip to Manitoulin Island, Ontario, where the company is located.

Dr. George A. Derry and Miss Lucille Spinney of Westborough, Mass., were week end guests at the Burystone with Mrs. G. C. Ricker. Miss Spinney is leading woman of the Majestic theatre at Indianapolis, and was a member of the Gem company six seasons ago. Her many friends welcome her on returning to Peaks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher of New York were entertained on Tuesday of last week by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald at their summer home on Torrington's Point. During their visit here they enjoyed a trip to Poland Springs in Mr. MacDonald's automobile.

Mrs. L. E. Greenslit, nee Nellie Moulton, of Worcester, Mass., is to be entertained during the month of August by her sister, Mrs. Warren H. Chase of Welch street.

Mrs. William Black of Winnipeg, who is registered at the Ottawa house on Cushing Island, was the guest of Alice M. Mitchell at Torrington's Point over Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brackett and children, who are summering at Torrington's Point, are visiting relatives at Waldoboro, Me., for a short time.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Church of the Messiah of Portland, held a fair and sale on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the summer home of Mrs. F. N. Calderwood at Trefethen's Landing. This is a new undertaking for the residents of the island, and it is hoped that it will be largely attended in order that a good sum may be raised.

Misses Ruth and Margaret Wilmut of Portsmouth, N. H., are being entertained at the summer home of their aunt, Mrs. Frank Howarth of Island ave.

Mrs. Raymond Davis of Fort Clyde, Me., is visiting with her brother, Mr. Emory Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hunt, who have been residing at Oak Lawn all this season, will leave for Buffalo, N. Y., this week, where Mr. Hunt has accepted a fine position, which will require that he locate at that place.

Mrs. George Randall of Wellington, Mass., has arrived and is now comfortably settled at the Sea Shell cottage for the remaining part of the summer.

Mrs. Charles W. Morse and his two little sons of Salem, Mass., have returned home after spending a delightful vacation of two weeks' duration on the island as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Oakes Burke. Dr. Morse accompanied by Dr. John Valentine of Danvers, Mass., were at Peaks for a few days, and the time was pleasantly spent at motoring and also a trip to Gurnet Bridge, where a shore dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. George Burnham opened her summer cottage here last week, and is to be joined by Mr. Burnham and son during the month of August.

Take a trip to Bailey Island, the ocean washed gem of Casco Bay. Combination shore dinners at the Ocean View Hotel.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Chase entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday at their delightful summer home on Welch avenue, after which Mrs. Chase's uncle, Mr. Richard E. Chase, took the party for a sail through the lower bay on his trim yacht, the "Bobolink." Those in the party were Mr. James Trot of the custom house, and wife and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. George Swett of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald, Torrington's Point, and Mrs. Chase's mother, Mrs. D. W. Moulton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Powell of Malden, Mass., are to occupy Camp Fairmount for the coming three weeks.

The Tigers of Portland were scheduled to line up against the Peaks Island nine on Saturday, but owing to the rainy weather the game was called off. The fans were expecting a good game, as there is much rivalry between the teams.

Mrs. A. E. Hooper and son Everett of Hammondon, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baker for the month of August at their summer home at Ryefield Cove.

The many friends of Mrs. John G. Ford of Welch street will be pleased to hear that she is rapidly recovering from her serious illness.

The Fern Park club house on the back shore was the scene of a merry gathering last week when the W. W. Whist club was entertained by two of its members.

Mr. Charles Watkins of Summit, N. J., who has been visiting with his daughter at Bailey Island, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Totten of Peaks on his return. Mr. Watkins is one of the best known wholesale druggists of New York City, and is a cousin of Mr. Totten.

The Somali soldier keeps himself in perfect condition on a diet of nuts. He eats only 20 a day, but they are of a very nourishing kind.

Bustins Island

Mr. Harry Wiggins is a welcome visitor to the island once more. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Austin Bittenbender in the death of his mother, which occurred last week.

Mr. Taft of Philadelphia and Mr. Brainard of Somerville, Mass., returned from a cruise on the "Iris" last Friday. They report a very enjoyable time.

The Wychmere boys, who went on a canoe trip last Tuesday are expected home some time this week. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Nichols are at their cottage, "The Nautilus," for a few weeks. They have as their guests, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Warren, Jr., and Mrs. Matthews. Miss Alma and Master Chester are enjoying Bustins' as they always did. Services were held in the grove Sunday, Dr. J. G. B. Pidge of Philadelphia, preached. The singing by the Misses Pillsbury of Somerville was much enjoyed. There were more people than ever before at the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Newhall had as a guest during the week at their charming cottage on Bustins Island, Mr. J. S. Keeler of Boston. Mr. Keeler is well known in journalism, having been associated with the Boston Herald for about thirty years as railroad editor. He declares Bustins Island to be the bright particular gem in the constellation of emerald jewels that dot the waters of Casco Bay.

Mrs. A. S. Faulkner of Augusta, Me., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Newhall.

At Bustins' Island recently, many choice lots of land have been put on sale, which will make ideal sites for summer cottages. They are all located near the steamboat landing and have every requirement for being the best on the island. Investigation of the same may be had by inquiring of M. E. Patterson on the island.

Those at Camp Whittier for the season are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell, Everett Russell, Miss L. C. Brackett, Miss Marion C.
